

Attention all seniors who are interested in getting a scholarship: Have you taken advantage of all the excellent opportunities offered in Boone High, in helping you achieve one?

Some of the scholarships pay entire tuition for your four years at college, while others pay a portion of it. Nevertheless, how can you lose by trying?

Do you realize that 15 colleges have offered Boone seniors an opportunity to achieve a scholarship simply by taking a qualifying test? These include: Simpson College, Indianola; Iowa Wesleyan College, Mount Pleasant; Central College, Pella; Creighton Memorial Hospital, majoring in nursing, Omaha, Nebraska; Department of Radiology, majoring in X-ray Technicians at Mercy Hospital, Iowa City.

National College of Elementary Teacher Preparation, Evanston, Illinois; Macmurray Colleges, Jacksonville, Illinois; California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, California; Washington University, St. Louis, Missouri; College of St. Thomas, majoring in Liberal Arts for men, St. Paul, Minnesota; Milwaukee School of Engineering, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Indiana.

Why not take advantage of these offers and look into some of them? Information can be obtained from Mr. Lyness, and there are notices on the bulletin board outside Mr. Moore's office.

French Rock and Roll Discs Entertain Group

Vice-president Marilyn Adix called the fourth meeting of the French Club to order Wednesday, February 18.

After a short business meeting Miss Heaps, club sponsor, played several French rock and roll records for the group.

B. H. S. Orchestra Plays Annual Concert

Penelope Ball Impresses Boone

The Boone High School orchestra, under the direction of Konrad Scholl, presented their annual concert Tuesday, February 24.

This year's guest soloist, Miss Penelope Ball, from Birmingham, Michigan, played a selection with the orchestra, then returned for an encore. Her playing ability was well demonstrated in two numbers, 'Concerto No. 3 for Piano and Orchestra' by Beethoven, and in the encore number, an étude from Chopin, called 'Ocean Waves.'

The talent of Donald Josephson, concertmaster, was shown as he played a violin solo, 'Liebesfreud' by Kreisler, and was accompanied by the orchestra.

Novelty Selection Played

Recognition was given to the bass section in their novelty number, 'Old Black Joe.' Linda Boyd, Jean Goeppinger, Leann Rans, Sue Caldwell, and Carolyn Anderson, complete with costumes of ragged levis, white shirts, kerchiefs and black faces, played the Deep South song, accompanied by the orchestra.

After intermission Mr. Scholl introduced the parents of the orchestra members to the audience. A special honorary section was provided for the parents.

Just as everything else changes with the times, so does music. A new idea in music of this modern age was presented in selectinos from 'Pictures for Suzanne' by Pyle.

Program

The entire program was as follows: 'Il Re Pastore' by Mozart; 'Concerto Crosso No. 9' by Corelli; 'Concerto No. 3 for Piano and Orchestra' by Beethoven, with Miss Ball, piano soloist; 'Poet and Peasant' by von Suppe; 'Prelude for Suzanne' by Pyle; 'Liebesfreud' by Kreisler, with Donald Josephson, violin soloist; and 'Marche Slav' by Tchaikovsky. Two encore numbers were also played: 'The Girl in Satin' by Anderson, and 'Old Black Joe' by Foster.

Quill and Scroll Plans Second Banquet of Year

Quill and Scroll members are planning their annual spring banquet, to be held on March 16 at the Lincoln Restaurant.

Present officers and members of the club are: president, David Tucker; secretary-treasurer, Ben Pollard; and other members, Emily Grabau, Sue Peterson, Deanna Eldien, Gerry Raettig, Sharon Bartlett, Charlotte Walters, Bill Anderson, Dave Otto, Carolyn Dahlin, Barb Fetzner, Marlene Bancroft, Karen Shafer, Karen Hubby, and Nancy Westfall. New members are: Beverly Ross, Carolyn Reed, Janice Lind, Marilyn Smith, and Janet Smith. Sponsor of this group is Mr. Stock.

The Quill and Scroll organization is a part of the National Honor Society for high school journalists.

Quill and Scroll also held a fall banquet this year, in October.

The captain said to the young recruit: "Have you washed down the bridge?"

"Yes, sir."

"Polished all the brass?"

"Yes, sir."

"Polished the floors?"

"Yes, sir. I've even swept the horizon with a telescope."

Gymnastic Expert Visits Senior High Assembly

Eddie Motter was introduced to Boone Senior High students on Thursday, February 26, by student council president, Denny Ferry.

Mr. Motter lost the sight of his right eye when he was six and of his left eye when he was ten. Despite these mishaps, Mr. Motter has kept a cheerful and wholesome attitude toward life.

He entered U.C.L.A. in Los Angeles where he studied psychology. During his years at U.C.L.A. he became nationally known as a star gymnast for the college. The years following his studies at U.C.L.A. were spent in show business with his brother, where they did a hand balancing act.

Now Mr. Motter travels to various high schools throughout the United States performing hand balancing stunts and turns on the parallel bars.

During his act he commented on the blind, safety, and clean living. Mr. Motter performs many feats which he has never seen, due to his blindness.

Northwestern U. Offers 5-Week Course

In the summer of 1959, the School of Education will participate in the Northwestern University's National High School Institute. The Education Division of this institute, the first of its kind in the country, is designed for outstanding students interested in teaching.

Thirty-five exceptional students from secondary schools in the various states will be invited to take part in a five-week session, meeting from June 28 to August 1.

Varied Program

This program is planned to provide classes and related activities to increase understanding and interest in the teaching profession.

The Northwestern University National High School Institute, begun in 1930, offers summer programs in the areas of speech, journalism, music, and engineering.

Known on the campus as 'Cherubs,' the high school students are housed in University dormitories, pursue a regular program of classes, and participate in varied activities.

Two Divisions

The Education Division will offer two major sections: one for students interested in teaching kindergarten, elementary, and junior high school; and a second for those considering teaching in a secondary school.

The two groups will participate in many activities together, but each will examine subjects, methods, and materials as related to each area of interest.

Students will take part in working in the recreation program on the Evanston community playgrounds.

Three Activity Groups

In addition to its academic program, the Division's activities will be divided into three groups: (1) Those of a professional nature, such as observations of school systems and trips to libraries, museums, and other places of educational interest; (2) Those related to the social and cultural advantages of the Chicago area, and (3) Those associated with the experience of living with students on a university campus.

If any students are interested in the teaching profession and the program explained above, contact Mr. Lyness.

Opportunity in Chemistry

The chemistry department at Iowa State College is again sponsoring a $2,000, four-year scholarship by the Dow Chemical Company of Midland, Michigan.

The scholarship is to be awarded to an outstanding high school senior graduating in May, 1959, and attending Iowa State College to major in chemistry.

The recipient of this scholarship will be selected from applications made to the Chemistry Department, Iowa State College.

For application forms, write:

Chemistry Department
Dow Scholarship Committee

Ames, Iowa.

Mrs.: "Mary, I saw that policeman kissing you in the kitchen last night."

Mary: "Yes, Ma'am. I'd have stopped him, but I was afraid I would be arrested for resisting an officer."

Vocalists Prepare for Festival

The girls pictured above are members of a group that meets weekly on Thursday nights after school to gain extra study in music. They include, from left to right: Susanne Frohardt, Mary Shaler, Sue Moore, Judirae Hendricks, Leslie Schroeder, Caryl Kristianson, and Lonette Alber. Accompanist for the group is LuAnn Hauge.

Preparation for the spring music festival, held annually the second semester of school, is now under way in the senior high music classes. These include the mixed chorus and boys' chorus, directed by Sterling Mische, and girls' chorus, directed by Mrs. Peterson.

The mixed chorus is beginning to rehearse a musical, 'The Familiar Stranger,' for presentation on this program. Parts have not all been assigned as yet, but are expected to be completed soon.

Both Mr. Mische and Mrs. Peterson use much of their free time during the school day, and before and after school, for the purpose of extra study with groups and individuals.

Two of these groups, the boys' octet and the senior girls' sextet, now named the 'Silvertones,' are meeting several times a week in preparation for personal appearances they may be expected to make.

Several of the students are taking extra study from Mr. Mische this semester are: Mike Herman, Gail Nystram, Jerry Thatcher, Dale Rogers, Tim Pepper, Linda Suthern, and Leslie Schroeder.

The guide was showing visitors through a museum in Mexico where Indian skulls and relics were exhibited. He was getting tired of answering endless questions when a tourist asked, "Whose skull is that big one?"

"That is the skull of the Emperor Montezuma," the guide replied.

"And whose is that little skull?" asked the man.

"That," answered the guide, "is Montezuma when he was a boy."

THIS IS YOUR LIFE

Do you remember this picture, Jim? It was taken when you were seven years old in grade school.

JIM MYLENBUSCH

At a very early age, you showed signs of having definite interest in music. You were always fond of playing the piano, and surprised all your friends and relatives when they learned you played by ear.

You were born in Boone, Iowa, on January 21, 1942, attended Garfield Elementary and of course, now Boone High.

You live with your parents, and two younger brothers, Tom and Gary.

After your interest in the piano decreased somewhat, you became interested in playing the trombone. While still in grade school, Mr. Bartholomew, your music teacher, would spend time trying to show you how to master this instrument.

Upon entering Boone High, you joined the band, of which you are still a member, and as of now occupy the first chair.

Your favorite trombone player is the late Tommy Dorsey.

When you finds some spare time, you enjoy ice skating swimming, playing ball, and practicing on the organ. And, of course, it wouldn't be fair to forget your dog, Terry, who is a mixture of Mexican Chihuahua and Terrier, and is your constant companion.

After graduation, you hope to attend college.

As for favorites, you enjoy most any kind of food, sport, or television program.

LOOKING BACK

Swimming Summary

This year's Toreador swimming squad did not have what could be classed as the most successful season in their history, but Gordon Brookhart's water wonders did manage to set 11 meet records this year. Credit for most of this goes to senior co-captain Jim Cross. Cross set records for meets between all of Boone's opponents for the year except for the state champion Rough Riders of Roosevelt of Des Moines.

Cross also took fifth place in both the 50-yard and 100-yard freestyle for the state at the State Meet held at Cedar Rapids, Franklin. Outstanding were his two 18.7 clockings in the 40-free.

Co-captains Cross and Mike Herman were the only members of this year's squad to score enough points to become members of the Boone High 1,000-point club.

Ken Carlson and Mark Tompkins had sprint times of note in the 40-yard event this year. Carlson had a 19.7 clocking at one time; Tompkins, 21.0.

However, this year's squad graduates only captains Cross and Herman.

Boys' B.B. Summary

For a backward look at the 1958-1959 Toreador basketball season, which appears as the last in a series with Bob Clifton at the helm.

In the score book is a .500 conference finish, tying for third with wins over Grinnell, 63-39; and 68-58 double overtime victory over the Newton Cardinals, who represented the C.I.C. in the tournament play, defeating conference champion Marshalltown in the first round of tournament play.

The loss side shows that Boone fell to Newton 51-45, to Ames 52-32 and 52-40, and two losses to the Marshalltown Bobcats, who finished undefeated in conference play, 59-44 and 69-58.

Also, on the non-conference side was the night the Roosevelt Rough Riders came up to Boone. Up to the point of three minutes into the third period, this was very probable one of the finest showings on the home court in many many moons. At that point the Des Moines squad, taller than all but one of the Big Ten squads held a slim 29-27 lead. But from this point, things just sort of went to the dogs, and with a 61-37 final decision.

Girls' B.B. Summary

Joyce Alsin was Boone's high scorer this season with a total of 435 points and an average of 24.2. Sharon Jones was next with a total of 392 points and an average of 21.8.

Marilyn Smith was third with a total of 143 points and an average of 7.9. Barb Wilhelm, who saw considerable of play as both a forward and a guard, ended the season with a total of 140 points and an average of 12.7.

The team's offensive average was 62.5, and defensive average 52.5. These are not official.

Three seniors graduate this year, leaving open positions on the varsity squad. They are: Joyce Alsin, Sue Peterson, and Irene Smart.

Returning girls for next year are: Judy Thacker, Ginger Roby, Sharon Jones, Marilyn Smith, Barb Wilhelm, Barb Fetzer, Myra Aspengrfen, Mary Jane Walker, and Pat Wilhelm. . . These, plus the second team and other basketball prospects.

Co-captains for the season were Joyce Alsin and Sue Peterson, who were elected by the varsity squad.

Seniors

Joyce Alsin, who was a regular forward, had a very successful season and has shown outstanding play in her basketball career for the last three years.

Sue Peterson, a starting guard, in the last three years has shown outstanding talents in the guard court.

Irene Smart, a transfer student from Ogden, didn't see much play this season, but showed remarkable skill at both forward and guard.

But for memories of the Toreadors at their winning best, the double overtime with Newton takes the cake. This also proved to be Allen Walker's highest scoring evening, when he took 28 markers.

Walker proved to be the team's highest scorer, averaging 17.8 for all the games, 15.9 points per game in non-conference competition.

The squad's seniors this year are Walker, Alan Munson, Carroll Clabaugh, Steve Shaler, Kent Smith, Bill Monen, Tim Croxen, and Gary McVicker. Of course, Munson, Clabaugh, Walker, Smith, and Monen were starters.

The Toreadors fell to Webster City in the first round of the tournament play, 64-58.

Toreadors Defeated in First Sectional Game

Making their comeback too late in the game, the Toreadors lost sectional hopes to the Lynx of Webster City, February 17. Final score in the bout was 64-58.

In the first quarter the Toreadors' shooting was on ice; they sank only eight of 35 attempts at the hoop. This gave the Lynx 19-10 and 35-21 leads at the end of the first quarter and at halftime.

Hopes were raised in the beginning of the second half with the replacements, Don Dutton and Jon Gustafson. Both were hot on the boards, and played their best of the season.

Walker Leads Boone Scoring

Allen Walker was again top scorer, finishing the game with a grand total of 16 points. Second in the scoring column was Don Dutton with 14 counters. A good word should be said also for Bill Monen, who popped in four fielders and a free shot for a total of nine, and Jon Gustafson, who got eight.

In the second half the Toreadors really battled and came within two points of tying the Lynx, 60-58, 40 seconds before the end of the game, but four gift shots on the part of the Lynx increased the margin to six points at the final gun.

Baseball Team Added to Athletic Program

Something new has been brought into the athletic program this year. Boone High is going to have a boys' baseball team. Bill Sapp is to be the coach.

Practice commences May 18, and the games will be played at Memorial Park under the lights.

The schedule, which at this time is incomplete, will consist of such teams as Ames, Marshalltown, Grinnell, and Newton. This is because these teams are in the C.I.C. conference. They will, however, play teams from other areas.

Any boy who is in the senior high is eligible to be on the newly organized team.

Clinton Sandeen, who earlier in

Track Season to Open March 21

Nine Lettermen Return

This year's track squad is one of the largest in quite a few years. The Toreadors are 68 strong as compared to 42 last year. There are nine lettermen returning to help the team again this year.

Lettermen are: Mike Cornelius, Jim Cross, Tim Croxen, Denny Ferry, Gary Highland, Gary McCool, Bill Monen, Darrell Richards, and Steve Shaler.

Coach Brookhart says that the strong points of this year's team will be in the pole vault, high and broad jump, 880-yard run, the middle distances, and the sprints.

Schedule

First appearance for the Toreador runners will be March 21, at the State Indoor Meet at Iowa City. Their first home meet with Marshalltown on April 3. Teams they will meet during the season will include Fort Dodge, Webster City, Carroll, Madrid, Eagle Grove, Lincoln of Des Moines, and others.

Team

Roger Dennis, Don Dutton, Elmer Eckhart, Denny Ferry, Terry Ferry, Mike Fleming, Neal Gragg, Tom Grasso, Jon Gustafson, George Hannum, Elmo Hansen, Hank Harris, Gary Highland, Phil Ingersoll, the year presented Boone High a Toreador uniform, presented B.H.S. 24 baseball uniforms.

The boys who have signed up are as follows:

Gary McVicker, Bill Monen, Larry Ford, Dennis Mylenbusch, John Kueck, Tim Croxen, Bill Martin, Tom Burke, Gayle Carlson, John Malcom, Larry Paulson, Hank Harris, Don Dutton, Jon Gustafson, Mel Murken, Darrell Richards, Jim Mylenbusch, Gary McLeod, Neal Gragg, Ed Myers, Charles McGriff, and Oscar Gordon. ### Two-point Victory for Exira Ends Toreadorette Bid

A Toreadorette bid for a berth in the girls' state tournament failed when they came down to the wire trailing by a nose to a snappy Exira sextet, 60-58.

Joyce Alsin's play netted 31 points, and was balanced by a 17-point production on the part of Sharon Jones, and 10 markers by Marilyn Smith.

The Boone offensive court was able to score consistently on deliberate, slow setups. But the writing on the red side of the Toreadorette ledger came primarily from Exira's two snappy forwards.

Had Sharon Jones' last-minute shot been meshed, who knows the outcome?

But the Boone guard court was unable to really clamp shackles on the fast drives of Exira shooters.

Boone pulled ahead to an 8-1 lead in the opening couple of minutes of play, but found their lead steadily declining as the first half progressed, and after the final buzzer sounded, the Toreador red and green gals found themselves staring at a two-point Exira margin, gained on a shot which meshed after the half signal.

JUNIOR HIVE

Assemblies Reveal Lack of School Spirit

On Friday, February 20, the junior high student body met for a pep meeting.

Despite a rousing speech by Fred Groat, the enthusiastic urging of the cheerleaders, and the swinging support of the pep band, many of the loyal patrons of this school flatly refused to yell and show the team we're behind them.

So those with budding hopes of making this pep assembly a little peppier and a little less dead walked away knowing it would take a miracle (no less) to move these unwilling, so-called 'supporters' to such great heights as yelling and going to the games.

As Fred pointed out in his speech, we should be proud, very proud of B.J.H.S. Only one thing spoils our reputation, and that is the lack of school spirit we show. It's your school, your team; Come on kids, let's get up some steam!

"How you've changed! You used to be stocky and now you're thin. You used to have thick black hair, and now you're bald. You used to have a ruddy complexion and now you're pale. I'm surprised, Mr. Gordon."

"But I'm not Mr. Gordon."

"Oh! You've even changed your name!"

Did you hear about the man whose cat got run over by a steam-roller? He didn't say a thing; he just stood there with a long puss.

The Poor Guy!

If he yells and laughs, he's a rowdy—when he's quiet and well behaved, he's a mouse.

If he goes steady, it's because he can't get anyone else—or if he doesn't, he can't get anyone.

If he laughs a jokes in assemblies, he's awful—if he doesn't, he's too dumb to catch on.

When he responds in class, he's pulling for a grade. If he doesn't, he's stupid.

If he's a big wheel, he's stuck up—but if he's not, he's a drip.

He wears conservative clothes, so he's dull—if he dresses 'hep,' he's termed a big man.

Perhaps he pays attention in class—then his sanity is doubted. If he finds other pastimes, he's absolutely childish.

If he smiles, he's a flirt. When he doesn't, they say he thinks he's too good.

There must be something a boy can do!

Jim: "Did you bake these biscuits with your own little hands?"

Dixie: "Why, yes."

Jim: "Well, who helped you lift them out of the stove?"

Intercepted—

Have you noticed all the note passing done in Boone High halls lately? Here is a note written by a girl in the ninth grade. (Only the names have been changed to protect the guilty.)

Dear 'Donna,'

How have you and 'Stagger Lee' been lately? Is she still going with 'Tom Dooley' to the game? Boy, 'That'll Be the Day.'

Did you see 'Tall Paul' at the dance last night? Didn't he look like an 'All-American Boy?' 'Lucy' was there with 'Peter Gunn.' I thought she was going to 'Chicago.' She must have changed her mind 'All of a Sudden.'

I'll be glad when it's 'Apple Blossom Time' again, won't you? It's so cold out in this 'Winter Wonderland' that even 'Plain Jane' rode to school today.

Well, 'It's Late,' so I'll have to say 'bye for now.

'Forget Me Not,'
'Nola.'

Boone Art Students Win Gold Keys

Al Bell Returns to B.H.S. for 11th Year in Row

Monday, February 23, the junior high students were entertained by the performance of Al Bell.

This year Mr. Bell told students about his adventures in Hawaii. He spoke about the islands' beginning, and the idols the Hawaiians worshiped before the coming of the missionaries.

Mr. Bell gave information about the hula skirts, Hawaiian musical instruments, and the unusual Hawaiian alphabet, which has only 12 letters.

In conclusion, Mr. Bell presented his film about Hawaii.

BLOW YOUR STACK

This is a new column on the Junior Hive page. These are gripes which concern everyday topics:

Mr. Hokanson: "This cold weather. I dislike walking in the snow."

Mr. Sapp: "Coaching a thoroughbred who plays like a plug."

Bob Lebo: "Subjects!"

Mrs. Markwalder: "Students who walk down the hall one way while looking the other way."

John Ades: "We don't have enough paid assemblies."

Bob Herman: "Our junior high school spirit."

John Meyers: "The school day is too long."

Gary Anderson: "The junior high school spirit."

Richard Lyon: "The lunch periods aren't long enough."

Daffynition: Love—the feeling that makes boys think as much of a girl as they do of themselves.

For the 32nd year Scholastic Magazines announced the Scholastic Art Awards for the encouragement of student achievement in creative art.

In the regional exhibitions the awards are gold keys and certificates of merit. From these key winners regional judges will select 'blue ribbon' finalists. These winners' art pieces will be sent to New York to be judged in the National High School Art Exhibition.

The art pieces of Iowa's key winners will be exhibited at Younkers from Monday, February 23, through Saturday, March 7.

On Saturday, February 28, an awards ceremony and dinner was held at Younkers. At this time students received their gold achievement key and certificates of merit. Miss Grayce Osborne, Boone High art instructor, accompanied the Boone High winners at the ceremony.

Fourteen Boone High students won gold keys this year. From senior high they are: Richard Moore, Nancy Hicks, David Tracy, Jerry Bechtel, and Elmer Eckhart.

Also, 14 Boone High students received honorable mention. Senior high students are: Susan Peterson, Jane Young, Beverly Christian, Bernard Weber, and Elmer Eckhart.

SPORTS CORNER

The freshman basketball team lost to Webster City Saturday, February 14, 41 to 48. Leading scorer for the Matadors was Jerry Thompson with 18 points out of 28 tries.

Marshalltown defeated the freshman basketball squad February 21 by a score of 50-43. The game was very close all the way, with Marshalltown leading by two, 21-19, at the half.

Again Jerry Thompson took scoring honors, with 16 points. Steve Trulin was next with 11.
