

Prize Divided Among 3 New School Song Is Introduced

After much discussion and debate, a new school song has been selected by the committee. Prize money will be awarded to Dr. Johnson for the tune, Mrs. Thatcher for the words, and Mr. McLean for the arrangement. Below is a copy of the new song:

Get in and win that game you
Toreadors,
Come on and raise our colors high.
Come on and fight for fame you
oTreadors,
And blaze our banner 'cross the sky.
Get in and fight with might for
Red and Green
So we can hold our heads up high.
Boone Hi, Boone Hi, Boone Hi, fight.
V I C T O R Y
Remember we will stand and we will shout,
Ever mighty ever stout.
You're the best in all the land,
Boone Hi!

Boone Seniors Vie for Elks Awards

Elks Club members annually sponsor two contests, one in leadership and another in scholarship.

Leadership contestants are chosen by a committee of teachers from Boone High. This year the participants include Susan Peterson, Deanna Eldien, Carolyn Dahlin, Emily Grabau, Jim Cross, Alan Munson, and Denny Ferry.

Prizes in both divisions are awarded on a local, state, and national basis, with the winners in each division moving to the next contest.

Both the top boy and girl from Boone in the leadership division will receive a $25 award. The state award provides for a $100 bond, and national winners will receive bonds of $1,000, $500, and $200, depending upon final standings.

Scholarship Division

Members of Boone High participating in the scholarship contest are chosen by a high class rank. These include Janet Carter, Lynn Anderson, Delores Hampton, Barbara Krah, 'Chuck' McGriff, Steve Shaler, and Leila Kemmerer.

Three local winners in the scholarship field will be awarded prizes: first prize consisting of $50, second of $30, and third, $20. The state chapter provides for three $500 awards. Five national awards will range from $800 to $1,200, with one winner for each level.

Students from Sacred Heart are also competing for the awards.

K.C. Trip Funds Almost Complete

Orchestra funds to be used for their trip to Kansas City are now rapidly increasing. With a goal of $750 to be reached, $657 has already been received. Donations from the businessmen of the community and from other private groups and persons are making the goal possible.

In Kansas City, Missouri, the orchestra will play for the Music Teachers National Association. Two thousand music teachers from all 49 states will attend. The Boone High School orchestra is the only high school group on the program.

The orchestra will leave by bus February 27, at 9:00 a.m., and will spend the night in a motel in Kansas City. Next morning the orchestra, directed by Clifford Cook, professor of music at the Oberlin Conservatory, Oberlin, Ohio, will demonstrate rehearsal techniques.

A concert, with Mr. Scholl directing, will then be presented. The program includes 'Hill People' and 'The Princess Gives a Ball' from 'Pictures for Suzanne,' a modern number by Professor Francis Pyle of Drake University; 'Prelude' by Mr. Scholl; 'Concerto Grasso' by Corelli; 'Dance of the Comedians' by Smetana; and 'Marche Slav' by Tchaikovsky.

Besides the orchestra members there will be chaperones for the tour: Mesdames J. Boyd Pestotnik, Howard Stutzman, Wesley Shaler, Robert Hora, David Goeppinger, Harold Alber, Arnold Baker, Richard Downey, and faculty members, including Mr. Scholl, Mr. Roloff, and Mr. McLean.

A few sight-seeing trips and personal shopping is being fitted into the plans of the group. Entertainment is being prepared.

Concert

The public in Boone will be given an opportunity to hear some of the selections for the Kansas City concert on February 24. A concert will be given then in the Boone High auditorium featuring the guest pianist, Penny Ball, from Birmingham, Michigan.

Several novelty numbers are also being worked out. Plans are underway to honor parents of the orchestra members.

Dave Otto, Boone High senior, was recently sent a letter of commendation by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. The letter congratulated Dave for his high scholastic ability shown from the test results.

Talent Show Assures Banquet

During the fifth and sixth hours Monday, February 16, a talent show was presented to the senior high students. The cost was 50 cents per person, and the auditorium was almost completely filled. Proceeds go to the junior-senior banquet.

Deanna Eldien was mistress of ceremonies, and introduced each of the contestants and their numbers.

'September in the Rain' by the dance band, under the direction of Mr. McLean, presented the audience with an introductory song.

The first contestant was Martha Jensen, singing 'Someday My Prince Will Come,' and was accompanied by Mrs. Harlan Weeks.

Don Josephson followed with a violin solo, 'Fourth Movement,' accompanied by Mr. William Johnson.

Rosalie Anderson did a baton number with the background music of the Boone High Dance Band.

Jan Thatcher, the only junior high contestant, gave a piano solo.

Mike Herman then sang 'Lucky Old Sun' and 'Shortnin' Bread.' His accompanist was Sue Pestotnik.

'I'm Getting Sentimental Over You' was the dance band's official entry, starring Jim Mylenbusch on the trombone.

Jerry Thatcher sang 'It's a Grand Night for Singing,' accompanied by Richard Lamb at the piano.

Tom Larson presented a magician act, in which he did several tricks.

Senior high boys' octet, the 'Men of Song,' sang 'Old Gray Robe' and 'There's Nothin Like a Dame' and were accompanied by Carolyn Reed. The octet included Dale Rogers, John Reid, Jon Gustafson, Mike Herman, Hugh Jensen, Ronnie Moran, Mickey Cornelius, and Jerry Thatcher.

Gerry Raettig gave a humorous reading, 'Little Alice.'

The songs, 'Deep River' and 'Rhythm and Blues' were sung and played on the guitar by Bill Monen.

Jim Mylenbusch played two piano solos, 'To Love Again' and 'Boogie Blues.'

The senior high girls' vocal group sang 'Whispering' and 'Winter Wonderland.' They were accompanied by Judy Appenzeller at the piano, Linda Boyd with her bass violin, and Marilyn Adix at the drums. The group, who are known as the 'Silvertones,' includes Linda Suthern, Mary Shaler, Ann Senholz, Leslie Schroeder, Lynn Doran, and Sue Pestotnik.

The dance band played 'Tuxedo Junction' as the closing number for the afternoon event.

The Silvertones, girls' sextet, won first place in the contest. Second was Don Josephson; third, Tom Larson.

Judges included Mrs. Engen, Mrs. Taylor, Mr. Stock, and Mr. Schaeffer.

'True Security' Contest Open to Seniors

All high school seniors are eligible to enter the Jaycees' True Security Contest. A theme entitled 'My True Security' may win the students an all-expense-paid trip to Washington and a $1,000 college scholarship.

The script must be on the subject of the importance of initiative and self-reliance in providing personal security, approaching the subject from a positive standpoint.

Boone High students who have obtained entry blanks are: Emily Grabau, Fred Erickson, Jack Miller, and Dave Otto. These students must submit their final draft by February 28.

Penny Ball Guest Pianist for Concert

Miss Penny Ball from Birmingham, Michigan, is to be the guest soloist for the Boone High School Orchestra concert on February 24. Penny arrived in Boone on February 17 to begin rehearsal with the orchestra for the concert.

Among her many interests are skiing, riding, sailing, and swimming. An active person, Penny is also secretary of the senior class and a member of the National Honor Society.

Just 16, she is now the pupil of Mark Wessel, who wrote the cadenza she will play in Beethoven's Concerto. After graduating from high school she will continue her piano study at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York. Cecile Ginhart, head of the piano department, has accepted her as his pupil.

Last summer Penny won an audition for solo pianists at the National Music Camp at Interlocken, Michigan. This gave her the privilege of playing with the Honors Orchestra.

Live Y'ers Election

Live Y'ers have elected officers for the new semester. They are: president, Sue Pestotnik; vice-president, 'Monty' Conn; secretary, Lynn Clark; treasurer, Barbara Murken; program chairman, Mary Shaler; and devotions chairman, Sharon Smoger. Their plans include a party in the near future.

Unique Pep Assembly in Auditorium

Something different in the form of a pep meeting was initiated in the Boone High auditorium Friday, January 30.

The program was based on a nationally broadcast television show, with Dave Otto acting as master of ceremonies. He introduced 'Fred Swearing' and his all-girl chorus, Bill Monen, guitar accompanist.

Dave then portrayed a 'man on the street' satire, by introducing such personalities as Butch Pritchard, H. L. Hathaway, (Fred Martin), Denny Ferry, and Larry Ford, who personified Coach Clifton.

'New' additions to the cheerleading squad, 'Chuck' McGriff and Jim Moore, also made an unexpected appearance and led the cheering.

Mike Herman presented the Boone High Top Ten Tunes, including such victory songs as 'Smoke Gets in the Cyclones' Eyes,' and 'Stagger Stratford.' Mike concluded his part on the program by leading the assembly in the singing of the traditional 'Loyalty.' School was then dismissed for senior high students.

FASHION FADS

Girls' fashions are often described as 'all those things which go in one year and one the other.'

This winter has brought many fads of fashion. Girls are wearing a new style of footwear called Desert Boots. They come in assorted colors, but black is the most popular. Often long stockings or 'tights' are worn with them. These 'tights' are similar to nylons but they come in many bright colors.

To complete your chic winter wardrobe, a bold plaid skirt is a must. The more exciting colors in the plaids for '59 are burnt orange, magenta red, Italian blue, and avocado green.

There is always something different in jewelry. A gold chain with a big initial (usually your own) is worn around the girl's neck or sometimes even around the waist. It is most becoming on sweaters and plain styled dresses.

Every year charm bracelets get bigger and noisier. This year is no exception. They appear in every style from large coin shapes to abstract objects.

Ye Olde History Quotes

1620. "I don't care if we have been on the Mayflower for two months. I'm not stepping out on that slippery old rock."

1738. "Gee whiz, Georgie, if you couldn't reach the cherries, you should have borrowed my ladder."

1740. "Aw, Ben, I didn't mean it when I said go fly a kite."

1775: "I don't care if the British are coming—shut up! I'm trying to sleep."

Another Side of Lincoln

by Bessie Longhenry

We think of Lincoln as the Civil War president, but how many of us know that in his first year in office he signed three bills that have changed the lives of farmers everywhere?

On May 15, 1862, he created a Department of Agriculture in his cabinet, something he urged in his first message to Congress.

Five days later he signed the Homestead Act, which eventually turned over 234 million acres of the public domain to private ownership, as farmers rushed to stake out 160-acre claims.

Then, just weeks later, Lincoln signed the Land Grant College Act, which gave public land to establish colleges of Agricultural and Mechanical Arts. He, a farm boy who hadn't had more than a year of schooling in his life, was making it possible for farm boys and girls to have college training. Farmers need no longer be 'peasants.'

Abe Lincoln must have loved agriculture, for he said, "No other human occupation opens so wide a field for the profitable and agreeable combination of labor with cultivated thought."

1813. "You may have just begun to fight, John, but brother, I'm done for!"

1902. "I don't care if my name is Walter Reed, get that mosquito out of here!"

1959. "I don't care what you are president of, get those golf balls off my lawn!"

JUNIOR SPOTLITE

Sue, a new-comer to Boone High, was born in Oskaloosa, October 24, 1942, and has been a resident here for almost eight months with her parents and one brother and one sister, at 2015 Story Street.

When asked what she thought of Boone High, she replied, "I really like it."

This five-foot-seven, green-eyed miss is a member of Future Teachers, Pep Club, Scroll, girls' chorus, and basketball. Outside of school she participates in church activities.

Favorites on Sue's list include: sport, basketball; foods, fried chicken, spaghetti and meatballs; color, blue; subject, English; and pastimes, reading and dancing, especially when it's to the tune of 'Moon-glow.'

She is taking the college preparatory course; and plans after graduation are indefinite. Teaching elementary grades may occupy her future.

The junior spotlight this week silhouettes Sue Robinson and Dennis Bennett.

Denny Bennett, a friendly, good-looking boy, is six feet two inches, weighs 160 pounds, and has blonde hair and brown eyes. Born August 12, 1942, in the Boone County Hospital, he lives with his two younger brothers on Route 4.

Favorites for Denny include pastime: hunting and fishing; television show, 'Maverick'; food, fried chicken. This year he participates in basketball, which occupies most of his time, and last year was on the basketball team also. However, out of school Denny says, "I like movies and dances best."

Plans after graduation are still indefinite, but he hopes college will be part of his future.

Brave Souls at Work in the Biology Lab

Oh! How can you be brave enough to dissect those poor little clams? This is the usual reaction to the dissection field in the subject of biology.

Once a student begins this study of life, however, the fear of cutting apart worms, frogs, starfish, and various other small members of the animal kingdom usually vanishes with the first slithering cut of the scapula. From then on, a new world is opened to the student who is willing and inquisitive.

Sure, the preservatives on the animals may be responsible for an acrid odor, but girls (especially Barb Erbe and Ann McDermott), can it be THAT bad?

Marshalltown Over Boone Quintet

The Toreadors fell to Marshalltown Bobcats by a score of 69-58 in what was a virtual 'battle above the clouds.' Above the clouds, the heads and hands of the Toreadors, went the passing and shooting of the Marshalltown offense.

The Marshalltown lead built up slowly and surely, their lead was not seriously threatened throughout the ball game. By quarters the count was 19-14, 35-23, and 58-37.

Although the Boone offensive was accurate and effective, Boone seemed simply unable to come away with a win. Again and again the Bobcat guards would pass high to center Hanson, who would catch the basketball in midair and at the top of his reach, would shoot before hitting the floor. Throughout the ball game Boone seemed virtually unable to consistently break up this form of offense.

John Malcom led Bob Clifton's squad with 15. Guard Darrell Richards came next in the scoring department with 10. Next was Al Walker with eight. Walker had suffered from an attack of flu earlier in the day. Carroll Clabaugh picked up six, Bill Monen four. Next with three apiece were Kent Smith, Jon Gustafson, and Phil Sherbon. Munson, Ablett, and Dutton had two each.

High man for the game was Marshalltown's center, Hanson, whose total was 21. Next was St. John, with 16.

Sweet Sixteens to Joust Again

(District at Exira)

The 'Sweet Sixteens' of a year ago are on their way for another try at the state tournament. But first they must make it over the district hurdle, which commences February 19.

Sectional honors were gained in the win over Ogden last Thursday night. That game was well-matched but Boone came out on top, 67-61. This is the second year Boone has ousted Ogden in the finals of Sectional.

Freethrows, which in some previous games had cost the Toreadorettes a win, helped them come out on top in Thursday night's game. The Boone girls made 21 out of 30 shots; Ogden made only 13 out of 32.

Sharon Jones was Boone's high scorer with 28 points, followed by Joyce Alsin with 22 and Marilyn Smith with 17.

West, of Ogden, popped in 30 points, Bentley 18, and Baker 13.

Defense on both teams was outstanding, with Barb Wilhelm, Sue Peterson, Judy Thatcher, and Barb Fetzner doing a fine job for Boone.

Although Ogden outshot Boone by one field goal, it wasn't enough to latch onto a win.

Judy West, of Ogden, made six quick buckets in the first quarter, but only four in the next two quarters.

Pattie Kruse and Delores Jones, of Ogden, were stickout ball stealers and gave Boone's front court plenty of trouble.

Barb Wilhelm, of Boone, fouled out with a little more than four minutes remaining in the game.

Sharon Jones did a terrific job of driving, while Joyce Alsin gunned most of hers from long range.

Boone led at the third quarter, 48-39, and Ogden never caught up.

Boone Tops Rippey in Second Round

In their second sectional bout, February 11, the Boone Toreadorettes ran over Rippey, 65-33. Coach Carroll used six forwards in this game, and four of them scored in the double figures.

Boone started off with a bang, collecting 14 points to Rippey's three in the first quarter. From then on the Boone lassies clicked points off right and left and led by scores of 36-14, and 52-25, at the half mark and end of the third quarter.

Scorching the nets, Barb Wilhelm and Sharon Jones finished the game with 18 apiece to their credit. Next on the scoring ladder was Alsin with 13 counters.

The other girl who scored in double figures was Smith, who came away with 12. Others scoring were Smart and Peterson, with two each.

Hitting high for the Rippey team were Young with 14 and Bardolet with 13 points. Barb Fetzner was outstanding for Boone in defensive playing.

Cross Qualifies

Swimming in the district meet at East High in Des Moines, February 8, Jim Cross qualified for the state meet.

Cross swam in the 50- and 100-yard freestyle races and qualified in both. He swam the 50-yard freestyle in :24.7, placing third in that event. In the 100-yard freestyle he was timed at :55.4.

Jim was the only Toreador tanker to qualify for state. Mike Herman had his best time of 4:57.5 in the 400-yard freestyle but failed to qualify.

Bill Cramer and Ken Carlson also competed for Boone at the district meet but failed to qualify for state.

The Toreadors tied with Marshalltown and Des Moines, North, for fifth place in district team standings with 11 points.

Stratford Slips by Boone

With a final score of 63-59, Stratford downed the Boone lassies Friday, February 6. Scoring high for Boone in this pre-sectional bout were Joyce Alsin with 25 markers and Sharon Jones with 20 points.

Senior (at basketball game): "See that big substitute down there playing forward? I think he's going to be our best man next year."

Date: "Oh, darling, this is so sudden!"

Boone Comes from Behind to Beat Grand Junction in Sectional 1st Round

Getting off to a slow start, the Toreadorettes edged Grand Junction in the first round of sectional tournament play, 56-53.

Boone had an eight-point deficit at the end of the first quarter and a five-point deficit at halftime. Coming back in the third quarter, the Toreadorettes pulled ahead and retained the lead for the remainder of the game.

Grand Junction managed to hold the Toreadorettes' shooting down in the first quarter, and Boone sank only two fielders and one free shot. From then on a mighty Toreadorette push led them to outscore Junction in the second chapter.

A surge in shooting power gave the Toreadorettes their first lead of the game in the third quarter, when Alsin sank a free throw with three and a half minutes left in the quarter.

Then Marilyn Smith 'came up to bat' and gave Boone greater leads in the opening of the last quarter.

Alsin scored high for Boone for the evening, hitting nine from the field for 41 per cent, and five out of eight free throws, 63 per cent.

Smith scored next with eight fielders and six of seven free shots, giving her 42 per cent from the field and 54 per cent at the line.

Boone's remaining points were contributed by Jones, who had four buckets and six free throws for a total of 14 points.

Scoring high on the rival team was Pamela Slock, who netted 15 fielders and 13 free shots, totaling 43 points.

'Pinky' Clifton, coach of boys' varsity basketball at B.H.S., revealed Friday that he will not resume coaching here next fall. His future plans are still uncertain.

Swimmers Lose in Final Meet of Year

In a meet with Des Moines, East, on February 3, the Toreador tankmen came out underneath in a 48-38 decision. Boone merited five firsts, but this wasn't enough to give them a victory.

Taking the firsts were: Mike Herman in the 100-yard freestyle with a time of :59.0 and the 150-yard individual medley with a clocking of 1:49.7; Jim Cross with a 1:09.7 timing in the 100-yard breaststroke; Ed Lynn in the 200-yard freestyle; and the 200-yard medley relay team—Jim Cross, John Reid, Bill Cramer, and Ken Carlson.

Another good performance was turned in by Bill Cramer, who placed second in the 100-yard butterfly with a time of 1:14.5.

Ames Tilts Boone

The viewer of the Boone-Ames basketball tilt here could have easily come away with several conclusions besides a certainty of the 52-40 final count on the scoreboard.

Conclusion 1: three quarters do not equal four quarters. In order to come out on the long side of the score, it is necessary to keep up to the opponent's pace for the whole ballgame.

Boone meshed one free throw early in the ballgame to assume command 1-0, but failed to score again 'til the closing seconds of the first quarter, when Johnny Malcolm dropped in one field goal from the top of the keyhole.

Conclusion 2: When Darrell Richards can hit, he can hit. Richards whisked through the nets seven of 12 shots from the floor.

Under the Cyclone defense Al Walker was hard pressed to get room room to do too much besides breathe, but he did find room to pop in 16 points and to keep three or four Ames men occupied whenever the basketball found its way into his hands.

Carroll Clabaugh saw action for the greater part of the ballgame, replacing starter Phil Sherbon. Clabaugh held rebounding honors with 13.

JUNIOR HIVE

Junior High Boy Is Strange Type

Somewhere between the sweetness of babyhood and the charm of manhood, is found the questionable character labeled 'The Junior High Boy.' Junior high boys come in various sizes and shapes ranging from short and blocky to tall and lanks. All have the same intentions—to attack their new subjects in as many ways as possible.

Junior high boys are found everywhere: in wastebaskets, classrooms, football games, principal's office, and in teacher's hair. Mothers tolerate them, dads are bewildered by them, teachers bother them, and junior high girls date them.

A junior high boy is a combination of many things: he has the appetite of a hippo, the memory of an ostrich, and the shyness of Groucho Marx.

He likes football, crew neck sweaters, white bucks, and hot rods. He doesn't care much for girls—under 12.

No one else is so late to class and so early to leave. No one else gets such a charge out of handing junior high girls a line. No one else can shove into one pocket, a wallet, a pen, several well-chewed pencils, a stick of gum, a yellow library notice, and naturally, a little black book.

BOY OF THE WEEK

Boy of the week is Dale Harris. He is 13 years of age and is in the eighth grade.

His favorite singer is Frankie Avalon, and favorite in the song line is 'Donna.' His favorite food is fried chicken.

When asked what he liked to do in his spare time, Dale answered, "Nothing in particular, but I do like to ride horses."

Ida Mae Says:

Her pet peeve is kids throwing napkins on the floor.

Her favorite pastime is watching television, because it is relaxing, enjoyable, and educational.

Her favorite record is 'Smoke Gets in Your Eyes' and favorite singer is Jo Stafford.

GIRL OF THE WEEK

Our girl of the week stands only five feet two inches tall. She is a seventh grader and has brown hair and gray-blue eyes.

Ricky Nelson is her favorite singer, but at present 'Tall Paul' (probably Paul Thompson) by Annette Funicello is her favorite disc. When asked her favorite food she replied, "Tenderloins."

If you haven't guessed her identity already, the girl of the week is Rosemary Cazett.

The 'shag' is the name given to a sweater which is in high style this year. Other popular sweaters include: the chemise, bulky knit cardigans, and the crew neck.

Stagger Lee

(With Apologies to Poe)

'Twas many and many a year ago,
In an old shack by the sea,
That there lived a gal whom everyone knew

By the name of 'Stagger Lee.'
And she lived for 'One Night'
In 'Apple-blossom Time,'
To be loved and charmed by me.
She was known as 'Plain Jane,'
And I the 'All American Boy.'
We were really fond of each other,
And for her there was no other joy.

No, a love like ours could never be found,
Though you would search the world around,

For I love her, and she loves me,
My beautiful 'Stagger Lee.'

Seventeen-year-old Betty Wilder is the chief character of the book And Love Replied by Mary Stoltz. Betty and her parents moved to a small town just a month before the start of her senior year.

Betty experienced many new and exciting events in going to a new school and meeting new friends.

The classic Jane Eyre was written by Charlotte Brontë. The first part of this book is concerned with Jane's life in a girls' school.

Later it tells of her employment by her future lover as a governess for his ward.

Miss Brontë wrote, in my estimation, a truly fascinating character sketch.

Mary Ellen Lathrop was a senior in high school when she joined a junior achievement group. Making Christmas tree stands, going to nearby city to sell them to a store manager, and selling stock in the company are just a few of the experiences that make her year a memorable one. Adele De Leeuw wrote this book, A Heart for Business, which is available in the Ericson Public Library.

SPORTS CORNER

The ninth grade basketball team won Saturday, January 31, in a low-scoring game 34-30.

Jerry Thompson was the leading scorer for the Boone freshmen with 10 points. Steve Trulin had eight; and Bob Bush and Joe Reedholm had seven points each.

The freshman basketball team lost Saturday, February 7, to the State Center freshmen-sophomore squad, 47-46.

Jerry Thompson and John Meyers were leading scorers for the Boone team.

"My topic today," said the professor, "is 'The Lie.' How many of you have read the twenty-fifth chapter of the text?"

Nearly all of the students raised their hands.

"Good! You are the group to whom I wish to speak," said the professor. "There is no twenty-fifth chapter."

Nine from B.H.S. Receive I Ratings in Speech Contest

Speech contestants from 15 towns assembled at Boone High for the State Preliminary Speech Contest on Saturday, February 7. The contest continued from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Nine of the 18 contestants from Boone received a superior rating, or I. They were as follows: Oratorical Declamation, Sandra Trevarthen, Beth Severtson, Emily Shaler, Jim Stumbo; Dramatic Declamation, Beth Sorenson; Humorous Declamation, Phil Knudson, Joyce Utterback, and Gary Grasso.

Three Boone students received superior ratings in Interpretive Reading. They were Linda Hutson, Jim Stumbo, and Beth Sorenson.

The remainder of the 18 students obtained excellent, or II, ratings. The students who received superior ratings will advance to the District Speech Contest in Spencer, to be held the first week of March.

The ninth grade students are starting to register and are choosing their general courses for the next three years. Here are some tentative future careers and jobs:

Bob Bush: the scientific field.
Linda Lainson: nurse.
Judy Spurgeon: secretary.
Paula Seeley: ??
Dennis Askvig: mathematician.
Kathy Roberts: secretary or therapist.
Linda Eckhart: secretary.
Jane Rice: occupational therapist.
Karen Puntenney: veterinarian.
Judy Muench: lawyer.

The coach was putting the basketball team through a course of exercises to toughen them up, and one fellow with more brain than muscle began to get tired.

"Every man on his back!" barked the coach. "Legs up in the air! Now pretend that you're riding a bicycle. Faster! Faster!"

The tired one waved his legs a few times, and then stopped.

"Hey, you!" shouted the coach. "What's the idea?"

"Who, me?" said the bright one. "I'm just coasting down hill."

The Rev. Mr. Glenn Balsinger of the Primitive Methodist Church was the speaker at the Character Education assembly held on Tuesday, February 3, during the second hour. 'Chuck' McGriff introduced the Rev. Mr. Balsinger to the senior high, and Steve Trulin introduced him to the junior high.

Mrs. Asker: "Is Mrs. Smith an active member of the Women's Sewing Club?"

Mrs. Gabby: "Heavens, no! She never has a word to say, she just sits and sews."
