

Fifty-one Enter Scholastic Honor Society

Political Affairs Assembly Held

Mr. Robert E. Wagner was the guest speaker at an assembly held February 11, during the fifth period.

Mr. Wagner presented Boone High School with a United States flag and a note certifying that it had been flown over the Capitol.

Dave Nelson accepted the flag on behalf of the student body.

He spoke to the students about public affairs. During the rest of the day he visited the social studies classes to answer any questions they might have.

Mr. Wagner has received his bachelor of science degree in speech from Northwestern in 1941 and his master's degree in political science from the University of South Dakota in 1947. For four years he served in the United States Air Force.

He has held many political jobs and is now the administrative assistant to Senator Thomas E. Martin of Iowa. Mr. Wagner was in Boone principally to speak at the Lincoln Day dinner Monday evening.

Eight senior high students presented the play, 'The Doctor in Spits of Himself,' a French farce by Moliere, at four of the grade schools in Boone.

The students, accompanied by Mr. Bissell, who directed the play, traveled between the schools in cars with their costumes and make-up on. The play was presented Friday, February 8, at Lincoln, Bryant, Lowell, and Garfield.

The following students were in the cast: Mervyn Eastberg, Enid Anderson, Liz Hinz, David Williams, Keith Parkinson, Caroline Stephenson, Jay Fisher, and Gale Price.

Billie Davis to Speak

Billie Davis (Mrs. George Davis), a nationally known speaker for educational and religious organizations, will appear at the Boone high school auditorium on March 4. The public is invited.

Born April 18, 1923, Mrs. Davis has accomplished much in comparatively few years. Besides lecturing as a Christian educator before various conventions and in educational institutions, she prepares religious material for the Assemblies of God and writes magazine articles. One of these, 'I Was a Hobo Kid,' first appeared in the Saturday Evening Post and has been reprinted in numerous books. Her story, 'A Desk for Billie,' was made into a movie and has been widely telecast. Mrs. Davis is married to George H. Davis, a minister for Assemblies of God, who is scheduled to go to Central America as a missionary sometime this year.

This program is sponsored in Boone by the Boone County Education Association, Association for Childhood Education, Delta Kappa Gamma, and the Boone Teachers' Club. Committee members are Kay Bevans, Jerrald Reece (United Community), Carolyn Carlson, Louise Ingersoll, Wilma Johnson, Zoe Stevens, Arvid Stock, Howard Stutzman, Harriett Williams (Boone).

Quill and Scroll New Members

Quill and Scroll, national honorary society for journalism students, is now being organized for the second semester. A satisfactory grade average and serving one semester on the Bumble 'B' or 'Scroll' staff are the requirements. Members receive a pin and 'The Quill and Scroll,' the monthly magazine.

The officers are as follows: president, Betsy Otto; secretary, Sandra Atherton. These two girls are the only hold-over members from last year.

New members are: Joyce Clarke, Judy Eastberg, Wanda Eklund, Denny Hora, Judy Malcom, Karen Mustapha, Joy Pollard, Lyla Swain, and Darryl Trulin. The initiation banquet will be held March 4, at the Lincoln Restaurant.

'Mousetrap' to Be Spring Play

'The Mousetrap,' by Agatha Christie, has been chosen for the spring play and will be presented on March 5.

This play is an exciting murder mystery which builds up to a very tense climax. During a snowstorm, eight people are marooned in an old manor house in the country. Any one of the eight could have killed a woman in London and intends to kill one of the other people in the house.

The only clues are that the murderers, because there are two, have some connection with the death of a child many years ago and that the killer's theme song is 'Three Blind Mice.' No one in the audience knows who the guilty person is until the very end of the play.

The cast is as follows:
Mollie Ralston: Jayne Clark.
Giles Ralston: Mervyn Eastberg.
Christopher Wren: Dick Young.
Mrs. Boyle: Enid Anderson.
Major Metcalf: Gail Price.
Miss Casewell: Lelia Liden.
Mr. Paravicini: Robert Sharp.
Detective Sergeant Trotter: Dave Williams.
B.B.C. Announcer: Jay Fisher.
Production assistants:
Howard Swain, stage manager.
Jon Ewing, house manager.
Jay Fisher, assistant director.

Seniors Take Tests

On January 31, Mr. Hays, of the Iowa Employment Service gave a battery of tests to 55 seniors during the first and second periods. These tests were given to seniors who were undecided as to whether they should go to college or take up some vocation. The tests consisted of aptitude and interest tests.

A test of manual dexterity was given to the same group of seniors on February 4.

The Iowa Employment Service has worked closely with the school in assisting these people with their future plans.

The seniors who took the tests were registered with the employment service and can make use of these services after graduation.

The Boone high school symphony orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Konrad Scholl, will present a concert at the University high school in Iowa City, February 28.

They will make the trip in chartered buses. A tour of the University of Iowa is planned. Each member will eat his evening meal at the home of a member of the University high school orchestra.

A bake sale will help to finance this trip.

The first place winner's name will be submitted to the state Elks' organization.

Prizes consist of scholarships, and the state first place winners advance to the national Elks' Scholarship competition and can win awards on the national level also.

BOONE GIRL MOVES

Connie Miller, a ninth grader, moved February 1, to Boxholm, Iowa. One of the students received a letter from her, and she mentioned that size is the chief difference between the two schools. There are only 13 pupils in the ninth grade, and 11 of them are girls. If anyone would like to write to her, the address is: Connie Miller, R. 1, Pilot Mound, Iowa.

Valentine of the Week

The masculine half of "Valentine of the Week" is a well-known senior student at Dear Old. As you have probably surmised, from the above mug shot, Keith Parkinson has graciously allowed us to dabble beneath the surface of his personal life. He was born July 4, 17 years ago in Jefferson, and sports a pair of enormous brown eyes and a winning personality along with his five-foot nine-inch frame.

His hobbies are numerous and varied, which perhaps provides a small clue to his interesting personality. Among other things, he is a member of the Boone Buzz Bugs, a model airplane club. He collects stamps, plays the tuba, works on cars, and is active in speech and play activities. His own car is a '49 Studebaker, which his dad calls the 'Copper Kettle.' He belongs to the band and orchestra and is a member of the city band.

His favorite foods are pecan pie, hamburgers, and milk—pet peeve is that he never has enough time to sleep. If he calls you a 'rum-headed baboon,' you know you're in solid with Keith!

At the moment, math and chemistry are his favorite subjects. He is taking the college prep course, and plans to attend J.C. or Iowa State—probably Iowa State.

Caroline Stephenson, a pretty brunette, has the feminine role in "Valentine of the Week." She's 17, and was born in Sioux City on March 11, 1939. Since then, she has grown into a brown-eyed, five foot two and a half inch senior.

Her favorite foods—hamburgers, French fries, and milk—don't seem to have any effect on Caroline's 105-pound anatomy. Television-wise, she likes 'Playhouse 90' and Ed Sullivan's 'Toast of the Town.' When asked about Elvis, she replied, "I like to hear him, but I don't like to watch him." Her pet peeve is 'Women in slacks and high heels and hose.' Caroline enjoys sewing, playing the violin, and is an advanced student at the Betty Mae Harris School of the Dance. She participates in numerous activities, among them Pep Club, Scholastic Honor Society, band and orchestra, and speech and plays. Recently she acted in the play, 'The Doctor in Spite of Himself,' that was presented in the grade schools.

Caroline enjoys history and typing, and is following the college preparatory course. She plans to major in some field of home economics, probably home economics or textiles, but she hasn't decided on anything definite.

"The lights are turned off at 10 o'clock," said the girl's gruff father to the young man.

"That's okay. We won't be reading," said the young man.

Karen Mustapha (on hayride): "Nobody loves me, and my hands are cold."

Jack Langmade: "Oh, that's okay. Your mother loves you, and your father loves you, and you can always sit on your hands."

Hazel's Beauty Problems

Here is your chance to air your beauty problems. If you have any, send them along to me, Hazel, care of this newspaper, and if they are of universal interest, I will publish them. All names withheld on request.

Dear Hazel:

My problem is one that probably many people in B.H.S. have. One of my legs is shorter than the other three. I have done everything from leg stretching exercises to eating buckshot, but I have failed to solve this disastrous problem. In desperation, I appeal to you. Please help me!

One-eye.

Dear One-eye:

I have given a great deal of thought to your problem. It is indeed one that many people might have. Have you ever thought of wearing three low-heeled shoes and one high heel?

Hazel.

Dear Hazel:

I have always admired your figure, and have always tried to imitate you, but no matter how much I eat, I still stay the same old drab, uninteresting way. (36-23-36). Please tell me how you achieve your 38-inch waist.

Envious.

Dear Envious:

It ain't easy!

Hazel.

Dear Hazel:

Recently I have grown out of a size 16 men's shoe, and have been wearing burlap bags. Please tell me what to do.

Bottom Heavy.

Dear Bottom Heavy:

Either cut your toenails or join a sideshow.

BOXING

One of the oldest competitive sports in the world, boxing, has been brought to Boone with quite a lot of interest shown. This is not considered a school sport, although most of the boxers are from our school. Mr. Knowlton, a well known coach at our school, and Mr. Mickle, of the V.F.W., started the team out of the boys who came out for Coach Knowlton's pre-track workouts. The boys have been working out in the old girls' dressing room at the south end of the Boone High gym. This room has been equipped with boxing and other equipment which gives the boys their training and workouts in preparation for their fights. The matches have been held at the Boone Community Building. Since the team got a late start, they will end the season after having only three matches.

The Boone boxers have been put in the novice class, meaning that they have had under six fights. The boys are also put in individual weight classes to determine who they will fight and so they will not have to enter the ring with some person who weighs more than he, thus giving neither boxer any weight advantage.

There are eight weight divisions. They are as follows:

Bantam Wt. 118-119; Ted Summers Flyweight, 112-113 lbs.; Darwin Backous, weight 110.
Bantamweight, 118-119 lbs.; Ted Summers, weight 128.
Featherweight, 126-127 lbs.; Dan Siegler, weight 136.
Lightweight, 135-136 lbs.; Frank Adreon, weight 138.
Welterweight, 147-148 lbs.; Ted Handlon, weight 138.
Middleweight, 160-161 lbs.; Ron Kendell, weight 148.
Light heavyweight, 175 lbs. and under; Dave Stuckey, weight 150.
Heavyweight, 176 lbs. and over; Ken Martin, weight 175.

Boxing record for three bouts: 1-1-1.

On February 13-14, six of the boxers will be taken to the state Golden Glove fights in Des Moines. The fights will be held in the KRNT Theater. The Boone boxers will compete in the novice class.

Recently, Sharon Jones, one of the Boone Toreadorettes, moved to Perry. Although only a freshman, she started many games for the varsity girls' squad. At her last game, January 18, the basketball team gave her a party at Jewell, where they ate after returning from Eldora. Everyone hope she has lots of good luck in Perry.

The devil sat throned on a fiery chair,

And asked, "What's new, you fool?"

A gruesome looking imp replied, "Here's a soul from Boone High School."

"A which, a who, a what from where?"

The devil bellowed out.

"I'll tie the wart in knots," he said,

"The ugly looking lout."

"Take him to the melting pot," The devil told his men.

"Boil him for an hour or two, And see what happens then."

They put his soul into a can, And cooked him then and there. But all they had when they were through,

Was a can of red hot air.

Nancy: I manage to keep my head above water.

Joan: Of course. Wood floats!

Swimming Season Ends

Blasting away at East of Des Moines for the second time this season, the Boone swimmers won a 46 to 31 point victory, February 5.

Boone took first and second place honors in the 100-yard breaststroke, Bill Herman first, followed by Bob Cramer; 200-yard freestyle, Mike Herman first and Lee Cook second; 100-yard backstroke, Jim Cross first and Tom Currier second; 100-yard freestyle, Dave Nelson first and Alan Norton second, and lastly the 150-yard individual medley, Bill Herman first and Mike Herman second.

Boone also won seconds with Dick Long in the 50-yard freestyle and Joe Combs in diving.

Finishing with a 5 to 7 loss record in their dual meets, the Boone swimmers lost to Roosevelt of Des Moines, 41 to 36, February 7.

In this meet Boone took firsts and thirds in the 100-yard breaststroke with Bill Herman first, Bob Cramer third; in diving Joe Combs first and Mike Herman third; and in the 120-yard individual medley with Bill Herman first and Mike Herman third.

Boone also came in first with Lee Cook, Alan Norton, Fred Vitt, and Dave Nelson in the 160-yard freestyle relay.

Boone also won seconds in the 100-yard freestyle with Dave Nelson and in the 100-yard backstroke with Jim Cross.

DANA DEFEATED

Trampling all opposition, the Boone Toreadorettes defeated Dana 62 to 28, Monday, February 4.

During the first quarter Boone took an early lead with the score 14-17. Later at the end of the half, the margin was increased to 15, 30-15. Sending in reserves in the third and fourth, the girls made 20 points in the third quarter and 12 in the fourth for a total of 62 points. Our top scorers were Rita Howard with 30 and Joyce Alsin with 23.

Fighting for all they were worth, the Boone girls lost to United Community, 68 to 35, at Ogden, February 7.

The scores by the quarters were all in United Community's favor—15-12, 29-19, 48-25, and 68-35.

Sophomore Games

The sharp-shooting Newton sophomore basketball team walloped the Boone yearlings here Friday, February 8, by a 73-39 margin. Newton went into the game tied with Ames for the sophomore lead, opened it with a 16-8 first quarter lead and went to a 36-16 half-time margin and 59-26 at the end of the third act.

Leading the Newton sophs in scoring was Herbold with 16 points. Shoemaker came next pitching in 14 counters for the promising Newton outfit.

Carroll Clabaugh led Boone's attack with 14 points and Tim Croxen scored nine for Coach Les McIntyre's team.

On Friday night, February 1, Boone's height deficient sophomores lost a 55-46 battle with Marshalltown's rangy yearling team at Boone. For Coach McIntyre's crew it was the sixth loss against as many wins. The sophs fell a 15-point victim of the Bobkittens in their first meeting.

The 19 counters by Hanson led Marshalltown while Wharton put in 14. Pacing the Boone yearlings were Carroll Clabaugh with 13 points and Bill Monen with 12.

Marshalltown led 16-9 in the first quarter and a couple of quick goals just before the half brought the Boone men up behind them 25-23. At the end of the third act Marshalltown was out in front 38-30.

Boone Defeats Newton Cards

Friday night the Boone Toreadors defeated the Newton Cardinals 46-33. Most of the first half Boone was content to fire and fall back. As a result they entered the fourth period with only a 32-30 advantage.

Rod Von Krog and Jack Langmade deserve the credit for finally getting us to more through our patterns. Larry Meyers was unable to play as well as he usually does because of a sprained ankle suffered in a practice session. The team really depends on his play-making and drive-in shooting.

Bob and 'Chuck' Musser were high men with 12 points each.

Boone-Marshalltown

Friday night, February 1, Boone beat Marshalltown by 21 points with a final score of 72-51. Larry Meyers rammed in 27 points including 13 out of 14 free throw chances, passed sharply and led the team. Captain 'Chuck' Musser hogged 11 rebounds and whipped in 10 points, eight in the first quarter when he helped get our team off on the right foot.

Never was there a suggestion that the Marshalltown Bobcats would gain control of the game. In the second quarter Marshalltown was never closer than five points. At the half the Toreadors lead 35-21. Boone stumbled a bit at the outset of the fourth, twice passing wildly to enable the Bobcats to pick up a couple of quickie baskets. This cut the spread to nine points, 49-39.

It was the Bobcats' worst defeat of the year—the fattest previous margin was 16 by Grinnell and it also was Boone's greatest margin in a league win. This was possible by the good backing the team had at the game. Let's keep it up and let's cut down on the booing because it will only give Boone a bad name, which none of us want. So let's all gang up and improve this fault and back Boone all the way!

Playing at Woodward Friday, February 1, the Boone Toreadorettes slipped by the opposition with the score 61 to 59.

In winning the sixth of 12 games, Rita Howard led the Toreadorettes with 13 points followed by Karen Mustapha with 12 points and Joyce Alsin with 10 points. Woodward's main scorer was Dea Bodansky who came away with 47 points.

The score by the quarters was Woodward 16, Boone 6, at the first quarter and later at the half 29 to 24, still Woodward's favor. During the third quarter, however, the stalwart Boone lassies took the lead with the score 44 to 43. At the end of the fourth the score was 61 to 59, Boone's favor.

McLeod Named Congress President

Two very capable candidates were put up for one of the highest honors our school can offer, president of Student Congress. They are Janet Smith and Mary Jo McLeod. Mary Jo was elected. They both worked very hard at it. Janet's campaign managers were Kay Wiley and Karen Shafer. Mary Jo's were John McIntyre and John Capps. Everywhere you turned campaigning was going on. Mary Jo had records played while Janet had a band. Much time and effort was spent on the posters. They were very neat and very original.

Campaign speeches were given on Friday, February 1. All of the speeches were excellent. The students really had a hard job to decide which one to vote for.

John Capps was elected to the position of vice-president. Linda Boyd is the secretary.

Girl of the Week

One of the friendliest and nicest girls you're apt to find in the halls of Boone High is the girl of the week. She is a ninth grader and is in Mr. Knowlton's and Mr. McIntyre's homeroom. She is five feet five inches tall, has brown hair, blue eyes, and is very cute. Her main interest, favorite pastime, and principal enjoyment is playing basketball. She is on the varsity team and says there's nothing she likes more. You find her at all the home swimming meets. She really likes that sport for some unknown reason. As far as foods are concerned French fries, chicken, and Pepsi are her favorites.

She is an honor student and plans to go to college and become a nurse. Surely you've guessed by now, but if not, her name is elsewhere on this page.

Travelog Assembly

On Monday, January 28, Mr. Doore showed an interesting technicolor film about his trip from Des Moines through the Smokey Mountains, the Blue Ridge Mountains, the Everglades, several Florida cities and Key West.

Mr. Doore explained that the clouds sometimes make the mountains along the east coast look blue. Thus they get the name Blue Ridge Mountains.

In some parts of the mountains the clouds are so thick they look like smoke which has settled over the peaks. Because of this fact they are called the Smokey Mountains.

Going through the Everglades one may see many interesting plants and animals, such as crocodiles, flamingos, and the cypress trees hung with Spanish moss.

Key West, the southernmost part of the United States and an island, is connected to Florida by a very long bridge. The temperature has never been below freezing there.

Jim Hunter is the boy of the week.

Eighth Drops Webster City

Coach Bill Sapp's eighth grade basketball team beat Webster City here Saturday, February 2, by a 25-24 score.

Leads of 17-14 at the half and 23-20 at the end of the third quarter belonged to the Boone eighth graders.

John Malcom scored nine and Walters eight for Boone. Darryl Stabenow also made a very good showing.

Webster City Defeats Ninth

Coach Hal Lyness's ninth grade put up an excellent battle February 2, but lost to Webster City, 37-28.

Brad Beckett pitched 11 points in a losing cause for Boone in the ninth grade game. One main thing Boone lacked against Webster was height.

Boone's 6-5 quarter lead was wiped out as Webster City breezed to a 15-12 half, and 26-19 at the third quarter.

Farmer Zeke: Quite a storm we had last night.

Farmer Squeak: Yep, 'twas.

Farmer Zeke: Damage your barn any?

Farmer Squeak: Dunno. Haven't found it yet.

"Is your boy friend really as dumb as they say?"

"I'll say he is. When he got his letter in football, I had to read it to him."
