The following girls received the award: Charlotte Ashbaugh, Karen Bennett, Dixie Enslow, Susanne Frohardt, Kathleen Gibbons, LuAnne Hauge, Lynne Hohenshell, Karen Hubby, Rachel Lansing, Ann Senholz, Janice Ward, and Nancy Westfall.

Y-teens to Hold Dance

On Saturday night, November 2, a Sadie Hawkins Dance will be held for all the members of the sophomore Live-Y'ers, the junior-senior Hi-Tri, and their dates. It will be held at the Sportsmen's Club west of Boone between the hours of 8:00 and 11:30. Prizes will be given and all couples may be 'married' for a small fee.

The price of the dance is 50 cents and a band will furnish the music. The profits made from this will be used to help put on a Christmas formal which will be on December 21.

Forty-four Take National Merit Exam

Tuesday, October 22, at 7:45 a.m., the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test was administered to 44 seniors. Anyone in the senior class was eligible to take this test for the fee of $1.00. Any person in the upper five per cent could take the test free of charge.

Tuesday, after all the booklets were distributed, it was discovered that 11 booklets did not contain answer sheets. Thus, 11 students were unable to take the test at the specified time. After a hasty call to Princeton, New Jersey, those students took the test by making the answers in the test booklet. These were to be transferred from the booklet to the answer sheet in Princeton, New Jersey.

Results of these tests will be made known in five weeks.

Future Teachers Meet October 23

Room 306, on October 23, at 3:15, was the scene of the second meeting of the Future Teachers Club.

The president, Judy Eastberg, called the meeting to order. It was decided that the dues should be 50 cents a semester and that the club should meet the second Thursday of every month. Prospective Teachers Day, which is to be held November 13, was discussed. This is a day when all of the members of the club visit colleges in Iowa. Any boy or girl who is interested in teaching may join the club.

GRINNELL, IOWA.—Dennis Collis, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. O. Collis, 222 Story Street, Boone, is a member of the student committee assisting with preparations for the special three-day Convocation to be held at Grinnell College Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, October 25, 26, and 27.

The student group is helping plan the event and will look after many details during the Convocation, such as providing guides, ushers, hostesses, and pages, in cooperation with the faculty committees. Students will also take part in such Convocation features as a play, musical programs, and panel discussions led by distinguished guest speakers.

Collis, a junior at Grinnell, is a 1955 graduate of Boone High School.

Students Attend Iowa Press Convention

Twenty-eight Boone High students attended the Iowa High School Press Association Convention at Iowa State College at Ames on Monday, October 28. Students who made the trip are members of the school paper and yearbook staffs and the journalism class.

The day's events began when the bus left the school at 8:20 a.m. After registering, the group attended a session of round tables and talks until 12 noon. Between 12:00 and 2:00 p.m. lunch was served and a business session and election were held.

In the afternoon following more round table discussions, the journalism department held an open house in the new press building.

Panels discussed editing the school paper, financing the yearbook, feature writing, sports writing, news headlines, advertising, and photography.

Those who attended include Anna Longhenry, Judy Parisho, David Tucker, Joan Stotts, Larry Anderson, Carolyn Dahlin, Karen Toot, Bob Sharp, Bob Dahlgren, Myra Nelson Joanne Rinehart, Wanda Eklund, Karen Mustapha, Karen Trulin, Etta Mae Grady, Sharon Crumbaugh, Priscilla Chinstedt, Judy Malcom, Joy Pollard, Ben Pollard, Bill Anderson, Judy Eastberg, Don Flockhart, David Otto, Deanna Eldien, Emily Grabau, Sue Peterson, and Gerry Raettig.

P.T. A. Holds Meeting

The P.T. A. met on October 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the Boone High cafeteria. Mr. Moore was the moderator for a panel discussion concerning school policies. Teachers participating in the discussion were Miss Linderblood and Mr. Lyness; parents were Mrs. Robert Musser and the Rev. La Rue Jensen, and Deanna Eldien and Judy Rae Hendricks were the student panelists. They discussed new plans for the prom and the problem of giving students something to do after games, which is the purpose of after-game dances. They also discussed the new regulation under which a student who fails in two subjects during the first nine weeks receives a warning letter; if he then fails two subjects during the second nine weeks, he is dropped for the following semester. It was decided that this regulation is a means of keeping people in school because it makes students work harder and thus reduces the drop-outs.

The string trio played a number. Joan Stotts played the cello, Don Josephson the violin, and Joyce Peterson the piano. Coffee and cookies were served after the meeting.

Mechanical Drawing Gains New Interest

Enrollment in mechanical drawing courses offered by Boone High has jumped 112% over last year's number—from 42 students last year to 89 this year. Sixty of the students enrolled this year are sophomores, 15 juniors, and 14 seniors.

Two years of mechanical drawing are offered by this school. The first two semesters are devoted to general mechanical drawing, and the third semester covers advanced material. Architectural drawing is taught in the fourth semester, during which students have the opportunity to work out house plans and, if they wish, construct models.

Purposes of the course are to teach students to describe their ideas graphically and to teach them to read blueprints. People planning any kind of industrial pursuit should take this course, and it is a necessity for anyone entering the field of management, engineering, or labor. Knowledge of mechanical drawing is helpful in selecting and using industrial products and so is beneficial to all people since everyone is a consumer of these products.

Although the Toreadors lost their last home football game last Friday night to Grinnell 25-14, it was an exciting game and a good showing on the part of Boone.

Grinnell's three td.'s in the first quarter gave them the points which enabled them to come out with the winning score, although during the third quarter it looked as if it was going to end a very close game. A final touchdown in the last quarter put to Tigers a little too far in front for Boone to catch up to them in the time that was left. Lloyd Sisco, the Tigers' fullback, made all three of the touchdowns in the first quarter and is regarded as one of their best men.

Boone's two touchdowns were made in the second and third quarters. Both of those were made by Jerry Lind, Toreador halfback.

For the first Toreador td., Lind received a handoff after a punt on the Grinnell 49-yard line and ran it all the way. The point-after-touchdown attempt by Denny Ferry was successful, and at the end of the half the score was Boone 7, Grinnell 18.

Lind's second touchdown for the Toreadors in the third quarter came on a pass after which he raced 53 yards down the center of the field and made it all the way. Denny Ferry kicked the placement successfully again for a score at the end of the third quarter of 14-18 sliding Grinnell's way.

The Tiger td. in the fourth quarter finished the game with the score of 25-14.

Photography Contest Is Announced

Here's an announcement for you students who like to take pictures. Kodak's new 1958 Photo Contest for high school students opens January 1. A notice is being posted on the bulletin board in the hall in front of Mrs. Engen's office. Mr. Stock has rules, folders, and further details. You can win from $10 to $300 in cash awards, plus handsome certificates of merit and national recognition. Remember, if you want details, contact Mr. Stock in room 308.

News Mit der Letter

October the thirty-one
States of the United
Mein dear Cousin Hans:

I now take my pen and ink in hand write you mit a lead pencil. We do not lif where we used to lif, we lif where we haf moved. I hate to say it, but your dear old aunt vot you luffed so well is dead. She died of new monia on New Year's day in New Orleans at fifteen minutes front of five. Some people think she had population of her heart. De doctor gave up all hope when she died, her breath all leaked out. She leaves a family of two boys, two calves and two cows. They found $10.00 sewed in her bustle. It was an awful lot of money to leaf behind. Old Mrs. Offenblock is very sick, she is just at death's door and de doctor is trying to pull her through. She has such a nice little boy, he is like a human beast. I took him to de hospital to see de sick people, ve had a lofly time. Your bruder Gus took our dog Fido down to de saw mill yesterday to haf a fight. He runned up against one of de big circular saws, he only lasted one round. All de Grassen-blocks family have de mumps and are having a swell time. I am sending your black overcoat by express. In order to safe express charges I cut off de buttons, you will find them in the inside pocket. Your uncle said if you don't pay that 40 cents vot you owe him, he will cut off your head and thro it in your face. I just graduated from the college and I took elecution and physical torture. I learned to be stingygrafter too. I got a job down at the lifry stable as stingygrafter taking down hay for horses. Hans Kratz is sick. De doctor told him to take something so he went down street and met Ikey Cohen and took his watch.

Ikey Cohens had him arrested and got a lawyer. De lawyer got de case and Hans got de works. We have 30 chickens and a fine dog. De chickens are laying 6 eggs a day. De dog is laying behind de stove. Just heard dey formed a operation on Mrs. Offenblock between the dining room and de conservatory, but she died between eight o'clock. De people is dying around here vot nefer dies before. Hans, I wish were closer apart, I am awful lonesome since we are separated together. Your brudder Frank is getting along fine mit de small pox and hopes he findes you de same. Hoping you will write sooner,

I remain here,
Your cousin Max

P. X. If you don't get dis letter let me know and I will write you a niddervon soon.

P. X. No. 2. Haf just received the $10.00 vot I owe you but enclosed up de leteer and won't get it in.

Reading the Writing on the Wall

Psychologists tell us that one trait common to all of us is the wish to express ourselves as individuals. No one is an exception. Many of us like to display our names prominently where others will see them.

At one time or another, practically all of us have been guilty of writing our names on public property; hence, springs the hobby of 'reading the handwriting on the wall.'

Restroom walls are frequently adorned with initials and first names. Braver people add their last names, but this isn't usually the rule because most of us feel a little foolish making ourselves this obvious. The mystery is destroyed when we reveal our full names.

Boone No Exception

Boone High is no exception. In the girls' rest room (room 220), we find that J. H., 'Trix,' and 'Smoky' have left their calling cards. 'Ole,' 'Shep,' 'Dutch,' 'Tex,' and 'Buzz' have made sure posterity won't forget them by scratching their names into lockers.

The most common types of wall-etchings are done by love-struck students proclaiming their devotion. For instance, in room 220 we find that Sharon loves George, M. P. loves W. A., J. C. loves C. R., and R. A. loves O. H. In the back restroom on second floor, Diane tells us that she loves Elvis. Also, Lois loves Bill, K. D. loves B. H., and Donna loves ???. Some girls are fickle-hearted Casanovas. On the same wall, enclosed in a big heart, is 'Millie S. plus Jerry B.; Millie S. plus Jim M.' On one side of the towel dispenser, written in a feminine hand, is 'Dick Hamilton.' On the other side, the same person has written 'Jerry Benjamin.'

(Continued from preceding column) neatly-drawn hearts containing 'Karen plus Bud.' Also, as we descend the stairs, we learn that Ver Deen loves George, Bobbi loves La Verne, Judy S. loves Larry R., Gloria loves John, Carolyn loves 'Chuck,' Poppy loves Dave, and L. K. loves B. H. or L. H. In the dressing room itself, Sharon loves Ted H., Judy loves Leon and Leon only, Sandy loves Bill, and Roberta loves John M.

In the women's restroom at city hall, Judy R. loves Junior E., Beth and Marcia love Mike N., Delores loves Merle, and Barb loves Bob. "I love Arlow" and "Me plus Everyone" make their debut here, too.

Some people like to do a little moralizing in public, although they don't 'practice what they preach.' For example: on one wall is written the old adage, "Fools' names, like fools' faces, always appear in public places." You can find 'Jerri plus Ted,' 'Bonnie plus Doug,' and 'Ella T. plus David H.' on the door at city hall. Some upright and pious person has indignantly let the world know what she thinks of the outrage. On the same door she has written, "It's too bad some people can't appreciate a nice place like this and help keep it clean. Would you like people writing all over your walls in your home? Girls, I'd be ashamed! Really ashamed!" Obviously, she has the right idea, but she has picked a strange place on which to express it. Several others have written comments under this little dissertation, but whether they are agreeing with her or mocking her is anyone's guess. One wrote, "So would I, girls. It's too bad." Another wrote, "Some people should be taught some manners." Still another has written, "I'm ashamed. How about you, girls?"

The worst 'wall-writers' are those who have anonymous comments intended to injure or slander someone else. If you don't have nerve enough to sign your name or to present your grievance to the person in question, then either forget about it or learn to live with it.

Writing on walls stems from a deep-seated tendency of man to leave a written record of himself. When you feel the urge to leave your name and your various exploits for others to admire, don't waste it on a wall. The Bumble 'B' will be glad to print it for you. Our wide circulation will enable more people to see it, and we could use it to fill up space.

Schoolhouses are the republican line of fortifications.—H. Mann.

Things I Wish I Hadn't Said

Betsy Lorentzen

Sure, go ahead and use the car. Don't try out for the basketball team; you'll never make it.

This is a little large, but I think I'll grow into it.

Say, what would you like for your birthday?

Go ahead, just drown it in catsup. Well, a little rain won't hurt it any.

Why sure, I'd be glad to serve on your committee!

Spaghetti isn't hard to eat; just watch me!

Don't memorize your speech too well or you'll forget it when the time comes to give it.

Just order anything on the menu you want; it's all on me.

Don't be silly; of course I can change a flat tire!

Oh, come on! It's just a short walk!

No, I don't think you'll need a raincoat!

I'm sorry; I can't attend dances that aren't properly chaperoned.

Oh, you don't need to give me a lift! I don't have too much farther to go.

It was the third victory for Coach Sapp's eighth grade football team when they defeated Nevada 18-14 Saturday, October 19.

The first half was dominated by Nevada. They made two touchdowns in the first and the half ended 14-0 in favor of Nevada. Boone came back in the second half and made three touchdowns that won the game. The third touchdown was made by Jerry Monen with one minute and 45 seconds to go in the game. The other two touchdowns were made by Robert Jubell.

As a result of flu two junior high football games were cancelled. They were the ninth grade Boone-Marshalltown game planned for Saturday, October 19, and the P.-T. A. benefit game planned for Wednesday, October 23. It will be replaced by a P.-T. A. benefit basketball game planned for Saturday, December 13.

Girl of the Week

Susan Parks is this week's girl of the week. She lives at 334 South Boone Street and is in Miss Thompson's seventh grade homeroom. Her favorite food is spaghetti with meat balls. Her hobby is collecting stamps. The hit song, 'Wake Up Little Suzy,' is tops with Susan. Her favorites are singer Pat Boone and the television program, 'Sally.' In school, arithmetic and English are her favorites, and her other interests are reading and babysitting.

Mr. Lyness' eighth grade history classes started work on their political notebooks in the middle of October. Several months will be needed to complete the notebook and, therefore, will not be due until sometime next April. In it they are to have newspaper clipping and facts concerning the congressional elections.

I happen, temporarily, to occupy this White House. I am a living witness that any one of your children may look to come here as my father's child has.—Lincoln.

Then there was the teacher who graded exams so carefully that he flunked three pupils for having periods upside down.

test questions

Son: "What is jaywalking?"

Father: "It's a kind of exercise that brings on that run-down feeling."

Boy of the Week

The boy of the week is Richard Lundstrom. He has light brown hair, brown eyes, and is five feet one inch tall. His favorite subjects are arithmetic and reading. Pork chops, potatoes, and vegetables are among his favorite foods. When asked about his favorite song, he answered, "Why 'Jailhouse Rock' of course." Pat Boone and Debbie Reynolds are his two favorite singers. Girls, he lives at 102 South Marion. By the way, he is in seventh grade.

Teacher: "Give me a sentence with an object."

Doug McLeod: "Teacher, you are very beautiful."

Teacher: "Now tell me what the object is."

Doug: "To get a good grade."

Officer: "Miss, you were doing 60 miles an hour."

Kay Loveless: "Oh, isn't that splendid! I learned to drive only yesterday."

Y-teens

The seventh grade Y-teens are making final plans for a hayride to be held in the near future.

The eighth grade Y-teens are busy completing plans for their Hallowe'en party.

The ninth grade Y-teens and their guests met at the Y. W. C. A. at 7:00 Friday, October 18, for a hayride. There will be a surprise speaker at the meeting Wednesday, October 23.

"I'd like a ticket to a football game."

"Yes, Ma'am, which game?"

"Oh, one that'll have a thrilling play in the last two minutes."

Tips to the Faculty

1. Books on scientific topics will remain in better condition than whodunits.
2. To keep pupils from listening to your conversation, direct it at them.
3. Boys will not crawl through the gym windows on Sundays if the front door is kept unlocked.

A clock is something they have in a schoolroom, so you can tell how much you wish wasn't left in class, what time they'll let you out of school before and when to come back after, and how long before you can start stopping studying by stalling along until.

Mr. McCarger: "John, give three examples of collective nouns."

John: "Flypaper, waste paper, and vacuum sweeper."
