

New H. S. Addition Expected to Be in Use by 1955

"We hope to be in it some time next year, but not before the second semester," says Mr. Seaton, in speaking of the new addition to the school. Construction will soon get under way, and the building may be put to use around February or March of next year.

Location

Located at the southwest corner of the original part of the high school building, the section running north and south, the addition will be built on the present parking lot. It will be three stories high, with second and third stories connected to the old building by corridors, but with no connections from the first floor. On the second floor the corridor will run through the present teachers' lounge, and on the third story it will pass through the radio room.

Brick in the addition will not match the brick in the old part; Norman brick will be used in the new building with no attempt to blend the color with that of the present building.

Floor Plans

The first floor will contain the shops. There will be the carpenter shop, machine shop, finish rooms, storage rooms, vocational agriculture classrooms, a shop laboratory, and a janitor's office.

Rooms will be on just one side of the corridor on the second floor, although this floor will cover as much area as the first one. It will be made up of kitchen, lunchroom, and a mechanical drawing room. To one side of the lunchroom will be a smaller lunchroom which can be shut off from the larger one for private lunch-time meetings. Ladies will work in the cafeteria, and student help also may be used.

Music Department

Windows will line one side of the hall on the third floor, as on the second, so when you walk along the corridor you can see what's happening on Sixth Street. Music will fill the entire third floor. There will be a vocal room, with an office for the vocal instructor and a storage room for robes, music, and other accessories. There will be built in risers in the chorus room. There will also be a large instrumental music room which can be used by either band or orchestra, and a smaller room which also can be used by either group. This set up will be similar to the present one. Separate offices will be built for the band and orchestra leaders. The third floor also includes five individual practice rooms which will be sound proof. No windows will be installed on the north side of the third floor so that in open window weather music will not carry over to other classes.

Parking Lot

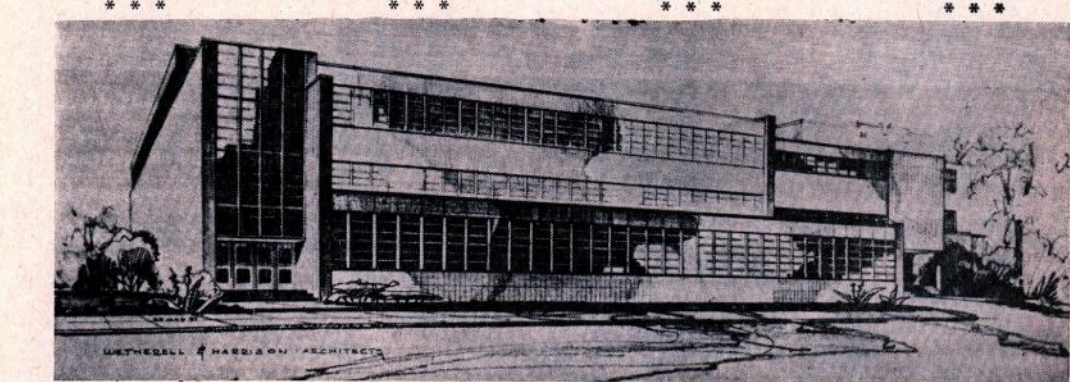

Floors in corridors will be covered with glazed tile and it also will be used on the walls of the kitchen. The building won't cover the entire parking lot. A space between the two buildings will be cemented and still used for parking.

The cost of all this improvement will be about $425,000.

Other Changes

The new building will bring about some changes in the present classroom set up.

The present art room is going to be used for classes. After the addition is built, art classes will meet where the present carpentry classes do. In place of the vocal room, there will be a little theater, including a small stage with curtains and seating about 100 persons. Teachers' lounges will be located in the present mechanical drawing room.

Washington school will be torn down, but not until the addition and the other grade schools are completed. The basement will be filled in and the space may be used as an off-street parking area or as a field for gym classes.

Contract Is Signed For Prom Orchestra

The first of March isn't far away. And that's an important date for juniors.

Although the date of the Junior-Senior Prom is set for May 7, the deadline is March 1-5 for juniors to pay their class dues of $2.50 in order to be able to attend. The week following this, the seniors who didn't pay last year and the junior college students wishing to attend will be given a chance to pay their fee of $1.25. An extra dollar will also be charged to those who are bringing partners who are in neither the junior nor the senior class. Although the Prom is nearly three months away, committees appointed by Gary Barry, junior class president, are already at work. The orchestra committee, composed of Denny Collis, Carolyn Herman, Cay Munn, John Nelson, and Wallace Pratt, have already completed their job; the orchestra has already been signed but its identity is being kept secret. The members of the decoration committee: Mary Longworth, Betty Reed, Helen Foltz, Jacque Driscoll, Janice Johnston, Sally Shaler, Dorothy Olsen, and Marsha Harrington, are also hard at work, but their plans are secret.

Now's the time to make definite plans for attending. Don't delay, or it may be too late. The Prom is one thing you don't want to miss.

Boone, Ames Clash

Tom Sandell and Everett Hickman of the Boone High debate team will meet two debaters from Ames Friday, February 19, at an assembly for senior high during the second hour. The question is: "Resolved that the President of the United States should be elected by direct vote of the people." Both teams have been preparing for the keen competition in the speech contest Saturday, February 20.

The debate, which was scheduled for last Friday, was postponed because the Ames team went to a Coe College debate tournament.

A hard-fought battle at Harcourt Wednesday saw the Boone Toreadorettes come out on the short end of the score in their first round of the district tournament against the overwhelming Stratford sextet.

Losing was tough, we know, but we are very proud of you, Toreadorettes, for coming this far. Congratulations on a wonderful season!

Attention, Girls

If you are afraid of the sight of blood or if you squirm when someone mentions ether or an operation, you needn't read any farther. But, girls—and fellows, too—if you are not squeamish and are thinking about hospital work, you would enjoy the Future Nurses' Club.

The purpose of the Future Nurses' Club in Boone High School is to further interest and acquaint its members in the profession of nursing. Any member of the junior or senior class who has indicated an interest in becoming a nurse is eligible for membership. The club meets regularly the first Thursday of each school month at 11:30 in room 125. The dues are 15 cents per year. Sponsors of the Future Nurses' Club are Mrs. John C. Herman, representing the Boone County Medical Auxiliary, and Mrs. Carolyn Carlson, school nurse.

There are 46 members belonging to the F.N.C. at the present time. Officers are: president, Gracia Conard; vice-president, Virginia Deering; secretary, Sondra Hall; treasurer, Mary Eddy.

The club was organized two years ago, and of the last group, 16 members entered the nursing profession.

The programs planned for the remaining part of 1954 are: March 4, Nurses as Physiotherapists; April 13, Nursing in the field of mental health; May 6, Positions open to the professional nurse and a welcome to sophomores interested in nursing. Every year the group takes a field trip to one of the hospitals in Des Moines. This year's trip has been planned for the latter part of March.

If you are wondering about a future career and have any curiosity about nursing, the group hopes you will attend a meeting soon.

A student today—a nurse tomorrow.

Seniors Gain Job Training

Students taking business co-op are embarking on their fourth week of work in various downtown business houses and offices, doing office work or selling. One semester credit is received for two hours of work daily. The following students are working in co-op business offices:

Shirley Anderson, Fisher's Shoe Store; Sandra Browning, Bowman's Shoe Store; Alice Casserly, Bob's Flower Shop; Dorothy Goldsworth, school nurse's office; Juanita Conrad, Ericson Library; Janice Carpenter, Ericson Library; Mary Lou Carpenter, Clover Farm Grocery; Mary Nordstrom, high school library; Shirley Davis, high school athletic office; Marlene McAlpine, Iowa Athletic Office; Mary Lou Nelson, Kading's Insurance Company; Jean Becker, Mutual Insurance Company; Janaan Munson, Fareway office; Jeslyn Pearson, office of Elementary School Supervisor, Mr. Reed; Nancy Hutson, Methodist Church office; Phyllis Newland, Carswell Motors; William Heitkamp, Lane's Oil Station; Bill McCoy, National Guard office; Jacque Robertson, Boone Sales Service; La Vonne Payne, Bumble 'B' and shop department; Marilyn McElyea, Iowa Employment Office; Lillian Fairchild, Boone Credit Bureau; and Belva McNace, Augustana Lutheran Church office.

All the above students are seniors, who are gaining practical experience for their business careers. The course is open for seniors, and only during the second semester.

Scholl's Composition Played at Concert

'Autumn Colors,' composed by their director, Mr. Scholl, was one of the most popular numbers when the high school Symphony Orchestra presented their annual spring concert Wednesday evening, February 17, at 8:00.

The program opened with Haydn's 'Military Symphony.' Other selections were: Ballet Suite from Gounod's opera, 'Faust,' selections from the 'New World Symphony,' 'The Swan,' Dvorak's 'Slavonic Dance No. 1,' and 'Moods Americana.' To close the program the orchestra played 'Tales from the Vienna Woods' and 'To Homage.'

Money earned at the concert went to the band uniform fund, which is being built up.

Wednesday afternoon the concert was presented in an assembly for the high school.

H. R. 301 Leads With 14 'Brains'

Mr. Hartley's homeroom, with 14 students on the honor roll, led the high school last nine weeks. Highest class was the seniors with 38 students. The sophomores were second with 30, and the juniors had 21.

The seniors were: Miss Linderblood's: Kenneth Aldag, Marilyn Brunner, Joanne Huffman, Jean Kost, Marilyn McElyea, Bonnie Reid, and Marlene Trulin; Miss Pagel's: Gracia Conard, Virginia Doran, Mary Eddy, Everett Hickman, and Martha Kokinakis; Miss Skilling's: Shirley Anderson, Dan Doherty, Sondra Hall, Mike Logsdon, Janet Musser, Jeslyn Pearson, Lorin Shadle, and Joyce Williams; Mr. Hartley's: Donna Ades, Judy Brown, Norman Burke, Dean Canakes, Martha Lauritsen, Eugene Martin, Thomas Maynard, Ruth McCall, Myra Nell, Joan Newland, Jacque Robertson, Thomas Sandell, Ronald Schmickley, and Alice Wilson; Mr. Norris': Donna Alexander, Bonnie Carter, Dorothy Goldsworth, and Marlene McAlpine.

The juniors are: Miss Osborn's: Dave Gustafson, Carolyn Herman, and Mary Longworth; Mrs. Williams': Dennis Collis, Helen Foltz, Carolyn Longhenry, and Jo Ann Vegors; Mrs. Absher's: Sara Shaler; Mr. Lein's: Rosalie Bullock, Avanelle Eamer, Bob Engnell, Karen Ingalls, Cay Munn, Irene Nelson, and David Rose; Mr. Heyen's: Gary Barry, La Vonne Groth, and Judith Reed; Mrs. Stevens': Faye Anderson, David Fitzsimmons, and Charles Gruenig.

Sophomores are: Mr. Devaney's: Joyce Anderson, Wallace Arringdale, Kerin Brower, Ronald Bullock, and Rosemarie Chance; Mr. Shadle's: Caryl Achenbach, Joan Cornelius, Sue Grant, Jo Ann Hamilton, and John Harrington; Mr. McLeran's: Marilyn Hedbloom, Mary Lee Herron, Lennice Jones, Darrell Kruse, Joyce Larson, and Richard McCoy; Mrs. Taylor's: Robert Barry, Mary Lynn Hague, Rawleigh Mowrer, Janice Patten, Bonnie Pestotnik, Russell Roby; Mr. Crozier's: Elna Reedholm, Keith Smith, and Marlene Tilley; Mrs. Ick's: Helen Clarke; Miss Ealy's: Ann Clausen, Janet Cofer, and Beverly Long.

Early Bird Gets Worm

Boys, have you asked your favorite girl to the Junior-Senior Prom yet? This annual event is held on May 7, in the high school gym, and it's a big occasion for everyone.

Win or Lose, We're Back of You, Toreadorettes

I see all the girls are sharpening up their claws. It couldn't be that the new male addition to the senior class would have anything to do with it, would it, girls?

Martha Lauritsen's eyes seem to be wandering over towards Sacred Heart lately.

Cay Munn and Mike Logsdon are the latest addition to the 'going-steady' list.

Mary Casserly: "My mother sometimes takes things apart to see why they don't go."

Maurice Mowrer: "So what?" Mary Casserly: "So you'd better go."

"What's your opinion of going steady?"

Dick Conard: "I think it's a worthwhile enterprise for some people."

Nancy Starnier: "No comment."

Helen Carpenter: "It depends on whom you go steady with."

John Manriquez: "I like it!"

Dave Keneipp: "It's nice to go steady!"

Virginia Doran: "It limits you too much."

Tom Rinker: "I don't think you should while you're still in high school."

Avanelle Eamer: "It's o.k. for a while, but gets boring after awhile. I quit!"

Pat Ferry: "It just depends on the people; if you think you've got the right one, try it!"

Gary Barry: "I think it's all right if it's the right person!"

David King: "It's for the birds!"

What's the matter with Mike Bell lately? He seems so unhappy. Could it be there's still a certain little blonde on his mind? Hope everything works out all right for him!

RATES: Activity ticket plus 5c, or 10c a copy.

VOX POPULI

After graduation... what? Have you ever thought of continuing your education right here and enjoying the many opportunities offered by our own junior college? The following are opinions given by J.C. students in answer to the question, "What is your opinion of Junior College?"

'Mo' Kelley: "It's a good deal because you get the same thing here at home, and it's much cheaper."

Dan Duley: "You can't beat it. It gives you the advantages of getting a good education at a small cost. Also, the college is small enough that each person is an individual, instead of being just another face, which is the situation in the larger colleges."

Bill Newbold: "I like it because you can attend college and still be at home and have a job."

Jerry Jones: "It gets your basic credits out of the way."

Gary Grosnickle: "It's a good deal, in my case, when I can't go to college, but I can still get a good education at J.C."

Katie Swank: "Smaller classes."

Janet Main: "Good hours."

Dave Cottingham: "I can learn more here than I would in a larger college."

Bill Londrigan: "Smaller classes and more individual attention, which is necessary."

Although Junior College is not a 'snap,' of course no college is, it has much to offer for those students planning to go on to school after graduation. For further information about Junior College, read the other article in this paper concerning it.

Quill and Scroll Installs

New Quill and Scroll members were installed on Tuesday, February 9, by the president, Marlene Trulin. During the morning the prospective members had to dress in baggy clothes and offer candy to the regular members. That evening a banquet was held at the Lincoln Restaurant for the old and new members and the advisors.

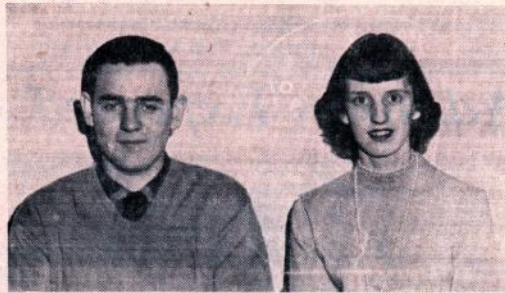

The Quill and Scroll organization is for student journalists who have won distinction in their field of endeavor and have maintained a 'B' average. The new members are: Jeslyn Pearson, Dennis Martin, Andrea Dorman, Bonnie Carter, La Vonne Groth, Leta Winans, and Phyllis Canady.

Boy and Girl of the Week

We're sorry; they don't look this way very often. In fact, any resemblance to Bill's and Marilyn's natural appearance is purely coincidental!

For Girl of the Week this issue, the spotlight falls on a peppy, blue-eyed senior, Marilyn Brunner by name.

Because she is taking the stenographic course, her subjects include bookkeeping, problems, geography, and shorthand, of which her favorite is shorthand. Her work in such various activities as 'Y,' Bumble 'B' (advertising manager), mixed chorus, Quill and Scroll, Pep Club, and Rainbow, shows that she has a pleasing personality to go along with that popularity. When asked what her plans after graduation were, she said, "Just work somewhere." Spaghetti is her favorite food, although she does like 'most any kind of a dessert. Her favorite hobby is sports, which is shown by her loyal cheering at the games. Marilyn has another favorite in the hobby line. Any guesses needed as to the other one? Why, it's Bill, naturally. Among the male singers, Gordon McRea is her favorite actor. Like so many other B.H.S. students she says her favorite song is 'Secret Love.'

If you don't already know Marilyn, get acquainted. You'll enjoy knowing her.

The end of a maiden's prayer is usually, "ah, men!"

Bill McCoy, a well-known personality throughout the halls of Boone High, takes over as Boy of the Week.

Bill is the only boy on the cheering squad, and he does his work well. He is also a member of Hi-Y. Lou Ann Simms and Doris Day are his favorite singers. When he was asked his favorite song he replied, "Oh, I like them all; no one in particular." His subjects consist of algebra, problems, clerical practice, and co-op, with algebra as his favorite. His after-graduation plans are either to attend Iowa University or Boone Junior College. His hobby happens to be—guess who? Marilyn Brunner, who appears as Girl of the Week in this issue. His favorite food is french fries. Bill's just filled with enthusiasm and has a good word for everybody. Talk to him sometime and find out.

Toreadors Stop M'town 61-56

After trailing for three quarters of play on the Boone court Friday night, February 5, the Toreadors surged ahead of the Marshalltown Bobcats 61-56.

The Toreadors got off to a slow start in the game, and the Bobcats led 14-9 at the end of the first quarter. They kept the five-point margin and left the floor at the half leading 25-20.

In the third quarter the Bobcats pulled ahead twice with an eight-point margin, but by the end of the third quarter the Toreadors had their lead whittled down to 42-38.

In a tough fourth quarter the Boone Toreadors pulled ahead to win the game. Credit was given to the whole team, as they all played in terrific style.

Gustafson and Lind led the Toreadors to victory with 18 markers apiece. Bud Lindquist led the Bobcats with 25 points.

This victory gave Boone a 3-5 record in the C.I.C., which keeps them in fourth place.

Boone Tankers Finish Season

The swimming team ended their season in defeat as North piled up 55 points to Boone's 20. The Toreadors had a 8-0 record for the season.

Buck Sovereign captured Boone's only first when he won the 100-yard breast stroke. He came in second in the 120-yard individual medley.

Ted Schultz took a second in the 40-yard free style, while Gary Irvine came in third. Schultz took third place honors in the 100-yard free style also.

Dick Reed came in second in the 200-yard free style, and Mike Bell took second in the 100-yard back stroke. Tony Williams won third in the diving competition.

Although their season's record wasn't very good this year, the Toreadors will be more experienced swimmers next year. Dave Frazier is the only senior on the squad.

Girls Down Last Foe Of Season, Boxholm

In their last scheduled game of the season, the Boone Toreadorettes trounced the Boxholm Swedettes 71-38. At the end of the first quarter an advantage of 12 points was held by Boone, with the score 26-14. Each of the forwards had collected four field goals, and Mary Courter had two free throws.

With the guards playing a fine defensive game, Boone managed to make 10 more points before the end of the first half.

Romey Chance, Janet Musser, and Jo Huffman managed to work the ball to the forwards, giving Bonnie Reid 26 points and Sandy Hall seven field goals and four free throws. Loni Stark was high for Boxholm, dumping in 20 points.

Speech Contest at Mason City Saturday

February 20 is the date for the first interscholastic speech contest for Boone High students this year. This contest is to be held at Mason City. Both speech teachers, Mr. Fitzgerald and Mr. McCarten, will accompany the nine students who are entered. Those students are: Everett Hickman, Tom Sandell, Ken Aldag, Bonnie Carter, Jeanette Stotts, Karen Finley, Rock Severtson, Janice Mondt, and Mike Bell. Boone entries are in debate, interpretive reading, original oratory, and radio speaking.

Girls Take Sectional Crown

All of the students of Boone High owe the Toreadorettes and Coach 'Chuck' Lovin a great big 'congratulations' for the wonderful games that were played at Ogden in the Sectional Tournament.

Down Eaglettes

The first game was played on Monday, February 1, when they met the Pilot Mound Eaglettes. The Boone forwards had some trouble breaking through the tight man-to-man defense of the Eaglettes, and consequently found themselves bunched up trying to set up plays. Their ability to fake and to handle the ball was what 'got them out of it' time and again.

The Boone guards also did a good job of defensive work, as a whole. Romey Chance was particularly aggressive throughout the game. Janet Musser did a very fine job of blocking shots, and Jo Huffman and Joan Cornelius kept close contact with their opponents.

Sondra Hall was high point scorer for the evening, with 32 points. Mary Courter dropped in 13 points. The final score was 61-45.

Defeat Scranton

As a result of defeating Pilot Mound the Boone team played Scranton in the semi-finals on Thursday, February 11. The Boone Toreadorettes weren't playing their usual brand of ball until after a halftime session with the coach. The biggest factor in their trailing at halftime was that they could not net the ball; the score was 31-26. In the third period the forwards started hitting the net, and the guards tightened their defense.

Mary Courter led the scoring with 28 points. Bonnie Reid came next with 25 points and Sondra Hall had a total of 10 points.

As the gun sounded the score stood at 63-54.

Final Victory

This win boosted the Toreadorettes to the final game, playing against the Paton Pantherettes on Saturday, February 6.

This game proved to be the sensation of the week, and a thrilling one too.

Courter came out in front leading the scoring by a fabulous 42 points, the highest score of the tournament. Bonnie Reid came up with 30 points. Sondra Hall, low in the scoring department lately, was most valuable in her floor play and in rebounding. She dropped in 14 points. Ann Clausen and Joan Cornelius, along with Romey Chance, proved their worth on the court.

The win is the first ever won by a girls' team from Boone in a sectional.

Oskaloosa Last C.I.C. Foe

Four seniors will see their last conference action Friday, February 19, when the Toreadors battle the Oskaloosa Indians. The seniors are Mike Logsdon, Ronnie Lind, Bill Ross, and Joe Smith.

The Toreadors defeated the Indians earlier in the season, and probably the Indians will be out for revenge.

The Toreadors won't want this one to pass by, for they will be trying to even out their conference record.

Mrs. Bullock's homeroom: Jack Brannon. Mr. Fisher's homeroom: Janet Moeller, Frank Mesich; Dave Nelson, and Dennis Schmickley.

Pep Assemblies

On February 5, the first improvement was noticed in the junior high cheering section. This was followed by a greater improvement at the assembly on February 12.

The speaker for the first assembly, Mr. Jones, said very few words to the students, but what he did say seemed to generate higher enthusiasm.

At the second assembly there were three speakers, Dick Hicks, Coach McLeran, and Bob Musser. Their speeches also made clear to the students that attending the games means helping the team.

Dot Reedholm has a new hair do. Who's it for this time?

Junior High Drama Night

For the first time the Boone Junior High will have, on February 26, at 7:30 p.m., a junior high evening program. The two plays to be presented are 'Butch' and 'Hans Bulow's Last Puppet.' Included in the program will be musical numbers consisting of a junior high string ensemble, girls' chorus, a piano solo, and a small group from the band. There will also be a dance number.

'Butch,' a one-act comedy, is the story of a teen-age turmoil who becomes a refined young lady in a matter of hours. Butch, played by Karen Bohlen, is not as refined as her sister, Katherine (Marilyn Pesek). Mrs. Randall, their mother (Kay Wright), Petunia, the maid (Anne Gruenig), Kenneth (Mervyn Eastberg), and his brother David Graham (David Williams) make up the rest of the cast.

'Hans Bulow's Last Puppet,' a one-act fantasy, is the story of a puppet maker and his daughter and their efforts to save their age old shop from ruin. Tilda, the daughter, is played by Judy Houston; Hans, the puppet maker, (Lee Cook), Herald of the King's court (Ed McAlpine), and an old clothes man (Jim Matt) make up the cast.

The prompters of the two plays are Lelia Liden and Roxanne Rose. The junior high students working on the make-up and stage crews are Emily Grabau, Joyce Clarke, Betsy Otto, Betty McElyea, Donna Craven, Carolyn Kirk, Kathryn Disney, Susan Peterson, Danille Hart-sell, Janice Rinehart, Janice Gunt-tau, Elizabeth Hines, Janice Mc-Birnie, and Dorothy Reedholm.

The general admission is 25 cents or an activity ticket.

Volunteer Sellers

Several junior high students are serving as volunteer workers at the basketball games where they are selling the candy, pop, popcorn, and apples. Mr. Fischer and Mr. Bukoff are in charge of these workers.

Lois Morris, Gail Raettig, Lyla Swain, Janice Moorman, Donna Craven, Daren Dutton, Elizabeth Hinz, Joan Stotts, Roxanne Rose, Janice McBirnie, Bill Herman, Dick Cofer, Sandra Chance Dorothy Reedholm, Neal Clark, and Lee Cook have sold at the previous games in Boone.

The persons selling at Friday's game will be Ray Guenther, Dennis Elliott, Gary Bloomberg, Bill Herman, Dick Cofer, and Lee Cook.

How does everyone like the wonderful weather? Real nice, huh?

Bimbo

Little 'Bimbo' went over to Anne's house for a 'Chocolate Ice Cream Cone,' but when he got there he discovered that 'Anne Doesn't Live Here Anymore.' He decided to 'Cross Over the Bridge' and catch the 'Deadwood Stage' to 'Okla-homa.' There he met 'Jeannie with the Light Brown Hair.' They went to a place down 'By the Old Mill Stream,' where they met 'Frankie and Johnnie,' who were 'Changing Partners.' They were invited to go 'Window Shopping,' for it would soon be a 'Holiday' and little 'Bimbo' needed a present for his 'Heart of My Heart,' who was his 'O My Papa.' For his 'Mom,' to whom he said 'I'll Be Loving You Always,' he bought 'The Doggie in the Window.' Little Bimbo was soon calling for his 'Home on the Range' because he was a 'Stranger in Paradise.'

Round Robin Games

The seventh grade ended their basketball season Tuesday, February 9, at 7:30 p.m. The Skunks, who succeeded in beating the other three teams in seventh grade, played their hearts out to lose in a close game to the eighth grade second team by only five points. The four seventh grade teams came out with four wins and one loss for the Skunks; two wins and two losses for the Bears; one win and two losses for the Whites; and three losses for the Reds. Allen Walker was high point man for the season.

The eighth and ninth grade teams still have games left. Come and help cheer them on to victory.

Quite a few loose shingles running around, wonder where they come from?

Spring fever has come early this year. Have you noticed all the ninth grade girls bound by its ring and chain?

One Win, One Loss

The Boone ninth grade Blue team played Central of Ames here Saturday, February 6. Boone's first five, playing very hard on both offense and defense, kept up with Ames all the way in the first half but grew tired of trying to overcome Ames' height in rebounding. The final score was 66-42. 'Chuck' Musser was high pointer with 15.

The Matador second team turned the tables on Central's inexperienced players in the second game, beating them 44-39.

The freshmen leaped ahead in the first half, but Ames crept up in the last quarter. The Boone Reserves, playing outstanding ball, held Central with only three points in the final minute. Jack Brannon and Ed McAlpine made 26 of Boone's points.

We're all wondering if Jo Sparks has warts on her hands yet.

Prosecutor: "Now tell the court how you come to take the car."

Defendant: "Well, the car was standing in front of the cemetery, and I naturally thought the owner was dead."

Snakes Pay Off

Mr. Jack Raymon was greeted with great enthusiasm by the Boone Junior High School when he spoke on Herpetology—reptiles to you—at an assembly on February 10.

His hobby is collecting snakes. He has shown them to high school students in 47 states. Mr. Raymon lives at Silver Springs, Florida, where he works and collects reptiles from all over the world when he isn't lecturing.

According to Mr. Raymon, there are only four poisonous snakes in the United States. They are the rattlesnake, copperhead, cottonmouth, and coral.

As he handled and displayed the snakes he pointed out that you should never be afraid of them. Even the poisonous snakes won't hurt you, if you leave them alone.

Everyone did a very good job yelling at the last Pep Assembly. Let's keep it up.
