

1,000 Club Concerts Feature H. S. Groups

Mr. Baldwin Presents Band in Concert

On March 30, the high school band, under the direction of Mr. Baldwin, presented one of the best 1,000 Club concerts of the 1950-1951 season.

Some of the most outstanding selections were 'Under the Double Eagle March,' by J. F. Wagner; 'The French Quarter Suite,' by Morissey; Mr. Baldwin's own composition, 'The Jerry Berry,' 'Mardi Gras' from the 'Mississippi Suite,' by Ferde Grofé, and a novelty tune, 'The Little Brown Jug Goes to Town,' by Joseph Bergeim. Also outstanding was the featured cornet soloist, Gary Bloomquist, playing 'The Debutante.'

Feature Clubs And Activities

On April 11, the next to the last 'Citizens of Boone 1960' program was presented. Interviews of different clubs and intramural activities were given. From the Bumble 'B' staff was Barbara Schroeder. The representatives from Scroll were Mary Kay Hogan and Joanne Barnes and from Quill and Scroll were Phil Billings and Kenyon Hoffman. The 'Citizens of Boone 1960' representative is Norma Trulin. From the Y.M.C.A. were Leroy Knox and Bill Mickle, and from the Y.W.C.A. Delma Comito and Gretchen Caldwell. Marilyn Gustafson represented the Y.O.B. club. Jack Nystrom represented the student council. From Pep Club were Mary Ellen Dowd and from Dolphin Club was La Donna Ballard. Also on the program were two vocal solos by Dick Hughes and Harold Reed.

The organizers for this month's program are Betty Rose, master of ceremonies; Marion Strickler, announcer; Mary Marker, news reporter; Bob Hammond, class room commentator; and script, Barbara Schroeder and Mr. Baird. The directors were Mr. Baird and Miss Nelson.

The next 'Citizens of Boone 1960' program will be May 9. It will be a junior college recruitment program.

The radio program, 'Citizens of Boone, 1960,' has had five broadcasts this school year, bringing the public up to date on the speech, music, drama, and athletic departments of our high school. The aims of these programs are to reveal to the public what takes place in the high school and junior college 'classrooms and clubs,' to give an understanding of non-technical radio as a profession, and to help as many students as possible overcome 'mike-fright.'

There are a few students who have shown interest and talent for radio writing. These students are Dick Longworth, Mary Marker, Norma Trulin, and Barbara Schroeder, the program's writing staff.

Plans for next year are being made for more 'Citizens of Boone' broadcasts each month, with more people and more departments of Boone High School taking part.

The Boone High School is extremely grateful to KWBG for letting us have this broadcast from their station.

The English classes will have the last movie of the year on April 17. This movie is 'A Tale of Two Cities.'

Music Groups Go to Contest

On April 13 and 15, the Iowa music contest will be held at Roland.

The vocal solos will be: bass, George Wahl; baritone, Phil Morris, Lloyd Courter, and Harold Reed; and tenor, Dick Hughes; treble voice medium, Marilyn Gustafson, Margaret Oxenford; and treble voice high, Jeanne De Hoet.

The vocal groups are: girls' sextet, Rosalie Gibbs, Emelie Jackson, Marge Pesek, Marilyn Gustafson, Janet Todd, Margaret Oxenford; boys' quartet, Bob Carpenter, Harold Reed, George Wahl, and Lloyd Courter; mixed quartet, Lloyd Courter, Jack Wensel, Carol Haberer, and JoAnn Morris; madrigal, Jeanne De Hoet, Mary Ellen Dowd, Elaine Hohanshelt, Mary Marker, Donna Anderson, Doris Ekstrand, Marion Strickler, Harold Reed, George Wahl, and Phil Morris.

Many of the vocal groups have been giving small programs for different organizations. The boys' quartet sang Tuesday, March 20, for the P.E.O. and Lincoln P.T.A. The girls' sextet sang Monday, March 19, for a church group at the First Evangelical Free Church. The girls' double sextet gave a half-hour program for the Woman's Club, March 26.

The soloists for the band department are: Beverly Parkinson, Kathleen McCoy, Elaine Moore, Richard Longworth, Walter Stark, John Dennert, Gary Bloomquist, Darrell Dickey, Bob Carpenter, Norman Manges, Harold Kost, Albert Eamer, Phyllis Tilley, and Shirley Sue Anderson. Accompanists for these solos will be Dorothy Gibson, Frances Brown, Mrs. W. H. Longworth, Mrs. Ellsworth Baldwin, Mrs. H. G. Kost, Miss Ella Wilson, and Miss Hanson.

The band groups are: woodwind quartet, Elaine Hohanshelt, Maxine Sturtz, Ruth Watkins, and Lorraine Murken; brass sextet, Gary Bloomquist, Robert Jacoby, James Munro, Leland Barstad, Bruce Harris, and Albert Eamer; mixed clarinet quartet, Bob Carpenter, Kathleen McCoy, George Jacoby, and Norman Manges; brass quintet, Roger Olson, Gary Bloomquist, Darrell Dickey, Richard Longworth, and Harold Kost; clarinet quartet, Lorene Collis, Ruth Watkins, Beverly Parkinson, and Kathleen McCoy; saxophone quartet, Marilyn Wiemer, John Dennert, Walter Stark, and Marilyn Du Bois; and woodwind quintet, Dorothy Gibson, Maxine Sturtz, Beverly Parkinson, Jim Munro, and Shirley Sue Anderson.

Ann Sunstrom will represent the orchestra with a bass viol solo.

Senior Play Given Friday

Friday, April 6, the stage of the high school auditorium was transformed into a 'typical' high school classroom as the curtain rose on the senior class play, 'Our Miss Brooks.'

Mary Ellen Dowd played the leading role as Miss Brooks, with Roland Wiley as Hugo Longacre, the coach; Kenyon Hoffman as Ted, a student; and Kay Honohan as Jane, another student.

Others in the cast were Dean Becker as Mr. Wadsworth, principal; Barbara Schroeder as Miss

Junior and senior high school students are often criticized by adults as being thoughtless, rude, and sometimes unkind. I suppose some of them are at times, and perhaps all of them are at some time or another, but my observations would lead me to believe that most young people are basically serious minded and want to do what is right, when they know what is right. My experiences with the Boone high school and junior high school students have caused me to gain faith in young people rather than lose it. I have seen too many boys and girls work hard and long at tasks which they were not obligated to do at all, and without thought of grade marks or financial gain, to not have faith in them and their future.

I wish I could say that of 100% of the students; unfortunately, there are always some who pull down the good name of the many.

There are those who believe that Boone High's pep meetings were not as peppy as they should have been. Perhaps that was true in many cases. Pep meetings ought to be peppy or they do more harm to team spirit and morale than no pep meeting, but as I see it, the students supported the team at the games when the adults elected to stay at home. Certainly one could not ask for more pep and enthusiasm than was shown in the Boone-Ames game during the district tournament. After all, it is the support given the team at the game that really counts when the going is rough.

There is one aspect of Boone high school student behavior which I think could be improved upon, however. That is the tendency I have noticed over a four year period of seniors to 'let up.' It is evident in the track squad this spring. Just when they should be giving their best to the school and their team mates, they pull out of the sport and leave the task of competing with seniors from other high schools to the sophomores and juniors of Boone High School. My hat is off to those boys and girls who stay with a sport until their high school days are over.

A similar tendency is shown by others who drop out of school before they have finished the twelfth grade. As I see it, we are rated by the jobs we finish, not by the jobs we start.

I believe Boone has as good a group of boys and girls in high school as any community. There are aspects in which they could be stronger and improve our high school and community as well, but I have much faith in young people.

Donald F. Seaton.

Ed Goodenough and Don Silvey are the latest fellows to join the service. They are in the air force.

Audubon, a teacher; Corrine Phelan as Miss Finch, friend of Miss Brooks; Kenny Mallas as Stanley, a student; Ada Harrington as Rhonda. Others who played the roles of students were Lorene Collis, Donna McLeod, Mary Kay Hogan, Pat Sandell, Sally McCartney, Joan Duncan, Le Roy Knox, and Dick Bechtel.

Speech Entries Rate State

At the district speech contest held at Spencer, March 30 and 31, Boone came home with five firsts and one second. Mary Ellen Dowd gave the selection 'The Taming of the Shrew' which received a first from all three judges. Joanne Barnes gave a dramatic selection, 'The Madman,' which also received a first. Madelyn Nelson took a first in original oratory with 'America's Destiny.' Betty Rose received a first in radio speaking with 'Why Tolerate Intolerance?' Norma Trulin received a second with 'Problems of the 82nd Congress' in extemporaneous speaking. The play, 'Lawd, Does Yo' Undahstan,' received a unanimous first. The cast consisted of Mary Lee Vickery, Mary Ellen Dowd, Frances Brown, Joanne Barnes, Phil Billings, Kenneth Dodd, Kenyon Hoffman, Joe Nickell, Jack Nystrom, Mary Kay Hogan, Lorene Collis, Donna McLeod, Marilyn Dugger, Marilyn Hartman, Leroy Knox, Betty Rose, and Jeanne DeHoet. Doris Ekstrand was in charge of the sound effects and Joan Duncan and Kay Honohan were in charge of makeup.

The state contest at Oskaloosa April 20 and 21 will have four individual contestants and the play from Boone.

This is the first time a play from Boone has gone to state through competition. Boone has entered two plays in other years, but because the contests were held here, it was not necessary for the plays to compete in the series.

Seniors Lead

Out of the 65 students who made this term's honor roll 46 were girls and 19 were boys. In the tenth grade nine per cent, in the eleventh, eleven per cent, and in the twelfth, 28 per cent of the students had averages above 'B.' This places the twelfth grade eight per cent above the number of tenth and eleventh graders put together. (Good work, seniors!)

Honor students among the sophomores were: Shirley Sue Anderson, John Clausen, John Seaton, Myron Stolte, Shirley Inglesby, Lloyd Courter, Rosemary Humm, Richard Longworth, Emelie Jackson, Dorothy Gibson, Sharon Richmond, Marilyn Wiemer.

Miss LouCelle Nelson to Direct H. S. Choir

The B.H.S. vocal department will present its annual 1,000 Club concert, under the direction of Miss Nelson, on Tuesday, April 24, at 8:15 in the high school auditorium.

Opening the program will be the choir with their versions of Pales-trina's 'Gloria Patri,' 'O Man, Thy Grief and Sin Bemoan' by Williams, 'Lost in the Night' by Christiansen, and Shaw's 'Sit Down, Servant.'

Two piano solos, 'Gigue,' by Bach, and 'Etude Caprice,' by Grieg, will be given by Dorothy Gibson.

'Bells of the Sea' by Solman; a spiritual, 'Rollin' Down the Jordan,' and a Negro convict song, 'The Ol' Hammer,' will next be presented by the boys' chorus.

The featured vocal soloist for the evening will be Jeanne DeHoet singing 'My Name Is Mimi,' by Puccini.

The boys' quartet will next render their versions of 'Let's Go Down in Jordan,' a spiritual; and 'There's Nuthin' Like a Dame' from 'South Pacific.'

Preceding the intermission the choir will again appear to sing selections from the operetta, 'Brigadoon.'

To complete the evening's concert, 150 voices, consisting of the choir, the girls' chorus, the boys' chorus, and the ninth grade chorus, will present three choral selections with orchestral accompaniment under the direction of Mr. Scholl. Their three numbers will be 'Festival Finale' by Stoessel, and 'The Battle Hymn of the Republic' by Wilhousky.

The new white satin stoles, trimmed in red braid with large red 'B' at one end, will be worn for the first time on the twenty-fourth with the new blue robes, which have been seen before. The vocal department had two projects for raising money for the new stoles. In January, they sold refreshments at the girls' tournament. For the second project, they are individually selling tickets for the concert. So if you don't have an activity ticket or a 1,000 Club concert ticket, be sure to secure a regular ticket from any member of the B.H.S. vocal department. Don't miss this concert!

Kinter to Head Pep Club

The Pep Club of Boone High held its election of officers March 29. Gretchen Kinter was voted in as president. The new vice-president is Marge Pesek, with Coleen Casserly as secretary-treasurer, and Pat Day, historian.

New plans were also discussed at the meeting. It was decided that all new members and cheer-leaders would be decided on this spring. A committee, consisting of Janice Nelson, Joan Logsdon, Joyce Roberts, and Carole Miller, was appointed for the purpose of obtaining ideas and writing to different companies for new uniforms.

The Pep Club hopes to get all these things completed so that, with their new uniforms, members, and cheerleaders, they can start next year off with a 'bang' and keep it going all through the year.

Congratulations to Pat Sandell, Sally McCartney, and Kenyon Hoffman, who won the Elks' Scholarship awards. Their entries have been forwarded to the state contest.

Letter Winners An Incentive for The Future

Every one of those letter winners who received letters in the award assembly, is to be commended for the practice and determination he displayed in earning a letter. This group creates an incentive for more extensive participation in sports among the students of Boone High School. Good school spirit, of the sort that was evident in the midst of the basketball season and that lasted to the end of it, is encouraged by the interest shown in sports now and encourages greater participation in sports in the future. As better boosters of Boone High, every person in school should make, as part of his goal, an effort to secure better school spirit and greater interest in the extra-curricular activities offered by the school. If everyone does his part, Boone High will be proud of the interest shown in its extensive program. It is the job of the students to take advantage of the opportunities offered in the wide range of extra-curricular activities offered at Boone High. Which activities will you engage in to contribute to Boone High School?

'Y' NEWS

All the groups of both Y.M. and Y.W. have been quite active at their bi-weekly meetings.

April 2, the Live Y-ers held a 'Truth or Consequences' skit. A few of the consequences were two of the girls posing as baby sitters forcing their way into a house; and also three eggs were sold at thirty cents. On the program for April 16 will be a report given by girls who went to Fort Wayne with the orchestra.

To bring out the Easter theme, the B-Y-ettes had Mrs. Otto as their guest speaker for their meeting March 21. They held their election of officers on April 4 for the next year. These new officers are: president, Marilyn Parisho; vice-president, Joan Enquist; secretary, Marilyn Dugger; and treasurer, Coleen Cassetery.

March 28 the Hi-Tri had Miss Nelson give a discussion on the 'Nutcracker Suite.' Following the discussion, the Hi-Tri then went in a body to the high school and saw the cantata from the suite which was put on by the elementary schools. The theme, 'Understanding Religion,' was the theme for the Hi-Tri meeting April 11. In carrying out the theme, two ninth grade girls who visited a Jewish Synagogue in Des Moines discussed the Jewish religion.

April 11 the Hi-Y held Sports Night at Boone High. The boys had the use of the swimming pool and the gymnasium.

Harping again! We're wondering when the junior and senior fellows are planning on getting their 'prom' dates. May 4 isn't so very far away.

How heated can a class discussion get? If you don't know just ask Miss Skilling about her third period world history class.

Our sympathy to Mr. Martindale, whose father-in-law died a week ago.

We've been hearing of picnics. Guess it's about that time of year.

Student Govt. Day Revival

The revival of Student Government Day is of major importance in almost every phase of school activity. Everyone can do his part in furthering this citizenship project. Such a project demands the aggregate strength of the whole student body to make Student Government Day a success.

Purpose

The objective of Student Government Day and the preparations for it is to arouse interest in local government and to permit students of senior high school to get first-hand experience in the affairs of a city for a day. The offices for which students will be elected from the senior high student body are: the city council, consisting of seven council members; the chief of police; the fire chief; the health officer; and the mayor.

Campaigns

Sophomores, juniors, and seniors are eligible for participation in Student Government Day, but only seniors can run for mayor. Numerous campaigns are being staged to provoke interest in a particular candidate for the mayor's post.

Advantages

Student Government Day can be an advantage to the interests of better citizenship and knowledge of government. As a contributing factor to the success of such a project, which demands the concentrated efforts of all the student body, Boone High can make this Student Government Day the kind of step it should in the moulding of better citizens, in the demonstration of the functions of a city government from an educational standpoint, and in the outgrowth of strong character from competition on a democratic basis.

Thus Student Government Day can again be observed annually in Boone High School.

Winter Weddings And Space Cadets

How would you girls like to have a 'Winter Wedding' in the middle of spring? Sounds nice, doesn't it?

Haven't you boys ever dreamed of flying to the moon, or being a 'Space Cadet'?

These two books and a whole shelf more are waiting for you now at the Ericson Public Library. Stop in today and pick some out.

Congratulations to Sally McCartney for being selected on Jack North's sixth all-state team. We also want to congratulate 'Em' Quinn for being honorably mentioned.

MUSIN' How Confusin'

We've been sitting here for the longest time trying to think of something to write that might prove entertaining. Seems like hours and hours have passed, but we're still just thinking. Oh, by the way, did you see 'Operation Pacific'? We've about decided to become Navy nurses, especially if all the officers are like John Wayne. That's not very patriotic, but terribly practical, and Navy nurses live so dangerously.

Speaking of living dangerously, did you ever try skipping out of ye old library? Well Duane Du Bois has! Oh! those yellow admits!

Do you know how long we've been in school? Never mind, but we do know there are seven weeks left. It's a city ordinance that you can't turn left on an intersection. An intersection is dangerous, and besides, why would you want to turn left when everything good is right. (You know, right and wrong.)

Speaking of 'right,' we've written long enough. Besides we have to write to Aunt Harriet.

Art students are now entering posters in National Poppy Poster Contest. These posters have been on exhibit in the halls on third floor. They will be judged on appeal, artistic ability, originality, and neatness. Winners will go to the district, then to the department, which has a $25 award for the best poster in each class, then to the national contest, where the award is $100.

Although the Boone High contest play has been given several times in town, most high school students have not been able to see it. So a special showing will be given in an assembly for senior high and ninth grade Monday, April 16. The play differs from the usual high school production because it is not a comedy, but a tragedy. It is a strong plea for racial tolerance and understanding.

Three Gain C. I. C. Berths

In this year's poll Richard Bechtel, Roland Wiley, and John Musser placed on the first, second, and third C.I.C. teams respectively. Bechtel and Musser hit the forward positions and Wiley made the post position.

Six Little Cyclones from Ames were selected, followed by Grinnell with five, Oskaloosa with four, and Boone, Marshalltown, and Newton with three each.

The first team averaged over six feet in height, with record-breaking Dick Ritter, who passed Boone's Bob Clifton's total point record, at center, supported by Bechtel and Roger Zimmerman of Grinnell at forwards, and Don Webber of Ames and Clyde Kitchen of Grinnell at the guard positions.

Badminton Intramurals For Girls

During the months of April and into May, senior high girls will play badminton at noon on Tuesday and Thursday. Miss Swenson has started this program so that girls who enjoy the game may have competition with girls in different gym classes.

So that some girls who haven't played badminton for a long period of time can brush up on the fundamentals and rules, the first several days will be spent in practice.

Partners in the singles contest have been classed according to their year in school. After the winner of the singles has been decided by a round robin tournament, doubles will get under way. In these the players may pick their own partners regardless of class.

Quite a number of girls have signed up so far, and more are expected.

Forty-five Letters Awarded in Assembly

The awarding of forty-five letters in the field of athletics highlighted the assembly held Thursday, March 22, in the Boone High auditorium. Letters were awarded to cheer leaders, basketball players, swimmers, and managers. After the assembly was opened by Mr. Solar, the athletic director, Mr. Ekstrand, introduced the various coaches of the two sports mentioned.

To start the letter-awarding, Mr. Ekstrand read the names of the cheer leaders who were to receive letters. They were Mary Ellen Dowd, Delma Comito, Cynthia Elliott, Marilyn Gustafson, Jill Johnstone, and Phil Billings. Although the letters didn't arrive in time for the assembly, the cheer leaders will receive them when the letters come.

Mr. O'Toole followed Mr. Ekstrand, awarding the varsity letters to the girls' basketball squad. Those girls receiving letters were: senior co-captains, Sally McCartney and Marilyn 'Em' Quinn; Ruth Rogers, a junior; Joanne Morris, Dorothy Long, and Joanne Huffman, all sophomores; and Bonnie Reid, a freshman. DeLoris Jacobson, a senior, received a letter for being the manager of the team.

The varsity basketball letters were awarded next, with Mr. Johnson presenting letters to eight boys: Richard Bechtel and Roland Wiley, the co-captains; Paul Harder; John Seaton; John Musser; Kenny Knowles; Milo Huddleston; and Jim Cowhick. Bill Mickle received the manager's letter. The team's record this year was thirteen wins and eight losses. Boone had strong opposition throughout the season and placed third in the Central Iowa Conference standings.

Mr. Johnson was followed by Mr. Stutzman, the sophomore basketball coach, who awarded eleven letters to his squad members. After Mr. Stutzman reviewed the merits and 'demerits' of the season, he awarded letters to Gary Grosnickle, Morris Kelley, Larry Hall, Charles Hancock, David Ekstrand, Lynn Hopkins, Lloyd Courter, Joe Veale, Jerry Beckett, Jim McAlpine, Charles Bridges, and the sophomore manager, Harold Sturtz.

Mr. Bang, the swimming team coach, gave letters to ten swimmers. They were John Campbell, Captain Brad Carswell, Joe Moore, Bud Petersen, John Petersen, Jack Wenzel, Milton Mattson, Larry Knudsen, Tom Canfield, and Denny Shafer.

The decoration committee for the Junior-Senior Prom are starting their plans. We hope to see something extra special.

During the week of March 26-30, Mr. Solar attended a meeting for school principals at Chicago.

Noon Swimming

Boys who bring their lunch are entitled to enjoy themselves once a week by taking a dip in the Boone High pool.

The boys in seventh and eighth grades occupy the pool on Tuesday, while the ninth through twelfth grade boys take over on Thursday.

These boys are supervised by six life guards. The guards, Earl Corl, Tom Canfield, Bob Hammond, Bill Hedlund, Marilyn Weimer, and Ed McCracken, watch over the other boys, who number from 10 to 50 in attendance during the week.

Had you forgotten about the Denison football game when Kenny Mallas, senior guard, stole the ball from the Denison quarterback and ran for a touchdown? Just a reminder for your memo book.

Do you remember when spindly Charlie Hancock sank a long shot from the time line in the Boone-Grinnell sophomore game? A great prospect for next year.

Among the schools participating in the Toreador Relays which will be held this spring are Boone, Eagle Grove, Webster City, Jefferson, Perry, Valley of Des Moines, Nevada, Carroll, Denison, Rockwell City, and Clarion.

Coon Rapids and Grand Junction were unable to accept the invitation because their conference meets are held on this date.

The Awards Assembly

At the awards assembly held March 22, Mr. Ekstrand introduced the coaches who then awarded the letters to their players. The boys who had already received letters were awarded certificates. Mr. Owens' boys were runners-up in the junior high county tournament. Denny Collis presented their trophy to the student body. The seventh and eighth grade varsity included 15 boys, 11 of whom received awards. The letter winners were Denny Collis, Jack Becker, Bill Johnston, David Fisher, David Gustafson, 'Chuck' Peterson, Leonard Reedholm, Jim Minson, Jake Lee, Gale Morris, Mike Bell, and John Harrington, manager. Mr. Jones presented the following ninth grade boys with letters: Ronny Lind, Emmett Dearborn, Pat Cunningham, Larry Furst, John Cooper, Edwin Fibikar, and Joe Smith. Cheerleaders receiving merit awards were Loris Shadle, Shirley Mestdagh, Jo Betty Stemmerson, Bill McCoy, Martha Kokinakis, Virginia Doran, and Janice McAlpine. Mr. O'Toole presented his junior high champs with certificates to the following: Jo Larsen, Colleen Duncan, Marie Roby, Carol Arringdale, Pat Rinehart, Betty Reed, La Vonne Groth, Sue Grant, Edna Martin, Shirley Richmond, and Janice Mondt. Carol Arringdale presented the girls' championship trophy to the student body. Two junior high girls were presented with senior high varsity letters. They were Bonnie Reid and Jo Ann Huffman. To close the program Mr. Solar spoke in regard to participating in extra activities.

Character Education

The Junior High Character Education assembly was held Tuesday, April 3, at 9:05 a.m.

Tom Sandell opened the program by playing 'Nocturne' on his cello, accompanied by Miss Nelson. Charles Lind read Matthew 6: verses 17-34 and led the prayer. Mrs. Henry sang 'Just for Today,' accompanied by Miss Nelson. Mr. Jaggard gave an interesting talk on 'Live for Today and Don't Worry About Tomorrow.' The program was concluded with the benediction by Mr. Jaggard.

It seems as if Gracia C. 'taut she taw a puty tat a makin eyes at her.' Only it wasn't a cat, it was a wolf in sophomore basketball clothing.

Spring Check-up

Manners are extremely important in everyday living. The first item to think of is courtesy in the auditorium. There have been many unfavorable reports of courtesy in the auditorium. It is very important that we show the guest speaker or speakers our appreciation for their entertainment. We must enter and leave the room as quietly as possible, not forgetting to give our full attention during the performance. That means no whispering, no gum chewing, and no writing notes or doing homework.

Courtesy in halls is as necessary as courtesy in homes or on the streets. All throwing gum in fountains should be discontinued. There are ample wastebaskets supplied for such a purpose. Wastebaskets should also collect all the waste paper which is frequently thrown on the floors.

Carving on desks shows inability to control yourself. Surely you wouldn't want someone to come to your house and carve all over your furniture. That is the impression you leave on people who see the carvings. The next time you start to carve, stop and think of the well known slogan 'Fools' names and fools' faces are always seen in public places.' Maybe you will change your mind.

You will never find a time when courtesy does not pay.

Wonder why it is so quiet in fifth hour civics class? Could it be that they have a different teacher?

It seems several of the ninth grade girls are anxious to learn to drive. How come, girls?

Intramural

Another attraction has been added to our intramural program. This new feature is the intramural swimming. It is under the direction of Mr. Elslager and Mr. Ekstrand.

In the seventh grade contest Mr. Elslager's homeroom 207 placed first. His homeroom was followed in second place by Mrs. Williams' homeroom 216.

Miss Simon's homeroom 300 placed first in the eighth grade's events. Second place went to Mrs. Martin's homeroom 240, and third place went to Mr. O'Toole's homeroom 110.

The first place in the ninth grade events went to Miss Thompson's homeroom 208. Mrs. Henry's homeroom 109 captured second place, and Mrs. Markwalder's homeroom 211 was third.
