Dedication

BOOKS HAVE BEEN dedicated to the publishers, the printers, the copy boys, the authors' dogs, and the authors' wives. However, we have never seen any dedicated to the reader. We feel that the reader is more important than any of these. The reader pays for the book and publicizes it. In this book you readers are the characters; so we dedicate this book to you.

Foreword

Old shoes, sooner or later, will be put away. So will your high school memories. Although the shoes are put in an attic or an out-of-the-way place for storage, they will turn up again. We hope the same will be true of your 1953–54 high school memories when you refer to the pages of this book.

Administration

THE 1954 SCROLL STAFF has attempted to record, through representative pictures and descriptive copy, some of the memories of the school year of 1953–54. In looking through its pages you will recall with satisfaction both the tedious and the pleasant memories of the last year.

Our sincere congratulations to the staff and to its advisors, Mr. Fitzgerald and Miss Ealy, for the fine work they have done. In later years your contribution will remind the students of the host of friends and pleasant times which this year in Boone Senior High has afforded them.

CLASSES

Footsteps Through the Year

SEPTEMBER—

3/School bells are ringing as we begin another year at B. H. S.

10/What's this we see? Don't be alarmed! It's not creatures from outer space. Just the Pep Club girls on their annual initiation.

11/Our first game and victory of the 1953 football season was held with North High of Des Moines.

14–16/Work, work, as again those dreaded state tests come around.

OCTOBER—

6/We have our first character education assembly of the year and look forward to the remaining ones.

8/The bonfire and snake dance start our Homecoming off with a big bang! Running through the streets we tied up all traffic and ended in the lot behind Goeppinger Field. There we had our bonfire which was one of the biggest ever.

9/Again the alumni visit us and we have our annual homecoming game, which was a success with Queen Andrea Dorman reigning.

17/We are host to girls from all over Iowa at the Y-teens' conference.

22/Four lucky students are pleasantly surprised to receive the Goeppinger Award. Congratulations to Sue Grant, Wally Arringdale, Helen Clarke, and Darrell Kruse.

23/Boone students cheer as we break Newton's two-year winning streak, and defeat them 14 to 7.

NOVEMBER—

6/Teachers' Convention at I. S. C.; no school.

10/Fall play, 'Curtain Going Up.'

26, 27/Thanksgiving vacation.

DECEMBER—

7/Assembly: Mr. Jones.

11/Christmas concert.

21/Christmas vacation begins.

MARCH—

26/A good crowd enjoys the band concert, as we did at an assembly in the afternoon.

31/Speech groups travel to Drake where 'Ile' and 'Mooncalf Mugford' will be put on by both senior high and junior college students.

APRIL—

3/B. H. S. track team participates in events at Iowa City for state indoor track meet.

10/Closely following the indoor meet are the Valley Relays at Des Moines.

13/Boone High welcomes Fort Dodge and Ames to the Tri-City Band Festival.

16–19/We get a four-day vacation, so everyone can relax and enjoy Easter.

21, 22/The senior high under the direction of Mr. McCarten present a fine performance of 'The Robe.'

23, 24/Music and water, combined with synchronized swimming, talent, and hard work go into 'Kalendar Kapers,' presented by the Dolphin Club.

MAY—

4/Our chorus travels to Ames for the Tri-City Festival and the Toreador Relays are held here.

7/Dancing, music, any happy people spotlight the Junior-Senior Prom. The theme for this year was 'The Gay Nineties,' and all seemed to enjoy themselves.

21/Laughter, mixed with seriousness, from the auditorium tells us that this is Senior Class Day.

27/The school seems bare as we are minus the Senior Class who are dismissed for the last time.

JUNE—

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

THIS YEAR the Senior Class officers were working on their program for Senior Class Day, in which the seniors entertain the senior high school student body at an assembly and later have their own picnic. Different committees were appointed for work on this project and went forward on their plans for a successful Senior Class Day.

The plans for Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises were also completed, and the speakers were contacted for these occasions, rounding out a busy schedule for the officers of the Senior Class.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

WITH PLANS for the Junior-Senior Prom uppermost in their minds, the Junior Class officers were very busy this year. The committees were appointed for various jobs in connection with the prom: refreshment, decorations, and orchestra. These committees worked steadily to provide an entertaining and most enjoyable evening for the graduating class of 1954.

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS

AT THE FIRST of the school year, the Sophomore Class, under the direction of their officers and sponsors, held a dance in the high school gym for all members of the Sophomore Class and their dates. An enjoyable time was 'had by all' those who attended.

As in previous years, one of the most important jobs of the officers and students of the Sophomore Class was the decorating of the auditorium for the Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises.

Student Council

"WE WANT THE FACTS, just the facts, ma'am." Yes, we need the facts in order to improve Boone High's Student Council. We of the Council feel much has been accomplished towards this goal. This year Boone's Student Council drew up a new constitution which provides for a new membership system and a calendar of events to be sponsored by the group. The new membership plan provides for three of the members to serve an extra term. It is hoped that with several experienced members, the group will start action with a 'bang' in the fall. Able officers this year were Don Jaschke, president; Jim Brannon, vice-president; Ruth Ann McCall, secretary; Joyce McPherson, treasurer; and Bob Barry, sergeant at arms. Mr. Lovin acted as advisor. Remember, the Student Council is your organization. Through the activities of the council it is possible for the students to voice their opinions. Use of this privilege will make a strong foundation-like organization made up of students who take pride in a job well done.

They Fill

There once was a shoe
Filled to the brim
With Boone High's juniors
Full of vigor and vim.

Two peppy pals
With bright happy faces
Are Karen A. and Barb C.,
Both in their places.

Mike Bell and Gary Irvine
Sitting on the toe,
They see two girls
And away they go!

Tons of talent
Are packed in this shoe—
Carita and Wally:
There's more—that's just two.

Brains are abounding
In this shoe of 'Fifty-five;
Irene, Helen, Carolyn
On A's they do thrive.

Who answers all questions
And all teachers outwits?
None other than Denny
Or David 'Fitz.'

Dorothy and Jacque
Are the artists of this clan.
Another gal who's mighty good
Is Johnston—that's Jan.

Of course there's a hoop
On the back of the shoe
Where Gus and Kenny
Tip in a few.

A swish through the basket
From someone much shorter;
Who else could it be
But our own Mary Courter?

The shoe is filled
With musicians galore.
Judy and Donna
Now take an encore.

Pauline, Cay, Jeannette,
All good on their fiddles.
What group do they play in?
This is one of those riddles.

John! Marcha!
That's getting stale;
We have a new one—
It's Marcha and Dale.

Shirley and Jerry
On the roof of the shoe,
Are they star-gazing?
Who would—would you?

Tom S., John, and Clyde—
They're on the ball, these three.
They shoot and score and plenty more
For the Junior Varsity.

Our Shoes

In football we've many—
Dave Fisher and Bill back up the line,
While Frank and Gale
Really do fine.

While all of their fans
Are down on their shins,
A pass from Gary to Jack
For the touchdown that wins!

There on the side lines
Are Janice and Mart;
Good-looking and peppy
They make cheering an art.

There's Karen Ingalls
Sitting by the door;
Looks, brains, talent—
Who could ask for more?

Tra la, tra la,
Whom do we hear?
Janice, 'Chuck,' and Merrill;
Their notes ring clear.

Colleen Duncan
Is a real nice gal;
Friendly to all,
She is everyone's pal.

Lanky Don Williams
Is the 'card' of the class.
He keeps them all laughing,
Each lad and each lass.

"Speech! Speech!" they cry.
The fans are rarin'
To hear from our orators,
Don, Jim, and Karen.

The daring young man
Flies through the air.
It's Larry Williams, pole-vaulting,
Gay—debonair!

Kaye, Joanie, Mickey—
Junior class beauties;
La Vonne and Marlys
Are also cuties.

Our de luxe shoe
Has a pool at the back
Where Carol, Sue, Carolyn
Swim like ducks—quack! quack!

"The most—to say the least"
We all agree.
Rinker and Schulz,
'Tops' in personality.

"Save the best to the last"
Conceited?—not very;
We wrote this poem.
Signed: Barb, Sal, and Mary.

Goeppinger Awards

HARD WORK AND STUDY paid off this fall for Suzanne Grant, Helen Clarke, Darrell Kruse, and Wallace Arringdale, winners of the Goeppinger Awards. The awards consist of ten-dollar bills or gold medals. Qualifications for the winners are excellence in conduct, general attitude toward school, and praiseworthy and outstanding service for the school and community. Eligible students must be in the upper ten per cent of their class and must have attended and completed four semesters of Boone Junior High School. The students to whom the awards were given were determined by the superintendent, the high school principal, and the junior high faculty.

Future Footsteps

Here we are
In the Sophomore Class
Predicting our future
By our past.

Our future president
And his cabinet to be
Are Bob, J., and Elna,
Our officers three.

The All-American
Football team of 1964
Will consist of Larry, Don, and Wally.
Who could ask for any more?

These kids will be chorus girls;
They're cheerleaders now.
'Korky' and Sue
Are really a wow!

As professors and scholars
We are sure you'll agree
That no one could beat
Marie, Darrell, and Gary G.

In the Philharmonic
By chance you might see
Such all-time greats
As Dick, Mary Lynn, and Barb B.

These girls will be models,
Men, they've got glamour.
For Carol and Sonja
All the boys clamor.

Some day soon
On a radio show,
Be listening for the voices
Of Rhoda, John, or Joyce O.

On the first professional
Girls' basketball team,
Ann and 'Romey'
Their B. H. S. fame will redeem.

As talented poets
We wouldn't do so well,
But we did our best—
Judy O. and Joyce L.
