

Who Will Be the Queen?

Just Buzzin'

Sophomore and junior pictures were taken the week of September 26. These are to be put in the forthcoming Scroll. Bob Hamilton and George Eckstein, two senior high students, took the pictures under the supervision of Mr. Shadle. Both boys are interested in and are studying photography.

Open house was held at the school building on the evening of September 27. The purpose of the open house activities is to acquaint parents with the teachers and school system. Approximately one thousand parents and other townspeople attended. A lunch of cookies and coffee was served in the cafeteria following the tour of classrooms.

New chemistry students had their first taste of the laboratory last week. All have come out in one piece with only a few minor explosions.

Homeroom decorations started today, each competing for the first place in their class. The decorated rooms will be left for tomorrow so that all may see them.

Five Girls Out for Title

Sharing the spotlight with the football and alumni are five beauties nominated for Homecoming Queen. The varsity players on the football squad nominated these five girls, and today the entire student body voted for the one girl who will serve as the Boone High Homecoming Queen for 1955. Those competing for this honor are seniors Sonja Reedholm, Elna Reedholm, Sue Grant, Joyce Larson, and Carol Briggs.

Tonight at the annual bonfire the truth will be known. At that time the suspense and wondering will be lifted as the Queen will be crowned before the entire crowd of onlookers.

Tomorrow night this queen for a day, along with her attendants, will witness the all-important game between the Boone Treadors and Grinnell.

Sue Grant, tall, slim cheerleader, participates in many activities, among which are Pep Club, of which she is president, Dolphin, Hi-Tri, and Quill and Scroll.

Elna Reedholm divides her time mainly among three activities. She is president of the Dolphin Club, and is a member of both the 'Y' group and Pep Club.

Sonja Reedholm, a blonde gal, belongs to Pep Club and Hi-Tri. Sonja is also a cheerleader and a member of Future Teachers Club.

Joyce Ann Larson's activities include Pep Club, Dolphin, Hi-Tri, Quill and Scroll, and Scroll. This year Joyce is editor of the Scroll.

Carol Briggs belongs to the 'Y' group and to Pep Club. She is also a member of the Future Nurses Club and is on the Bumble 'B' advertising staff.

J. C.'s in the News

Kenneth Tabor was elected president of the junior college student body during a combined freshman-sophomore meeting on Monday, September 26. Other officers also were chosen and are: vice-president, Tom Rinker; treasurer, Joe Moore; and secretary, Alyce Petersen.

Groans and puzzled faces express the attitude of J.C.'s when they were given comprehensive tests on September 26. Freshmen took the tests all day, but sophomore tests were only given in the forenoon.

A picnic in the shelter house at the Ledges Park was the first social affair for the college. The mixer was held at 6:00 p.m., Wednesday, September 21. There was a ball game earlier. The recreation committee consisted of Bob Lentz, chairman, Cynthia Elliott, Bonnie Carter, David Deering, and Kenny Tabor. Those on the food committee were Deloris Williams, Fern Jackson, Marilyn Roberts, and Jo Ann Quantz. Transportation was in charge of Jim Brannon, Rosalie Bullock, and Paul Morris.

Speech Group Makes Plans

If you are interested in speech work, you have a big year ahead of you. Students who have shown interest in three- and one-act plays, radio broadcasting over KWBG, contest events, and stage crews signed up last week for the activities they would like to take part in.

Coming up first this year is the Radio Speaking contest. This event is sponsored by the Iowa T.B. Health Association and Heart Association. Students wanting to participate in this work have chosen their topics for their radio manuscript.

If your line is toward dramatics, the fall play will be given November 9. Although the play has not been selected yet, it will be announced soon. Readings will then be held for those interested in trying out.

Like contest work? Plans are be-

Class Elections

During the fifth hour on Wednesday, October 3, elections were held, choosing the class officers of the senior high classes.

The results of that election are as follows: 12th grade, president, Darrell Kruse; vice-president, Ann Clausen; secretary, Kay Narey. 11th grade, president, Darryl Trullin; vice-president, Richard Rinker; secretary, Jo Ellen Sparks; treasurer, David Nelson. 10th grade, president, Paul King; vice-president, Dennis Elliott; secretary, Karen Toot.

ing made so students may participate in the Iowa State Forensic League. The debate team is now planning their notes and building arguments in preparation for this event.

Miss Tillery and Mr. McCartan are handling this year's speech activities.

Card Sales Booming

The vocal department is now engaged in its annual Christmas card sale. The profit from these cards is to be used as payment on the robes used by this department.

Two thousand boxes were ordered, and Mr. Mische reports that the sales are booming.

Certain students have sold as many as 50 boxes each. Prizes will be given to the top salesmen. These are not as yet decided upon, but possible prizes are a camera and a portable radio.

The Christmas card sales are to last to approximately October 15.

Meet the Staffs

This year's Bumble 'B' staff includes: editor-in-chief, Mary Evans; news editor, Joan Cornelius; feature editor, Shari Sowle; sports editor, Romey Chance; copy editor, Ann Clausen; and circulation, Carl Handy. The staff is small because there was no journalism class last school year. This year a one-semester course is offered. Students enrolled in it are: Carl Handy, Pat Saylor, Romey Chance, Sandra Atherton, Beverly Coffman, Joyce Clarke, Lyla Swain, Cornelia Ellsworth, Betsy Otto, Judy Houston, and Pat Johnson. Some of their writings will be published in the Bumble 'B,' and those with enough published lines will become reporters.

The advertising managers are: Scroll, Koreen Ballard; Bumble 'B,' Elaine Blaess; and collection manager is Carol Briggs.

The Scroll staff is composed of: editor-in-chief, Joyce Larson; associate editors, Darryl Kruse and Kay Narey; staff members are Kerin Brower, Pat Saylor, Keith Smith, and Wayland Swain.

I wonder why all the Student Congress girls' feet hurt Tuesday night, September 27.

TEST YOUR WITS

The Bumble 'B' will appreciate reader reaction to a new type of word puzzle, printed below. SYLLABLEGRAMS are constructed by Lawrence J. Steinbugler, New York city, and distributed by the National Scholastic Press Association, Minneapolis.

In solving a SYLLABLEGRAM, the first step is to read over the syllables printed at the bottom of the puzzle. Then, go through the definitions and write in the answers that come readily to mind. As the answers are supplied, it is important to encircle or cross out each syllable below, to show elimination. As the solution progresses, the possibility of recognizing words in the proverb is increased.

It is important to work back and forth between syllables and the quotation, using every possible clue.

Figures in parentheses after definitions show the number of syllables to be used, and each syllable listed below may be used only once. The FIRST and LAST LETTERS of each definition, when read from top to bottom, will form a well-known proverb.

To get you off to a good start, four solutions, and their first and last letters, have been supplied. From there, you're on your own, but if you must peek, the answers will be found on page 4.

SYLLABLEGRAM

Reg. U. S. Patent Office
BY LAWRENCE J. STEINBUGLER

(Solution: A Well-known Proverb)

Using the 24 syllables listed below, construct 10 words as solutions to the listed definitions. The number in parentheses after each definition is the number of syllables in the solution. The first and last letters of the solutions, read from top to bottom in numerical order, will form a well-known proverb. Heavy bars in last two columns indicate endings of words. See instructions above for complete details.

Definitions	Solutions	First Letter	Last Letter

Double Talk

Teachers Say:

1. This is not very important.
2. This assignment is not difficult in the least. You should have no trouble with it.
3. All right, Little One, what is bothering you?
4. Do you have an excuse for your absence?
5. This school is your school, and we know you want to keep it in good condition.
6. You get less credit for work that is handed in late.
7. No.
8. Do you agree with that, class?
9. Some of this class should go to college.

Teachers Mean:

1. Mark this, you will have it on the test.
2. This is hard. You are probably too dumb to understand it, but study it anyway.

Why English Is Hard to Learn

We'll begin with BOX; the plural is BOXES—but the plural of OX is OXEN, not OXES. One fowl is a GOOSE, two are called GEESE—yet the plural of MOOSE is never MEESE. You may find a lone MOUSE or a nest full of MICE; but the plural of HOUSE is HOUSES, not HICE.

If the plural of MAN is always MEN, why shouldn't the plural of PAN be PEN? If I speak of a FOOT and you show me two FEET, and I give you a BOOT, would a pair be called BEET? If one is a TOOTH and a whole set are TEETH, why shouldn't two BOOTHs be called BEETH?

If the singular's THIS and the plural THESE, should the plural of KISS be ever called KEESE? We speak of the BROTHER and also of BRETHREN, but though we say MOTHER we never say METHREN. Then the masculine pronouns are HE, HIS, and HIM; but imagine the feminine SHE, SHIS, and SHIM!

BEAT GRINNELL

Have You Met?

Here are a few more new faces seen around Boone High. First, Mary Jane Mishler, a senior, who came to us from the Boone Biblical College. She is taking the secretarial course and is not yet sure she likes Boone High better than her former school. Mary likes to draw, read, play the piano, and is interested in sewing. She plans to become a secretary.

Another addition to the senior class is Daniel Martin who comes to us from Ogden, Iowa. He is 17 years old and is taking the general course. Daniel plans to attend junior college and later farm. He has boys' chorus, mixed chorus, and is a 4-H member. He enjoys hunting, fishing, and working with cars.

Diane Duffy, who is a sophomore, attended Sacred Heart High School. She consequently knows quite a few Boone High students. Diane, who likes attending football games, is now in Pep Club.

Hans Goeppinger is not new to Boone High. He was going to Leelanau Boys' School before coming back to Boone. Hans is 15 and a sophomore. He is a member of the Boone-Ames Ski Club, 4-H, the Boone Saddle Club, and likes to swim and fence. A member of the band, he plays a cornet. He plans to attend Iowa State College where he will take business administration and farm management.

Another new senior, from Newport, Rhode Island, is Gloria Reitz. She is taking the commercial course. Her former school was just senior high. She plans to go to business college after graduation. Gloria likes to read, skate, and go horseback riding.

Another new sophomore is Mike Hyatt, from Chariton, Iowa. He is interested in becoming a construction engineer and attending Iowa State College. His former school had an hour for dinner but he thinks we have more variety in food.

From Roosevelt High, in Des Moines, comes Pat Saylor. She is a senior and taking the stenographic course. Pat thinks Boone High students have more freedom and likes it because it is smaller. Her pet peeve is people who start things and don't finish them.

So to keep on the good side of Pat we'll wind this article up. Hope we didn't miss anyone. If we have, please contact the Bumble 'B'.

Safety Assembly

Good driving practices were the topic Thursday of an assembly program, presented by the Sieg-Metz Company and Champion Spark Plugs. Duane Carter, a veteran racing driver, was featured.

TEENS of the WEEK

Daryl Murken is our first offering for boy of the week. To begin with, he's 17, a senior, and taking the general course. His hobby is archery, and he also likes to hunt and fish. Daryl is president of his homeroom. Hi-Y, and both president and district secretary of F.F.A.

He wants to be a college man too—Iowa State, probably. After that an agricultural foreign agent or at least some phase of federal government work. However, all this will come after a stretch in the army or navy. He is in mixed chorus, glee club, octette, and is on the football team.

Saturday, October 1, Daryl went to Waterloo as a dairy cattle judge. Last year he won the County Seat Soil Judging Contest. Mr. Murken is a busy student, but none of his activities has prevented his becoming an honor student.

Here's our choice for Girl of the Week. She's Rosemarie Chance, better known as 'Romey' to most of you.

She is sports editor of the Bumble 'B.' Romey was secretary of her sophomore 'Y' group, program chairman as a junior, and now president of Hi-Tri. A senior, Romey is interested in sports both as an activity and a career. She plans to attend Iowa State Teachers College where she will major in Physical Education and minor in journalism. Romey was historian for Pep Club and co-captain of the basketball team last year. She is in the Future Teachers Club this year.

Her interest in sports includes archery and horseback riding. She is interested, too, in furthering girl sports in Boone High such as tennis and softball.

VOX POPULI

What do you think of decorating the homerooms instead of the traditional floats?

Jim Manriquez: "It's a good idea considering we're not having the floats this year. I would just as soon have the floats though."

Ken Howard: "I would rather have the floats because we would get out of school earlier to watch the parade."

Joleen Rinehart: "I like the idea of decorating the homerooms, but I think I would rather have the floats and parade. More exciting."

Francesca Duncan: "The idea of decorating homerooms is all right, but I would rather have the floats because it is more fun."

Darryl Trulin: "The floats are better, but not enough kids wanted to make them."

'Sandy' Chance: "Since this is the first year for decorating homerooms we really don't know how things will turn out. Maybe next year we'll have the floats again. It's up to the student body. I prefer the parade."

Editor's Lament

They find fault with the editor
The stuff we print is rot.

The paper is about as peppy as a cemetery lot.

The paper shows poor management,

The jokes, they say, are stale

The upper classmen holler—

The lower classmen wail.

But when the paper's printed

And the issue is on file,

If someone didn't get one—

You can hear 'em yell a mile;

—Red and Blue,

Huntsville, Alabama

Getting out this paper is no picnic.

If we print jokes, people say we are silly.

If we don't, they say we are too serious.

If we stick close to the office all day,

We ought to be around hunting material.

If we go out and try to hustle,

We ought to be on the job in the office.

If we don't print contributions,

We don't appreciate genius!

If we do, the paper is filled with junk!

If we clip things from other papers,

We are too lazy to write them for ourselves.

If we don't, we are stuck on our own stuff.

Now, like as not, some guy will say

We swiped this from some other paper—

WE DID!

Grinnell Homecoming Foe

An improved Toreador football team will play host to a speedy Grinnell team to high light homecoming festivities tomorrow night. The Tigers of Grinnell hold a 2-2 record after winning over Cedar Rapids last week. Reeves, one of C.I.C.'s basketball threats, also is an outstanding player on the football field.

The Toreadors will have the added services of back Glen 'Buzz' Lee, who injured his ankle in the first game of the season against Webster City. In that game he showed up particularly well on defense.

If no injuries occur during this week of practice, Coach McLeran plans to use the same starting line-up as the Marshalltown game. This would put 'Wally' Arringdale at center; Jerry Johnstone and Marland Davis at guards; Jim Anderson and Bob Harder, tackles; Rod Von Krog at quarterback, and 'Rich' Byerly, Jim Manriquez, Dick Ray, Merle Nelson, Larry Myers, Jon Ewing, and Jerry Lind sharing backfield positions. Daryl Murken, Morgan Tompkins, Bob Sellers, and 'Chuck' Musser saw action in the Marshalltown tilt.

Texas Tale

A Bostonian visiting San Antonio asked a native, "What is that dilapidated looking ruin over there?"

"That, suh, is the Alamo, where 136 immortal Texans held off an army of 15,000 of Santa Ana's regulars for four days."

"Um-m-m," said the Bostonian, "and who was that man on horseback on that hill over there?"

"That, suh, is a statue of a Texas ranger who killed 46 Apaches in single-handed combat and broke up 27 riots in his life-time. Where you from, Stranguh?"

"I'm from Boston. We have our heroes too—Paul Revere, for instance."

"Paul Revere," snorted the Texan. "You mean that fellow who had to ride for help?"

Oskey Swamps Boone 27-6

Suffering their third defeat the Boone High Toreadors lost to Oskaloosa 27-6 Friday night. Jack McDonald, slippery halfback, lead his team to their first victory over Boone since 1939.

On the second play of the game Bob Prine, quarterback, threw a quickie pass to McDonald, who then threaded his way to a TD.

After Boone punted on the fourth down, the Indians traveled 72 yards for their second touchdown.

The Boone gridmen moved 62 yards but failed to pick up a first down by less than a yard. This time Oskaloosa covered 92 yards with McDonald whipping around left end to make the score 20-0.

Boone fumbled and the Indians recovered on the Boone five-yard line. With 57 seconds left in the first half, McDonald caught Prine's pass in the end zone.

In the fourth quarter, Boone moved 69 yards in nine plays to score. Rod Von Krog drilled a pass to Don Stevens to end the game with the score 27-6.

News

The word 'News' it is said, derives from the initial letters of the names of the four cardinal points of the compass: North, East, West, and South. It was said that before the time of newspapers it was customary to post recent events and occurrences of general interest in public places under four columns headed N. E. W. S. The happenings from the North being recorded under the N, those from the East under E, and so on.

Girls Prepare for Basketball Season

Coach Lovin's Toreadorettes will start regular practice Monday night after two weeks of conditioning practice. Every other night the girls have been working out in the gym as sort of a 'warm-up' session to the coming season.

This year the Toreadorettes have 14 scheduled games besides two or three scrimmage games. One scrimmage has already been definitely planned with United (Jordan and Napier).

Ogden will be the girls' first opponent of the year on November 11 in the Boone gym. The Toreadorettes will play three new teams this season, Winterset, a strong southeastern contender, Rockwell City from the northwest, and Adel of the southwest.

Only one girl was lost last year by graduation so experience will be an important factor this year. The entire game schedule is:

November
11. Ogden	here
15. Grand Junction	here
18. Slater	here
22. Adel	here
29. Ankeny	here

Boone Wins Over Marshalltown 'Cats'

First Win in C.I.C.

A crew of fighting Toreadors played their hearts out for 48 grueling minutes at Marshalltown Friday night as Boone posted their first win of the year, 7-0.

In the second quarter, Boone pushed to the Bobcats' 13-yard line, but missed getting a first down by inches. A Marshalltown fumble was recovered by the Toreadors in the third quarter, but this drive died on the 3-yard line.

In the fourth quarter, with approximately six minutes remaining, Boone got the ball on their own 45. After a 7-yard loss the Toreadors started their march for the goal. A 25-yard pass and a 14-yard run were key plays in the drive. From the 2-yard line Von Krog attempted three quarterback sneaks in a row and advanced the ball just short of the goal line.

Byerly then took a hand-off and crashed through for the touchdown. Johnstone made good his kick for the extra point to make it 7-0.

Marshalltown wasn't entirely finished, however. Moving from their own 39 to Boone's 36, Johnson took the ball and weaved his way to the Boone 10-yard line where Johnstone and Lind stopped him. With six seconds left, Marshalltown tried a quick play, but fumbled and Johnstone recovered as the game ended.

The Toreadors played their usual strong second-half game. In previous games all the damage has been done in the first half. Opponents of the Red and Green have never crossed the Boone goal line in the second half.

Green was the local athletic champion, and had been holding forth at great length. None of the club regulars could do anything about it. But presently one of the visitors looked up. "I'll bet," he said cheerfully, "ten dollars that I can wheel something in a wheelbarrow from one street lamp to the next, and you can't wheel it back!"

Green looked him over—not a very hefty sort of bloke. He thought of bags of cement, bricks, and old iron, and concluded that whatever the stranger could do, he could do better.

"Taken," he said. The stranger smiled, and with a couple of witnesses they set out. A wheelbarrow was borrowed and taken to the nearest street lamp. The stranger rubbed his hands, picked up the handles. "Get in, Green, old man," he said.

Al Bell Presents Assembly
Al Bell was the speaker for the Junior High Assembly Friday, September 30. His topic was Northwestern Canada. Mr. Bell spoke for 15 minutes and then he showed a movie entitled, 'Chinook.' He explained that a Chinook was a Northwesterner wind that blew over the valleys in northwestern Canada, keeping them free from snow. The movie was divided into four main chapters, Cowboys, The Animals in Jasper National Park, Indians, mainly Sioux, and an old fashioned cowboy round-up including, among other things, a chuck wagon race, riding bronchos and Brahma bulls, and milking wild cows.

On October 4, the junior high had a Character Education Assembly. Ruth Josephson was first on the program and played a piano solo entitled 'Impromptu.' Then the student chairman, David Reynoldson, introduced the speaker, the Rev. Thomas Hulme.

Did John Malcom and Tom McGriff have fun forcing boys to dance at Grid Monday night?

Y-TEENS

The ninth grade Y-Teens held their first meeting of the year on Wednesday, September 21. They elected officers: president, Emily Grabau; vice-president, Barbara Krah; secretary, Gayle Ohlmann; treasurer, Sandra Lou Shadle; program chairman, Matilda Vickrey; devotions chairman, Carolyn Dahlin.

The program this year will consist of discussions, parties, and projects for civic interest. Halloween, pancake, caroling, and swimming are the types of parties to be held. Of course some will be boy-girl affairs. Some of the discussions will be on clothing, personality, and dating. For the civic part the Y-Teens will make a Thanksgiving basket and sponsor a girl.

On Tuesday, September 29, the eighth grade Y-Teens held the first meeting of the year. At that time they elected officers for this year, which are as follows: president, Carol Petersen; vice-president, Janet Smith; secretary, Lynn Hohanshell; treasurer, Lu Ann Hauge; program chairman, Lois Howard; devotions chairman, Anne Senholtz.

They have planned to have this year a Halloween party, a Thanksgiving party, traditional suppers, Christmas tea for mothers, breakfasts and swimming parties, and ice skating parties. They also plan on sponsoring a child.

The seventh grade Y-Teens held their election of officers at their second meeting of the year on September 26. The officers are as follows: president, Linda Boyd; vice-president, Mary Shaler; secretary, Marcia Bohlen; treasurer, Susan Tohill; program chairman, Linda Southern; devotions chairman, Sharon Gliem.

They have not as yet decided upon their activities for the year.

Who's Who

The title of 'Girl of the Week' was awarded this week to Doris Lundstrom. Doris is a freshman and is 14 years old. Her birthday is December 23. 'Bubbles' lives at 102 South Marion Street, and her telephone number is 1098-J. Doris has brown eyes and dark brown hair and is five feet one inch tall.

Some of her favorites are: popular song, 'Ain't that a shame'; food, malts; subject, algebra; color, red; sport, swimming and ice skating.

Among her activities are Y-Teens and majorette. Her hobby is playing the accordion. Last, but not least, is Doris' latest interest which she refuses to mention. The only thing we know is that he's a tenth grader. Good luck with him, Doris!

John Malcom, born October 29, 1942, is in the seventh grade. He is four feet 11 inches tall, has brown hair and green eyes. Before coming to 'dear old Boone Junior High,' he attended Lowell School.

After playing or watching a game of baseball, he enjoys a dinner of chicken. His interests are collecting stamps and building model airplanes. He enjoys the television show 'Climax.' John goes to the Baptist church.

Geography rates number one of all his subjects. Sports are his greatest interest in junior high.

John Malcom should be an asset to his class.

Boone Loses Two

'Chuck' McGriff, Dennis Ferry, and Gary McCool were Boone's chief ground gainers in the game at Ames Saturday, September 24. Boone had all the breaks but couldn't get going. The Ames line ran all over the Boone line and several Boone players had to be taken from the field. Boone got its lone touchdown in the last minute of the game when Oscar Gordon intercepted an Ames pass on the Ames 10-yard line. From there Dennis Ferry went into pay dirt but the touchdown was called back because Boone was off side. Ames also had four touchdowns called back. The final score of the game was 19 to 0 in favor of Central of Ames.

Central of Ames defeated the Boone eighth grade football team of Coach Bob (Pinky) Clifton by an 18-0 score in a game played Saturday morning at Ames.

The Boone team had only seven practice sessions prior to the game and was baffled by the Ames single wing. Right half Mike Cornelius and quarterback John McIntyre were Boone standouts.

Cheerleaders Chosen

After school, on Tuesday, September 27, 28 junior high girls were present in the study hall for instruction in cheerleading. On Thursday, September 29, the try-outs were held. A few junior high teachers and senior high cheerleaders were on hand to serve as judges. The cheerleaders were chosen on their ability to lead cheers and general appearance. The judges decided to pick two girls from each junior high grade to serve as cheerleaders. The cheerleaders chosen were Deanna Eldien and Anne Gruenig from ninth grade; Carolyn Bell and Mary Jo McLeod from eighth grade; and Marcia Bohlen and Mary Shaler from seventh grade.

Boone Junior High enrollment has increased slightly this year. The eighth grade has the largest enrollment, with 235 girls and boys. The seventh grade is next with 204, and the ninth grade has 189 pupils, making a total of 628 students in junior high.

Safety Patrol Formed

This year Mr. Swanson is sponsoring the School Safety Patrol. The duties of the patrol are to bring in and put out the stop signs and to lock and unlock the bicycle rack. You can recognize the patrols by the white belts they wear.

The boys on the sign patrol this year are Richard York, John Kueck, Richard Engles, Wesley Van Hooser, Eddie Lynn, Allan Crandell, Ross Heaps, Marvin Lestina, George Ahrens, Maurice Smiley, Ronnie Long, and Robert Mishler.

The boys on the bicycle rack patrol are Charles Smith, Jerry Hunter, Lawrence Pappels, and Ross Heaps.

I wonder whose initials are N.N. like on Sandra Shadle's erasers.

Hey, Bob Price, who did you vote for vice-president of Student Congress? Karen Shafer?

Lucky Bob Hunter and Gary McCool have swimming with senior high. How come?

Why is it that all the eighth and ninth grade girls want to take seventh grade English over?
