

Sacred Heart Juniors Plan Trip to Denver

Mary Sue Rolfes, Annette Carroll, and Bernard Judge plan to attend the coming annual Rocky Mountain Catholic Youth Congress, which will be held at Denver, Colo., on November 21-23. Other juniors from Sacred Heart hope to attend this congress and take part in discussions of the problems which today face the youth of America.

Among the topics on the agenda of the Congress are: "How to Live Your Present Life Well," "How to Assure a Successful Future," "What We Can Do About Delinquency," and "How a Teenager Can Influence Others." These topics carry out the theme of the Congress, "Catholic Youths in Action."

Delegates are looking forward to the big social events, the Banquet, and the By-Line Ball which will be held at the famous Rainbow Ballroom in Denver.

Sacred Heart Ranks High In Mission Activities

Last year S.H.H.S. ranked 12th in the High Schools of the Diocese by donating $78.97 to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. The students also did C.S.M.C. work by donating clothing, canceled stamps, and Butternut Coffee strips to the missions.

It is the wish of his Excellency Bishop Mueller, that all High School students become members of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith and the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade.

The Society for the Propagation of the Faith was established by the Holy Father to insure alms for all the home and Foreign Missions throughout the world. In order to be a member the student pays 50c annual dues, and recites one Our Father, one Hail Mary, and the invocation, "St. Francis Xavier, pray for us," for the missions.

The C.S.M.C. serves as a complement to the Society, familiarizing students with the mission work of the Church. Membership dues 25c per annum, are sent directly to the Diocesan Director, Sioux City, Iowa.

Activities sponsored by the Holy Childhood Association of S.H. grade school included raffles and sale of Christmas seals, amounting to $203.82.

SACRED HEART WELCOMES NEW FACULTY MEMBERS

Sacred Heart School has two new faculty members: Sister Mary Robert Marie, and Sister Mary St. Natalie.

Sister Mary Robert Marie, now teaching fourth and fifth grades, comes to Boone from St. Callistus in Chicago, where she taught third and fourth grades.

The music department at Sacred Heart is now headed by Sister Mary St. Natalie. Sister has been teaching recently at Sacred Heart in Fort Dodge.

JUNIORS CHOOSE 'METEOR' STYLE FOR CLASS RINGS

Amid excitement and anticipation, the Juniors selected their class rings on September 26. In a field of six styles, "The Meteor" won overall approval.

The boys' immediate favorite in stones was black onyx, while the majority of girls decided on blue spinella.

The Juniors also voted to have the miraculous medal engraved inside their rings which will arrive shortly before Christmas.

"Frosh Good Sports" Say Senior Initiators

Crossing the threshold to high school can really become hard at times, at least it did for the Freshmen, who had to win their way across by singing, dancing, eating, and just by being good sports.

The afternoon of September 12, was off to a good start with delicious pizza from Manriquez's, pop and other refreshments being served to the noble Seniors. During the course of the afternoon the freshmen displayed many talents including lacing their shoes with noodles and pantomiming.

"I liked initiation because everyone was so kind and thoughtful, and no one would dare think of laughing at you." This was the general reaction of the Freshmen as they were called upon to tell why they liked initiation. The Seniors were very happy that the Freshmen had enjoyed themselves, but they felt that there was a bit of sarcasm in their reactions considering that the Freshmen were forced to do just about everything legal to make themselves uncomfortable.

All in all, the upperclassmen spent a very enjoyable afternoon making the newest members of S. H. H. S. go through their paces.

S.Q.T. TESTS REVEAL COLLEGE POTENTIAL

As the completion of their high-school education draws near, Juniors and Seniors are looking forward to winning scholarships to the college of their choice.

On October 21st "The Scholarship Qualifying Test," better known as the S.Q.T. Test, was given to 16 junior and seniors.

The faculty and students of Sacred Heart express sympathy:

To Father Macke on the death of his father.

To John D. Wilson, Class of '53 and Evelyn Wilson Jones, Class of '45, on the death of their father.

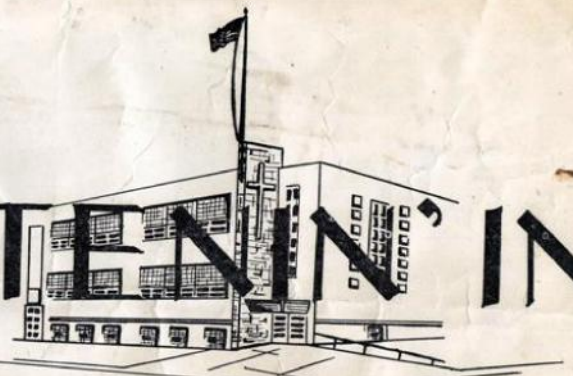

To Pat, Paul, Joellen Douromis, and

To Jim, Marvin, Mary Jo, Ronnie Cady, on the death of their grandfather.

To John Lacey, Class of '55, Joanna Lacey, Class of '56, and Michael Lacey, Class of '61, on the death of their mother.

To Gary Mullins on the death of his father.

Monsignor J. J. Ryan

Bishop Confers Honor On Builder of Parish

Pro Deo et Patria—for God and country—these words on the cornerstone of Sacred Heart School have, for fifty years, been the watch word of its builder, Msgr. J. J. Ryan.

In the Cathedral of the Epiphany, Sioux City, Ia., on Sept. 7, Bishop Mueller conferred the title of Right Reverend Monsignor on Father Ryan. This honor was bestowed as a reward to one who has given great service to God and his parishes.

One can see in Boone and in other places temporal monuments of Msgr. Ryan's service. The new school and convent are evident, but Msgr. Ryan has accomplished even greater things that will stand for all time in memory to him. These are the faith and devotion to God that he has instilled in his parishioners.

PTA ACQUIRES NEW BOOKS FOR GRADES

The Parent-Teachers Association has purchased the following books for Sacred Heart set of "Landmark" books for each room in the grades; a twenty volume set of "About Books" for the elementary and grammar grades; two sets of supplementary readers, and seat work material for the primary grades; a complete set of science books by Huntington for the 7th and 8th grades.

FIFTH-SIXTH GRADES START CITIZEN CLUB

The pupils of Grades Five and Six have organized the Young Citizens' Club and have elected the following officers: Catherine Briley, president; Tom Seiler, vice president; Paul Douromis, recording secretary; Linda Fitzgerald, corresponding secretary, Charles Bowman and Susan Keller, sergeant-at-arms.

For various activities the club members have set up interest committees. Catherine Briley, president, has appointed as chairmen the following: David Myers, hobbies; Jean Rinker, talent; Kevin Flanagan, science; Vicki Strain, social service; Mary Ann Davis, courtesy; Pat McCoy, literature. These chairmen form the cabinet of the president.

Two Families Register Six Each in Classes One through Twelve

The names, Keller and Fitzgerald, will be familiar for a good many years at Sacred Heart. Each of the two families has six members enrolled at Sacred Heart.

The eldest member of the Fitzgerald family is Karen, a Junior. Karen likes dancing, plays the piano, and would like to be a secretary.

Donna, in the 7th grade, likes social activities, dislikes history, and is looking forward to being a housewife.

Linda, in the 6th grade, dislikes geography, and has taken dancing lessons, but has decided on nursing as her career.

Jonelle, in the 5th grade, takes dancing lessons, and is very particular about her dress; she dislikes doing dishes.

Johnny, in the 3rd grade, says his favorite sport is horse-back riding, and his ambition is to be a doctor.

The youngest member of the Fitzgerald family at Sacred Heart is Laurie, in first grade. She likes school, especially catechism.

In addition to these six, the Fitzgeralds have three children at home—Jill, Brian, and Alice—who will carry on the family name at Sacred Heart.

As Mr. and Mrs. Keller are preparing for the graduation of their eldest daughter, Mary Kay, they are helping seven year old Phyllis adjust to her first year in grade school.

There are four other members of the Keller family attending Sacred Heart: Susan, in sixth grade, who likes pizza; Shirley, in seventh grade, who dislikes doing dishes; Ron, in eighth grade, who likes sports, and Patty, a sophomore, who dislikes curfews.

Two year old Michael remains at home, meaning that the name of Keller will be familiar for many years at Sacred Heart School.

State Exams Catch Unaware Students

Prolonged, strenuous, mysterious reactions hourly displayed at S.H.S. early in September as the students attempted to place little "eggs" in the correct "baskets." The Iowa Tests of Educational Development were being administered.

The exams, a series of nine, are designed to measure the educational growth and development of high school students. Each test lasted approximately an hour, but welcome breaks were enjoyed in between.

When the results of the tests are revealed, each student will receive a profile of his educational development which compares his progress with that of many other students of Iowa.

FISH RETURN TO SCHOOL AFTER SUMMER VACATION

After spending the entire summer away from school they are back in the 4th and 5th grade room, this year to be in charge of by Sister Mary Robert Marie. What are they? The FISH, of course. Sister Mary Baptiste left them with Joellen Douromis for the summer. Their vacation days were spent with other fish at Earl May's.

Bored At The Dances? — It May Be Your Fault!

By Ron Hopkins

For some reason it seems that, other than the Prom, Sacred Heart can no longer have a successful dance.

Everyone, of course, is anxious to lay the blame on someone else, but if each student studies this problem, he may find that the cause lies with himself.

Take, for example, the first complaint: no one goes to the dances. Perhaps, the best cure for this would be for all the complainers to attend, and take a friend. Another frequent complaint is that these dances are boring and no one has fun. Dancing can be lots of fun, but, of course, it won't be as long as students attend with this attitude. These dances can only be fun if we, students, make them that way.

If every student at S.H.S. would attend these dances with the right attitude, attendance would soon build up, boredom would fade out, and everyone would have lots of fun.

Participants in Sports Learn Cooperation, Leadership

By Janet Steuwerwald

Soon basketball will be in full swing and the games will be a source of interest and excitement to all concerned; however there are more serious reasons for having a sports program in high school.

When students participate in sports they learn to cooperate with others in achieving a single goal: a win; they learn what and how important it is to keep smiling even in defeat. They come to realize the value of physical exercise and drill in mastering the art of becoming physically fit; they find that leadership is essential; that without it nothing can be brought to the proper end.

Are these not sound ways of preparing for life? If participants would consider the importance of this training perhaps and appreciate what is being done for them.

Junior Activities Afford Practical Business Experience

By Tom Brown

The Juniors have been busy since the beginning of this school term working on an important phase of the Junior-Senior Prom — that of selling Christmas cards for the financing of the event.

A project such as this affords much to the students who take an active part in it. Not only do they learn business from their relations with customers but they also gain practice in handling of material.

A great deal of effort also goes into the decoration and arranging of the dance floor. Creative ability and plain intelligence play a big part in this job.

Undertakings of this kind are beneficial to students who are about to start their own careers for they give them opportunities for real and practical experience.

FASHIONS

"Flap backs" are taking over the role "ivy leagues" have played for so long. Ray Brown and Gary Mullins are pointing this out.

"Crew-necks are rating high this year," says Steve Chance. Following the crew-necks closely are the sleeveless cardigans like those which Joe Tornabane, Mike Lacey, and Ron Hopkins display.

One of the newest things out is the suit—show it, by Pat Duffy—this one is equipped with leather trim and flap back pockets—and what color? Antelope gray, of course.

Who's this walking down the hall? Why it's Jim Matt in black shirt, black trousers, and white sport coat—notice the belt buckle from Colorado!

Larry Conway wasn't thinking too much about clothes this year, but he did want it known that he got a new literature book, two new pencils, and a pair of shoe-strings which, much to his dismay, he can't wear because he has a pair of loafers.

Good news boys!—and all you girls too! Sacks and chemises are on the way out! Replacing them is a two-piece outfit called the BLOUSE — a skirt and matching bodice with flare back like the blue one Judy Shuster is wearing.

The CHEMISE bag is still here. Judy Loehrer, Pat Keller, Kathy Collison, and Judy Masterson are proving that daily. In case you haven't guessed by now the chemise is the long purse with two inches of chain at each end of the strap — the biggest thing since the Bucket.

Pleated skirts are back again — as bold and beautiful as ever — Kay Elsberry illustrates that fact with a lavender plaid. What about the attractive and flattering plaid skirts?—just ask Pat Brice, Susan Kane, and Kathy Wilson.

In sweaters, the latest fashion is the SHAGS like those worn by Linda Hopkins and the crew-necks still hold first place — Don't they Linda Hale, Rosemary Culver, and Janet Barger?

The newest color out is AUTUMN GLORY — a shade different from the standard BURNT ORANGE. Marcia Day shows her like for this color with a skirt and matching sweater; Annette Carroll has chosen a dress of this color.

Many girls at S.H.S. have decided to complete their winter outfits with a bracelet.

CHANGE IN STYLE OF CLOTHING

The beginning of the 58-59 school year has brought a change to Sacred Heart School. The boys of grades 9 through 12 are wearing other styles of trousers than ivys. Since the majority of the boys have Ivy Leagues, this change is being brought about without too much expense to students and parents.

Prayer and Sacrifice Are Marks of Catholicity

By Mary Sue Rolfes

We Catholic students have been taught the value of daily Mass and Holy Communion. We know it is the greatest gift man can receive, and the sacrifice of the Mass takes place every morning in our Church.

Why then are there so few participating? The only good excuses would be that Mass is too early or that the Church is too far away, but in truth the situation is the exact opposite, which proves that these excuses won't hold water!

Prayer strengthens our spiritual life and the sacrifice of gets builds Character. These actions and their effects should stand out in the life of a real Catholic.

Let's all become real Catholics and better members of the Mystical Body of Christ. Let's start the day right by attending Mass and receiving Holy Communion if possible.

Spartanscope

By Ed Dittmer

Every Tuesday and Thursday morning at 11 o'clock the boys at S.H.H.S. engage in the sport of football. Although Sacred Heart boys do not compete in interscholastic football, they do compete intramurally, usually organizing into two teams.

Turning from football to basketball, the Spartans open their third year of interscholastic basketball on November 4th against Perry (St. Pat's).

The coming year promises to be a big one for the Spartans. Losing but two men from the varsity squad puts the Spartans in good shape to have an exceptional season. If the Spartans play up to their capabilities they will be a team to watch.

The Sacred Heart Athletic Association has recently sent season tickets to all members of the parish in order to secure better attendance at all home games, and to finance basketball at S.H.H.S. We all know money doesn't grow on trees and the athletic association, I am sure, has found this out. Athletics cost money.

A major expenditure of the Athletic Association this year is payment for 12 warm up jackets, each costing $15. The Association plans to sponsor only one breakfast this season and is depending to meet expenses from the income from the Spartan practice sessions to date have been highly spirited affairs. The Spartans want to have a good season and think they can do it. Coach Jones commented on the second day of practice, that the team is starting where it left off last year. He also cited the fact that, for the first time since he has been coach at S.H.H.S., there are nine or ten players capable of winning positions on the starting five.

The fight for starting positions will add greatly to the progress of the team. If one player slacks off or is having a cold night, he can easily be replaced.

Senior Typists Assist Athletic Association

The Senior girls in Typing II spent a busy week in assisting the S. H. Athletic Association to prepare season tickets and letters to patrons. About 600 envelopes were addressed and mailed to every parishioner. It is hoped that the typists' work will contribute to a speedy payment of membership dues and sale of season tickets.

COOPER SHOWS STYLISH WARM-UP TOGS TO SQUAD

If style is important at all in winning basketball games, then the Spartans should do all right this season. They had their choice between two very stylish warm-up jackets, which were voted on at a meeting conducted by Jerry Cooper in the Junior and Senior room.

The style which was chosen is a white, cotton fleece, trimmed in blue. Around the neck and sleeves, the blue trim is shaped in a V. Short sleeves are the main feature of the jacket, which is latest in warm-up jackets.

The monogram for the back of the jacket was also voted on at the meeting. The economical value of using "Spartans" was pointed out and, of course, the boys chose it by an overwhelming vote.

CAGERS PRACTICE AS GAMES NEAR

Basketball practice is again in full swing, and on designated nights the boys can be seen heading for the gym with their little bags and their gym shoes. Inside the gym this is what goes on:

There's Jonesy prompting his charges to get those muscles loosened up. A group of "four minute milers" is working on what seems to them their thousandth lap around the gym. "Take heart, boys, that bit of practice will come in handy in the last long minutes of a hard and fast game," says the coach. Several Spartans are over in the corner attempting fifty push-ups. Several groans and the common lament, "Oh, why didn't I do some of this during the summer?" can be heard.

Speed and accuracy are the essentials under the far basket where some of the Jonesmen are practicing on the new warm up play. It looks pretty complicated but it's bound to make a good impression at the games.

If the Spartans keep up their fine work and call often on the old S.H.H.S. spirit, which has come up in almost impossible circumstances sometimes, it would seem that the basketball season will be a "scoring" success.

All Sing Hymns Of Praise From Cantate Omnes Books

Joyfully, each morning high school students sing the praises of God and our Blessed Mother from new Cantate Omnes hymn books. These books purchased recently contain many beautiful hymns, some of which are now being mastered by students.

"O God of Loveliness," "Salve Regina," "Soul of My Savior," "Ave Maria," and "Hail Holy Queen Enthroned Above" are the most popular among the students.

MARCIA DAY
Sodality Prefect and Pep Club President

New Pep Club Popular With Students

One of the most popular organizations at S.H.H.S. is the newly organized Pep Club of which all the high school girls are members.

At the first meeting the members elected officers: Marcia Day, president; Kay Elsherry, vice president; Mary Sue Rolfes, secretary; and Terry Feller, treasurer. Meetings are held every Thursday at 11 a.m. in the Freshman-Sophomore room.

Blue wool skirts, white V-neck sweaters and blouses with blue collars, which are worn under the sweaters, have been chosen by the girls as the official uniform. The sweaters were purchased for a very reasonable price at Kruse's Clothing Store and the material for the skirts was ordered at a discount from the Riekenberg Store.

The primary purposes of this extra-curricular activity are to boost school spirit and to participate in the athletic program.

If you had a twenty-fifth hour what would you do with it?

Janet Barger: "Put it between getting up and Church; then I wouldn't have to rush to get there."

Rosemary: "I'd learn how to hoola hoop."

Cheerleaders: Rosemary Culver, Patricia Mlover, Judy Masterson, Patricia Douroumis and Joan Tornabane.

PETER FLEMING ENTERS SOCIETY OF JESUS

Peter Fleming, class of '57, has entered the Jesuit Order of priests and is now attending St. Stanislaus Seminary in Florissant, Missouri. Peter has recently completed a 30 day retreat, a period of prayer and meditation.

ALUMNUS RECEIVES HONOR FOR VALOR

When Joseph Burke graduated from high school he had no idea that just seven short years later he would be honored for bravery in action in the great crisis of the Korean War. Out of his entire battalion of paratroopers only four brave men remained alive. One of these was Joe Burke.

They were making a jump into enemy territory; they "hit the silk" in precise order. When they came into range of rifle fire and machine gun barrages they were defenseless and many of them never moved again under their own power. But Joe, who had more than thirty slugs in him, somehow made it back to the U.S. lines and out of death's trap. In this jump, Joe lost one leg and many friends of his battalion but he gained many more friends among his countrymen who will always be thankful for the heroism of this man.

Father Gerard Conducts Forty Hours Devotion

To promote adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, to make reparation for sins, and to increase the interior life, was the three-fold purpose of the Forty Hours Devotion held at Sacred Heart Church September 29-October 1.

The devotions, which were conducted by Father Gerard, a Passionist from Des Moines, began with High Mass procession, and benediction on Monday morning and closed with a procession of the Blessed Sacrament, on Wednesday. Father Gerard, an eloquent speaker, pleaded with attentive listeners for stronger faith, and more frequent reception of Holy Communion.

These services provided an opportunity for all participants to secure a better knowledge and understanding of their faith and to gain plenary indulgences for themselves and others.

First and Second Grade Girls Find Big Surprise In Basket!

On October 10, the first and second grades presented two plays for the PTA.

The first play given by the girls, was entitled, "What is in the Basket?" Those participating were: Heley, Jean Garvey, Mary Pat Bagen, Vicki Fritz, Ann Worth, Janann Farley, Mary Elizabeth Bolstad, Laurie Ann Fitzgerald, Marshall Frist, Jeanne Baldus, Mary McGlynn, Mary Jo Cook, Diane Theis, Monica Wickman, Phyllis Keller, Janet Pohlner, Mary Lee Brown, Mary Ann O'Brien, Susan Hadaway, Susan Kay Francis, Christine O'Leske, Francine Gibbs, Mary Ann Pepper, Camilla Shaw, Anne Jordan, Judy Fritz, Joanne Elliot, and Denise Jacobsen.

The surprise in the basket was found to be a "darkie" — Gene Eddy.

The boys gave the play, "Chase of the Gingerbread Man." The actors were: James Garland, Michael Manderscheid, Craig Collison, Robert Stansbury, James Sawyer, Jan Cooper, David Fellingham, Daniel Buss, Gregory Yegge, Thomas Quinlan, Jerome Miller, Thomas Martin, Jerry Resnak, Patrick Riordan, William Wiley, David O'Brien, Donald Yeman, James Burke, Michael Farley, Dennis Lonergan, and Michael Frist.

During the play the boys ate real gingerbread cookies made by Mrs. Elliot.

A LAUGH OR TWO

Larry Conway

Coach Jones was stressing the importance of rebounding in basketball to his squad. "Remember, that most ball games rebounds." As he said this, he spied a dozing Spartan—"You," he bellowed. "Where are most ball games lost?" The Spartan replied without hesitation, "Right here in Boone, coach."

First it killed the Romans
And now it's killing me.

Geometry student: Larry, what made your head look like a polygon?
Larry C.: Oh, standing in the corner caused that.

SEVENTEEN NEW PUPILS START PIANO LESSONS

ABOUT STUDENTS

All freshmen at S.H.S. are of course, new to high school, but Terry Feller is the newest of these, having just come to S.H.S. this fall. She has been living in Boone for two years and previously lived in Emmetsburg. Terry has the distinction of having the longest hair among the girls of Sacred Heart High.

Bernard Judge spent the entire summer on his cousins ranch, 70 miles south-west of Casper, Wyoming. Butch went into town only twice during his three months' stay on the ranch.

Ron Hopkins spent a month of his summer vacation in Danquitch, Utah. He did some hunting and fishing and visited, among other places, Bryce Canyon, and Grand Canyon National Parks.

At the State Fair this summer, Gerald Swan received two third-place, three fourth-place, and one fifth-place awards for his Dutch Rabbits. His entries were among those from throughout Iowa, Illinois, Nebraska, and Missouri. Gerald also placed seventh among 96 entries in 4-H poultry and ranked fourth in the total number of points awarded in the Dutch sweepstakes class.

Mike Loehrer was chosen for the All Star Team in Little League this summer after pitching two no-hit games for the K.C. Giants over the Elks Cardinals. Mike topped off the first of these two eventful days by slamming a home-run in the fifth inning.

Jude Rolfe and David Myers ranked highest in points for service during the summer. Michael Davis and Robert Feller were in Latin.

Who Is This Year's Long Distance Champ?

How far do you come to school? Do you have to come farther than 13 miles or less than 50 feet? If you do, you're a distance champ for S.H.S.

Butch Judge held the 13-mile record last, although he's moved to within 12 blocks of the school. It's not that he didn't like the country, it's just that he couldn't afford to have his shoes resoled anymore.

Don Garvey is the lucky boy who has to walk only 50 feet from his house to the school grounds. He is the most popular boy when anyone wants something of a domestic nature or a substitute for serving Mass or taking an adoration turn.

Seventeen new pupils started piano this year: Rita Pestotnik, Vicki and Thomas Strain, Mary Ann Eddy, Kevin Flanagan, Teddy Ann Vickery, Paul and Joellen Douroumis, Mary Kane, Theresa Glocks, Terry and Rita Rolfe, Jimmy Bolstad, Francine Gibbs, Joanne Elliott, Diane Carroll, and Patricia Pratt.

Let's take a trip through music land to see what scores the more experienced students are playing.

Trip Through Music Land Shows Students at Work

As we enter we see Camella Shaw watching the "Sunrise in the Canyon" and there's Linda Ward "Coming Through the Rye." As we go a little farther we see Kathy Gibbs doing a "Jig," Donna Jacobson dancing the "Little Fairy Waltz," and Denise Jacobson ready to do the "Clap Hands Dance." My what a contrast in dances! Mary Bauer says, "Oh, they are just 'Dancing for Fun'." In China town, Colleen Collison is walking down the street shaking her "Chinese Pigtales" from side to side. And who is this in Vienna? Why it's Mary Conway who says she just loves "Vienna Life." There are many other countries to visit in music land, but right now we have entered the woods of our own beloved locale and we see Anita Yegge paddling her "Birch Canoe" down the Des Moines River. We come upon two little girls playing pianos. Kathleen Tillman is playing "Hello, Aunt Sarah" and Anne Jordan, "David's Echo." It's dark now and as we make our exit from music land we see Joyce Cotten watching the "Moon Shadows."

Sister Mary St. Natalie is training Marie Speis, Katherine Wheelock, Kathy Havens, and Paula Pestotnik to play the organ. They will assist the present organists—Sue Kane, Alice Carver, Rosemary Culver, and John Bolstad—during on three new choruses—"Nightfall in Granada," "Row, Row, Row," and "Getting to Know You." These choruses will be presented during Education Week.

Students Display Work During Education Week

Open House will be held on Friday, Nov. 19, at 7:30 p.m. at Sacred Heart School in observance of American Education Week.

The work of each student will be on display so that the parents can see the kind of work the students are doing. Faculty members will be in their home rooms to confer with parents and answer their questions.

At 8:30 the Glee Club will assemble to sing two choral selections, "Nightfall in Granada," and "Getting to Know You."
