Class of 1955 gathers for 60th class reunion

The Boone High School and Sacred Heart Class of 1955 held their 60th class reunion June, 26-27, 2015

Friday evening was spent at Calmer & Co. reunited 69 classmates and spouses.

Breakfast was enjoyed Saturday morning at the Boy Scout Cabin in McHose Park with visiting and more picture taking. Saturday afternoon, Mark Ashby gave the group an excellent and informative tour of the new Boone High School.

The Cedar Pointe Golf Club was the gathering place for 74 classmates and spouses Saturday evening. Rev. Jack Becker led a prayer before dinner and desserts were enjoyed by all.

Tom Rinker, class president, held a short business meeting, a financial report was given and it was decided to donate money to "Shop with a Cop." The class voted to meet again in three years. The rest of the evening was spent reminiscing of the good old days and of the old Boone High School. Those classmates attending Friday evening but unable to attend Saturday were Kay (Butler) Leitchliter and Marv, LaVon (Groth) Olander, Bev (Richards) Neely and David Fisher.
