

Christmas Season Opens With Vesper Service

Orchestra Opens Season With Vesper Service

Soft music and a reverent audience set the mood of Christmas for the annual Christmas concert by the high school orchestra, band, and chorus.

The orchestra played two selections: the Irish Christmas carol, 'The Holy Boy,' and 'Sanctuary of the Heart.' They also accompanied the chorus for some selections.

Members of the Boone High School orchestra are: violins, Ruth McCall, Jean Kost, Harriet Cameron, Cay Munn, Mary Longworth, Carita Strobe, Pauline Smalley, Jeannette Stotts, Marlene Trulin, Barbara Beckett, Donna Holbrook, Diane Morley, Joyce Anderson, Julianne Hays, Darrell Kruse, Keith Josephson, Caroline Stephenson, Mary Lynn Hauge, Marilyn Pesek, Carolyn Kirk, Sonja Reedholm, and Donald Josephson. Violas: Marlene McAlpine, Helen Foltz, Kenneth Aldag, Duane Eckhart, Judith Loveless, and Gracia Conard. Cellos: Tom Sandell, Nancy Hutson, Karen Ingalls, Patricia Braklow, Joan Stotts, Sandra Richmond, Elizabeth Hinz, Mildred Gregory, and Carolyn Herman. String basses: Joyce Williams, Richard McCoy, Gloria Peterson, and John Daehler. Flutes: Donna Whitaker, Bonnie Pestotnik, and Ruth Josephson. Piccolo: Bonnie Pestotnik. Clarinets: Judith Reed, La Vonne Payne, Mary Lou Nelson, and Marilyn McElyea. Bass clarinet: Raymond Guenther. Oboe: JoAnn Hamilton. Bassoon: Lynn Anderson. Trumpets: Richard Alber, Richard Conard, and Marilyn Rose. Horns: Nancy Jo Smith and Shirley Carter. Trombones: Richard White and Harland Whitaker. Tuba: Richard Harvey. Tympani: Richard Davidson. Percussion: Janice Runyan and Rex Chadwick. Mr. Scholl is director.

Band Plays Familiar Christmas Selections

Taking part in the annual Christmas program on December 13 was the high school band led by Mr. Bartholomew. The numbers played in this performance were: 'Christmas Suite' (by Harold L. Walters), 'Hallelujah Chorus' (by Handel), and 'Melody of Peace' (by Carroll Martin).

Members of the band according to sections are: clarinets, Judy Reed, La Vonne Payne, Mary Lou Nelson, Marilyn McElyea, David Gibbs, Jolene Wade, Joan Smith, Barbara Long, John Jacobson, Phil Standley, Mary Ann Lee, Karen Bolen, and Betsy Otto. Bass clarinets: Ray Guenther and Tom Anderson. Oboe: Jo Ann Hamilton. Bassoon: Lynn Anderson. Flutes: Donna Whitaker, Bonnie Pestotnik, Charles Jensen, Ruth Josephson, Marilyn Wiley and Sandra Hick. Saxophones: Mildred Nelson, Bob Hamilton, Donald Dede, Jack Brannon, and Sterling Clink. Trombones: Richard White, Harlan Whitaker, Merle Nelson, Jim Taylor, Gale Price, and Sharon Tilley. Baritone: Frank Mesick and David Nelson. Tubas: Richard Harvey and Keith Parkinson. French horns: Nancy Jo Smith, Shirley Carter, Robert Musser, and Janet Carter. Cornets: Dick Alber, Dick Conard, Donald Cross, and Jon Ewing. Percussion: Dick Davidson, Janice Runyan, Rex Chadwick, and Frank Whitman. String bass: Joyce Williams and Richard McCoy.

Toreadorettes Face Fernald Friday

Fernald is the Toreadorettes' next aim. They play here Friday, December 18.

Fernald has a rather inexperienced team. Most of their outstanding players graduated last year, and the team is thought to be rebuilding this year.

The starting lineup for Boone is expected to be six of these eight girls. The four prospective forwards are: Mary Courter, Bonnie Reid, Sandra Hall, and Anne Clausen. Prospects for guard positions are: Janet Musser, Rosemary Chance, Joan Huffman, and Joan Cornelius.

Hanging of the Greens at 'Y'

Tradition and custom were revived by the Y-teen members Monday, December 14. Joan, the new 'Y' director, introduced an old 'Y' custom, 'Hanging of the Greens.' At 7:00 p.m. the ninth grade Y-teens, the Live Y-ers, the B-Y-ettes, and the Hi Tri began to decorate the Y.W.C.A. parlors, accompanying their work with Christmas carols.

The Christmas mood overflowed from the 'Y' as everyone strung ropes, popcorn, and cranberries for the Christmas tree. One of the more interesting features was the bookcase, which featured a picture of the Madonna and Child. This was done by some of the B-Y-ettes.

At 8:00 the 'Y' doors were unfurnished to welcome the public at an open house. The Y.W.C.A. Board of Directors served punch and cookies.

Later, at 9:00 o'clock, some of the Y-teen members presented a closing program. Before the lighting of the Christmas Candle by Colleen Duncan, Helen Foltz and Carita Strobe played a duet on the piano. Marsha Harrington, Carolyn Clark, Marion Campbell, and Carolyn Herman read sections of the Christmas Story from the Bible, while Carita and Helen played background music. 'O Holy Night,' sung by Janice Mondt, and Christmas carols sung by everyone, closed this traditional Christmas Vesper honoring the birth of Christ.

Art Department Christmas Projects

Everyone has noticed the beautiful Christmas window painted by the art department. Alice Wilson designed it, and Jacque Driscoll, Donna Efkamp, Carolyn Goetz, Janice Johnston, Delores Stevens, Judy Conway, and Ed Barquist were the artists.

The seventh grade are making door decorations, centerpieces, and wreaths.

The eighth grade are having lots of fun melting and coloring wax to make candles.

The ninth grade are not exactly doing a Christmas project, but they may use their work for Christmas presents. They are making pictures from copper attached to wood.

SEASON'S GREETINGS!

If faculty members looked a little puffy last Friday it was probably due to their lack of will power. Fourteen kinds of Christmas cookies, along with salted nuts, coffee, tea, and cocoa, made up the menu at their annual Christmas tea held after school Thursday, December 10. Mrs. Brunner's home economics classes did the baking and prepared the Christmas decorations for the tables. Joanne Jacobi, Shirley Hines, Kaye Price, and Sandra Atherton served as hostesses, under the direction of Mrs. Brunner and Mrs. Absher.

The advisors are pretty proud of most of the students. Out of 207 in the tenth grade, 18 students were neither absent nor tardy during the first quarter. The junior class had 67 out of 166, and the seniors had 53 out of 140. The students are also to be commended on their average daily attendance, as 96 percent of sophomores, 97 percent of juniors, and 97 percent of seniors were in school the first quarter.

In preparation for the coming Christmas season, let us try to re-discover its real meaning. If it is to have real significance, it must be Christ-centered. This means that the materialistic philosophy of our day must reverse its thinking and make the festivities of the season secondary in importance. In this way we can be the means of bringing to our boys and girls the real meaning of Christmas. Its real significance will be reserved and will continue to enrich the lives of those who follow, and we shall restore to youth its rightful heritage.

With the school year almost half over and the Holiday season approaching, students and faculty alike are looking forward to the two weeks of vacation during which they may enjoy the relaxation from school routine, not to mention the joy of celebrating Christmas and New Year's.

Christmas is a wonderful season and the high spot of the Christian calendar; its true meaning should never be forgotten in the sometimes feverish activity that predominates during the holidays.

It is our sincerest wish that students and faculty may have a Merry Christmas and a Joyous New Year before we return to classes on January 4.

G. B. Moore, Principal D. F. Seaton, Superintendent

'WASTED TIME.' How much attention do you give to these two words? They are especially important in everything you attempt to do. Wasted time can mean the difference between success and failure. As a student, you'll find these terms would apply to your schedule of subjects. Stop and think of all the time you've wasted in your classes, writing notes or maybe drawing artistic sketches in your text books.

Maybe, because of either of these things, you've flunked that history test or you didn't get your English homework completed (or even started).

Learning to make the most of your time in the best way possible is one of the vital abilities you can acquire and put to use. You, as a student, should be in school because you have the initiative and desire to learn, not because your folks demand it. Anybody who really wants to learn and to get ahead is not going to be found wasting time. So if you don't happen to have that interest already, let's get with it. Make out a time schedule, allowing so much time for each subject, and don't ever think it a great sin to take a book home at night, even if it isn't done very often.

Always remember to make all your time have a value, in school or out, and in the long run, you'll be happier for it.

Be Selective

"Well, gee! I didn't have time to study for that test! How can I help it if I failed again? After all, what nights do I have free to study? Monday night there's band and orchestra; Tuesday there's a 'Y' meeting; Wednesday, play practice; Thursday, Dolphin Club; and Friday there's always a game. My libraries all seem to be taken up with photography, Bumble 'B', Scroll, or something else."

Stop and think. Does this sound familiar? Have you ever thought for a minute or even a half a minute, about these different activities you belong to? How much good they are doing you? Are you doing your best in each and every one of them? Why not think about it? If you try, you'll probably come to the conclusion that many of us do; we take part in too many activities.

But don't stop there if that's what you find. Write down the different organizations, then write down what you can do for each organization, what they can do for you, and then how much time they take. From such a list, the job of weeding out the extra activities becomes much simpler.

A good saying to help you along is one which is as old as civilization itself, "IF A JOB IS WORTH DOING, IT'S WORTH DOING WELL."

BUMBLE 'B'

Published bi-weekly by the students of Boone High School.

Entered as second class matter October 3, 1922, at the Post Office at Boone, Iowa, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

RATES: Activity ticket plus 6c, or 10c a copy.

Vox Populi

What projects do you think the Student Council should undertake? Janice Parisho: "They should have more school-sponsored dances for the whole student body."

Tom Sandell: "I think we should have a 'beef board' (this does not refer to agriculture) in which any student can have the opportunity of bringing his views before the council on any problems or controversies."

Leta Winans: "They should do something about the teachers that all give tests on the same day, especially Friday."

Enzenia Cunningham: "Before I came to Boone, I lived in Pittsburg, Kansas. At school we had a box supper on Valentine's Day with a King and Queen. A lot of money was raised, with the boys bidding for the girls' boxes. This would be a good activity for the Boone Student Council."

Barbara Crouse: "They should paint and refinish the rest of the girls' rest rooms."

Wallace Pratt: "Put more stress on school activities."

Francis Miller: "Have movies that teach you how to read fast. In the school I'm from we had about three movies a week where we learned to read a sentence at a time. I got up to about 650 words a minute. I wish we had that here; it would certainly help a lot."

Carolyn Longhenry: "Have swimming at noon."

What do you want to find under the Christmas tree?

Donan Whitaker: "A certain sophomore boy."

Dave Fisher: "A convertible."

Sue Grant: "A great big puppy dog." (Stuffed of course.)

Joan Lyons: "Gary Grabau."

Marilyn Miller: "A certain person."

Dave King: "A great big bundle of joy."

Avanelle Eamer: "A certain boy." (With a two-tone green Pontiac.)

Jim Lawless: "A fire engine."

Faye Anderson: "Leo tied up in a big red ribbon."

Dick Conard: "A real cute Sacred Heart girl."

Carolyn Herman: "Nothing much; just a baby-blue Cadillac convertible."

Dave Keneipp: "Something that looks like Marilyn Monroe."

Judy Otis: "A great big toy squirrel."

Jake Lee: "All the girls in the school, including mine."

Joyce Larson: "Something to keep me warm."

Men Only

Tremendous news in boys' fashions! Can this mean a revolution in the male clothes world? These astounding garments have just been flown in from Hogwallow, Arkansas, world capital of men's fashions. Yes, men, trousers will be worn six inches shorter. Oh, Mr. Shadle, won't you be the bang of the chemistry lab, though?

More good news, fellahs; do you suffer from bagging T-shirt neck lines? Do you often get your T-shirt on up-side down because you can't tell which end is for the neck? Well, brighter days are here! T-shirt manufacturers have put out a new type of T-shirt that doesn't lose its elasticity. I should say it doesn't! Every day of the year that you wear this new T-shirt, the neck will cling to your Adam's apple and slowly choke you to death. No more sagging necklines for you; just a sagging neck.

And now for the guys who aren't average. A new fad has exploded into your lives. No more of these common shoulder suspenders, but the new, fascinating, halter neck suspenders. Instead of the crushed and wrinkled shirt shoulder, you now have a band fastened in front and reaching around the back of the neck and down in the front again. You will probably have to invent your own solution for droopy breeches in back, but remember these halter neck suspenders are for individualists only.

A word now for the well dressed high school lad. Cashmere shoe laces are here to stay! Ask Santa for several pairs. There are many captivating colors you can choose from: springtime chartreuse, royal purple, harvest moon orange, lipstick red, and delicate baby blue. Any of these look especially interesting with white bucks.

Be seen! you around!

Dick Hicks: "I have a sliver in my finger."

Mike Ferry: "Been scratching your head?"

Have you noticed the new seating of Pep Club? The new rule allows members to sit anywhere. The objective of this plan is to promote more spirit at the games.

School Spirit, Sportsmanship

The following code has been adopted by the Student Council and Student Congress of Boone Junior-Senior High School. It was introduced to the student body at the pep meeting held November 20.

In order to be successful, a school must run harmoniously. There must be unity of spirit, good teamwork, and co-operation among classes. The welfare of the entire student body is of the greatest concern, not the welfare of any particular class. Try to make your class the best that has ever graduated from your high school, but above all try to make your high school the best school from which you could be graduated.

1. I will consider our athletic opponents and their fans as guests and treat them accordingly.
2. I will consider the officials as the proper authorities to make decisions and will accept their decisions without demonstration.
3. I will do everything in my power to prevent heckling, booing, throwing objects, or other acts of discourtesy.
4. I will support the team and coach regardless of the winning record of the team. I will consider the age, skill and experience of the team's members as factors in winning. I will remember that good material is necessary for a coach to win games.
5. I will take pride in promoting good sportsmanship among the spectators, players, and coaches and lend my wholehearted support to any program that strives for this.
6. I will attempt to become more familiar with the rules and fundamentals of the game in order to become a more intelligent and understanding spectator.

Suggestions for Improving the Basketball Games:

1. Pick a seat for the game and keep it until between halves and between games.
2. No running in the building.
3. Keep off the playing floor.
4. Yell with the cheerleaders.
5. Do not come to a game unless you are going to back your team.
6. Give your attention to the game, not to your neighbor.
7. Do not leave until the game is over.
8. Get to the game on time.
9. The reserve seats are on the west side, do not sit there unless you have a reserved seat ticket.

Toreadors Fall To Ames

In spite of handicap in height, the Boone Toreadors played a brilliant game of basketball Friday night, December 4, but came out on the short end of a 53-46 score.

Ames started the game with an average height of slightly over six feet one inch. Boone entered the game with an average of a little over five feet ten inches.

Boone outdid the Little Cyclones in the last half, outscoring them 20-19. In the second half, because of the Toreadors' press, the Ames forwards and center had a hard time getting their hands on the ball.

This was one of the high lights of the game, the defensive play of the Boone quintet. Ames previously had a 71-point average per game and the Toreadors held them to 53 points. This speaks highly of Boone's cagers.

It was probably the first quarter that gave the Cyclones their victory. After the first few minutes of the game the score stood nine to one in favor of the Cyclones. After that the Toreadors never quite caught up with their opponents.

Leading the scoring for Boone was Ron Lind, who scored 17 points. Denny Rust was top man for Ames, pumping in 23 points. Jack Becker and Dave Gustafson did a very fine job on defense. Lind, Joe Smith, and Denny Collis did well working the backboards.

In the first game of the evening the Boone sophomores defeated the Ames sophomores by a score of 50-48. J. Peterson was high scorer with 12 points.

Why are there so many people in the Nosey to Newsy column?

Toreadors Drop Second C.I.C. Contest

Last Friday, December 11, the Boone quintet lost a decisive battle to the Cardinals of Newton, 62-46.

The Toreadors were definitely not up to par, and their defense, which has been the bright spot so far this season, lagged considerably.

Dave Fisher's rebounding in the second half was about the only light in an otherwise dark evening.

Main, Newton's powerful center, collected 23 points in the first half but was held to six free throws in the last half. His total for the evening was 29.

Joe Smith and Denny Collis tied for scoring honors for Boone, both dumping in 11 points. Ronnie Lind followed a close second with 10 points.

In the opening game of the evening, the Boone sophomores lost by the score of 52 to 38, at the hands of a powerful Newton sophomore club.

After having an appendectomy November 1, Kenny Sparks has been coming along fine in basketball. Coach Gillespie feels he shows promise, and since he is now a junior, his senior year should be even better.

Ask Jack Brannon what farsightedness means.

Girls Suffer First Loss of the Season

The Perry sextet spoiled the perfect record of the Boone Toreadorettes by defeating them 57-50 on the Perry hardcourt December 8.

Outstanding play in the game was shown by Juanita Diddy, Perry forward. She scored 27 points in all, dumping in 22 of them in the second half. Perry took a seven to nothing lead early in the first quarter and never gave up their lead.

Due to the close guarding of the Perry defense, the Boone Toreadorettes were unable to get rebounds. They were also unable to get the ball worked in under the basket for lay-up shots.

Bonnie Reid led the Boone Toreadorettes' scoring, with a total of 23 points, followed by Sondra Hall with 18.

'Chuck' Musser: "Number nothing. I just put a dime in this thing and I want my chewing gum."

Girls Down Paton 62-57

Boone Toreadorettes played the closest game of the season Friday, December 4, against the Paton sextet, at Paton. Boone was behind most of the game but pulled ahead in the final stages to win 62-57.

Paton had a very small team, and many times they caught the Toreadorettes off guard. The floor at Paton was also small and was a handicap for the Boone girls.

Sondra Hall was high scorer for the Toreadorettes as she pumped in 38 points, 30 of them on field goals. Bonnie Reid was next with 15 points. Top scorer for Paton was Jane Easley, with 32 points.

The starting forwards for Boone were: Anne Clausen, Bonnie Reid, Sandra Hall. Starting guards were: Janet Musser, Joan Huffman, and Rosemary Chance.

Marshalltown, Boys' Foe Tomorrow

Boone's Toreadors will be out for their seventh duel when they travel to Marshalltown Friday, December 18.

So far this year the Bobcats have not been defeated. This is probably due to the fact that they are an unusually tall club.

The games up to date have all been 'hot' ones, and the game between the Toreadors and the Bobcats will probably prove to be a very worthwhile one to see.

Teachers' Christmas Vacations

Not only the junior high students are looking forward to a vacation, but the junior high faculty are anxiously waiting for 16 wonderful days free from kids, books, and chool!

Many teachers are remaining in Boone to be with their families and friends. Others are spending the holidays out of town. Miss Ulferts is visiting her mother and sister at Stanwood. Traveling to Coon Rapids to be with her mother will be Miss Lovell. Mrs. Henry is going to Cedar Rapids to be with her grandchildren and father. Mr. Lamb is heading for Cedar Rapids, also, to be with relatives. Home to Waverly, is what Mr. Roloff has planned for part of his vacation. A week of Mr. Lovin's vacation will be spent with his wife's relatives. Mr. Carroll plans to go rabbit hunting at Sumner. Good luck, Mr. Carroll! Miss McCoy and her sister are going to Des Moines. For the first time in three years, Mr. McCartan will be with his family at Pocahontas. His last three Christmases have been spent with the U.S. Army. Much of Miss Thompson's vacation will be spent with her sister at Minburn. Miss Behrens has planned her vacation to be in Ottumwa, with her father and sister. Then she and her father are going to Chicago to visit other relatives.

The junior high kids hope that the teachers will have a chance to rest and have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Do You Know?

Do you know where you would have been to have seen in one day:

Two thousand three hundred and twenty eyes, 92 red heads, 180 (the true McCoy) blondes, 270 chalk erasers, 310 pairs of glasses, 788 windows, 1,121 students' desks, 6,371 library books, 1,628 shoelaces, 5,670 school books, 1,341 feet of corridors, 260 chairs other than students' desks, 80 cases of paper towels, 20 gallons of soap, 163 butcher haircuts, 280 bars of soap, 109 maps, 69 pictures, 742 lights, 593 doors, 55 pencil sharpeners, 390 steps, 208 waste paper baskets, 497 white bucks, 173 radiators, 74 clocks, 803 lockers, and 300 tables?

In case you don't know where you have been, you have taken an extensive day's tour of all the rooms in the Boone High School.

It took you 57,630 seconds to compile the above statistics.

Did you get weary feet, too?

Mrs. Markwalder is recuperating from her operation. We hope she returns after Christmas vacation hale and hearty.

We are very glad Mr. Lamb is back and hope that he will take things easy for a while, especially tests.

What do you like best about Christmas?

The junior high, like the teachers and senior high, think that the 16-day vacation is the best part of Christmas. Others added:

Dick Ray: "Rudolph."

Susan Peterson: "The fun and excitement of Christmas Eve."

Betty Lincoln: "Santa Claus."

Jon Ewing: "Gifts and food."

Sandra Prime: "I am looking forward to getting up early on Christmas morning and opening presents."

Irene Morello: "Sixteen days of late sleeping."

Le Roy Wood: "Vacation (oh boy) and presents."

Hazel Deal: "No assignments and no teachers to watch us for a while."

Mike Newbold: "I'd like to stay up Christmas Eve and see Rudolph, the red-nosed reindeer, with St. Nick!"

Joyce Hasstedt: "Snow and Christmas carols."

Marietta Heitkamp: "The thing I like best about Christmas is to see if I can stay awake to see Santa, but I haven't made it yet. Do you think I will?"

Janet Larson: "Vacation!"

A few of the students have very definite plans for their vacations, such as Bill Herman. He is going to Florida. Have a nice time, Bill.

Ninth Grade Hi-Y

The ninth grade Hi-Y was organized Thursday, December 10, under the direction of the Y.M.C.A. secretary.

The officers elected were: president, Dave Dearing; vice-president, Jack Brannon; secretary, Keith Parkinson; sergeant at arms, Larry Meyers; and chaplain, Frank Mesich. The program committee is Jack Brannon, Jim Taylor, Dave Bender, and Jay Fisher.

The installation of the officers will be tonight.

This club is planning to have fun and have social gatherings, and also to do useful things.

They meet every other Thursday at the Y.M.C.A., at 7:30.

How did everyone like the wonderful smells that came from the homemaking room?

Just think, kids, nine more days, 216 hours, 12,960 more seconds till Christmas!

Christmas Program

Friday, December 18, Mrs. Brunner's, Mrs. Bullock's, Mr. Bukoff's, and Mr. Fisher's homerooms are going to present the Christmas program to the junior high students.

The program will start with the processional, 'O Come All Ye Faithful,' sung by the ninth grade girls' chorus with the audience joining in on the chorus. Other musical numbers 'No Candle Was there and No Fire,' and 'What Child Is This,' will be sung by the ninth grade girls' chorus. The string trio, composed of Caroline Stephenson, violin; Sandra Richmond, cello, and Ruth Josephson, piano, will play, 'O Santissimo.'

A play, 'What, No Santa Claus?' will be presented. The cast will be Mervyn Eastberg playing Santa Claus; Shirley Carter playing Mrs. Santa Claus; Sterling Clink playing Jingle; Ronald Davidson as Dingle; Roswald Elsberry as Winky; Roswald Elsberry as Blinky; Jack Brannon as Holly; Dennis Schmickley as Jolly, and Susan Jones as Mistletoe. Patricia Mudge and Helen Morris will be first and second voices from the radio. Marilyn Pesek will be prompter.

The stage crew will be Larry Jackson, Dennis Hora, Jack Robertson, and Joan Mishlove. A Christmas reading will be presented by Hazel Deal. Two dance numbers, 'Winter Wonderland' with Carolyn Kirk, Sandra Chance, Judy Eastberg, Kay Wright, Caroline Stephenson, Marchene Harrington, Rosalie Bullock, and Sandra Anderson, and the other, 'Snowman,' will be presented by Jon Ewing. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Josephine Liddell.

The program was arranged by Caroline Stephenson. The announcers are Dick Ray and Gary Richmond. The program will end with carol singing by the group, led by the ninth grade girls' chorus.

Annual Banquet

The seventh, eighth, and ninth grade football boys were guests of the 'B' Club at their sixth annual smorgasburger December 9 at the Farm Bureau hall. After everyone ate a tremendous meal Mr. Carroll, Mr. Gillespie, and Mr. Brookhart introduced their respective football teams. Ray Morris, toastmaster of the evening, introduced the Boone High School coaches and Mr. McLeran, the guest speaker. Mr. McLeran's topic was 'You have to be a winner to be successful.' To top the evening off sports films were shown.

Y-teens

The ninth grade Y-teen girls went to the Eastern Star Home on November 25 to give a Thanksgiving program. Betty McElyea played a piano solo and Karen Bohlen gave a Thanksgiving reading. Eight members of the group and several of the ladies took part in a program, 'I've got a Secret.'

On December 2, the Y-teens made Christmas tree decorations and voted to pack a box of food for a needy family in Boone.

The eighth grade Y-teen girls made Thanksgiving favors for the Boone County Hospital. On December 5 they had a bake sale. They had a Christmas party December 15 at which they brought toys to be sent to an orphanage. The Y-teens are also bringing cards to be given to the Gray Ladies.

On November 7 the seventh grade Y-teen girls made Thanksgiving favors for Swedish Old People's Home and they also made favors for the State Hospital at Woodward. This Y-teen group is also providing a gift for a girl. The group brought and packed goods for a needy family.

Christmas Baskets

As on other Christmases the Student Congress will again distribute gifts of food to needy families in Boone. Every student in junior high is asked to contribute a potato and an onion plus some type of non-perishable food. The Student Congress representatives are asking the students for money donations to buy hams for the baskets. We hope these gifts will give some families a Merry Christmas.
