

Dolphins in Readiness for Spring Exhibition

What do you remember about Easter last year? Do you think about the starchy feel of your hat or the white softness of your gloves? You might recall the elegant feeling you had as you walked up the steps to the church in a stiff new pair of shoes. And as you stepped inside, can you remember how the church smelled with the many beautiful flowers, especially the ivory-hued Easter lilies, and how the sun rays washed the pews with its glowing light? Those are all good memories associated with Easter. But the only thing that could have made you feel like that inside was that your heart was filled with the spirit of your belief and love. If these things aren't present, you cannot entirely be happy.

Even if you don't have a brand-new Easter outfit, you can be as happy and even happier than those who have material things. How is that possible? The answer is simple and easy. Whether you can go to church or not, lift up your heart with love for God at Easter, and He will make you happy.

Just Buzzin'

On Monday, March 12, the Future Teachers' club was the guest of the International Elementary Teachers organization for a tea and meeting. Eight members and the sponsors, Miss Davitt and Miss Pagel, attended the meeting at Lincoln school. The president of the organization, Harlan Reed, gave a talk welcoming the girls and explaining the functions of the group. Afterward refreshments were served by the Lincoln teachers.

Two of our Boone High teachers, Miss Pagel and Mr. Honeck, are planning to be married in the near future. We understand that the marriage will take place over Easter vacation. Miss Pagel is the girls' counselor and senior government class instructor; Mr. Honeck teaches world history and civics as well as coaching ninth grade basketball and seventh grade football.

Members of the Navy, Air Force, and Marines, spoke to the seniors on Tuesday, March 20. The boys and girls were both invited and were in attendance at separate meetings. The various aspects of service life were taken up. The advantages and personal experiences were related. A question and answer period was included in the discussion.

'One Foot in Heaven,' was presented to a large audience on March 20. The play was well given and by all reports was thoroughly enjoyed by those watching. A good performance was the reward of long hours of hard work.

The Hi-Tri held a party on the evening of March 19, to which all senior high students were invited. Dancing was the main point of interest. Pop was sold to those in attendance. Students danced to records acquired by Hi-Tri members.

The Future Nurses' banquet was held on March 27 at the Lincoln Restaurant. An initiation ceremony took place during which the officers awarded the pins to the junior members. Chicken was the main dish.

The 1956 Boone High Junior-Senior Prom is in the making. Although plans are carried out in the utmost of secrecy, anticipation is growing among the students. Not much information has been received except that the prom is to be held on May 4.

It is hoped that those students interested, will pay their money immediately. Without the funds, the committees cannot arrange for food, decorations, etc.

Mr. Welles H. Lyons, of the Iowa Temperance League, Inc., was guest speaker at Junior and Senior High assemblies, March 27, at 2 p.m.

Through the use of visual equipment, the subject, 'Narcotics,' was portrayed from the standpoint of physiology, psychology, sociology, and economics. The presentation was on a high school level, but not beyond the grasp of pupils of the junior high school age.

A juvenile delinquent is a boy who does what you did when you were young—but gets caught doing it.

General Motors To Present Progress Report

The General Motors Corporation will present on Thursday, April 5, a program entitled 'Previews of Progress.' It is a stage presentation that depicts how progress is achieved through science and research. Its purpose is to interest, instruct, and inspire the youth of the country so that they will realize fully the contributions that science and engineering have made to our standard of living and the opportunities that are afforded by careers in engineering.

'Previews of Progress' is not a movie. It is a live stage show which tells a dramatic, non-technical story of jet propulsion, the making of synthetic rubber, and other scientific wonders. The program is non-commercial and is made available without charge by General Motors to both schools and civic groups.

Homemaking Meeting for Girls

Approximately 60 junior and senior girls attended a meeting directed to those interested in homemaking. Former Boone High students and present Iowa State College students—Mary Longworth, Carole Nelson, Donna Holbrook, and Cay Munn; Boone Junior College graduate and present I. S. T. C. student, Gladys Mowrer; and dietitian Nancy Waychoff spoke to the group. The meeting was one of an informal discussion with leisurely questions and answers.

Homemaking teachers, Mrs. Brunner and Mrs. Absher, supervised the girls and suggested a few points of interest. Such things as fields of homemaking and high school courses were taken up as well as the aspects of college life.

To Be Held Three Days

Plans are now underway for the annual water show, which will be presented by the Dolphin Club on April 20, 21, and 23, at the Boone High pool.

The theme this year is centered around some of the periods in the history of America. Indians, pilgrims, colonists, '49ers, flappers, and modern teenagers are only a few of the grains of sand which will fall through the hour glass when the lights dim and the music begins.

Committees are hard at work preparing scenery, lighting, programs, tickets, and all the other behind-the-scenes job that make a show a success. Meanwhile, groups of swimmers are busy perfecting the routines which will be presented at the performances.

Because many were turned away at the door last year, the show will be repeated three times this year instead of twice as it has been in the past. At the performances on Friday, Saturday, and Monday, April 20, 21, and 23, tickets will cost 25 cents for children below sixth grade, 35 cents for junior and senior high students, and 65 cents for adults.

Mr. Thompson To Scotland

Mr. Thompson, head custodian of Boone schools, and his wife, are leaving for Hamilton, Scotland, May 22.

Hamilton, which is located in the southern part of the country, in Lanarkshire County, is Mr. Thompson's home town.

The couple will board the ship, 'The Empress of Britain,' from Montreal, Canada, and will disembark in Liverpool, England. From there the Thompsons will journey north to Scotland.

Other countries they plan to visit are Ireland, England, and Wales. While in Scotland they will see the Highlanders of Iowa City, who will be performing in that country.

They will arrive in Montreal, Canada, on the 'Empress of France' on September 2, and will reach Boone September 10.

COURTESY PAYS!

it doesn't pay to

Driving too fast for conditions — (weather, traffic, visibility, location) cost 12,000 lives last year!

George Mikan, the former great basketball center with the Minneapolis Lakers is six feet 10 inches tall. Now retired from the game at 31 he is interested in running for Congress. His political 'platform': 'I don't know too much about politics but I feel that as a young man I have certain qualifications—everyone will have to look up to me.'

The Search for—?

Having nothing better to do, one bright spring morning, I galloped into my psychiatrist's office and proceeded to unload my complexes into his willing ear. After an hour or so of this, I arose from the seat of my troubles and awaited eagerly his diagnosis. What would it be this time? Neurosis? Psychosis? Or perhaps a simple psychopathic mania?

Following much deep meditation and considerable note taking, he spoke at last. "Success is yours. I believe we can now have you declared legally insane." I could hardly breathe. I was intoxicated with pride having finally reached my goal.

"Oh, joy!" I cried as I leaped from his desk.

"Steady there, friend," Doc said, grabbing my leg as I flew by. "We all have to go sometime."

Soon I was on my way to a happy home. Windy meadows Happy Home to be exact. I was then given my room, a quiet little abode with one chair. Conditions were too crowded to permit everyone to have a padded cell.

One day a knock came to the bars. Blasting open my door, I invited by visitors in. It was the kind doctor and a stranger. "Hot dog," I cried, "a roommate!"

"No, no," said the doctor, "this man is a hypnotist!"

"Hypnotist, neurotic, psychopath, who cares!" I yelled and began to pump my new friend's hand.

"You don't quite understand," persisted the doctor, "this man is here to hypnotize you."

"Will it sting?" I asked.

"Of course not, he merely wants to find out what makes you tick—I mean how your condition may have been brought about," he explained.

After a short time I found myself again on a couch, this time facing my new friend.

"Please relax and watch my watch."

"Pardon?" I asked.

"Watch my watch! Watch my watch!" he yelled. I was beginning to think I might have a roommate after all.

Suddenly I began to yawn. "You're getting sleepy, sleepy," he whispered.

"Yes, yes," I mumbled and fell asleep.

Off in the distance I could see a faint light. It was faint, I surmised, due to the nearsightedness in my mind's eye.

Then I heard my now friend's voice asking, "What is your name?"

"Ah, ha!" I thought, "a Bridey Murphy fan."

"My name," I said, "is Hiawatha."

"Hiawatha?" he repeated.

"From the land of Big-Sea Water, you know," I replied.

Now my story is in all the newspapers. They're even singing songs about me. Every day my doctor, my new friend and I sit in my, excuse me, I mean our little cell, and play tidly winks with all my money.

Isn't success grand?

Peekin' Through The Class

Sure, you'd say, I know we've got a trophy case. But how much do you know about the trophies that are in it? Many old and interesting ones are to be found especially in the trophy cases in the auditorium. For instance, there's an old cup with the silver peeling off which bears this inscription on a card inside:

"This cup was presented to the Boone High baseball team by the citizens of Colo, Iowa for their gentlemanly behavior and good looks."

An old banner dated May 14, 1921, states that Boone High School won third place in an all west track and field meet at the University of Colorado.

Way back in 1920, when Ray Lamb, a well-known Boone teacher, was captain of the basketball team, we won the state championship. 1931 was the other year that we had the championship team.

Two of our oldest trophies are not athletics at all, but were won by the speech department. One of these trophies was awarded in 1912 when the debate team won the state championship. The other was the Drake Drama Trophy, won by presenting the play, 'The Intruder.'

To most students the wrestling team is considered a new thing but really it's not. In fact, several of our oldest trophies were presented to the wrestling team. This team won the state championship in 1923 and 1924.

The tennis trophy in 1942 and golf in 1951 round out our list of state championship trophies.

"Boy, if I had a million dollars!" Sounds pretty good, huh? But nowadays it seems as if everyone would be satisfied with $64,000. Anyway, here's what a few of your friends would do with such an amount.

Rich Byerly: If I had $64,000 I'd eat up town at noon.

Pat Saylor: Give it to Romey to give to 'someone' else to spend on a party.

Bette Hicks: Buy a car (Studebaker, naturally) and take a trip to New York to try for the $100,000 question.

Johnny Manriquez: I would pay my shop bill; then Mr. Thompson would be very happy.

Fran Duncan: I'd frame it for awhile, then I'd spend it on everything I ever wanted.

Jim Anderson: Buy a farm and start farming.

Tom Miller: Buy Bob Harder's hot Ford and spend the rest trying to get it to run.

Koreen Ballard: I'd give it to Sandy to give to Pat to give to Romey to give to 'someone' else to spend on a party in the 'House That Jack Built.'

Phyllis Hawk: Build a rocket ship and fly to Mars.

Dick Wilhite: I'd build a large gym in Moinigona Tech.

J. Peterson: Pay off all my debts with the money that is left after the taxes are taken out.

Sharon Elsberry: Buy a Cadillac like they show on the $64,000 question.

Jerry R. Johnstone: I would take the money from 'someone' else and combine it with my $64,000 and we could have an extra large 'party' (ball).

Elaine Blaess: First I would hide it where no one could find it; then every day spend $1,000 or more until I had it spent.

Don Schroeder: Pay my bills and put a three-quarters racing cam in my car.

Oh, well, we can dream, can't we?

Benji Buzzes Again

Hi kids! This is Benji here again.

Well, here it is almost Easter. I suppose you are all pretty excited about the spring vacation. I can just see you rushing home from ole B.H.S. to color your eggs and beg some money off the Easter bunny for that new spring suit.

Saw a dilly of a hat up town the other day. Seems it's just what all the ladies are wearing this year. Looked sort of like a salad bowl turned upside down on a haystack.

Went to the play last week. Saw a group of teenagers do a swell job on 'One Foot in Heaven.' Sports are important in a school, of course, but a good play requires team work and support too.

Here's a poem for teachers whose classes are affected by spring fever:

Spring is here,
The grass is riz.
I wonder where
My students is?

April 1 is coming up too. Hope none of you get caught in any pranks. At least harmful ones. I'll never forget the time Uncle Samuel Bee, the black sheep of the family, put sneezing powder in Great Aunt Sofie's bath salts. The dear old lady nearly drowned!

Don't know yet what I'll do over the holiday. Sleep I guess. I know all you ambitious teens will probably just sit around waiting for school to begin again. That is those of you who can't find someone with a car and a tank full of gas.

Well, I'd better sign off now. I have to run to the chicken house to see if I'll be playing the Easter bunny this year. Can't you just see it? An imaginary hen laying eggs for an imaginary bunny to bring so they can be hidden by a bee that exists only in this column.

Bye now. 'B' seeing ya.

Peterson Tops Scoring Honors

J. Peterson, although seeing action in only 14 of 20 games, walked away with scoring honors for the season with 233 points and an average of 16.6. 'Chuck' Musser was second with 219 points, followed by Larry Meyers' 201. The list of scoring and percentage for the Treadors is as follows:

Player	Games	FG	FT	TP	Av.
J. Peterson	14	85	63-100	233	16.6
C. Musser	20	87	45-76	219	11.5
L. Meyers	20	59	83-138	201	10.0
R. Byerly	20	53	28-53	134	6.7
J. Taylor	17	26	28-53	69	4.0
L. Land	13	23	12-17	58	4.4
B. Musser	14	20	5-7	45	3.2
M. Newbold	15	9	21-25	39	2.6
J. Langmade	16	9	7-20	25	1.5
T. Miller	9	8	5-7	21	2.3
J. Robertson	15	3	5-10	11	.7
B. Harder	9	3	3-5	9	1.0

Although Boone did not place any Treador on the first Central Iowa Conference team, J. Peterson was named to the second team and 'Chuck' Musser and Larry Meyers were listed as third team members.

J. was the only representative from Boone to win recognition on Jack North's honorable mention team.

18 Report For Tennis

Tennis has become a new interest in Boone High's sports program. Coach Hokanson, who has given the job to revive the sport last spring, had 18 boys report to the first meeting that was called. These 18 included seven returning members of the '55 team.

Daryl Trulin, who was Boone's representative in the state Junior Chamber of Commerce meet last year, will be on hand again this season along with Jim Lawless and Tom Miller, two regulars of last year's squad, Bruce Williams, Larry Jackson, Wayland Swain, and Tom Lainson.

The new members consist of Larry Coghlan, 'Chuck' Musser, Mike Newbold, Morgan Tompkins, Douglas McLeod, Rod Von Krog, Hans Goeppinger, Dan Eldien, Dick Long, and Bill Herman. Bob Musser represented Boone in the junior division of the J. C. meet and will be another prospect for the team.

Only three dual meets have been scheduled so far but others are in process of being scheduled.

Two meets with Fort Dodge, April 27 and May 7, and one with Tech of Des Moines, May 9, are in store for the racquetters. The district meet is planned for May 12.

Cinder Squad Of 1956

Saturday the Boone High track squad will open the '56 season in the State Indoor Meet for double A schools at Iowa City. At the start of the season Coach Stutzman had 37 senior high boys report and in addition to many boys returning from last year's squad, 14 sophomores have been added to the cinder squad. The complete list of boys and their respective events are as follows: Sprints—Marland Davis, Larry Howell, Jack Kelly, Jerry Lind, Jim Manriquez, Jack Robertson, Dick White, and Rod Von Krog; weights—Art Aspen-gren, Marland Davis, Doug Dodd, Mervyn Eastberg, Dale Elsberry, Mike Hyatt, and Dick Ray; middle distance—Richard Byerly, Leland Dahlen, Mick Ferry, Richard Hunter, Larry Land, Dick Rinker, Loren Vogler, Don Flockhart, and Jerry Wright.

Mile—Dave Dearing, Jon Ewing, and David Gibbs; hurdles—Dennis Elliott, Jack Kelly, Paul King, J. Peterson, and Rod Von Krog; pole vault—Larry Meyers and Jack Brannon; broad jump—Jim Manriquez; high jump—J. Peterson, Larry Howell, Ed McAlpine, and Don Nystrom; football throw—Jack Robertson and Kenny Shuey. Don Stevens will run the 440 and Bill Hull is listed under field events.

Something unusual in the world of sports, particularly in the Boone area, was viewed last night in the Boone gym when the Harlem Road-kings played the Iowa football stars. Such players as Calvin Jones, Jerry Reichow, Roger Swedberg, Jim Freeman, Binky Broeder, all who have received great acclaim for their football playing at the University of Iowa, have been touring with the fun-loving Roadkings throughout Iowa. To date the 'kings have won 111 games and have lost only four.

Winter Athletes Receive Letters

Winter sports participants received their letter awards last Thursday in a senior high assembly. A total of 47 letters were presented to the athletes who received recognition in basketball—girls', varsity, and sophomores—and swimming.

Coach Clifton had 14 boys win letters in varsity competition, two sophomores, Jack Langmade and Bob Musser; six juniors, Larry Meyers, Jim Taylor, Jack Robertson, 'Chuck' Musser, and Mike Newbold; and six seniors received their last basketball awards as Treadors, Richard Byerly, Leland Dahlen, Mick Ferry, Richard Hunter, Larry Land, Dick Rinker, Loren Vogler, Don Flockhart, and Jerry Wright.

Six senior girls received letters along with one junior and three sophomores. Awards went to Romey Chance, Ann Clausen, co-captains Joan Cornelius and Jacquie Conn, Marie Roby, Sandra Hick, Etta Mae Grady, Karen Mustapha, Hazel Deal, and Rita Howard. Betty Lincoln was the team manager for the 1955-1956 Treadorettes, who posted an 8-7 record.

Cagers for the sophomore class that received awards were: Jack Coffman, Don Cross, Doug Dodd, Dick Gilliam, Dick Hamilton, Larry Howell, Mike Hyatt, Paul King, Jerry Lind, Alan Roeder, Rod Von Krog, and Dick White. Coach Les McIntyre's sophs finished the year with a 6-9 record.

In order to receive a swimming letter, a Boone High tankman must accumulate more than 300 points. Eleven Treador swimmers were able to do so this season, with Dave Nelson collecting the highest number of points. Others winning awards were: Tom Reed, Wally Arringdale, Jim Lawless, Dave Bender, Lee Cook, Bill Herman, Mike Herman, Dick Long, Fred Vitt, and Tony Williams. Arringdale and Reed both seniors, were given captain stars. Coach Brookhart's tankmen had a 4-10 record.

Kay Narey accepted, on the behalf of the Student Council and student body, a plaque from the Treadors for winning the sectional tournament. J. Peterson and 'Chuck' Musser made the presentation.

Golf Season Begins

Five returning lettermen will provide the nucleus for this spring's golf team. Coach Lovin will have Jim Taylor, Mike Knezevich, Bob Appenzeller, Fred Vitt, and Gerald Smith back this year to help with the 11 tough scheduled meets besides the district, conference, and possibly the state tournament.

Providing competition for the lettermen are ten other senior high boys, Dick Hamilton, Jerry Johnstone, Larry Olander, Bob Harder, Alan Roeder, Bob Hamilton, Jon Abrahamson, John McGee, Bruce Tohill, George Eckstein, and two junior high boys, Jim Moore and Brian Knezevich. The schedule for the golfers is:

Tuesday, April 17: Marshalltown, there.
Friday, April 20: Roosevelt, here.
Tuesday, April 24: Perry, there.
Thursday, April 26: Marshalltown, here.
Tuesday, May 1: Carroll, here.
Thursday, May 3: Ames, there.
Tuesday, May 8: Roosevelt, there.
Thursday, May 10: Ames, here.
Saturday, May 12: District.
Tuesday, May 15: Perry, here.
Saturday, May 19: Conference.
Tuesday, May 22: Fort Dodge, there.
Thursday, May 24: Carroll, there.
Saturday, May 26: State.

Variety Show Given Today

Today the seventh grade students presented an assembly. Tryouts were held earlier in the month and the final program was given with Vern Lyons as master of ceremonies. The opening number was a tap dance by Linda Suthern. Next an accordion solo by Marilyn Adix followed by a trio pantomime with record by Sue Moore, Lynn Doran, and Sharon Heeps. Tom Burke acted as a hobo, followed by a piano solo by Sue Pestotnik.

'Wild Cat Willie,' a one-act play, came next on the program. The cast included Carl Saubert, Lynn Clark, Gene Keys, Elizabeth Latham, Dick Reed, and Nancy Parkinson. James Brown, Robert Carlson, Steven Herrald were members of the stage crew. The prompters were Donna Jay and Sharon Heeps. Joyce Uterback was in charge of properties.

Judy Reed did a song and dance act. Pamela Parrish gave a solo dance, and Kay Grierson played her accordion. A hula dance and song was given by Karen Oliver, Marcia Bohlen, Susan Morgan, and Mary Goodwin. Joan Harvey narrated the dance. The final number on the program was a girls' string sextet.

Journalism Questionnaire

Do you have an allowance? If so, do you want an increase? Do you think you get enough money from your present job?

These are some of the examples from the tabulation the ninth grade journalism class will present to the junior high pupils on allowance and incoming money. Homerooms will be held in the near future for the junior high pupils to fill out this tabulation.

Schoolmaster: "Glenn, spell 'weather'."

Glenn: "W-e-t-t-h-e-r."

Schoolmaster: "Well, Glenn, that's certainly the worst spell of weather we've had for some time!"

Student Congress Activities

On the twenty-first and twenty-second of March all seventh, eighth, and ninth grade students were busy writing themes for the annual essay contest sponsored by the Student Congress. These were written in the English classes. The topics of these themes was your own experiences, somebody else's, or a book character's experience.

For first prize two dollars will be given, and for second prize one dollar will be given. There will be a first and second prize for grades seven, eight, and nine respectively. In May at the Award Assembly these prizes will be given.

Paid Assembly Enjoyed

On March 13, 1956, the junior high had a very interesting paid assembly featuring C. J. Albreck, with his adventures in Alaska. Things featured in the movie were the Kodiak bear, salmon, beavers, and other wildlife found in Alaska. The film also showed how he stayed alone in Alaska wilds for two months of one summer. During his two month isolation from habitation he saw only one human being. We're sure everybody thoroughly enjoyed the assembly.

What's black and white and red all over? Answer: An embarrassed zebra.

What did one eye say to the other eye? Answer: There's something between us that smells.

Did You Know That:

Iowa has 60 radio stations.
Iowa has 12 television stations.
Iowa has 370 public libraries.
Iowa has 100 public airports.
Iowa has 8,515 miles of railroads.
Iowa is served by three airlines.
Iowa has 600 miles of meandered water ways.
Iowa has 86,412 miles of surfaced highways.

Why Is It That:

The teacher always calls on you when you never have your lesson, and when you do she never calls on you?

We don't have any lefthanded desks?

We always have all of our tests on the same day?

Everyone wants to use the mirror in the girls' restroom at the same time?

Everyone's happy today?

Mr. McIntyre gives tests every day?

I do my homework faithfully? (I'm nuts!)

We still have snow in spring?

The same people always make the honor roll?

Have you noticed all the pretty colored blouses that the ninth grade girls have made? They are very good sewers, aren't they?

This word drives the postman nuts, SWSSTHTTT. For those who don't know what it means, it is explained this way: Sealed with sufficient saliva to hold the thing together.

If you could count all the horn blasts in a traffic jam, it would be equal to the squares behind the wheel.
