

Contests Announced

Photo Contest

Pupils of Boone High have been invited to participate in the 14th Annual Kodak High School Photo Contest, which is held exclusively for high school students. The contest opens January 1 and closes March 31, 1959.

Boys and girls in grades nine through 12 may submit any number of black-and-white photos taken since April 1, 1958. The four classes of entry are: (1) School Activities; (2) People; (3) Pictorials; and (4) Animals and Pets.

There are two prize divisions: Junior (grades 9 and 10), and Senior (grades 11 and 12). Top prizes in the Junior Division will be $300, $200, and $100 in each of the four contest categories. Parallel prizes in the Senior Division will be $400, $300, and $200. Also, there are 12 Special Awards of $25 and $50 respectively in each division; 140 Honorable Mention Awards of $10, and 140 of $15; and Certificates of Merit.

Additional details on how to enter this contest, sponsored by the Eastman Kodak Company, are available in the Bumble 'B' office.

Journalism Contest

For the third year the Iowa State Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi (national professional journalism fraternity) is sponsoring the annual high school journalism contest.

The contest will close December 15. A second contest of the same type will follow, and close April 7.

Entries must be submitted in one of the following categories: news story, sports story, feature article, editorial, column, news picture, feature picture.

All entries must be the original work of a high school journalism student.

Individual winners will be invited to Iowa State to help with the Veishea issue of the Iowa State Daily. First, second, and third place winners will be named in each category. They will be announced within 30 days after the closing date.

The judges (members and advisors of Sigma Delta Chi) will also name honorable mention winners.

For those who are interested, further details, rules, and entry blanks may be obtained in the Bumble 'B' room, 308.

Officers Elected at First F.T.A. Meet

The Future Teachers of America held the first meeting of the year on October 13. Officers elected for the coming year are: president, Mary Hagaman; vice-president, Leila Kemmerer; secretary-treasurer, Charlotte Ashbaugh; program chairman, Irene Smart.

The first Tuesday of each month was chosen as the regular meeting day. Dues for this year are 50 cents and are to be paid by November 1. Mr. Lyness, the club sponsor, is in charge of the program for the next meeting, which is to be held November 4.

A committee was chosen to have charge of the program for the December meeting. They are: Mary Lou Doran, Barbara Fetzer, and Sue Robinson.

GIRLS ONLY

Girls, would you like to go on a tour through the nation's capital, go sightseeing in New York, see homemaking as it used to be in Colonial Williamsburg, Virginia, and visit many other places of interest? The means to obtain all this is available to senior girls who take the 'Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow' test.

This test will be given December 2 in the homemaker department and will take only 50 minutes of your time.

Every girl taking the test is a winner in that she receives two benefits: a copy of Betty Crocker's Homemaker Profiler and Guide to Homemaking, and a keener appreciation of the problems she will face as a homemaker and a greater knowledge of how to solve them.

The local winner receives a Betty Crocker Homemaker Award pin and the opportunity to be considered for the State Homemaking Award.

The state winner receives a $1,500 scholarship to any college she chooses, a chance to be selected All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow, an expense-paid historical tour for her and her school advisor, and a set of the Encyclopedia Britannica for her school.

The national winner receives a scholarship of $5,000; and the second, third, and fourth ranking girls will receive scholarships of $4,000, $3,000, and $2,000, respectively.

LET'S GO, GANG, BEAT AMES!

Quill & Scroll Has Banquet October 13

A Quill and Scroll banquet was held October 13, at the Lincoln Restaurant. As the guests entered, they found their places at the table with the help of place cards. After being seated, the guests were served.

In an after-dinner speech to the group, Mr. Stock, the sponsor, said, "Quill and Scroll is an honorary organization which carries prestige in colleges as well as in high schools. Its members are a select group and can be proud to belong to the organization."

The new members were then presented Quill and Scroll pins and cards, acknowledging their membership.

At the close of the meeting, the officers were presented. They are: president, David Tucker; and secretary-treasurer, Ben Pollard.

Those attending the banquet, besides Mr. and Mrs. Stock and the officers, were: Emily Grabau, Sue Peterson, Dee Eldien, Gerry Raetig, Sharon Bartlett, Charlotte Walters, Janice Lind, Bill Anderson, Dave Otto, Carolyn Dahlin, Barb Fetzer, Marlene Bancroft, Karen Shafer, Karen Hubby, and Nancy Westfall.

Committees Named for First Semester

Student Council committees for the first semester are as follows:

Finance, chairman James Cross, Emily Grabau, Marilyn Smith, Lynne Hohenshell, and Terry Ferry.

Citizenship, chairman Sandra Suthern, James Pritchard, Linda Boyd, Charlotte Ashbaugh, and Gail Nystrom.

Social, chairman James Cross, Joyce Alsin, Barb Fetzer, Mike Fleming, and Sue Moore.

Publicity, chairman David Otto, Judy Thacker, Kenneth Swanson, Jon Gustafson, and Mary Shaler.

Program, chairman Carroll Claibach, Lynne Hohenshell, Jim Pritchard, Lynn Clark, and David Otto.

Assembly, chairman Emily Grabau, Marilyn Smith, Jon Gustafson, and Dennis Mylenbush.

Noon Hour, chairman Kenneth Swanson, Judy Thacker, Charlotte Ashbaugh, Hank Harris, and Gail Nystrom.

Safety and Award, chairman Barb Fetzer, Sandra Suthern, Joyce Alsin, Terry Ferry, and Sue Moore.

News Briefs

Room 207 was the meeting place of the second Future Nurses' Club meeting held Tuesday, October 14, at 8:15.

Sharyn Thompson, acting chairman, called the meeting to order. Officers elected include: Lynne Anderson, president; Donna Pesek, vice-president; Diane Ball, secretary; and Mary Sue Rolfe, treasurer.

Plans for a banquet and the possibility of a trip to Woodward were discussed.

The Future Nurses' Club is sponsored by Mrs. Downey.

The Dolphin Club is starting to prepare in many ways for the show, even though it won't be produced until sometime in the spring.

Probates are working after school and at night on stunts and techniques in order that they may pass their second test and become members.

Several groups have started choosing music and writing routines that will be used in the show.

At the meeting that was held October 6, officers were elected for this year. They are as follows: president, Sandy Shadle; vice-president, Ann Senholz; and secretary, Kay Wiley.

Senior Y.W.C.A. groups are discussing plans for future social events. The Live Y's will hold a dance October 24; the Hi-Tri will have a social evening the last Saturday in November.

Both groups are discussing a money-making project for their Christmas formal.

B. H. S. Alumna Receives Award

Judy Eastberg, 1958 graduate of Boone High and now a freshman at Iowa State College, received a Home Economics alumnae scholarship of $100.

She and 39 other students were honored at the annual Home Economics banquet. Presentations were made by Dr. Germaine G. Guiot, chairman of the Home Economics scholarship and award committee.

Bon Jour, Mes Amis . . .

Something new has been added to Boone High: a French Club.

The constitution, written by Karen Hubby, Nancy Westfall, and Tommy Grasso, has been accepted by the Student Council.

The first meeting of the new club will be held November 18 in Room 209, with Miss Heaps as the sponsor. At this meeting officers for the year will be elected. Only those taking French are eligible to join.

Some of the senior high girls are selected to work in the offices each year. The following girls work in the principal's office: Mary Lou Doran, Lynne Hohenshell, Karen Anderson, Carolyn Morris, Sherie Carrell, and Carolyn Vesey.

These girls work in the nurse's office: Sandra Shadle, Barbara Wills, Karen Smiley, Sharyn Thompson, Carolyn Reed, Ginger Roby, Diane Haleen, Carolyn Ray.

Mrs. Engen has the following girls working for her: Jackie Dolphin, Beverly Ross, Elizabeth Latham, Barbara Pestotnik, Linda Suthern, Mary Jane Vignovich, Delores Craven, and Janet Carter.

In Mr. Roloff's office are: Mary Jo McLeod, Linda Suthern, Karen Madden, Mary Goodwin, Barbara Wilhelm, Glenda McCambridge, and Joanne Grasso.

Carole Schroeder, Judy Appenzeller, Janna Weston, Caryl Kristianson, Barbara Riker, Leila Kemmerer, and Mary Hunt work in Mr. Lyness' office.

Two girls work in Mr. Stutzman's office. They are Delores Hampton and Joyce Alsin.

Pep Club Backs Winter Sports

Pep Club girls have decided to further school spirit this year by selling lines in The Boone News-Republican backing our winter sports.

The girls are selling these lines not only to the businesses, but to the residents of Boone. The price of these are $1.00 for each name. The names are to be printed under Boys' Basketball, Girls' Basketball, Junior College Basketball, and the Swimming Team.

P.-T. A. Meeting

'Teenagers and Parents and Their Problems,' was the main topic at the P.-T. A. meeting held at the high school Monday, October 20. Dr. Glen Hawkes, the speaker, is the head of the department of child development at Iowa State College.

Mothers of students served refreshments after the meeting.

"It appears to me only ONE of you took the trouble to do the outside assignment last night."

What's New

Are you "sick of the sack and want the sheath to come back?" Looks as though you are a non-conformist even though most people, yes, even most of the fellows, have agreed to let the sack stay, at least temporarily. A new addition to the "new and different look" has arrived—tights. The first time you spy the green, blue, black, and red legs walking down the hall, you think you are seeing things, which you are! They seem to be the present rage around the colleges and high schools all over the country. Let's not forget the clashing color combinations either. Old rivals, such as reds, oranges, pinks and blues, greens and purples are seen in bold plaids, stripes, and anonymous other daring designs to emphasize the complete changes in women's styles.

Modified styles of the chemise have reappeared in the fall and winter fashions. Sweaters are longer, brighter, and baggier, but they weave in perfectly with the belted, buckled, pleated and bowed, full-fashioned, pleated skirts.

Sorry boys, the girls seem to love these new styles, so look as though they're here to stay for the rest of the year. Just think along these lines, "If you can't fight 'em, join 'em!"

Prospective landlady: "How do you like the room, as a whole?"

Prospective tenant: "As a hole, it's fine; as a room, not so good."

Ike: "How would you catch a rabbit, Moe?"

Moe: "I don't know."

Ike: "Get in a bush and make a noise like a carrot."

Problems Class Discussed

Usually in a government class, government is supposed to be the main topic, but sometimes things come out differently than planned.

Last Friday, Mr. Parr's classes were discussing the Department of Agriculture and the bureaus under it. One of the bureaus being discussed had to do with dairy products. In one of the classes, one of the students asked, "Is there any cow that produces pure cream?"

Was the student serious?

Friday morning's problems class had a rather odd discussion. It went something like this:

"Do you know what part of a pig is not used?" Everyone was guessing all sorts of things: is it the hair, head, intestines, or the hoofs? Well, those things are all manufactured into something. They make stuffing from the hair, use the intestine for wieners and Bologna; the head and hoofs are ground into a compound. If you haven't guessed by now what it is, I'll tell you. It's the pig's squeal.

Me an' the Toreadors

by Alan 'Red' Walker

With two victories under its belt, Boone was ready to tear up the Bobcats last Friday. One half of the game gone and Boone had a 13-6 lead, which was to melt away to a 18-13 loss for the fighting Toreadors.

Playing the last 15 minutes of football at Grinnell proved to be the best for the Toreadors. Boone had one of the best defenses it has ever put out. Grinnell could do nothing. The winning td. come when Ablett latched on to one of Munson's air-borne shots.

Perry, a small friend, about 25 miles southwest of Boone, put up a good fight for the Toreadors. Boone was a bit too much for the Blue Jays in a 25-20 victory.

At this point I would like to bring in my top offensive player of the week. This five-foot ten, 152-pound senior who plays right halfback did a fine job in driving into the line. He hit his best in a game with the Bobcats when he ran for a td. and grabbed a pass from Bill Mennen for his second td. —Denny Ferry.

Defense is best seen by a little in the line. Harley McCoy, a five-foot-six, 154-pound senior. He plays in the middle of the defense line. Most middle men are 6 feet 1 inch and weigh about 195 pounds. Little Harley stopped a drive by the Perry Blue Jays which may have been a touchdown.

Dancing Hints

Boys Like—

- A girl who seems 'glad' when asked to dance.
- A girl who pays attention to 'him' when she's dancing, and is not looking all around the floor.
- A girl who can laugh it off if something goes wrong. One who encourages conversation—but not too much, and who doesn't become 'yakky.'
- A girl who takes her example from the boy's dancing and doesn't show off with wild or eccentric dancing.
- A girl who holds herself up and isn't a dead weight—doesn't hang all over the boy.
- Especially a girl who moves easily, lightly, whichever way he puts her, or goes. The highest compliment a boy can pay is when he says, "Gee, she's like dancing with nothing in your arms."

Girls Like—

- A boy to hold her in a strong, but relaxed dance position.
- A boy who has variety in his dancing, and who doesn't do the same thing over and over.
- A firm, decisive lead. When the lead is weak or wishy-washy the girl feels helpless, and she's tempted to start leading herself.
- Conversation, again. Not too much, but then, dancing is for fun.
- A boy who is sociable and lets her mix with other friends, and who doesn't treat her as some sort of a 'captive.'
- A boy always to be charming and a gentleman, no matter what the situation.

A mobile chest x-ray unit traveled to different parts of the city for a week. On the last day, the attendant noticed a woman whose face seemed familiar.

"Haven't you had an x-ray before?" he asked.
 "Oh, yes," she replied enthusiastically. "This is my fifth trip, and I can't tell you how much better the treatments are making me feel."

Girls' B.B. Practice Starts; 31 Report

Basketball practice is once again under way for girls in grades nine through 12.

Coach Carroll is working with the forwards, while Mr. Sapp is working with the guards, in hopes of finding a good team for the coming girls' basketball season which begins November 14.

The girls now out for basketball are as follows:

Ninth grade: Maureen Grabau, Judy Chinstedt, Sharon Cook, Judy Muench, Ruth Roby, Marcia Ward, Dixie Howard, Sue Krasean, Pat Wilhelm, Marlene Wagner, Jan Thacher, and Marilyn Alber.

Tenth grade: Kathy Larson, Carol Swain, Kay Hyatt, Kathy Deal, Mary Jane Walker, and Joyce Thede.

Eleventh grade: Myra Aspen-gren, Sharon Jones, Judy Thacker, Sue Robinson, Barb Fetzter, Janet Schroeder, Ginger Roby, Barb Wilhelm, and Marilyn Smith.

Twelfth grade: Delores Deal, Joyce Alsin, Sue Peterson, and Irene Smart.

The Wild Goose

The hickory leaves of red and brown
 Around me were a-fallin';
 'Twas then I saw the wild goose fly
 And heard his voice a-callin'.

"O come, o come," the wild goose said,
 "Fly swift, o'er field and river.
 The world is ours, just as 'tis written.
 We'll never stop, no never!"

"I cannot come?" I sadly cried,
 "Too many ties do bind me.
 My home, my loved ones, plead to me,
 I can not leave them behind me?"

The years have gone; my summer's o'er.
 Again the leaves are fallin'
 And death comes fast; soon shall I hear
 The swift wild goose a-callin'

This 'n' That

Did you know that there was once a Moore Society in Boone? Its patron was the Hon. S. L. Moore. The club had its own song, regular meetings, held debates and programs. William Alsin was president and Adah Allen, vice-president. A certain Miss Heaps (?) was critic for the organization.

Source: Bumble 'B'
October, 1915

That same year Panora defeated Boone 7-0 in football, but we held Madrid to a 0-0 tie.

Miss Phillips: "How large are the capillaries?"

Ray Lamb: "They are teeny, tiny." (This one we will leave undated, Mr. Lamb. Leave 25 cents in Room 308 before the next issue of the Bumble 'B' comes out.)

This plea appeared in the March issue of the 1915 'B': "Seniors, do something! Get called down in assembly or train-wrecked or anything—it would be an awful help."

Thursday, December 2, 1915, the report cards for the second six weeks were given out. The same old questions were audible everywhere, as "I don't see how I got such a low mark" or "What did you get?" and the like. When will these questions ever wear out?

(As of 1958 it would seem that they will stand the test of time.)

The ground back of the school house has been transformed into a football field once more. The weeds have been cut, the posts removed, and everything is in working order.

October, 1916

Tastes apparently do change. Here is a poem found on a piece of scratch paper tucked into a 1919 Bumble 'B'. It bears the date 6-5-17.

Do you like currant pie?
Alternating currant pie,
There a currant, here a fly,
Alternating currant pie.

(There was a name attached, but we'll not embarrass ye old grad.)

Those days are gone forever—
and maybe it's just as well.

A goal—To learn to disagree without being disagreeable.

Teacher: "Anyone dead?"
Fred: "Yes, all of them."

1917

The 1918 football team were awarded gold footballs by local businessmen in recognition of their enviable record.

... unless your hair is skinned back tight with a knot behind, leaving your beautiful, well-formed ears with 'dime store' ear-rings dangling therefrom, you are out of style, and still with the 'small town' habit.

May, 1921

In 1921 (May) the girls held a track meet of their own. Running in the rain, Frances Hanson came in second in the 50-yard dash. (The story doesn't say who came in first, ed.) Evelyn Carlson won first in the basketball throw.

The New Shoe

In case you are looking for something new in the way of dress shoes, the new, Italian styled T-straps are just the thing. Like the original T-straps, there is a strap running down the middle, but it is wider and shaped like a short, wide arrow.

This strap adds the finishing touches to make a new and different style of shoe.

He: "Want me to call you a taxi?"
She: "Yes."
He: "You're a taxi."

Tv announcer: "We have just received a bulletin of a catastrophe, the like of which has never been known to mankind—but first a word from our sponsor."

Teacher: "What does unaware mean?"
Susie: "It's the last thing you take off at night."

Teacher: "Frank, what is a cannibal?"
Frank: "Don't know."
Teacher: "Well, if you ate your father and mother, what would you be?"
Frank: "An orphan."

? Question of the Week ?

This week's question was, "Avez vous faim?"—French for "Are you hungry?" When asked the French version of this question, the students of Boone Junior High gave varied answers:

Margaret Knudsen: "Oh, you poor kid!"
Steve Trulin: "Sure."
Linda Lainson: "Ditto."
Tom Curran: "Yes."
Sue Krasean: "Idem ad tu!" (She says it's Latin.)
Edward Myers: "I 'spose so."
Julie Alex: "Well, yeah."
Richard Payne: "You said it!"
Jean Beckwith: "Da!" (more Latin?)
Curran Bender: "Will you please restate that for the press?"
Cindy Moore: "Why, naturally!"
Joe Reedholm: "Alla time."

Darrell Richards: "Let's have a little kiss."
She: "Oh, not on an empty stomach."
Darrell: "Of course not! Right where the last one was."

Diane Burlingame: "Nobody loves me, and my hands are cold."
Bill Barquist: "Oh, that's okay. Your mother loves you, and your father loves you, and you can always sit on your hands."

Two ants were running along at a great rate across a cracker box when one asked, "Why are we going so fast?"

"Don't you see?" said the other, "It says, 'Tear along the dotted line.'"

Four Student Congress representatives from Boone Junior High attended an all-day meeting held on the Iowa State College campus Monday, October 20.

Those representing Boone were Jim Stumbo, Sue Caldwell, Dawn Rosengreen, and Melinda Moffitt. While there, they heard panel discussions on conduct codes of other schools. State officers of Student Congress were also elected.

Sports Corner

The Boone eighth grade football team lost to Perry 27-13. Our ninth grade team defeated Perry 19-14. Joe Reedholm and Steve Trulin ran for touchdowns. A pass from Joe Reedholm to Steve Trulin scored the other touchdown.

Our eighth grade team defeated Nevada 20-12. John Bush starred for the winners.

The Boone ninth graders were defeated by Marshalltown 26-6. Joe Reedholm scored the only touchdown for Boone.

The readers will no doubt find many errors in this issue. They are reminded that these are not without a purpose. We aim to please everyone, and some people like to criticize.
