Serving fried chicken to a group of hungry boys at a dinner for junior high basketball teams sponsored by the Loyal Order of Moose is Walter L. Ross, prelate of the Moose Lodge. Receiving the chicken which they tied into are: (left to right) Dennis Burr, J. Thompson and Andy Anderson. The dinner proved so popular with the boys that the lodge decided to have it again next year. The "waiters" were all officers of the Moose Lodge. (Staff photo by Bill Newman).
