

120 Seniors to Graduate on Friday, May 29

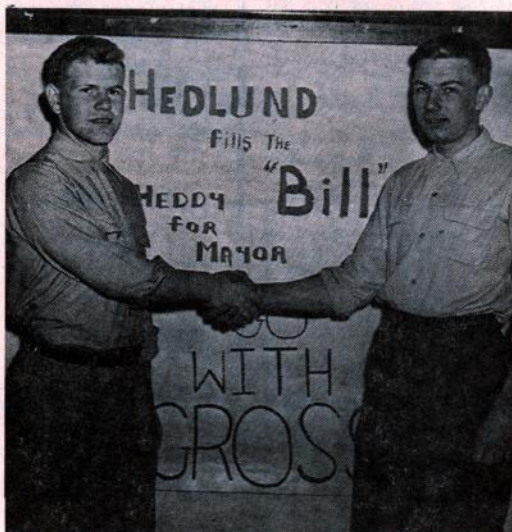

Grosnickle Is Mayor on Student Government Day

Thursday, May 7, will be a day long remembered by many students and teachers. This was Student Government Day, the day the students take over the city offices. This year more students held offices than last year. The officers were: mayor, Gary Grosnickle; assessor, Denny Collis; fire chief, Morris Kelley (acting for John Cooper, who was ill); milk inspector, Kenny Murken; city engineer, Jim McAlpine; city attorney, Donna De Witt; building inspector, Roger Murken; treasurer, Ronny Lind; auditor, Pat Ferry; city nurse, Ruth Stotts; councilmen, Jerry Beckett, Miles Duley, Charlie Hancock, Ruth McCall, Leland Barstad; electrical examiner, Dan Doherty; finance committee, Tom Sandell. Others participating in student government on different committees were: Bill Hedlund, Virginia Doran, Joyce Roberts, Dorothy Gibson, Bill Newbold, Merle Peterson, Alice Casserly, Marilyn Brunner Joreen Hanson, John Peterson, Jim Brannon, Martha Clark, Larry Hall, Jim Schmickley, Tom Canfield, Lynn Hopkins, David Fitzsimmons, Bob Hammond, Don Taylor, Martha Lauritsen, Bill Ackerman, Marlene McAlpine, Janet Main, Rosalie Gibbs, Rosemary Humm, Dean Canakes, Marilyn Weimer, Dick Longworth, Maurice Mowrer, Willie Mondt, John Myers, Albert Eamer, Hank Sellers, and Perry Spies.

Groups Attend Veishea

Several groups from B.H.S. will attend Veishea at Ames tomorrow. Since it is senior day, all seniors will go and may attend any parts of the exhibit that they wish. All juniors taking homemaking will go to Veishea Friday morning. They will go to the homemaking building, the nursery school, and the science open house. Some will be especially interested, since they are going to make home ec their career.

[Courtesy The Boone News-Republican]

Sixth grade students from rural schools near Boone will make their annual visit to the high school Friday, May 15. The visit is a fairly old custom which high school students know very little about. The visitors will remain for the General Motors assembly on that day.

The physics class will go to Veishea in Ames on Friday afternoon. Each student will have to give a report on something he saw. They will try to visit the chemistry, engineering, dairying, veterinary, and atomic energy buildings. WOITV will also be a part of the visit.

Pep Club Reorganized for All

Club to Be Open To All H.S. Girls

Members of the Pep Club in a recent meeting, broadened their next year's membership to include all tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade girls who wish to join. From tonight on, girls who wish to become members may secure application blanks in Miss Thornburgh's office. They must be returned by May 27.

In former years members of each class have voted a certain number of girls to be in Pep Club. Members this year voted to let any senior high girl with a 'C' average or above join if she would follow the regulations.

Some of the rules are: you must be willing to buy and wear the Pep Club uniform at all athletic contests, pep assemblies and at any other designated time, must sit with Pep Club proper at all games, must attend all regular and called meetings. Absences from home games and meetings are excused only if the member has a regular school admit. A member may be dropped automatically by the sponsor or the principal if proof of any violation of the rules is given. Any one with more than three unexcused absences will be dropped.

The first year a girl must earn 100 points in order to get the eight activity points and to remain in the club. Second year she must have 100 points in order to get eight points toward an activity let-

Class Day

Senior Class Day this year is definitely 'the wrong day to play hooky.' Although your Bumble 'B' reporter couldn't discover just why, since Class Day is a top secret and the whole effect is to be a surprise, Miss Skilling, in charge of the program committee, says, "The prophecy is going to be presented in a most unique way!"

The Class Day assembly will follow the traditional pattern, with the key and spoon ceremony, which has been carried on since 1915, and the reading of the class will be the most important parts. Third hour, May 25, is the date set for the assembly, and the class picnic will follow at 1:30 at the Ledges. As usual, the assembly will be attended by tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades.

There will be no live pigeons on the program this year, but rumor says that the student body will be given an opportunity to look into the future and see what is to happen to the class of '53, which ought to prove interesting.

Committees in charge of Class Day have worked hard on it. They are: program committee, Marilyn Weimer, chairman, Shirley Sue Anderson, Maxine Sturtz, Carol Haberer, Bill Bice, Gary Bloomquist, Bill Londrigan, Bill Hedlund, John Seaton, and Willie Mondt; song committee, Margaret Oxenford, chairman, Tom Canfield, Pat Thompson, Larry Hall, and Dick Longworth; and the picnic committee, Dorothy Gibson, chairman, Cynthia Elliott, Janet Main, Roma Achenbach, Harold Sturtz, Walter Stark, Lloyd Courter and Charles Bridges.

Fourth period, May 25, letters will be given for girls' basketball, boys' varsity basketball, sophomore basketball, J.C. basketball, swimming, golf, track, and the new activity letters.

Mr. Moore will present the activity letters. The coaches will give the respective sports letters. Dr. Grove will present the Elks award.

Several students of B.H.S. attended a demonstration May 4 of a comptometer, machine about the size of a typewriter that adds, subtracts, multiplies, and divides. There are only a few of these machines in Boone; two of which are at the Boone Dairy and the Fareway Grocery Store.

Guy V. Keeler Will Be Speaker

Commencement exercises will be held in the high school auditorium at 8:00 p.m. Friday, May 29. Mr. Guy V. Keeler of the University of Kansas will deliver the address, 'Vitamins for 1953.'

The program will begin with the high school symphony orchestra's playing of the Processional, 'Pomp and Circumstance.' The Rev. Harold Wallentine will give the invocation. Mary Hutson will play a string bass solo, 'Introduction and Tarantelle.' Gary Bloomquist will play a cornet solo, 'Stars in a Velvet Sky.' The S. R. Dyer Scholarship Award will be presented by Dean Thorngren. Mr. Moore will present the H. J. Van Ness Valedictory Award. The presentation of the class will be by Mr. Seaton. A. V. Doran, president of the Board of Education, will present the diplomas.

This year there will be 120 students, 68 boys and 52 girls, receiving diplomas. The seniors chose 'Love, Labor, and Laugh' as their class motto. The class colors are scarlet and white, and the class flower, a white carnation. The class officers are: president, Jim McAlpine; vice-president, Marilyn Weimer; and secretary-treasurer, Maxine Sturtz.

Baccalaureate

The Baccalaureate sermon for the 1953 graduating class will be delivered by the Rev. Edwin W. Frohardt, pastor of the First Methodist Church, May 24, in the high school auditorium at 8:00 p.m. The Rev. Mr. Frohardt has selected, 'On Open Door,' for his topic.

Mr. Albert J. Jaggard will give the invocation and benediction. The Rev. William Howard will read the Scripture.

The high school symphony orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Scholl, will play, 'Finale from Fifth Symphony,' and 'March from Tannhauser,' and will conclude the program with the recessional. The high school choir, under the direction of Mr. Hess, will sing 'Hosiodi Pomilui' and 'Children of the Heavenly Father.'

As this school year nears its end may I express my appreciation for the many things that have made my first year in Boone a pleasant one: the excellent morale of the student body; the co-operation I have received from students, teachers, and patrons of the school; the fine leadership the senior class has shown in their final year in high school.

With the rest of the faculty, may I wish each senior a happy and successful career and say to the underclassmen—let's look forward to an even better school in 1953-1954.

G. B. Moore, Principal

A friend has been confined to his bed with rheumatic fever. His name is Tommy Lainson, and he would appreciate it if you would send him a card or stop in at 521 Seventh Street to visit him.

In Appreciation

With the announcement of Mr. Thorngren's retirement as Dean of Boone Junior College, he has received many letters of best wishes from old friends and former students.

One letter mentioned an incident that happened in March of 1939, when Boone was having a bad snow storm. Dean Thorngren's first class of the morning was Bible. When he got up to address the class he looked around and said, "Well, I expected all the seventh graders to be here (in school), but I thought you folks would have enough sense to stay home on a day like this." Then school was dismissed at 10:00 a.m.!

Best wishes to Dean Thorngren! We're glad you'll still be with us, but we know you'll enjoy a little well-earned freedom from responsibility.

Q & S Initiates; Heads Named

During the evening the sponsors announced the editors for next year's publications. Martha Lauritsen and Jim Brannon will be co-editors of the Scroll, and Sondra Hall will be advertising manager.

Martha Kokinak is next year's editor-in-chief of the Bumble 'B'; Marilyn Brunner is advertising manager and Janet Musser is collector. Marlene Trulin, Conrad Faber, and Andrea Dorman will serve as editors of news, features, and sports, respectively.

New members who were initiated were: Shirley Cook, Marlene Trulin, John Dennert, Conrad Faber, Martha Kokinak, Bonnie Reed, Martha Lauritsen, Loris Shadle, Alice Wilson, Virginia Doran, Walter Stark, and Sharon Richmond.

In the afternoon initiates had an informal initiation in which they were dressed in costumes. This was followed in the evening by a formal banquet, with the formal initiation and presentation of pins. In closing the ceremony the old members sang songs about each of the new members.

Boone Second In District

At the district track meet at Fort Dodge last Saturday, the Boone trackmen placed second with only Ames ahead of them. The Toreadors were able to take three firsts in the Class AA events.

Gary Grosnickle took a first in the football throw by heaving the pigskin 227 feet, one inch, for a school record. Gary has been doing a fine job this year. He also cracked the B.H.S. record in the shot put, but took second in that event.

The crack two-mile relay team, composed of Joe Smith, Willie Mondt, Pat Ferry, and Charlie Hancock, brought home another first place. This was no surprise for they have done an outstanding job all season.

In the 880-yard dash, Charlie Hancock took first. This accounted for our three first places.

Boone also won four second places. Besides Grosnickle's runner-up position already mentioned, the 880-yard relay team and the 440-yard relay team captured seconds, along with Joe Smith, who tied for second with Greiner, of Ames, in the high jump.

BUMBLE 'B'

RATES: Activity ticket plus 5c, or 10c a copy.

THANKS

The Bumble 'B' would like to express the feelings of the juniors and seniors and their guests at the Prom and Ki-Hi Kaper when it says, "Thank you," to the members of the Kiwanis Club. For the second year, the Kiwanis staged an all-night party that none of us will ever forget.

Starting with a first-run movie, 'Small-Town Girl,' immediately after the Prom, the party then moved to the Elks Club, where Don Hoy's Band played for dancing, and an outstanding floor show entertained the all-nighters. Free cokes and popcorn were served all night by the Kiwanis. The party ended at dawn Saturday morning when the party-goers were treated to a big, and, of course, free breakfast.

There were several of the couples at the party who took the trouble to thank the members of the Kiwanis for the wonderful time they had, but there were many more who forgot. This editorial should serve to express the gratitude all of us have for the Kiwanis for helping to make the Prom night one of the most unforgettable experiences of our high school days. However, just a word of thanks from each of us who attended the party to a Kiwanian will be much appreciated by those who gave their time and money to provide a really worth-while party for the juniors and seniors of Boone High.

The last Character Education assembly for this year was opened Tuesday, May 5, with a piano solo by Dorothy Gibson. Following Dorothy's solo, the girls' glee club, under the direction of Mr. Hess and accompanied on the piano by Frances Brown, sang, 'Hi Ho Sing Gaily.' Gerald Beckett introduced the speaker, the Rev. Palmer Rupp, who spoke on a character from the Bible, Barnabas.

The Future Teachers' Club has been having local teachers and educational directors as speakers.

Boy and Girl of the Week

Little Maxine Sturtz is busy in nearly every musical group in school plus her activities as class secretary, oboe player in the school band, Y.O.B. secretary, and a member of 4-H. Of course, living on a farm, giving piano lessons, and playing the organ at the Baptist Church in Ridgeport takes up part of her time.

Her hobbies? Well, Max is naturally inclined to have either music or a certain senior boy at the top of her list.

This summer she plans to work as a secretary at the County Superintendent's office in the court house, and later next fall, her aim will be the teachers' course at junior college.

This week we are featuring the senior class president, Jim McAlpine, as our Boy of the Week.

Jim, five feet seven in stature and weighing 145 pounds, is a pretty important member of the senior class. He has participated in almost every sport during his high school career. His favorite pastime is 'Loris.' Jim can often be seen driving his '53 Chevie. His favorite foods are anything except liver, and chemistry tops the list in subjects. He recently served as city engineer for a day.

Jim plans to go to junior college next year. Even though he is just a little guy, he is a big asset to Boone High.

Senior Class of 1953 Foretell Their Futures

Carolyn Anderson ("Number, please"): "As you might guess, I'm going to work in a telephone office after school is out."

Elizabeth Anderson (airbound): "I'm going to join the WAFs."

Shirley Sue Anderson (music minded): "I'm going to work this summer, I hope, and then next fall I'm going to Drake."

Sharon Aspengren (she uses Ponds): "Dick and I plan to be married June 14, and then we'll settle on a farm east of Boone in two years."

Bill Bice (Mr. TV.): "I can't get away from Boone High, I like it so well, so I'll probably attend J.C."

Carol Haberer (peppy): "Going to Clark College."

Shirley Inglesby (quiet): "I might go to college at Iowa State." Raymond Knight (Casanova): "I'm going into the service, I guess."

Eugene Merrill (short): "I'll still be working on the farm."

Charles Hancock (cinderburner): "I'm going to college, but don't know for sure which one."

Gail Letscher (public speaker): "Oh, this summer I'm going to Waterloo and work, and next fall I'm going to college."

Dorothy Long (bucket): "I plan to work some place, but I don't know just where."

Ruth Stotts (Her Majesty): "Work at Iowa State."

Miles Duley (classroom cut-up):

"I'll probably be drafted, so I don't have much choice."

Albert Eamer ('tuba or not-tuba'): "Come back to Boone High and go to J.C."

Larry Hall (the service beckons): "I'm supposed to leave for the Air Force June 8, and after that I'm going to attend the University of Colorado."

Rosemary Humm (Pep Club president): "I'm going to be a counselor at Y.W.C.A. camp this summer, and in the fall attend college, but as yet I haven't decided which one."

Bill Ackerman (links master): "College; maybe Iowa U. or maybe Buena Vista . . . or maybe the Marines."

Lloyd Brown (dough boy): "Am going to join the Air Force and leave sometime soon after graduation."

Tom Canfield (crooner): "I plan on going to J.C."

Jim Cowhick (dynamite): "I might go to college; I might go to night college; I might go into the service; or I might go to work."

John Dennert (penny pincher): "I'm going to attend the St. Paul Bible Institute at St. Paul, Minnesota."

Robert Hammond (digger): "Uncle Sam probably won't get me because I'm in the National Guard. I hope to work for Bell Telephone."

Bill Hedlund (Courtier courier): "I'm going to work on my uncle's farm this summer, and then if I can dodge Uncle Sam long enough I want to go to Iowa State and take general engineering."

Lynn Hopkins (timber topper): "As yet I haven't decided where I will work this summer. In the fall I might go on to college."

Mary Hutson (Miss Chem of 1963): "I hope to be an x-ray technician. If I am I'll get my training at St. Luke's Methodist Hospital at Cedar Rapids."

Doris Long (dance happy): "I haven't decided yet. I'm going to Clinton to see about working in a Du Pont plant—or I might want to go to an airplane school."

Carol Miller (Aunt Mitty): "I guess I'm planning to go to Teachers College at Cedar Falls."

Margaret Oxenford (dolphin): "I'm going to take a trip this summer then I'm going to get a job at the telephone office."

Mina Nelson (jughead): "I'm going to work at camp this summer and then go to nurses' training at Chicago, I think."

Willie Mondt (Willie or won't he?): "I don't know; probably as little work as possible."

Eugene Rose (Here comes the plumber): "I'll work for Kendall Plumbing and Heating this summer and go to trade school in the fall."

Gary Weston (Mr. Editor): "Hard telling what I will do this summer. Probably work and then go to J.C. next fall."

Ken Murken (quiet man): "I'll start college at American Institute of Business next fall; but this summer I'm going to work for my dad on the farm."

Boone High Linksmen Continue Good Season

Perry

Led by Perry Spies, medalist for the meet with a par round of 36, the Boone linksmen stroked out a 174-188 victory over Perry on the Boone course Tuesday afternoon, April 30.

This was the second win of the season for the Toreadors against one defeat. They trounced Marshalltown and were defeated by Roosevelt.

Behind Spies were Bill Ackerman, 45; Denny Collis, 46; Bill Curran, 47; and John Clausen with a 52. The four lowest scores of the team are counted to get the team's score.

Dave Barnes was the low man for Perry, stroking the course in 43. He was followed by Tom Burland, 45; 'Chuck' Mullins, 49; Dan Krieger, 51; and Gary Ross, 53.

Little Cyclone Invitational

Hampered by rain and the lack of sleep, the Toreadors missed placing third by only one stroke in the Little Cyclone Invitational held Saturday, May 2, on the Iowa State College course.

Ames took the meet with a 319 total, with Fort Dodge coming in second with a 339 team total. One stroke behind Fort Dodge were the Toreadors with 340.

Perry Spies was the low man for Boone with a 40-40-50 18-hole total! Behind Perry were Bill Curran, 44-42-56; Bill Ackerman and Denny Collis with identical 43-44-78's; and Bill Bob Johnstone with a 102.

Dave Evards, of Ames, and Frank Judisch, of Fort Dodge, shared medalist honors in the meet with identical 38-38-76's.

CONFERENCE TRACK FRIDAY

We'll miss you, seniors!

C. I. C.

Playing on a wind-swept Boone course, the Ames Little Cyclones won the Central Iowa Conference golf meet Saturday, May 9, with a 340 team total. Close behind came the Boone Toreadors with 344, to captured second place honors.

By touring the course in 355 strokes, the Marshalltown Bobcats took third, followed by Oskaloosa with 367, Grinnell with 369, and last but not least Newton with 426.

Perry Spies once again took medalist honors, as he toured the 18 holes with a one-over-par score of 73. He shot rounds of 38 and 35. Bruce Griffith was the low man for the winners with a 39-42-81 round.

Other members of the Boone team shot as follows: Bill Ackerman 39-44-38, Bill Curran 45-49-94, Denny Collis 46-48-94, and Mike Bill 45-50-95.

Saturday the Boone linksmen will travel to Fort Dodge to play in the district meet.

Ames

With no Ames High golfers shooting over 40 the Boone linksmen fell to defeat before their hosts 153-170, Wednesday, May 6, on the Homewood course in Ames.

Perry Spies led the locals as he went over the tree-covered course in 38. This was just one stroke behind Bill Shepard and Dave Evards of Ames, who shared the medalist honors with 37's.

Bill Curran and Denny Collis were behind Perry with 43's. John Clausen took the fourth man position on the team as he shot a 46. Bill Ackerman, after some bad times with trees, had a 49.

The other members of the Ames team were Tom Bowman, who had a 39, while Jim Lamson and Bruce Griffith each had 40's.

HEDDY'S

Hed-Lites

This has been the issue we have been looking for all year, the last one. This column started this year as a new idea just fourteen issues ago. Whatever I have said, or may say, it has been a real pleasure to be able to write material for my Hed-Lites. Sometimes it's been hard to find things to write, and sometimes I have had to rely on some rather corny jokes, but I sincerely hope you have been able to bear it out with me. I have tried to do my best, and I hope you have enjoyed this particular part of the sports page, along with the entire sports page and complete paper. I'll really miss the opportunity to write for the Bumble 'B' next year, and I would like to wish Andrea 'Andy' Dorman the best of luck as your next sports editor.

I've heard, via the grapevine, that this paper, and especially this column, has a large following at one of our fellow C.I.C. schools, Newton. It seems that 'Scoop' Longworth has a special friend at Newton to whom he sends a copy of this paper. It is read and then passed on to the next person on the waiting list. I think I'll make it a point to send them two copies this time so that our followers from over east won't miss out on one thing contained in our little pride and joy from over here in the west.

The Toreador Relays of 1953 was a big success this year. Let's help to make it just as good next year by attending.

Boone Takes Own Relays

Racking up their third win in the third Toreador Relays, Boone ran away with 131 points, followed by Webster City with 64½ points. Because of another meet, only seven teams were present. They were Boone, Webster City, Perry, Toledo (Juvenile Home), Ogden, Nevada, and Grand Junction.

Boone made a fine showing taking 11 firsts and numerous lesser places.

The first place went to Joe Smith. He tied with Halleland, of Nevada, for top honors in the high jump. Also placing in this event was Ronnie Lind, who took fifth place.

Boone's relay teams took the top honors by winning four firsts. Those relay teams were the two-mile relay team, the mile medley relay team, the 440-yard relay team, and the mile relay team. All the boys in these events should be very proud of their performance.

Jim Cowhick took the 220-yard dash for the second year straight. In the 880-yard run Charlie Hancock took top honors.

Both the 120-yard high and low hurdles were taken by Boone trackmen. Lynn Hopkins took the high hurdles, and Jack Becker took the low hurdles.

Marshalltown

The Boone linksmen took another win Monday, May 4, as they downed the Marshalltown Bobcats 182-185, on the Bobcats' course.

Perry Spies again paced the Toreadors as he took medalist honors for the meet, stroking the par 36 course with a one over par, 37. Perry has been medalist in every dual meet the Toreadors have played so far.

If you have looked at the trophy case lately you know that either a new one should be built or the old one enlarged. Boone has been quite active, it seems, and has taken charge of a number of new trophies. We should have a nice big place for these awards, of which we are so very proud.

Unusual Project

During the last eight weeks of school, the boys in machine shop are allowed to work on any project they wish. One unusual project this year was a car made by Harold Bloomquist, a junior. This was the largest project made in the class and required 2½ hours of work a day for five weeks, which was the greatest amount of time used for any project. Harold gathered parts from any source he could, including parts of pipes and bicycles. The car is gas driven; he constructed his own steering gear and brakes and mounted everything. The work involved basic knowledge of machine shop and was his own design. It was made for his younger brothers and is a single seater.

Who's Who

One of the personalities of this week's Who's Who column is a cute five foot, brown eyed, blond haired seventh grade girl. This cute trick was born at Marshalltown, April 17, 1940, which makes her 13 years old. After living in Marshalltown for four years she moved to Boone. As to the question "Do you like your teachers?" she replied, "They're okay." Arithmetic and geography are her favorite subjects and basketball is her favorite sport, in which she was a 'sub' on the seventh grade team. 'Till I Waltz Again with You' is her favorite song.

This nice 105 pounds of meat was born to Mr. and Mrs. — on December 16, 1940, at the Boone County Hospital. During her early years of life she learned what she learned at Bryant school. When asked what her favorite subjects were, she replied, "Geography and math." She's five foot two, eyes of blue, and in the seventh grade. She likes swimming and in the summer time likes to go on hikes. She is now living at 1227 Eighth Street. Her phone number is —; look in the telephone book, boys, for when asked who she liked, she said "No one." If you can't guess who these sweet little girls are by now, look elsewhere on the page.

Why were so many ninth graders sleepy in class Tuesday?

Ninth Grade Party

The ninth grade party was a big success, being attended by the majority of ninth graders and their teachers. The decorations were the same ones which were used for the Junior-Senior Prom. Dancing was enjoyed during most of the evening, and a floor show was put on by a few talented ninth graders. Bob Barry was master of ceremonies. Daryl Murken played a piano solo; Dick Conard, Richard Alber, and Jerry Wallentine, made up an instrumental trio; the Manriquez twins danced; and a quartet made up of John Harrington, Wayland Swain, Wallace Arringdale, and Daryl Murken sang. Refreshments of brownies and ice cream were served by members of Mrs. Absher's and Mrs. Brunner's homerooms.

After refreshments, a prize was given to the best dancer, Bob Harder. Games could be played throughout the evening by those who didn't care to dance.

Eighth Grade Picnic

On May 21, all six of the eighth grade homerooms will have a picnic at the pavilion in Herman's Park. Transportation will be provided on the school buses. Several games will be played. At 5:30 supper which has been prepared by homeroom mothers, fathers and teachers, will be served. The eats consist of two maid-rites, pop, beans, and ice cream. Table service will be provided. Thirty-five cents tickets will be sold in homerooms on May 14, 15, and 18.

The general chairman is Mrs. Henry. Mrs. Markwalder is chairman of selling the tickets with the assistance of Miss Handy. Those on the food committee are Mr. Dale Hicks, chairman, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jennings. The transportation committee is Miss Della Thompson, chairman, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Houston, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bohlen. Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Nelson, chairmen, with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brookhart and Mr. and Mrs. John Pesek, are on the games committee.

Picnics

The Seventh Grade

Wednesday, May 13, the seventh grade homerooms joined together for the first time in an all-seventh grade picnic. Immediately after school the homerooms gathered at McHose picnic grounds, where games were played and preparation was made for the lunch. While eating his own sack lunch, each student was served pop and ice cream bars. Homeroom mothers, Mrs. Du Bois, Mrs. Albert Herman, Mrs. Ralph King, Mrs. Carl White, Mrs. Westley Roeder, and Mrs. Kenneth Eldien, along with the seventh grade homeroom teachers were chaperons.

Toreadors Win At Sac City

Setting a meet and Boone High record, the Boone trackmen, by taking five firsts, won a decisive victory at the Sac City Relays Tuesday, April 25, at Sac City.

The Toreadors finished with 69½ points, which was 24½ points more than Sac City, second place winner, and 27 points more than Lake City, third place winner.

Charlie Hancock, Dave Fitzsimmons, Jack Becker, and Pat Ferry, running for Boone in the medley, went the distance in 3:51.6, taking one-tenth of a second off the existing record of 3:51.7.

Gary Grosnickle won a first in the football throw by tossing it 211 feet 6½ inches for a new high school record. Gary also took two second place wins, one in the shot put with a throw of 44 feet 9 inches, and the other in the discus with a throw of 120 feet 8 inches.

Boone's two-mile relay team, composed of Willie Mondt, Albert Eamer, Pat Ferry, and Charlie Hancock, took the event with the time of 8:32.4.

Running the mile in 4:47.7, Joe Smith added another first to the list. This was Smith's first victory in such a big event.

Bothered with a leg injury recently, Lynn Hopkins proved in the Sac Relays that his leg is fine. He won a first in the high hurdles, with a time of :16.1.

Charlie Bridges, Jim McAlpine, Jim Cowhick, and Ronnie Lind made up the 880-yard relay team that lost to Lake City by only one-tenth of a second. Lake City's time was 1:37, and Boone's 1:37.1.

By winning this relay, the track team has shown themselves to be one of the finest in the state.
