

Class of 1955 holds reunion

The 1955 graduating classes of Boone High School and Sacred Heart recently gathered together for their 45th class reunion.

Friday night the classmates reminisced at the Tic Toc Supper Club. Saturday morning they enjoyed an outdoor breakfast served to them at Herman Park Pavilion. Following their meal, they went on a bus tour of new developments and historical sites in Boone and Boone County.

The Boone Golf and Country Club played host Saturday evening to the group for a buffet dinner and program. The Rev. Gerald Zanker of Marysville, Mo., gave a tribute to the deceased classmates and Chaplain David Fitzimmons of Wilmington, Del., led the prayer before dinner.

The night was filled with entertainment. The Master of Ceremonies for the evening were John Nelson and Thomas Rinker. Mike Bell presented a '50s Boone High trivia quiz. Two Boone County Afghans were presented as door prizes. Pat and Bud Sternquist gave a ballroom dancing demonstration and the rest of the evening was spent informally.
