JUST BUZZIN'

The Future Teachers' Club is being organized with Miss Davitt as sponsor and Miss Pagel, assistant. Announcement of a future meeting will be made at a later date.

With this issue you will receive your first copy of the Scholastic Roto. For over 30 years N.S.P.A., the oldest and largest scholastic press association in the world, has served high school publications. The Roto is provided free to high schools that meet scholastic press standards, and has a limited circulation of 1,100,000 copies.

A new swimming club, to be called Minnows, is being formed for the purpose of learning swimming stunts and advance techniques. Minnows may become Dolphins when they have acquired enough skill. To become a Minnow girl must be able to swim one length of the pool doing the crawl, back crawl, and the side stroke. She must be able to back float for 20 seconds and dive head first into deep water.

Four Boone students attended the State Student Council convention at Ames on Monday. Denny Collis, Bob Barry, Dave Fitzsimmons, and Carolyn Munn represented the high school.

Officers Learn Procedures

During the first period on Wednesday, September 21, and October 6 and 13, meetings concerning parliamentary procedure have been conducted by Miss Linderblood. The meetings were held to instruct the officers of the various school organizations in the way good meetings should be conducted.

At the first meeting Mr. Moore explained their purpose and handed out bulletins containing the accepted rules of order. In the last two meetings, the students were given an opportunity to conduct their own sample business meetings.

Fire Prevention Assembly Held

Fire hazards and prevention of fire was discussed by Mr. Keith Royer at an assembly for the senior high school Monday, October 4, at 9:30. He also used demonstrations in his talk, showing that fires are caused by careless storage and the use of various liquids. Cleanliness, care in storage of certain inflammable liquids, and the importance of the use of safety containers was especially stressed by Mr. Royer. Accompanying him was Fire Chief Robertson.

For Lazy Seniors Only

Have you had your class pictures taken yet? Haven't you at least made an appointment to have it done? If you've been putting it off, now's the time to 'get on the ball.' November 19 sets the final date for turning those pictures in to the Scroll. Make your appointment today!

Future Nurses Meet

Once again the Boone Future Nurses Club is back in organization. This club, which was the second of its kind to be organized in the state, is devoted to giving high school girls a preview of some of the characteristics of nursing and to give the girls a chance to have their many questions about this field answered. All junior and senior girls interested in nursing as a career are invited to attend the meetings.

At their first meeting this year, held on October 7, general plans for the coming season were laid out. Virginia Dearing, the only remaining officer from last year, was in charge of the group. For a nominating committee, she appointed Judy Reed, Pat Rinehart, Carol Briggs, and Mary Caserly.

Mrs. Carlson, the school nurse and sponsor of the club, invited the senior girls to a nurses' tea. The tea, which will be today, October 14, will be given at the Country Club and will include all future nurses around Boone county.

Speaker for the day was Mrs. A. W. Puntenney. She gave an outline of the different types of meetings for the 1954-1955 school year. Later on, as is their custom, the girls will visit a hospital in Des Moines. The next meeting will be on the first Thursday in November.

Grads in College

GRINNELL, IOWA, October 5—John Musser and Robert Hays, of Boone, were recently named to the Dean's List at Grinnell college for high scholastic achievement.

To qualify for this list, a student must earn a minimum of 'A' grades in three subjects. In addition to the honor of selection, each student receives the privilege of taking unlimited class cuts.

Musser, a junior, and Hays, a senior, are graduates of Boone High School.

REMINDER TO PARENTS

On October 18, the first P.T.A. meeting of the year will be held in the Little Theater.

Y-Groups Organize

Observing World Communion Day, caroling at Christmas time, giving devotions at the Eastern Star Home, and helping some Woodward child are some of the tasks that the various Y.W.C.A. groups are looking forward to this year.

At the end of last year election of officers was held and results were as follows:

Live Y-ers: president, Barbara Jones; vice-president, Carol Forrester; secretary, Dorothy Reedholm; treasurer, Carmelia Ellsworth; and program chairman, Roxanne Rose.

B-Y-ettes: president, Joyce Larson; vice-president, Caryl Achenbach; secretary, Ann Clausen; treasurer, Carol Briggs; and program chairman, Roney Chance.

Hi-Tri: president, Joan Lyons; vice-president, Virginia Dearing; secretary, Karen Erickson; treasurer, Betty Jacobson; and program chairman, Sally Shaler.

Janice McAlpine Reigns

Amid a great deal of suspense, the crown of homecoming queen was placed on the head of one of the Boone High cheerleaders, pert Janice McAlpine.

Janice, although short in stature, has a long list of activities behind her. Among them are Pep Club, cheerleading, Quill and Scroll, and church activities.

After the crowning, Master of Ceremonies Wally Arringdale, turned the assembly over to Ma and Pa Kettle and family. After the skit a rather wet parade took place. The junior class float won top honors.

Janice and her attendants, Carol Arringdale, Mary Longworth, La Vonne Groth, and Martha Clark, reigned over the Boone-Marshall-town game.

Mr. Mische would be interested in seeing any boys, grades nine to 12, who would like to join Boys' Chorus or Mixed Chorus. Membership in Boys' Chorus has doubled since the first of the year and the more the merrier.

Any eighth grade boys who would like to join the eighth grade chorus, and who have either a third, fourth, or sixth period study hall, see Mr. Mische.

"Our history teacher is surely strict," moaned Joleen.

Dave: "Yeah! He flunked three of us for having periods upside down."

Drama Department Presenting 'Fog Island'

Imagine being stranded on an island in the middle of the night with fog setting in and the only shelter being a cold, dark old house! This is what happens to six girls in the three-act play, 'Fog Island,' which is to be presented Wednesday evening, October 27. Suspense is the only word for this performance with spies and murder lurking around the corner. The period of time is in the '30's, just before World War I.

Besides the cast of four boys and seven girls, drawn from the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades, Mr. McCartan will be assisted by student helpers. In charge of make-up will be Janice Brown, Nancy Starnner, Marcharene Harrington, Carolyn Clark, Virginia Dearing, and Marion Campbell. On the stage crew will be Betty Jacobson, Dorothy Olson, K. Brightwell, Elizabeth Sinclair, Randa Lee Kelly, Shirley Runyan, Beverly Coffman, Larry Coghlan, Janice Moorman, Nancy Brower, Barbara Koppenhaver, Betty Ross, and Judy Raetig. Randa Lee Kelly, Beverly Coffman, Carolyn Clark, and Marcharene Harrington will take care of publicity. The lighting and sound crew are Kenny Shuey, Wallace Arringdale, Jim Anderson, Donald Rogan, and Merle Nelson. Mr. Devaney will choose the ushers.

A matinee Tuesday afternoon will be for the seventh and eighth grades. Tickets are being sold by the cast, crew, and members of Speech Club and can be reserved at Miller's Drug.

Rainbow Girls Install

Saturday night, October 2, the public installation for the Order of Rainbow for Girls was held in the Masonic Temple. The officers are as follows: Irene Nelson, Worthy Advisor; Carol Arringdale, Worthy Associate Advisor; Jo Ellen Sparks, Charity; Helen Clarke, Hope; and Barbara Beckett, Faith. The above are the four line officers, that is they advance term by term, to the office of Worthy Advisor.

The offices of the treasurer and secretary are held for a year. Holding these offices are Joyce Clarke, as secretary, and Carolyn Kirk, as treasurer.

Other officers are: Elaine Blaess, Love; Betty Jacobson, Religion; Elna Reedholm, Nature; Dorothy Reedholm, Immortality; Janice McBirnne, Fidelity; Janice Pattenfi, Patriotism; Laurel Rans, Service; Donna Whitaker, Chaplain; Barbara Nelson, Confidential observer; Judy Malcom, Outer Observer; Sonja Reedholm, Choir Director; and Betty McElyea, Musician.

To receive the jewel of their offices, each new officer was escorted behind the altar. While the Worthy Advisor was kneeling at the altar, Charles Peterson sang 'The Lord's Prayer.' She announced that charity would be the theme of her office and explained it. She introduced members of the various organizations of Masonic Temple who were present. Following the installation, refreshments were served in the basement.

October 16 is the date set for the installation of an Ogden Rainbow Assembly. The Boone officers will initiate them in Ogden. Installation will also be the same day.

Farmers Bring Home Bacon

Election of officers was held May 19 for the Boone Chapter of the Future Farmers of America. Daryl Murken was elected president; James Gilliam, vice-president; Richard Rinker, secretary; Wallace Nelson, treasurer; Richard Dahlberg, reporter; and Don Nystrom, sentinel.

During the summer, some of the members entered in the County Fair. Daryl Murken won four firsts and grand champion, and Jim Bryant won a fourth with his litter. Daryl also won eighth at the State Fair.

The soil judging team of Richard Rinker, Wallace Nelson, Daryl

Murken, Richard Dahlberg, and Arthur Roby, won the county judging contest September 18, taking three out of four medals and the cup.

On the same day that the F.F.A. took second place in the homecoming parade, the dairy judging team was voted one of the top 50 out of 139 teams competing at Waterloo.

Teens of the Week

This week's featured female is blonde, hazel-eyed senior Janice Runyan.

Janice's numerous activities extend to keep her on her toes. Editor-in-chief of Bumble 'B', band, orchestra, Pep Club, Future Teachers Club, Rainbow, Quill and a Scroll, and church make her one of the busiest girls in Boone High.

Janice's favorites are many and her dislikes are few. Among her many likable, Janice prefers french fries and hamburgers; pink shirts on boys; Christmas; typing; movies and dancing; the song, 'The High and the Mighty.' Her most ardent undesirables are: spinach and milk; malicious gossip; being broke; the colors pink and red worn together. Janice's pet peeve is the person who 'hogs the conversation.'

An educational future is included in Janice's plans. Hoping to attend college after she graduates, she is interested in both teaching and journalism.

Though she is quiet, Janice has a lot of wonderful personality behind her. Become acquainted and discover this for yourself.

The students get the paper,
The school gets the fame,
The printer gets the money,
And the staff gets the blame.

Tom Sawyer (after two days in school): "What do we do after we find our seats?"

All the girls tote little cases
Designed for making up their faces
I wish they had some other kinds
Designed for making up their minds.

Merrill: "What did the doughnut say to the cake?"

John: "Huh, I don't know."

Merrill: "If I had all your dough, I wouldn't be hanging around this hole."

Benji-Bee Views Homecoming

Hello, again! Sniff! I've caught a cold from some place, can't imagine where though.

Well, let's see may be it was at the snake dance. I flew over to the armory and followed it through town. Perhaps you saw me there—I kept things moving along. I believe there was some rumor that I was leading the line; because we went through a few turns that only a bee could survive!

May be I got too close to the bonfire, because I singed my wings a little, I'm afraid.

Could it be at the Homecoming Pep Assembly? I might have strained my huzzer when I joined in on the yells. It really was a good show of spirit and I nearly split my wings laughing at the 'Kits' Last Fight.'

And then there was the parade. Ah, chool! Pardon me! I must get some Bee medicine for my awful sneezing! Now where were we? Oh yes. Oh those brave people! I know we bees could never stand all that rain. But it turned out fine anyway. Too bad about those formals, girls.

Sniff! Do you suppose it could have been at the game that I picked up these sniffles? I didn't have a chance to go down La Vonne Groth's back at this game as my poor belated cousin did last time. So I got quite wet and my stripes ran. The Pep Club girls showed that a little rain could never dampen their spirits.

The dance was fun. I tried a little jitter bugging off in a corner but the kids kept showing me up. Ah, chool! Oh dear, now where did I put that Kleenex?

Well, I must be off now. I saw an old friend of mine at the Alumni tea and we're going to meet and talk about how things were in the old days. Back to my hive and my honey now. Sniff! So long.

B's Sting

by K. L. I.

Has everyone seen the 'distinguished' looking senators and representatives attending the 83rd session of Congress right here in Boone High? 'Who are they?' The senior government students of course!

A certain Don Williams has made a certain (?) bet with three other boys that he wouldn't go with a girl until the Junior-Senior Prom. Let's wait and see how many girls will break this bet.

Everybody seemed to be having a nice time at the Homecoming Dance Friday night even though we lost the game and were having such rainy weather. A large crowd backed the team too—loaded down with blankets, raincoats, and the usual necessities that cold weather requires.

What do you boys think of the necklaces the girls have been wearing? You don't think may be they are too short, do you?

A pesky little bee has been causing quite a riot outside the northeast door every noon. The students don't seem to like his company. Could he be some of your relation, Benji?

Guess what! Before I even finished writing this article, I hear tell that Don Williams has already lost his bet and is $2.25 poorer. All this he sacrificed for 'sweet Sue.'

I love its gentle murmur,
I love its gentle flow,
I love to wind my tongue up,
Then sit back and hear it go.

Vox Populi

This may look like an ordinary question of the week column, but as the title declares, it is the Voice of the Public. Our old readers know what it is all about, but to maybe a few new ones it is just another column. We would like anyone who wants a serious matter of school concern discussed in the Bumble 'B' to please let us know, because that is just what this column is for.

For discussion this week, the pep assembly system.

Del Kline: "I don't like it. There should be a pep assembly for every game and they should be shorter."

Jack Robertson: "I think it's all right, but there isn't enough co-operation from the students."

Mary Courter: "I think the pep assemblies would be better if they were held in the gym."

Don Nystrom: "I like the way they are."

Martha Clark: "The pep assemblies are all right, but the number of kids that show up for them reveals very poor spirit."

Fred Vitt: "I think it would be better if they were required and held in the gym so there would be more enthusiasm."

Betty Jacobson: "I think there should be more assemblies."

Tom Rinker: "I think the assemblies should be held in the gym before every game instead of just once in a while."

What a Partner!

An optimist and a pessimist went into business together. Trade flourished.

"Well," said the optimist, "we've had a wonderful month. It's been one constant run of customers."

"Yeah," agreed the pessimist dourly, "but look at those front doors! If people keep shoving through them, the hinges will be worn out in another week!"

Toreadors Scalp Indians

A score each quarter gave the Boone High Toreadors their first Central Iowa Conference victory of the year by handing the Oskaloosa Indians a 26 to 13 defeat.

An offensive drive was started when Jack Becker returned the opening kickoff 15 yards. Boone rolled for three first downs before taking to the air. Pass interference moved the ball to the 10-yard line. After two plays failed, Becker raced five and four yards respectively, falling one yard short of pay dirt.

The Indians got off on the wrong foot when McDonald fumbled and Boone's center, Dave Fisher, recovered the ball for the first tally. With the extra point failing the score stood at 6-0 in favor of Boone.

At the opening of the second quarter, Boone was forced to punt and the ball went out of bounds on the Oskaloosa 38-yard line. Jim Manriquez then intercepted the pigskin and raced 32 yards for point number 12. Number 13 was added when Becker's conversion was good.

On the kickoff, Bob Prine raced 56 yards with the prize and appeared to be going all the way when Gary Irvine brought him down on the Boone 24-yard line. 'Oskey' went to the 12-yard line, but was halted there.

Boone failed to make the first down and punted to the 37-yard line. The run-back went to the 32, where John Goodman hit end Jerry Van Englehaven for 32 yards and the first 'Oskey' touchdown. The conversion was blocked and the half ended with Boone holding a 13-6 lead.

Following a half-time pep talk, the Indians came back to tie up the game when Goodman plowed over from the one-yard line. The kick was good.

Jack Becker spearheaded an offensive drive which took the Toreadors to the 11-yard line. Jay Peterson failed in two drives and again Manriquez scored for Boone. The point after touchdown failed.

After failing to make the first down, 'Oskey' attempted a punt which Dave Fisher blocked. The quarter ended before the first play could get underway.

Quarterback Gary Barry showed the Indians his arm as he hit Dave Gustafson for 36 yards and the final touchdown, with the extra point giving Boone a 26-13 victory.

Boone Bows to Marshalltown Toreadors Trip Tigers

A steady drizzle fell on Goeppinger Field Friday night as the Marshalltown Bobcats went slipping and sliding to a 24-0 victory over the Boone Toreadors. This scene was witnessed by a soaked, but enthusiastic homecoming crowd.

Halfback Tom Jennings was the outstanding player for Marshalltown as he scored three of four touchdowns for the Bobcats.

Defense was the whole story in the first quarter as both teams were held scoreless.

In the middle of the second quarter Jennings carried from the three-yard line for the first score of the game. Preceding a Boone punt, which had fallen dead on the 12-yard line, it was Jennings again who found an opening over right tackle and strutted 88 yards to pay dirt, ending the half with Boone trailing 0 to 12.

After a scoreless third quarter, Jennings opened up the last quarter by carrying the ball from his own 40 through the Boone line for another Marshalltown touchdown.

There were moments during the game when Boone put up a tremendous struggle and other times when they were left spinning in the mud.

Following a pass interception by guard Joel Armstrong on the Boone 37, Hansen took over the passing chore for the Bobcat eleven. He passed to end Dale Johnson, who made a spectacular catch over his left shoulder and jogged across the line for the final touchdown.

It was speed and a hard charging Bobcat line which told the final story of the 24-0 victory for the Marshalltown Bobcats.

We are sorry to hear Donald F. lost his cutest bug because of his father's foot.

Pre-Carroll

Tomorrow night, at 7:30, the Boone High Toreadors will tackle one of the toughest teams in the state. Carroll's Tigers will be ready to face the Boone team with no defeats to their record. Boone's standing is at two losses and one win.

A stronger team in weight will be just one of Carroll's advantages. Boone's 'never say die' spirit will be a great challenge against the Tiger eleven, but with the Boone fans backing their team, the Toreadors can pull the up-set of the season, just as was done with Newton last year.

Newton Seeks Revenge

Revenge will be the thought in minds of the Newton squad when they play the Boone gridders Friday night, October 22, at Newton. Last season the Toreadors snapped the Cardinals' victory record at 18 games with a thrilling and well earned 14-7 score.

Newton again has a strong team and the improved Boone squad will be out for a C.I.C. victory.

Y-TEENS

The officers of seventh grade Y-Teens this semester are Joan Harvey, president; Ann Senholz, vice-president; Susanne Frohardt, secretary; Charlotte Ashbaugh, treasurer; Mary Jo McLeod, program chairman; and Lynne Hohenshell, devotion chairman. The suggested activities for the year are a hobo picnic, popcorn fry, wiener roast, ice skating, Hallowe'en party, backwards party, Christmas caroling, early morning cookouts, Valentine tea with their mothers, and visiting different points of interest in Boone. They will also make favors for the Old People's Home, give gifts to the Woodward State Hospital, have devotions at the Eastern Star Home, and make a Thanksgiving box for a needy family.

Other projects for the year will be to learn parliamentary procedure and have speakers on subjects of interest.

Members of the Y.W.C.A. not only receive services from the community, but also give them.

On September 22, the ninth grade Y-Teens held installation of new officers. They are president, Susan Werner; vice-president, Elizabeth Hinz; secretary, Janice Gumtau; treasurer, Joanne Rinehart; and program chairman, Laurel Rans.

Plans for the coming year are a sack lunch picnic, horse back riding, Hallowe'en party, wiener roast, ice skating, Christmas caroling with chili supper afterwards, prepare Thanksgiving food basket, support a child at Woodward, devotions at Eastern Star Home, visits of interest in Boone, have guest speakers, pot-luck supper, family panel, and goulash supper. As of now these are the plans the ninth graders would like to carry out.

Eighth grade Y-Teen officers elected for this semester are Lynn Anderson, president; Matilda Vickery, vice-president; Glenda McCambridge, secretary, and Gerry Raettig, treasurer. Many activities have been planned for this year. They plan to pack boxes at Thanksgiving time for a needy family in Boone, collect for World Community Day, go Christmas caroling, have morning devotions at the Eastern Star Home, go on ice skating and fireside parties, support a child in Woodward, and to carry out other projects.

Matadors Tie Fort Dodge

Saturday morning, October 2, the Boone ninth graders played Fort Dodge there. The final score was tied at 0-0.

Due to rainy weather neither team could play its best. Boone showed great improvement since losing the game with Ames September 25.

The starting lineup for the Boone Matadors was center, Larry Olander; guards, Kenny Martin and Jack Coffman; tackles, Doug Dodd and Jerry Wright; ends, Denny Elliot and Jack Langmade; quarterback, Rod Von Krog; halfbacks, Jerry Lind and Dick Gilliam; and fullback, 'Buzz' Lee.

Boone Defeats
Lincoln 19-7

On October 9, the Boone ninth grade football team beat Lincoln, of Des Moines, 19 to 7. The game was played on Boone's home field. The starting lineup for Boone was: center, Larry Olander; guards, Jim Louk and Jack Coffman; tackles, Doug Dodd and Jerry Wright; ends, Denny Elliott and Jack Langmade; backs, Rod Von Krog, Glen Lee, Dick Gilliam, and Jerry Lind. Boone's first score came midway in the first quarter when Elliott took a pass and lateraled off to Lind. The second T.D. was scored in the second quarter with Von Krog carrying the ball for the score. A Von Krog to Elliott pass added the extra point. Boone's third T.D. came in the third quarter when 'Buzz' Lee plunged straight ahead. The point was missed and Boone was ahead 19 to 0. Lincoln scored in the last part of the fourth quarter on a 25-yard run. The point after the touchdown was good.

Coach Brookhart said the team has been improving each game. The next game will be with Marshalltown October 16, at Marshalltown.

Mrs. Stevens was reviewing a famous book. "What could be more pitiful," she asked, "than a man without a country?" Mary Lee Herron: "A country without a man."

Junior High Girls
Report for Basketball

Once again girls' basketball is getting in full swing under the coaching of Mr. Charles Lovin. The more energetic eighth and ninth grade girls who have tried out for basketball are, ninth grade: Barbara Bush, Priscilla Chinstedt, Karen Dupton, Etta Mae Grady, Rita Howard, Betty Lincoln, Karen Mustapha, and La Vonne Warak. Eighth graders: Sharon Bartlett, Delores Deal, Charlotte Herrick, Martha Jensen, Susan Peterson, Carolyn Reed, and Jane Young. Good luck, girls!
