

Queen Kathy Wilson Reigns Over Homecoming Festivities

Queen Kathy Wilson and attendants, Mary Sue Rolfe and Pat Douroumis, reigned over Sacred Heart's 1960 Homecoming festivities of January 21.

Crowning of the queen climaxed four days of anxious waiting by the three nominees, who had been selected by the Spartan basketball squads. Balloons were cast on the day of the game by the high school student body. At an all-school pep assembly that afternoon, Senior President Pat Duffy announced the queen and presented Kathy and her attendants to the assembly. Escorts were Pat Duffy, Tom Matt, and Bernard Judge.

Queen Kathy was presented with a rhinestone tiara, symbol of royalty, and a bouquet of red roses. Mary Sue and Pat received blue and white colonial bouquets.

The biggest turnout of the season attended the Homecoming game, an exciting bout with Granger Assumption. The Spartans were trimmed by a narrow margin of 50-48.

After the game, the dance was held in the parish hall. To get the gala affair under way, Queen Kathy and her escort led a Grand March, followed by Mary Sue Rolfe and Pat Douroumis and their escorts. Music for a large group of students, alumni, and parents was provided by the Steve Rust Combo from Ames.

Rosemary Culver and the decorating committee had transformed the hall into a "Crystal Paradise." To carry out the appointed theme, crystal chandeliers, blue lights and streamers adorned the hall. Center of attention was the queen's throne. Tables around the dance floor as well as pennants on the walls added color to the crystal atmosphere.

Blue frappe and vanilla wafers were served during the evening.

Weeks of work by members of the Pep Club went into the entire Homecoming celebration. Committee chairmen Pat Douroumis and Linda Hale took charge of music and refreshments.

Seven Girls Eagerly Anticipate Excursion to Washington, May 1

"Here is just the thing for a week of fun—a trip to Washington, D.C."

This is the call that went out to the SHHS girls. Seven of them—Janet Barger, Linda Hale, and Janet Steuervald, seniors, and Kathy Collison, Kay Elsberry, Judy Loehrer, and Judy Masterson, juniors—answered the call and are now busily preparing for their journey.

May 1 is the day that will initiate the week of excitement, which will spotlight historical points of interest around the nation's capital.

Grand Central Station in Chicago will be the scene of departure of the official tour. The girls will provide their own transportation to the "Windy City," but plans are not yet definite.

After leaving Chicago on the afternoon of Sunday, May 1, the girls will arrive in Washington early the next morning. They will spend the day touring the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, the Washington Monument, and the Pan American Building.

Norfolk, Jamestown, Yorktown, and Williamsburg will be visited on the second day. Two nights will be spent on a steamer while traveling down Chesapeake Bay and returning to Washington.

Delegates to Attend Notre Dame Congress

Next August, the national convention of the pontifical Catholic Student's Mission Crusade will be held on the campus of Notre Dame University.

As yet, no delegates from Sacred Heart have been named, but plans are in the making so that at least two students will represent the school.

The purpose of the convention is to give the Catholic adolescent an opportunity to get better acquainted with the work done by priests in the missionary field and to instill in Catholic youth a real zeal for the missions.

Due to the length of the trip and other expenses during the three-day convention, the Diocesan Director of Sioux City has provided a special package price for the excursion so that each school will be able to send representatives. Included in the cost is transportation by bus to South Bend, the convention fee, meals and lodging for the duration of the convention, and the return trip home.

Seniors to Invade Omaha On Annual Skip Day Trip

Excitement is in the air for the 18 seniors of SHHS.

Quickly taking shape are plans for the annual senior class trip. At a recent class meeting, they voted to "invade" Omaha, Nebraska, on April 23, 24, and 25.

A tentative roster of activities features visits to some spots of interest around Omaha such as the Natural Gas Building, the Joselyn Memorial, and Cinerama. The group plans to stay at the lavish Town House Motel.

Making arrangements for the trip is keeping the class officers busy while the members of the class anxiously await the adventure.

Gary Mullins Is Finalist in National Merit Competition

Gary Mullins, a senior at Sacred Heart, learned recently that he was a finalist in the National Merit Scholarship Corporation competition.

More than 550,000 students took the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test last March, of whom 30,000 semi-finalists were chosen from the highest scorers. These semi-finalists then took the Scholastic Test in December to determine the finalists. Gary is one of 10,000 students who were named finalists; approximately 1,000 will receive scholarships with stipends ranging from $100 to $1500 a year.

Recently Published Honor Roll Displays Scholastic Standings

Seventy-five students placed themselves on the honor roll for the first semester. They received this distinction by scholarship, attendance, and punctuality.

The honor roll is as follows: Second and third grades—first honors: Marshall Priest, Jerry Rusanak, Martha Schroeder, Anita Yegge; second honors: Ann Wirth, Patrick Riordan, Mary Hare, Mary Brown, and Francine Gibbs.

Third and fourth grades—first honors: Judy Fritz and Jane Rosenhauser; second honors: Ann Briley, Mary Lourdes Conway, Jackie Roberts, Joanne Elliott, Mike Mahoney, Mary Ann Pepper, Patty Sawyer, Ralph Stanislav, and Mary Ann O'Brien.

A Valentine Hop was sponsored by the CSMC, proceeds to pay for the package fees of students who will make the trip. Tony Crandell acted as Master of Ceremonies and took charge of the recorded music.

Father Munn Officiates At Two-Day Retreat

"I can truthfully say that there will be no harsh words or scoldings in your confessions today." These are the words of Father Thomas J. Munn in one of the conferences with the high school students during the two-day retreat of February 11th and 12th.

Father Munn, eloquent speaker, journalist, and chaplain of the Woodward State Hospital, officiated as retreat master for these days of prayer, penance, and sacrifice. Because Father Munn felt the true spirit of recollection could be attained more effectively through silence, the high school student body attempted to refrain from talking for the duration of the retreat.

In the opening conference, Father Munn explained how to acquire the true spirit of a retreat that is worthwhile. To him, prayer, silence, and attention were the basic necessities. He also touched on the subjects of confession, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and habits of lying and talking about others.

On the topic of marriage, Father Munn stated, "Marriage is made in heaven by God" and then discussed the marital problems of today.

Benediction took place at the end of each day and attendance at Mass and reception of the sacraments of Holy Eucharist and Penance was almost 100% during the recollection period. The finale was reached when Father Munn bestowed the Apostolic Blessing.

In a letter expressing entire satisfaction with the retreat, Father Munn wrote, "I have given many high school retreats and yet I would find it hard to recall any one among them which was better made by the students. I think they profited by the exercises."

Journalism Workshopers Discuss School Publication

Improving school papers as well as showing advantages of the journalism profession were the topics of discussion at the journalism workshop at Clarke College on February 7.

Sue Kane, Sue Miller, Rocarol Tornabane, Linda Hopkins, Judy Loehrer, Judy Masterson, Kay Elsberry, Kathy Collison, Pat Douroumis, Diane McKone, Steve Chance, and Tom Conway attended these conferences.

The workshop was divided into different classes—Editorial Writing, Book Reviewing, Reporting the news, Photography, Spelling, and Design in the School Publication.

Experienced speakers, including the famous author of "The Red Hat" and "Brother Zero," Miss Corvella Cox, spoke at the workshop.

Practicing a principle of brotherhood is Joe Tornabene, as he courteously opens the door for his sister, JoAnn.

What Are Your Plans For College After Graduation?

If you are a senior or even in high school you are no doubt wondering what you will do after graduation. For those wishing to attend college, below is a list of near-by colleges and information which may aid in your selection.

CLARKE COLLEGE is a 4-year liberal arts college for girls conducted by the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, located in Dubuque. The college offers a standard program with majors in 15 departments and preparation of teachers for the elementary and secondary levels. It confers the B.A. degree.

CREIGHTON UNIVERSITY, a coeducational Catholic university conducted by the Jesuits, is located in Omaha. Through her seven Schools and Colleges and three Associated Schools of Nursing, Creighton offers complete programs of study leading to degrees and professional careers in Business Administration, Law, Dentistry, Medicine, Nursing, and provides pre-professional preparation for practically all other fields.

LORAS COLLEGE, also located in Dubuque, is a 4-year liberal arts college for boys and offers pre-professional courses in Medicine, Engineering, Dentistry, and Law.

BRIAR CLIFF COLLEGE, a Catholic college for women, is conducted by the Sisters of St. Francis of the Holy Family and located in northwest Sioux City. It offers a basic liberal arts curriculum and the opportunity to specialize in such fields as Art, Biology, Mathematics, Music, and Spanish.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME for men is conducted by the priests of the Congregation of Holy Cross and is situated at Notre Dame, Indiana. Through her five Colleges, Arts and Letters, Science, Engineering, Commerce, and Law, and her Graduate School, the advanced degrees of Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Doctor of Philosophy are conferred.

Prepare yourself for Passion Week through prayer and sacrifice during this Lenten season.

Manage Your Minutes Today — Help Insure Success Tomorrow

Are you trying to add another star to the flag? Many students appear to be backing a fifty-first state—M.C.

M.C. stands for the crowded state of Mass Confusion. Most of its inhabitants are commuters. With a flurry of books, writing instruments, papers, and refreshments the mob arrives every day at about the same time — study period.

Study period—whenever named this intermission between classes was a dreamer. The study period of the average student can be divided into three parts: (1) getting organized — 20 minutes; (2) discussing current problems with fellow organizers — 10 minutes; (3) packing up for next class — 15 minutes.

This problem of the mismanagement of time can and does mushroom in later life. Many cases of college failure can be traced directly to it, the experts say. It is no secret that in business time is money; the time-waster simply has no place there. And what young woman could hope to become an efficient housewife if she can't organize and use her time well?

Right now is the time to learn to manage minutes. When you study don't attempt to do a dozen things at once in a vain effort to finish sooner. Know what you are to do, and then do it just one step at a time. By rebelling against Mass Confusion, you will be able to enjoy a far greater measure of success now and in the future.

SUPPORT OF CATHOLIC LITERATURE PRESERVES AMERICAN FREE PRESS

One of our most precious inheritances is freedom of the press. Together with our other liberties, it must be constantly protected from the seeds of destruction.

Hiding behind the shield of "freedom" is the spreading of poison literature among youth today. A recent edition of the CIVIC LEADER cites the example of the periodical, CHINA RECONSTRUCTS. "It is blatant propaganda...lots of color and many illustrations doesn't make the propaganda any more palatable to one who believes Communist China offers as least as formidable a threat to the United States and the Free World — perhaps an even greater threat — than the U.S.S.R."

Other examples of poison literature are magazines and books, which clutter newsstands and book racks, cheapening sex, advocating divorce, and glorifying crime. The publication of lies and filth is actually a direct slap in the face for God, the Author of love and truth.

Distinguished Catholic authors, such as Bishop Fulton J. Sheen, have constantly fought the deceit of communism; diocesan newspapers, including THE GLOBE and THE WITNESS, have carried on a ceaseless battle against obscenity.

Students can join the crusade against poison literature, which poses the strongest threat to freedom of the press, by supporting good literature and by developing good reading habits. Make it a point to read some Catholic periodicals during the next month—magazines such as THE SIGN, EXTENSION, THE CATHOLIC DIGEST, and THE LIGUORIAN. Purchase pamphlets from the rack in the church every week or every month. Read some of the books by Catholic authors that are available in libraries.

RECENT TRENDS OF BABY-CHECKS AND NAVY BLUE RANK HIGH IN THIS YEAR'S PARADE OF SPRING FASHIONS

Melting snow! Robins! Flower Blossoms! All these are signs indicating that "spring is just around the corner" and once again the time is here to put away those bulky sweaters, wool skirts and trousers, and heavy coats.

Fashions in favor this year are baby-checks, and navy blue has once again "stolen the show" for all-around popularity. A combination of both of these nation-wide rages is worn by Diane Kunz and Paula Pestotnik.

Carol Cattanak likes the dainty pink and white checks and shows her approval with a dress sweetly designed in accordance with the prevailing styles of full skirts. Don Garvey, Mike Lacey, and Bill Ryan also display baby-checks in blue, red, and brown respectively.

Navy blue is by no means extracted from the picture. A perfect swirl of unpressed pleats touched off with a matching jacket for all occasions is Janet Steuerwald's choice. Judy Loehrer has decided on a walking-suit of this color.

Fashion trends exist not only in high school; in the elementary grades a distinct taste in style is evident. Kathy Judge confirms this with a black and white baby-checked dress with 3/4 length sleeves and a bouffant skirt. Vicki McCoy prefers hers to be short-sleeved and touched off with a white collar. Mark Collison wears the always-popular contrast of black and white while Jude Rolfe chooses blue and white.

Spirit of Brotherhood in Family Reaps Benefits of Richer Living

Brotherhood is treating others as you would want to be treated. Too many people forget about regarding every man as their brothers. A businessman may forget and impose too much on his associates. A boy may be unfair to his friends. A girl may be unkind toward her friends by spreading gossip about them.

Brotherhood is not just something you associate with priests, brother, and sister; it takes in the family too. Wouldn't it add to your parents' greater joy and yours in the long run, if you were just a little more civil around the home toward your brothers and sisters? After all God gave these brothers and sisters to you for a reason. Maybe not right today or tomorrow, but later on, there will come a time when you'll need your brother's or sister's help. If all your life at home is one great big fight or quarrel, you can't expect very much help nor can you give very much.

Consequently, if you want to begin reaping the benefits of a richer, fuller life start making life at home a happier one for all.

SPARTANSCOPE

By Ed Dittmer

Now that the basketball season is on its last legs, it would be well to review our departing seniors who have led the Spartans in action this year.

PAT DUFFY, 6'1" center, has made the best showing of the Spartans this season. His steady rebounding and reliable shooting have netted him 210 points for an average of 17.5 points an outing. In addition Pat holds the city of Boone scoring record for one game by dropping in 34 markers against Cherokee, I.C.

Along with being a two-year letterman, Pat's scholastic standards are also high. This senior has passed the Naval College Aptitude Test and has become a candidate for an N.R.O.T.C. scholarship.

JOE TORNABANE, 6'6" senior, holds down one of the guard positions and rates as second-best Spartan point-getter with 110 points to average 9 points a game. Joe's scrappy defensive play and ball-hawking tactics have been a highlight all season; offensively, his top outputs have been against S. Pat's of Perry and Webster City J.V. against whom he tallied 14 points each. Joe's plans for the future include taking up dentistry.

ED DITTMER, 5'8", manning the other guard position, has been a letterman for two years, but has earned a regular starting position only this season. Carrying a 3.0 average into sectional tournament play, Ed ranks as fourth best Spartan scorer.

GARY MULLINS, 6'1" forward, also is playing his first year as a regular after winning a letter last year as a reserve. Gary's height comes in handy in snagging rebounds and he has taken fair advantage by pulling down his share. Offensively, this senior has averaged slightly better than 2 points a game.

Gary, a finalist in the National Merit Scholarship Program, intends to study engineering.

BUTCH JUDGE, 6' forward-center, has proved to be one of the top reserves for the Blue and White this season, especially when added height is needed.

This rugged senior has been nominated as a candidate for the class entering the United States Air Force Academy this fall.

Fifth-Sixth Basketballers Finish With Four Triumphs

The fifth and sixth grade cagers from Sacred Heart have ended play in the Gra-Y League. Finishing with four victories to their credit, they attained fourth place mark in the final standings.

The victories were over Franklin, Garfield, Lincoln, and Trinity Lutheran, while defeats were administered by Bryant, Lowell, and Page twice; Franklin, Garfield, Lincoln, and Trinity Lutheran spilled Sacred Heart once.

Spartans Enter Sectional Play With 2-10 Record

With only sectional tournament play remaining, the Sacred Heart Spartans had two wins on the victory column but have allowed opponents to chalk up ten triumphs.

Spartans vs. Maxwell

In what proved to be a very rough game, literally speaking, the Blue and White succumbed to the Rockets of Maxwell High, 53-33.

Trailing by only 7 points at the end of three quarters, the Spartans, however, were unable to get their offense in gear in the last chapter as they went down to their tenth defeat.

Pat Duffy finished with a total of 13 points, fouling out at the onset of the last period, while Joe Tornabane stuffed the webbing with 11.

Spartans vs. Fonda

Plagued by that old nemesis, last quarter frigidity, the Spartans fell at the hands of the strong OLC Eagles from Fonda, 63-33, in the semifinal round of the Diocesan Tournament at Algona.

Pat Duffy again led Sacred Heart at the point register and did yeoman-like work under the boards.

Spartans vs. Cherokee I.C.

Sacred Heart's vagabond basketball team rocketed past its first round on the terrific 34-point firing of lanky Pat Duffy. Those 34 points happen to be the most scored in recent years for the city of Boone. It also clipped Jerry Cooper's school record by 3 points.

Only five players saw action for Sacred Heart in this 54-48 triumph. Guards, Ed Dittmer and Joe Tornabane combined for 13 points, with the latter tallying eight.

Spartans vs. Granger

Climaxing a long and fruitless campaign, the Blue and White brought home their first victory of the season over a small but scrappy Granger Assumption team, 46-45.

Behind all the way, until the last few minutes, the Spartans managed to pull the game out of the fire mainly on the 27 point shooting of center Pat Duffy.

Junior High Cagers Trounce St. Cecilia

Sacred Heart junior high basketballers walloped Ames St. Cecilia, 35-15, Feb. 18. As practice goes along this team is looking more and more impressive.

The unbeaten Aces have trimmed Corpus Christi of Fort Dodge, 27-23, as well as St. Cecilia, and are scheduled to make a return engagement at Corpus Christi.

Pacing the Aces' attack has been Mike Loehrer, whose dandy jump shots have propelled him to 41 points for a handsome 20.5 average. Mike outscored the entire Ames team by 11 points as he registered 26 markers.

Not far behind Mike are Tim Mahoney and Mike Duffy, who share guard positions. Tim has popped in 19 tallies while Mike has added 9. Mike Culver rounds out the scoring with 13 which gives him a 6.5 average an outing.

With prospects looking lean for the Spartans in the next few campaigns, these boys could do much to bolster the Spartan cause when they enter high school next fall.

Junior Bowlers Report High Scores For Season

Old man winter has failed to hinder the junior bowlers of Sacred Heart from participating in their weekly bowling league.

High scores reported this season include the following:

|----------------|-----|
| Sharon Shuster | 182 |
| Sue Cooper | 172 |
| Karen Elsberry | 170 |
| Patty Pratt | 159 |
| Kathy Havens | 158 |
| Marikay Ruskak | 137 |
| Bette Florence | 134 |
| Kathy Judge | 131 |
| Cathy Briley | 131 |
| Mary Jo Cady | 107 |

Mike Lacey, junior forward, is shown about to connect for a basket in a scrimmage game as teammates Tom Conway and Butch Judge await the rebound.

Students Explain Degrees of Vocal Mass Participation

On Thursday, March 10, the 4th, 5th, and 6th grade students of Sister Mary Louis Joseph and Mrs. Ryan will present a program to the P.T.A.

Film strips will be used to show the action of the Mass and the students will demonstrate the 3 degrees of vocal participation in the Low Mass by the faithful. These will consist of: making the easier liturgical responses; saying the parts of the server; and joining the priest in the Gloria, Credo, Sanctus, and Agnus Dei.

OUR PARISH PRAYS AND SINGS, the book used in presenting the program, is an aid toward implementing the September, 1958, Decree of the Sacred Congregation of Rites on participation in the Sacrifice of the Mass which has been advocated by three popes.

Leader Urges: 'Be Thankful For Democratic Way of Life'

Nine seniors of Sacred Heart compared the U.S. way of life to that of communism before the high school student body and faculty at the last CSMC meeting.

Views were expressed on the subjects of church, school, defense, and government. Tom Matt acted as moderator for the discussion. Gary Mullins, Joe Tornabane, Karen Fitzgerald, and Janet Barger represented Russian students and each presented the communist idea on one of the four subjects. They alternated with Butch Judge, Rosemary Culver, Judy Shuster, and Pat Douroumis, the American students, who in turn presented the U.S. outlook on the four subjects.

Seniors Enjoy Rotarian Hospitality, Invite Dates on "Ladies Night"

Throughout the month of February, senior students Ed Dittmer and Tom Matt were guests of the Boone County district of the Rotary Club. The meetings convened every Monday night at the Holst Hotel where dinner was served and an entertainment program scheduled.

"Ladies Night" was held on February 8th and the boys were asked to bring dates. Ed invited Janet Barger and Tom escorted Janet Steuerwald.

Father Macke Receives 40 Young Missionaries into Holy Childhood

On February 2, forty members of the first grade were received into the society of the Holy Childhood.

Each child received a medal which had been blessed by Father Macke and also a membership card in the society.

As members of the Holy Childhood, the children become little missionaries offering prayers and sacrifices for pagan children.

"Polka," "Cut-Off," "Bell Bottom Trousers," and "Mexican Hat Dance" were performed; music for the "Hat Dance" was provided by Denise Jacobson and Ann Jordan doing a piano duet.

Mr. Howard Cooper lent a helping hand by instructing the students and "calling" for them in real Western style.
