

Certificates Awarded in Scholastic Assembly Today

Scholastic awards were given in an assembly this Thursday afternoon the fourth hour. The assembly began with a prelude by the orchestra. The girls' ensemble sang, 'Prayer,' by Humperdink. Following this was the candle-lighting ceremony. The main speech on scholarship was given by Marilyn Wiemer; a speech on commerce was given by Sharon Boersma; Don Sellers gave the speech on arts; Shirley Sue Anderson's topic was social studies; Donna De Witt spoke on English; Martha Minson spoke on language; Sharon Richmond's topic was science; and John Seaton spoke on mathematics. After this ceremony, Mr. Moore presented the certificates. Those receiving certificates were:

Seniors

Juniors

Sophomores

The sophomores whose names were read are: Carolyn Herman, Sally Shaler, Dennis Collis, David Fitzsimmons, Mary Longworth, Helen Foltz, Carolyn Munn, David Gustafson, David Rose, Carolyn Longhenry, Larry Anderson, Rosalie Bullock, Kenneth Kammin, Pauline Smalley, Jeanette Stotts, and Irene Nelson.

The assembly was completed with another musical number by the orchestra.

Last year, the school year of 1951-1952, the Boone High School Scholastic Awards replaced the National Honor Society, which had recognized students who ranked high in scholarship but whose induction into the society depended upon school activities. The primary reason for this change was that many people felt that any student who has maintained high scholarship for several semesters merits recognition and should receive awards independent of his participation in activities.

Students who are active in speech, music, journalism, athletics, or any other activity receive recognition in these fields and have the benefits of travel and the social rewards of working in groups, at public appearances, and in service to the community. Some very fine students were unrecognized because they, for reasons beyond their control, such as transportation, work, home responsibilities, or interests

State Speech

Boone High had a fine representation at the Iowa State Speech Contest held at Shenandoah, April 16 and 17.

The play 'Twelve Pound Look,' received an excellent rating. The cast consisted of Sally Shaler, Carolyn Herman, Allen Price, and James Tait.

Other participants receiving ratings from Boone were as follows: Karen Finley received a I rating in interpretive reading; Carolyn Kirk, a I in humorous reading; Everett Hickman, a I in extemporaneous speaking; Gail Letscher, II in oratorical declamation; and Carolyn Herman received a II in radio speaking.

Seniors Top Honor Roll

This nine weeks the seniors led with 29 students on the honor roll. They are, Mrs. Stevens' homeroom: Shirley Cook, Lelia Davidson, Dorothy Long, Carla Menough, Joyce Roberts, Myron Stolte, and John Seaton; Miss Pagel's homeroom: Shirley Sue Anderson, Sharon Aspengren, James Schmickley, Donald Sellers; Mr. Heyen's homeroom: Sharon Boersma, Lloyd Courter, Donna De Witt, Rosemary Humm, Bill Londrigan, Dick Longworth, Ronald Poshusta, Don Ross, and Maxine Sturtz; Mr. Kossives' homeroom: Roma Achenbach and John McPherson; Miss Linderblood's homeroom: John Dennert, Rosalie Gibbs, Dorothy Gibson, Mary Hutson, Sharon Richmond, Walter Stark, and Marilyn Wiemer.

Next came the juniors with 25 students. They are, Mr. Fitzgerald's homeroom: Mary Lou Nelson, Bonnie Reid, and Marlene Trulin; Mrs. Ick's homeroom: Gracia Conard, Virginia Doran, Pat Ferry, Everett Hickman, and Martha Kokinakis; Miss Skilling's homeroom: Dan Doherty, Sondra Hall, Mike Logsdon, Janet Musser, Jeslyn Pearson, and Loris Shadle; Miss Hicks' homeroom: Martha Lauritsen, Eugene Martin, Myra Nell, Tom Sandell, Ronald Schmickley, and Alice Wilson; Mr. McIntyre's homeroom: Phyllis Canady, Bonnie Carter, Conrad Faber, Dorothy Goldsworth, and Joanne Huffman.

The sophomores had 18 on the honor roll. They are, Miss Simon's homeroom: David Gustafson, Carolyn Herman, and Mary Longworth; Mrs. Taylor's homeroom: Larry Anderson, Dennis Collis, Helen Foltz, Carolyn Longhenry, Tom Rinker, Pauline Smalley, and Jeanette Stotts; Mr. Lein's homeroom: Karen Ingalls, Cay Munn, David Rose; Miss Witherow's homeroom: Faye Anderson, David Fitzsimmons, Joyce McPherson, Irene Nelson, and Janice Runyon; Miss Ealy's homeroom: Sally Shaler.

Music on to State

Sixteen soloists and ensembles will represent Boone High in the state music contest at Perry, April 24 and 25.

The ensembles that will be going are: the clarinet quartet, the French horn quartet, the woodwind quintet, the cornet trio, the brass sextet, the saxophone quartet, and the drum quintet.

Bob Hammond, Jo Morris, and Tom Canfield will represent the vocal department in the vocal solos, while the soloists from the band will be Mildred Nelson, Gary Bloomquist, John Dennert, Judy Reed, Richard Alber, and Jerry Wallentine. All these contestants received ones in the preliminary contest held earlier this spring.

LET'S GO, GOLFERS!

'Blue Ballet' by Dolphins

Under the direction of Miss Vanderbeck and Mrs. Feilmann, the Dolphin Club will present their annual water show, 'Ballet in Blue,' on May 11 and 12, at 8:00 p.m. The program will be:

'Blue Champagne': Sue Grant, Carol Achenbach, Judy Otis, Corrine Ballard, Joyce Larson, Helen Foltz.

'Easy Street': Janann Munson, Carol Arringdale, Janice Parisho, and Loris Shadle.

'Blue Violins': Denise Overbeck, Janann Munson, Joyce Williams, Donna Whitaker, Mary Longworth, Carolyn Herman, Loris Shadle, and Carol Achenbach.

'Cocktails for Two': Barbara Nelson, Betsy Lorentzen, Rovenia Larson, and Janice Parisho.

'Solitude': Mary Wiemer, Barbara Nelson, Betsy Lorentzen, Barbara Koppenhaver, Pat Curran, Joyce Williams, and Carolyn Herman.

'Blue Tango': Sue Grant, Joyce Larson, Donna Whitaker, and Mary Longworth.

'Tenderly': Carol Arringdale, Rovenia Larson, and Janice Parisho.

'Blue Moon': Helen Foltz, Kerin Brower, Barbara McCall, and Carol Achenbach.

'Quiet Village': Corrine Ballard and Judy Otis.

The finale will be 'Rhapsody in Blue.'

NOTICE

More than two dozen new fiction books—all subjects—will be distributed at the Ericson Library, Saturday, April 25. Get yours!

Plans for the addition to the high school are now under way. The new section will be attached to the west wing. It will house a machine shop, carpentry shop, vocal agriculture shop, vocational agriculture class rooms, and a garage for the school buses. This part will also include music rooms and practice rooms. The section will probably not be completed before the fall of 1954. There will also be a kitchen and cafeteria serving hot lunches.

Thursday morning, April 16, the T.B. X-ray Mobile Unit was in Boone. All students from seventh through twelfth grades received these x-rays in homeroom groups.

Donna Elected To Royalty

Donna De Witt will be Boone's princess at the Drake Relays next Saturday, April 25. She was chosen by ballot at a high school assembly Friday, April 17, from a group of six candidates nominated by the student council and the high school class officers.

Other princess candidates were Rosalie Gibbs, Loris Shadle, Virginia Doran, Janice McAlpine, and Mary Longworth. These girls, with nine others, were nominated in a joint meeting of council members and class officers; then the list was narrowed to six by vote. Attractiveness and personality were the qualifications considered.

Princess Donna will ride to Des Moines in a convertible furnished by the Boone Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the event. She will also use the convertible in the Relays parade, which those who are not in Des Moines may see on television. She will attend with the Relays queen and princesses, and if the Boone athletes win trophies, Donna will present them to the team. Her mother will be presented with free tickets for the Drake Relays for that day.

Boone Host to Tri-City Festival

Boone will be host to the annual Tri-city Music Festival, Tuesday, April 28. There will be over 200 voices in the chorus, including Boone's 63-voice choir, Fort Dodge's 85-voice group, and Ames' 70-voice choir. They will attend with their directors, Mr. James Hess, Mr. Clayton Hathaway, of Fort Dodge, and Miss Edna Bower, of Ames.

Director for the chorus this year will be Mr. Hayes M. Fuhr, who is the director of the Conservatory of Music at Hastings College in Hastings, Nebraska.

The chorus will rehearse all day and present their concert at 8:00 o'clock in the evening in the Boone High School auditorium.

The following numbers will be sung by the entire chorus: 'Glory be to God,' 'Children of the Heavenly Father,' 'Night will never stay,' 'Black is the color of my true love's hair,' 'Where in the world but in America,' 'Alleluia,' 'In peace and joy I now depart,' and 'My Journey's End.'

Prom Will Be Under Sea

It's just about here. What's that? Why, the Prom, of course. May 1 is the night for the Junior-Senior Prom to be held in the high school gym starting at 8:30.

The grand march, under the direction of Marilyn Brunner, will start promptly at 8:30.

It will be led by Martha Kokinakis, junior class president, and her escort, Dan Doherty. Following will be Jim McAlpine, senior class president, and Loris Shadle.

The orchestra committee, composed of Tom Sandell, Eddie Barquist, Margaret Shafer, and Bonnie Reid, have secured 'Little John Beecher' and his nine-piece orchestra, who will play for dancing from 8:30 to 11:30. Their vocalist is Betty Jordan.

The program committee, Marilyn Brunner, Alice Casserly, Martha Lauritsen, Mike Logsdon, and Bill Curran, have decided to have professional members from the orchestra put on an intermission show.

'Life under Water' will be the theme of this year's Prom, with mermaids, fish, sea horses, seaweed, treasure chests coral reefs, and King Neptune himself decorating the gym. Hanging from the ceiling will be 700 balloons, representing bubbles in the water. In the center will be an octopus four or five feet tall, with tentacles that move and eyes that light up.

The orchestra will play from the deck of a sunken ship. Nile green will be the predominant color of decorations. Those serving on the decoration committee are Andrea Dorman, Joe Smith, Mary Eddy, Virginia Doran, Ronnie Lind, Loris Shadle and Eddie Barquist.

Light refreshments will be served in the homemaking room. Those serving are Phyllis Bloomquist, Mary Lou Carpenter, Juanita Conrad, Lillian Fairchild, Dorothy Goldsworth, Joanne Huffman, Mary Nordstrom and La Vonne Rose. Sophomore girls helping in the kitchen will be Rosalie Bullock, Marion Campbell, Helen Foltz, Patricia Godfrey, Karen Menough, Judy Reed, Janice Runyon, and Jeannette Stotts. Nancy Hutson, Myra Nell, JoAnn Quantz, Dorothy Goldsworth, and JoAnn Huffman are on the foods committee.

On the invitation committee are Sondra Hall, Phyllis Canady, and Jeslyn Pearson.

Honorary chaperones are Mr. and Mrs. Kokinakis and Mr. and Mrs. McAlpine, parents of the junior and senior class presidents.

Faculty members assisting in planning the Prom are Miss Simon, Mrs. Absher, Mr. Lein, Mr. McIntyre and Miss Hicks, chairman.

One senior who has already started in business for himself is Don Taylor. Don lays tile floors on week-ends and in the evenings. He got his training last summer when he worked for the Mullins Floor Service. Although he enjoys his work very much, he isn't sure whether or not he will continue this work.

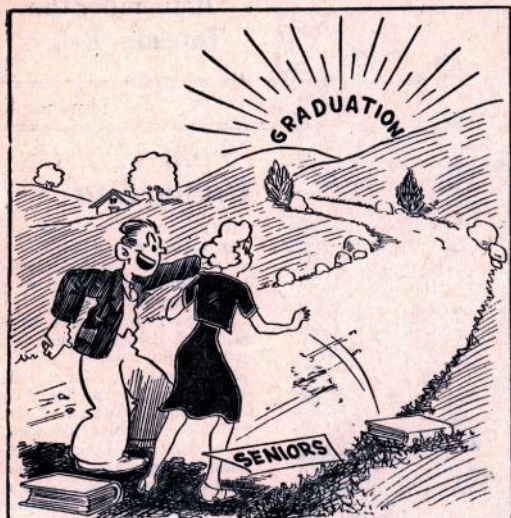

The girls of the chorus will sing 'A Memory,' 'Hi-Ho sing gaily,' and 'Lolly Toodum.'

The boys' numbers will be, 'I got plenty of nuttin',' 'May Thy Blessed Spirit,' and 'I got shoes.'

Admission charge will be 50 cents, and the public is invited to attend.

THANKS, KIWANIS!

Why Not Try J. C.?

This editorial, taken from the 'Purple and Gray,' school paper of Burlington, expresses so well our ideas on the subject that we would like to share it with you.

It won't be long now before some of you Seniors will have to begin thinking about a place to go to college next year, so here's the way I figure...

All right, I know, you're going to say, "Well, I have been thinking about it." Maybe you have and maybe not, but I mean real, constructive thinking not just musing or day-dreaming.

Some of you are just 'surface-thinking.' By that, I mean you're thinking about college's glorious life, its parties, its 'Sweetheart' of Sigma Chi, or maybe you're picturing yourself as an Esquire-dressed fraternity man.

Now don't get me wrong. I don't have one single thing against any of these, but what about the down-to-earth things, tuition, room, board, clothes, books, and all the other things that it takes to get through college 'by the skin of your teeth,' let alone getting through with all its decorations?

'Want a scholarship...?'

Maybe you're a football or basketball player, a track man, a debater, a musician, or just naturally a 'brain.' Anyhow, suppose you've heard the seemingly magic phrase about, "We'll give you a scholarship if you go to our school."

On the surface, without delving into it, this scholarship deal sounds pretty nice. But just what does this offer put down on the line? ... It probably takes care of your tuition, or entry fees, which could run from a low of $70 or $80 to a high of $500 or so, and that's usually all.

Sure, I'll grant you this would help, but in these days, with our present inflationary economic system, a year of college would run between $1,000 and $1,500. This estimate would be without most of the previously mentioned frills, too.

Drop in the Bucket...

With this in mind, you can see that your tuition paid by a scholarship would be just a drop-in-the-bucket compared to your full expenses.

With the large lecture classes of 400 to 500 students, in some colleges it only stands to reason that you aren't going to get as much out of it as you would in a junior college class of about 35, where you could get personal help whenever you need it. Remember, the rest of your post-graduate life will be spent using what you have learned.

What about B.J.C.

Now on the other hand, if you go to our own junior college for your first two years, you're bound to miss out a little of the 'real' campus life. But just think of the money you'll save for the good times you can have when you're in your last two years at a bigger school.

Stay in town with your parents and friends and save around $850 on room and board. All right, so you say you're helping pay that while you live here...

It may deprive you a little bit, but don't forget, the first ones to ignore your debts to them are your mom and dad, not those whose food you eat or beds you sleep in on the 'big' college campus.

Why Not... B.J.C.

The reason for all your big ideas are just simply, "It's too dull here," or "It would be fun," or "I just want to get away and see what it's like."

For the majority of us that old saying applies to college education as well as other things. Deep down you know that if you went to J.C. you'd be better off, get a better background, have less worries and have more time for studying and be able to participate in interscholastic athletics.

'Amateur' (?) Athletics

Too, athletics in a big school take up a majority of your time and you have to be doggone good to get a college offer of tuition, room and board in exchange for a small job. But you don't have to be as good to get this offer as you have to be to keep it.

So why don't you go to B.J.C. your first year or so, then with the money you save during the summer of '53, '54, and '55, finance your way to 'clear sailing' during your junior and senior years of college...

By the way, I'll see you at B.J.C. next year...

When is Sonja R. going to make up her mind? (I wish I knew, personal request.)

How does everyone feel after having 'part' of your picture taken?

Back the track team. Toreador Relays May 5.

What Subjects Should I Take?

Have you ever heard a junior say, "I wish I had more subjects to choose from this year." With 17 elective subjects, three prerequisites, and 10 school activities, no junior can say he is bored with his schedule. Of course this doesn't include all the electives that can be chosen from the sophomore group of subjects.

Usually a junior takes only these required subjects: English, American history, and physical education. For the other two subjects the junior can elect any of the following: speech activities, French, Latin, geography, algebra, solid geometry, physics, physiology, machine shop, mechanical drawing, vocational carpentry, shorthand, typing, commercial law, personal record keeping, homemaking, senior homemaking, and biology or some other science. Besides this there is the varied program of outside activities that a junior can take part in. Some of these are: art, band, orchestra, chorus, athletics, Scroll, dramatics, photography, Bumble 'B,' and several clubs.

Now don't complain, you juniors! After all, look at the WIDE variety of subjects you had to choose from.

New Courses

Next year's schedule will show course changes which will benefit many students. General metals is now being offered to any eligible junior or senior. Seniors may take the course any semester, with the first semester in their senior year being preferred. Juniors may take it in the first and second semester in their senior year only if they begin with the fall semester.

A course called speech activities is offered in the first and second semesters for students of the 11th and 12th grades. Students may register either for one semester or for both semesters. The class is planned for students who would like to do more advanced speech activities than are offered in the fundamental course.

Any homemaking student who knows at the time of ninth grade registration that she may desire to enroll in the stenographic course in senior high school should carefully consider the electives. This is possible only through a summer school program.

Under this change, courses are grouped together under the following heads: General, College Preparatory, Vocational, Clerical or Selling, and Stenographic.

Letters

B.H.S. is trying many new ideas this year, among them the school award letter. In previous years the only award letters given were in athletics and music. The music department had its individual type of point system and likewise with the athletic department.

This year, credits for music and speech work will be merged and a new letter devised. Points are received for orchestra, band, soloist work, and small group work in the music department. In the speech department, credits are received for contest work, for plays, for radio work, and others. All together 50 points are required for a minor letter. Journalism points will be given for editorial, reporting, and advertising work on Scroll and Bumble 'B.'

These new school letters are green chenille capital B's. They are about six inches high and two inches thick. They are very similar to the athletic letters. In years before, music students have received letters in the form of clefs.

BUMBLE 'B'

Published bi-weekly by the students of Boone High School.
Entered as second class matter October 3, 1928, at the Post Office at Boone, Iowa, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

J. C. Initiating Teachers' Course

A two-year teacher training program will be initiated this fall for junior college students. The two-year course will entitle the student to a standard elementary certificate for teaching in Iowa in any grade from kindergarten through eighth grade. The certificate will be the same type as those given at Iowa State Teachers College, Drake, or any other elementary teacher-training school in the state. Mr. Peer, newly-named dean of the junior college, has planned this course to enable students wishing to teach to obtain their instruction more economically. Since the student will probably be living at home, this program will save him a good deal of money. A two-year student in Boone County pays only $60 a semester. The two-year course will provide 64 hours of work for the prospective teacher. This is one hour more than the amount required. The two years of study include the following subjects:

English, introduction to education, elementary school methods, general science, social and economic history of the United States, school management, sociology, American government, speech and speech correction, child development, children's literature, music, physical education, geography, supervised student teaching, educational philosophy, health and nutrition, and art.

Anyone wishing more information about the program should see Mr. Peer.

Members of the cast of 'The Twelve-Pound Look' are Allan Price, Carolyn Herman, James Tait, and Sally Shaler. Virginia Doran is the assistant director.

There will be no senior or spring play because too few students have shown interest in taking part.

Thinclads Sixth At Iowa City

The local track team placed sixth in the Class AA indoor meet at Iowa City, Saturday, April 4. Contributing greatly to this position was the first place won by the Toreadors in the two-mile relay. The locals also received a third place in the mile medley relay, and a fourth place in the shot put. The meet was won by North of Des Moines with 51 points.

One of the outstanding features of the meet was Charlie Hancock's fine showing in the two-mile relay, which Boone won. The team is made up of Joe Smith, Willie Mondt, Pat Ferry, and Hancock. Charlie also paced the mile medley team to a third place finish. This team consists of Ferry, Charlie Bridges, Lynn Hopkins, and Hancock.

Gary Grosnickle set a new record for Boone High when he placed fourth in the shot put with a heave of 45 feet and seven inches.

These were the main events of the day for the Toreadors; several of the other entries from Boone did not qualify for the finals.

Keep a date with the Toreadors. Go to the relays May 5.

New Football Coach B. H. S.

Next fall a new figure will be at the head of the Toreador football squad. He is James McLeran.

Mr. McLeran, a native of Des Moines, is a graduate of Drake University. He was in the service two years and now is head football coach at Eldora.

Mr. McLeran is married and he has two young daughters.

Coach McLeran plans to make several trips to Boone before school is out this spring in order to meet the students and get acquainted. He is planning to have a meeting while he is here visiting with the boys planning to go out for football next fall.

Mr. McLeran plans to move to Boone in June and then attend summer session at Drake.

As yet it is uncertain what Mr. McLeran will teach.

Let's make him feel at home during his visits this spring.

Golfers Win First Meet

On the first real day of spring, last Tuesday, the Boone High linksmen downed the Marshalltown Bobcats by five strokes, 216 to 221, at the Boone course. This was the first meet of the current season for each team.

The 216 represents the total number of strokes taken by the five members of the Boone team.

Bill Curran, Perry Spies, and Dale Hays shared medalist honors as each had a 12-hole total of 51.

The five men who played for Boone were Perry Spies, Bill Curran, Bill Ackerman, Denny Collis, and Mike Bell.

Larry McComber, Allan Brenneck, Dale Hays, Charles Fairall, and Norman Baughn were the members of the Marshalltown team.

Tonight the Toreadors travel to Des Moines where they will play Roosevelt on the Waveland course.

Golfers Check Swing

Boone High golf season is again in full swing.

Mr. Lovin, in the new position of golf coach, is working with about 15 boys, with only one letterman, Perry Spies, returning. Bill Ackerman and Bill Curran saw considerable action last year, but failed to earn letters.

Other members of the team are John Clausen, Lloyd Courter, John Seaton, Bill Curran, Don Jaschke, Don Williams, Conrad Faber, Everett Hickman, Denny Collis, Mike Bell, Dave Fisher, Stan Olander, Bill Bob Johnstone, and Jerry Johnstone.

Due to the bad weather conditions, practice has been limited, but as soon as the weather catches up with the calendar there will be a lot of time for the boys to get their swings in the groove.

The 1953 schedule is:

|                        |       |
|------------------------|-------|
| April 23. Roosevelt    | there |
| April 28. Perry        | here  |
| April 30. Marshalltown | there |
| May 6. Ames            | there |
| May 9. Conference Meet | here  |
| May 14. Ames           | here  |
| May 16. District Meet  | there |
| May 19. Perry          | there |
| May 23. State Meet     | Ames  |

With all the ninth graders we have coming up, Boone High should have good material to work with in the next few years. They looked pretty good this year, and I am sure that they will be more than welcome on the senior high teams.

Rabbit: "This is a Westinghouse, isn't it?"
Woman: "Yes."
Rabbit: "Well, I'm just westing."

Six B.H.S.ers were chosen by the Student Council to serve as candidates for the honor of being chosen Boone High 'Princess' to serve at the annual Drake Relays in Des Moines April 25. The six lucky girls, two sophomores, two juniors, and two seniors, are as follows, (left to right, back row): Donna De Witt, elected 'Princess,' Rosalie Gibbs, and Virginia Doran; (front row): Loris Shadle, Mary Longworth, and Janice McAlpine.

Toreadors Fifth At D. Moines

Boone's thinclads placed a strong fifth Saturday in West Des Moines' Valley Relays, scoring 39 points.

The Toreadors continued to improve, as they showed in the two-mile relay. They won with a time of 8:32.9. Joe Smith, Boone's tall lead-off man, cut three seconds off his time, coming in first with the time of 2:06.9. Willie Mondt cut his time also, but dropped to fourth place. Pat Ferry took the baton and brought the lead back. Charlie Hancock, speedy anchor man, swept past Caesar Smith in the last 300 yards to win the event.

Lynn Hopkins turned in a sparkling performance in the 120-yard high hurdles. Lynn had a three-yard lead at the finish line, with a time of :15.7.

Boone also picked up two seconds. Joe Smith sprinted past all but one in the mile. His time was 4:51. Gary Grosnickle contributed the other second place. He threw the discus 135 feet 4 inches.

The entire meet showed improvement, and fans feel that shows great promise.

Orchestra Highly Praised on Trip

[Courtesy The Boone News-Republican]

The members of the orchestra arrived safely home from Milwaukee Tuesday evening with no casualties, lost and found cases, or other mishaps. While there they played a concert before the National Music Educators' Conference and before the student body of Riverside High School in Milwaukee. A lot of hard work was put in on practicing and playing by Mr. Scholl and his pupils, but in general, all of the players seemed to think that the trip was a 'once-in-a-lifetime' experience.

In order to go to Milwaukee, it was necessary for the orchestra members to earn $1,000. The members themselves earned $800 with two weeks to go. The merchants and other citizens of Boone then came to their rescue, donating over $200 to give the orchestra more than the needed amount.

No Teachers' Relays

Because of a frozen track and predictions of wintry weather for Saturday, April 18, the Teachers' Relays were called off. These relays have been held for the last thirty years, and this is the first time in the event's history that they have had to be called off.

Boone's Toreador track squad had planned to attend. Boone had expected to place in a number of events and capture at least one. Our two-mile relay team of Joe Smith, Willie Mondt, Pat Ferry, and Charles Hancock have been winners in their other two entries and had expected to take this one.

Officials state that the Relays may be planned for a later date.

Why aren't Romey C. and a few others supposed to be noisy in the Bon Appetite?

and abilities in areas in which no activities are organized, cannot participate in activities.

In order that all the students may be aware of their opportunities for receiving scholastic awards the qualifications for membership and recognition for members are being published.

Requirements

A grade point average of 3.2 must have been attained before a student can be recognized for the first award, and this average must be maintained for all subsequent recognitions. To arrive at 3.2 grade point average grades have been evaluated as follows: A, four points; B, three points; C, two points; D, one point.

Any Sophomore II who had for the first semester and the first nine-week period of the second semester maintained a 3.2 average had his name read at the award assembly at which certificates were awarded to juniors and seniors.

Any Junior IV who had attained or maintained a grade point average of 3.2 for 16 semesters was given a certificate.

Any Senior VI who had attained a grade point average of 3.2 received a scholarship certificate. Also any Senior VI who maintains the grade point average of 3.2 for six full semesters or 24 semester credits will receive a scholarship pin at commencement.

To receive a scholarship award a student must have been in Boone High School at least one year.

The teachers certainly will have headaches May 13. Why? Because the Scroll comes out that day. This year we will have more pictures and 80 pages instead of 60. The staff is putting the finishing touches on the yearbook now.

M'town Nips Boone by One Point

Boone High School Toreadors lost their first dual track meet of the season to the Marshalltown Bobcats 77 to 76, here Tuesday, April 14.

The football throw was the deciding factor in the outcome of the meet, since the meet was very close all the way. If the Toreadors had captured fourth place in the event, along with first and third places, which they won, they would have won the meet.

Marshalltown dominated the sprints and relays, but Boone took most of the honors in the field events and the distance races. Pat Ferry, Joe Smith, and Maurice Mowrer placed first, second, and third, respectively, in the mile run. Charlie Hancock took two easy firsts in the 440-yard dash and in the 880-yard run. Dave Fitzsimmons placed second in the 440, while Albert Eamer and Willie Mondt placed second and third respectively in the 880.

Gary Grosnickle obtained the most points for Boone in the meet, winning three firsts—in the football throw, the discus throw, and the shot put.

Jack Becker captured Boone's other first by winning the 120-yard low hurdles.

Gene Tychsen, Arnold, Perry, and Tom Jennings starred in the sprints and relays for Marshalltown.

Since the last report of the track team was given a number of new boys have gone out. They are William Mondt, Maurice Mowrer, Bob Egnell, Richard Smith, John Meyers, Pat Ferry, Tom Rinker, David Fitzsimmons, Gale Morris, Gene Merrill, Clyde Louk, Lynn Hopkins, Gary Irvine. There will also be others out as soon as the basketball season is over.

Chorus Gives Spring Concert

The annual spring concert of the Boone High School A Capella Choir and Glee Clubs under the direction of Mr. Hess, was presented Tuesday, April 14.

The Girls' Glee Club opened the program with 'Comin' thro' the Rye,' arranged by Howorth; 'God Is a Spirit,' by C. Albert Scholin; and 'A Prayer,' by Christoph Gluck.

'Hospodi Pomilui,' by Lvovsky-Lamont; 'Adoramus ti,' by Giovanni Palestrina; 'O Man, thy grief and sin bemoan,' by Ralph E. Williams; 'Crucifixus,' from the 'Mass in B,' by Bach; 'Incline Thine Ear, O Lord,' by A. Arkhangelsky; 'Be Thou Not Still,' by David Foltz; and 'In Peace and Joy I Now Depart,' by David Fether, were sung by the mixed chorus.

After a brief intermission, the Boys' Glee Club sang, 'May Thy Blessed Spirit,' by P. Tchesnokoff; 'Ride the Chariot,' arranged by Smith, with Rex Houston as soloist; and 'Oklahoma,' by Rodgers and Hammerstein.

Next the Madrigal Singers sang, 'Shoot, False Love, I Care Not,' by Thomas Morley; and 'She Is So Dear,' by Michael Praetorius.

The choir closed the program with 'Fireflies,' a Slovak folk song; 'Madame Jeanette,' by Alan Murray; 'Charlottown' (American folk song), arranged by Charles Bryan; 'Black Is the Color of My True Loves' Hair,' arranged by Churchill; 'Set down, servant,' with Tom Canfield and Carol Haberer singing the solo parts, arranged by Robert Shaw; and 'Soon, Ah Will Be Done,' arranged by Dawson.

Native Scots Entertain

Jay Morris and Kay Graham appeared before the senior high student body Tuesday morning, April 7. Mr. and Mrs. Morris have been in the United States only two years; they were formerly from Scotland. Kay was a member of the internationally famous Sadlers-Wells Ballet and is a Scottish Highland dancing champion. Jay has been on radio, stage, and television and has had a number of parts in successful musical shows. They have also appeared before Queen Elizabeth and the late King George.

Mrs. Morris did a number of dances, two of which were the Sword Dance and the Highland Fling. Mr. Morris sang songs, told jokes, and described Scotland.

Both Jay and Kay were dressed in native Scottish costumes.

This program was not only educational but very entertaining. The students had a lot of fun asking questions, some of which Mr. Morris refused to answer.

'B'-lines

by B. A. M.

The seniors have a chance to win an all-expense paid trip to New York City or $250 in U. S. Savings Bonds in a contest sponsored by the Institute for International Government. This is the Third Annual Lawrence S. Myers Peace Essay Contest. The next 11 prizes will be a $100 U. S. Savings Bond. Twelfth and 13th prizes will be $25 bonds. The topic is 'If you were vested with the powers of the President of the United States, what would you do to bring about and maintain peace throughout the United Nations?'

Thursday, April 16, the Future Nurses' Club took a trip to the Lutheran Hospital at Des Moines. They visited the hospital and the nurses' home where they had a party after their tour. They left the school at 12:30 and they were accompanied by the Woman's Auxiliary.

After being introduced by Bill Bice, the Rev. G. G. Davis spoke to the senior high in a character education assembly on April 7. Previous to this, the assembly was opened with a saxophone quartet selection, 'Pastorale,' by W. S. Johnson. Those in the quartet are Mildred Nelson, and Donald Dede. John Dennert, Jerry Wallentine. The mixed chorus then sang, 'In Peace and Joy I Now Depart.'

We don't believe this, but they say there have been a lot of complaints from the girls about dressing up for parties, so it has been decided that there will be no Prom this year. Instead, the faculty is planning a Play Day, with games and favors for all. Short pants will take the place of tuxes, with play suits being worn instead of formal.

In place of the grand march, a rousing game of London Bridge will be played, followed by Drop the Hankie, Round the Mulberry Bush, and others. Scooters will be provided and, for the Rods, toy cars. Parents are expected to see that their children get there on time, while the faculty will take responsibility for getting them back home when the party breaks up at the curfew hour of 8:30 p.m.

Only twelve more days until the Toreador Relays. Let's all keep this date open.

Boy and Girl of the Week

Appearing as the Girl of the Week in this issue, is the dark haired junior, Marlene McAlpine. The tall, slender girl is a busybody, taking part in Pep Club, B-Y-ettes, orchestra, of which she is principal of the viola section, and is vice-president of Future Teachers' Club and a Christian Church youth group.

'Skip,' as she is known to many of her friends, loves to eat hamburgers while watching her favorite tv. program, 'I Love Lucy.' Typing and shorthand top the list of subjects because she would someday like to become a stenographer.

'Skip's' pet peeve is her brother, who is younger. Everyone will agree that Marlene hits the top of the list when rated with her friends as she is just a 'snappy go lucky' type and is always looking for the shiny things in life.

Something seemed to be missing when we had Marlene McAlpine so we will make it even when we add Ronnie Lind's name, a tall, green-eyed junior athlete (and a good one too!). Lettering two years in basketball and football, he is also a valuable member on the track team. The tall, brown-haired boy seems to have many interests in common with 'Skip.' (Seems strange, doesn't it?) He prefers 'I Love Lucy' also, besides his brother being a pet peeve, too. The steady twosome is in the same church groups, of which he is secretary. They both enjoy watching sports, especially basketball. Ronnie's favorite subject is physics as he loves to 'play around.' They must have a hard time on those hamburgers as they are a 'no' in his food list but with her nothing is better. They make a 'swell' pair with their good dispositions. Just take a 'gander' and you will agree when you see them attending the prom.

VOX POPULI

"Do you wish you were a senior?"—this was the question asked of the juniors. Some replies were serious and some humorous; here are some of them:

Jim Brannon: "Yes, because probably the only way I'll ever get to be a senior is via wishing."

Mike Logsdon: "No, because the seniors make a trip to Woodward, and half of our class probably wouldn't get back."

Donna Ades: "Not especially, for I think school is a lot of fun. A lot of us don't appreciate it, but we will after we have to go out in the world and work for everything we have."

Mary Lou Carpenter: "No! Just the thought of being out of school on your own is a little scary. It's a little easier to have Mother and Father foot the bills."

Gracia Conard: "Definitely not! I have enough trouble just being a junior. Besides, I am 'way too short.' I want to gain some height so I won't be the shortest junior."

Loris Shadle: "Yes, I would be older and much wiser?"

Dean Canakes: "Yes; then I could act the part of a rod just like Perry Spies."

Tom Sandell: "I refuse to answer the question, standing on my rights in the fifth amendment!"

Harriet Cameron: "Would I! Then maybe we would get off first floor."

Marilyn McElyea: "No, this way I have another year with Bill."

Marilyn Brunner: "No, because then 'Haberer' wouldn't be in chorus to entertain me."

The one-act play, 'The Twelve-Pound Look,' received a II rating at the state speech contest April 16. Other students participating in the contest went Saturday, April 18.

My Hobby

My hobby is rabbits. Rabbits are four-legged animals. They eat, sleep, and play. Some rabbits probably work, too, but not mine.

I think rabbits make a good hobby because they keep you busy. You have to feed them and keep them clean, and if you ever get caught up, they'll find something else for you to do. They are pretty smart.

Rabbits eat raw vegetables, especially lettuce. I like lettuce, too, but I give it up for my hobby.

Pets teach you to love. I love my rabbits. They make faces at me; they take my food; they cause me extra work; and to show their appreciation they try to get loose.

A Student.

Dear Juniors:

Everyone is familiar with the story of the ant and the grasshopper; how the grasshopper played during the summer and starved and froze when winter came while the ant prepared for the future and spent the winter days playing pinocle with his friends.

Juniors are preparing for the future, to. Only ten more months of school and you will graduate. Are you going to be like the ant and earn your place in the sun, or are you going to be like the grasshopper who didn't realize the opportunity he had until too late?

I must close now; there is a grasshopper begging at my back door!

Mr. Ant.

Spring Symphony

Spring is like a symphony—
So many sounds to hear;
Tinkling of the waking brook,
Bubbling swift and clear.

Birds with flutes and trumpets, too;
Peepers' merry trills;
Brother Loon's big bassoon,
Rumbling up the hills.

Frog's the old bass drummer now;
Hear his loud kerchoog
From a rock or water's edge,
From the old oak log.

All the merry breezes come,
Tune their violins;
Rain strikes up its snare drums;
The concert now begins!
—Mary Courter.

At the last future teachers' meeting, April 10, Mr. Reid spoke on the qualifications of a teacher, how to apply for a job, and teachers' training. Mr. Seaton will speak at the next meeting on the qualifications of a 'good' teacher. Remember, this club is open to anyone interested in teaching.

This is St. George's Day. He is patron saint of Greece, England, and cavalymen.

The Junior Mystery

By Two Sophomore Detectives

We, the MARSHALLS, had a tough time arriving at the scene of the crime because at that time the crime had not been committed.

When we did learn of the whereabouts of the crime, we found that in order to reach it we would have to cross the EDDY on a FERRY. When we reached the NEWLAND in BOONE, we sped up to the shack in our SWANK FRAISER. After being let in by the DORMAN, we entered an ALBRIGHT HALL. From the HALL we investigated the scene of the crime. The bird, which was a MARTIN, was lying on his back in his cage. He was evidently the murder victim. After inspecting the body, we decided we would question the suspects.

We entered the DOHERTY kitchen, where our FURST suspect, the lady of the house, was BROWNING biscuits. She had been washing clothes in the HOLBROOK to get their SURFUS clean. After talking to the lady, we moved on to the next suspect. The results of the talk with the FAIRCHILD, NELL, proved to us that she was not guilty because she had been rolling in PAYNE in the GREENFIELD because the MARTIN was her pet. Feeling discouraged we questioned the DORMAN, who said he loved the bird dearly. Even more discouraged, we wearily plodded to the last suspects, the CARPENTER and his ADES. The ADES said they were busy building an addition to the shack to accommodate MOORMAN. The CARPENTER, after being grilled with questions, finally admitted the crime. He said the murder was accomplished by beating the bird over the head with the lady's SANDELLS because he could not work while the bird was singing 'TOOLEY, ooley, ooley' to the tune of 'ALEXANDER's Rag-time Band.'

We saw it that the CARPENTER paid the PRICE for his crime and that we got our GOLDSWORTH in the form of a reWARD.

Upon completing our mission we placed a ROSE in the bird's claw and smoothed his DOWNING.

Our investigation had been a success!

Six hundred eighty-two students were immunized for diphtheria and small pox in all schools of Boone this year.

WHO'S WHO?

This brown-haired, blue-eyed personality can very often be seen in the halls while traveling to her ninth grade classes. Distinguished by her freckles and witty personality, she gives her height as "I think it's five foot three," and her weight as "exactly 107 pounds."

She seems to have done quite a bit of traveling, living previous to this time in Fort Dodge and Dallas Center, as well as recently moving from the north to the east side of Boone.

Her favorite sport is swimming and favorite song, 'Side by Side,' although she refuses to give a reason for this choice. When asked what is her favorite subject she declares, "I don't have any, but I don't mind homemaking too much." She went on to say that teachers are all the same to her.

It is said that she has a secret admirer who owns a nice crop of blond hair, but she states she is positively 'a man hater' and has no special boy friend. Don't take the hint seriously, boys.

By the way, she claims her favorite foods as being cauliflower and tamales! No reflection on her character.

Question of the Week

What was your most embarrassing moment?

Bob Harder: "The day I was born."

Phyllis Hawk: "When I ran into the back of a truck on a bicycle."

Caryl Achenbach: "I'd be too embarrassed to tell it."

Karen Nordstrom: "At the Elks Club when I slapped David Daehler."

Ann Clausen: "When Romey C. and I got caught in the gym when we were supposed to be in study hall."

Darrel Eccles: "When I got caught putting tacks under people's cars."

Bill Bob Johnstone: "When I was riding a horse and hit a tree and fell off."

Marilyn Hedblom: "Which one?"

David Gibbs: "Can't decide."

Elaine Blaess: "When I was driving Gary's car and went into a ditch."

Bob Barry: "About two minutes ago!" (What happened?)

Helen Clarke: "Don't have any."

Sue Grant: "Can't think of any."

This five-foot 11-inch blue-eyed, black haired masculine giant of 190 pounds is frequently seen throughout Boone High halls. When asked if he had a girl friend he replied, "I had one once, but she got away."

After eight years of city life in Chicago, he moved to the quietness of the Boone residential district where he now resides. He likes all his teachers and subjects. Basketball is his favorite sport, although he participatee in others.

This is his second year at Boone High and he is a member of the Student Congress. Before coming here he attended Sacred Heart.

'Pretend' is this personality's favorite song and all foods are his favorite.

If you are still unable to identify our two personalities from the previous hints, look for their names elsewhere on this page.

INTRAMURALS

Miss Lovell's, Mr. Lamb's, and Mrs. Absher's homerooms took first in the intramural swimming meet.

Some of the leading homerooms up to now are, in seventh grade, Miss Behrens' with 42 points; second is Mrs. Bullock's with 32 points, and third, Mr. O'Toole's with 26 points. Eighth grade standings are: first, Mr. Lamb's homeroom with 32 points; second is Mrs. Markwalder's with 31, and Mrs. Henry's is third, with 30 points. In ninth grade, Mrs. Absher's homeroom leads with 45 points, followed by Mr. Jones' with 30 points, in third place is Mr. Honeck's homeroom with 21 points.

The next activity is softball, starting April 30, if the weather permits.

How come Judy O. and Joyce A. stay home every night? They couldn't be awaiting an 85-licensed car, could they?

Y-teen News

During March the seventh grade Y-teens had three business meetings. After the meetings, refreshments were served and games were played. March 24, the girls made Easter favors for the hospital.

The eighth grade Y-teens had refreshments after their meetings also. At one of their meetings Mrs. Graham Lane spoke to them about the Grey Ladies and their work at Woodward. March 14, the girls had a jean sock-supper. Bob Fisher, from Fisher's Shoe Store, talked to them about the shoe store at their last meeting.

On March 14, the ninth grade Y-teens had a swimming party in the school pool. After swimming, refreshments were served. On March 22 the girls attended the 8:30 service at the Christian Church and on Saturday, March 28, they had a bake sale at Hamilton's Hardware Store. The ninth grade Y-teens sponsored a sock-hop dance at the Y.M.C.A. April 18, for the eighth and ninth grades. Admission was a penny per size sock. Popcorn was sold in the basement of the Y.M. for those who wanted it.

March 28 a number of girls from the 'Y' went to the Y.W.C.A. neighborhood meeting at Des Moines. Those who went from the Junior Hi-Y-teens were Bev. Garner and Sharon Crumbaugh of the seventh grade; Dorothy Reedholm, Janice McBirnie, Cornelia Ellsworth, Barbara Petty, Roxanne Rose, Barbara Jones, Betty Rose, and Lyla Swain from the eighth grade and Janice Patten, Elna Reedholm, Elaine Blaess, Sonja Reedholm, Frances Duncan, Kay Nary, and Sherill Barstad from the ninth grade.

Character Education Assembly

On Tuesday April 7, during the first half of the sixth period, a Character Education assembly was held. It was opened by a French horn quartet playing 'Allegro Risoluto.' Russell Roby, the chairman, introduced the Rev. G. G. Davis, the speaker for the assembly. After the mixed chorus sang 'In Peace and Joy I now Depart,' the Rev. Mr. Davis spoke on 'The Enemies of Jesus.'
