

County Group Gives Tea

The Boone County Medical Auxiliary held a tea for the Boone County Future Nurses' Club on October 15 at the Holst Hotel. Girls from Boone, Sacred Heart, Boxholm, and Ogden attended the tea. Mrs. Sutton welcomed the Future Nurses' Club, speakers, and guests. Mrs. Longly then gave a brief history of the Future Nurses' Club in Boone County.

The speakers for the afternoon were Judy Van Pelt, who is in her second year at Methodist Hospital; Rhoda Newland, who is now a member of the Boone County Hospital staff; Nancy Jo Arringdale, who is also a member of the Boone County Hospital staff; and Mr. Lloyd Shear, chaplain and field observer of the Methodist Hospital.

Each speaker gave a short talk on what can be expected at the different hospital nursing schools.

The Future Nurses' Club held its regular meeting in room 207 at 3:15. President Rosalie Anderson called the meeting to order.

Committees were then announced. They are: program, Rosalie Anderson, Lonette Alber, Sandra Burke, and Janna Weston; banquet, Diane Ball, Barb Fetzter, Judrae Hendricks, and Mary Sue Rolfes; decorating, Donna Pesek, Pam Parrish, and Barb Wilhelm; scrap book, Diane Haleen, Jeri Dixon, Barb Riker, and Rosemary Culver; program covers, Janna Weston, Judy Shuster, La Rayne Sinn, Lu Ann Hauge, and Barb Murken.

Married Life Comedy to Be Presented

'The Broom and the Groom' directed by Mr. Charles Schaeffer, will be the senior high play for this year, and will be presented on November 18 in the B.H.S. auditorium at 8:00 p.m.

The play revolves around a newly married couple who make their home somewhere in the East near Boston. The wife believes herself to be a witch, but her husband considers the idea absurd. The wife disproved her husband's faith in her by putting a hex on him. From this point the story turns into a gay and enlightening comedy.

The members of the cast are: Bill Shedd as David Thompson, the groom; Sandra Meis as Alma Thompson, the bride; Jackie Dolphin as Aunt Rina Churchill, Alma's aunt; Phil Knudson as Frank Capwell, David's boss; Beth Severtson as Grace Capwell, his wife; Dot Williams as Mrs. Finnegan, the next door neighbor; Walter Zimbeck as Air Force Lieutenant U/5, on duty; Lonette Alber as Shelia Hanson, a newspaper reporter; Diane Ball as Kim Palmer, a tv. representative of an advertising agency; and Jim Lynch as Eddie, a photographer.

This modern light-hearted comedy in three acts was written by Kurtz Gordon and published by Samuel French, Inc.

It was presented as a tv. play on Matinee Theater in 1958. Russell Arms and Peggy King played the lead parts.

Parents Become Students for a Night

Parents of senior high students were welcomed by the faculty members to an open house at the Boone High School last Monday evening, October 19. The purpose of this open house was for parents to meet the teachers and for them to see what their sons and daughters have accomplished during the first seven and one-half weeks of school.

The evening started at 7:30 with a short P.-T. A. meeting. Mr. Moore, the principal of Boone Junior and Senior High School, then introduced the faculty members.

At 8:00 o'clock the parents, following Tuesday's schedule, went through a typical school day. Here they met the teachers of their children. From 9:30 to 9:45 the teachers remained in their classrooms so the parents could talk further with them.

Janet Wears Crown at Homecoming

As tensions and spirits mounted, John Capps, master of ceremonies at the annual Homecoming assembly held Friday, October 9, greeted the students and alumni.

While the school dance band, directed by Jim Mylenbusch, played, 'A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody,' the five queen candidates, escorted by five senior members of the football team, advanced down the aisle to the stage, where John Capps introduced them to the student body. The candidates and their escorts were: Sue Robinson, escorted by Ronald Carter; Barb Wilhelm, escorted by Keith Ablett; Dixie Enslow, escorted by Neil Gragg; Kay Wiley, escorted by Mickey Cornelius; and Janet Smith, escorted by Darrell Richards.

Suspense and stillness increased as Larry Trulin and Roger McCoy, the football co-captains, walked down the row of candidates to crown the queen, Janet Smith. They then presented her with two dozen roses. The queen and her court were escorted to their seats on the stage and entertained by the high school girls' sextet, the Silvertones, who sang, 'May You Always.'

John then introduced Miss Hall, who acted as narrator for a short skit, predicting the victory, and the cheerleaders who led the student body in several cheers. Dan Statton, Public Safety Commissioner of Iowa and Boone High graduate, was the speaker for the assembly.

Following the victory of the Boone team that night, a dance was held in the high school gym, which had been decorated by several members of the student council. The music was provided by Ralph Zarnow and his orchestra. John Capps introduced the queen and her court during the intermission.

Journalists Attend Press Convention

The Iowa High School Press Convention was held at Drake University at Des Moines on October 20. Students came from schools all over Iowa which belong to the Iowa High School Press Association.

Boone had three students appearing on panels with students from other Iowa schools. These girls were: Karen Hubby, speaking on columns; Barb Fetzter, discussing sports; and Nancy Westfall, speaking on editorials.

Other pupils attending from Boone were: Mary Jo Caldwell, Karen Shafer, Diane Ball, Janet Smith, Marilyn Smith, Sue Robinson, Kenny Shafer, Lynne Hohenshell, Karen Anderson, Carol Peterson, Marlene Bancroft, Tim Clark, Hank Harris, Jerry Baker, Susanne Frohardt, and Mary Jo McLeod. Scroll and Bumble 'B' sponsor, Mr. Stock accompanied the group. The students who attended are members of the school paper, the yearbook staff, and the journalism class.

After registering, the group attended round table discussions. Lunch was followed by a business meeting and election of state officers. Panel discussions were resumed in the afternoon.

Panels discussed editing the school paper, financing the yearbook, feature writing, sports stories, news coverage, headlines, advertising, and photography.

DOLPHIN CLUB

The newly elected Dolphin Club officers for this year are: president, Kay Wiley; vice-president, Karen Hubby; secretary, Linda Boyd. Miss Quinn is the sponsor of the club.

Four Attend Conference

Four student council officers, Judy Thacker, Terry Ferry, Sue Pestotnik, and Sue Robinson, and sponsor, Mr. Abbott, attended the 13th Annual Conference of the Iowa Association of Student Councils at the Memorial Union at Ames, October 19. These four participated in the activities along with nearly a thousand other delegates from Iowa schools.

Registration took place from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. At first session Dr. Robert Parks, Dean of Instruction at Iowa State University, welcomed the students. An address was given by Jon Kyl, President of the Iowa Association of Student Councils.

The delegates from each section of the state met in respective rooms for the nomination of officer candidates. These candidates were introduced in the Great Hall and were voted on after lunch.

Twenty-four discussion groups were led by 24 different schools to discuss questions having to do with student council work. Twelve different groups were held in the afternoon, of which each of the Boone delegates chose the ones he wanted to attend and then shared the information with each other.

The final general session, held from 2:40 to 3:50 p.m. was presided over by Jon Kyl. The Rev. A. B. Patterson, Jr., of the Bishop Ingle Episcopal Center at the University of Colorado, gave the keynote address at this session. An announcement of the election results was made and the new officers were introduced.

The former president then passed the gavel on to the new president.

Mr. Bruns (gazing over the room during an examination): "Will some kind gentleman who isn't using his textbook be so kind as to permit me to have it for a few minutes?"

Enrollment Grows by 100 Pupils

At the beginning of the 1959-60 school year, Boone Senior High had an enrollment of 535, with 187 in the 10th grade, 169 in the 11th grade, and 179 in the 12th grade. The junior high enrollment is 645, making a grand total of 1,180 students in the Boone Junior-Senior High School.

The seventh grade this fall contains 263 students. This means that there will be 100 more students in the building this year than there were last year. There are 60 teachers on the staff, eight of them having been added this year.

In the last four years at Boone High School many changes have taken place. Three advisors have been added, a director of testing, two math teachers, an assistant principal, a homemaking teacher, an extra art instructor, and an additional vocal music instructor. Boone High has an inter-com system, a modern cafeteria, a new chemistry room, new Scroll quarters, a brand new music department, and an enlarged art department.

The school day has been lengthened in order to permit a ten-minute homeroom before the school day actually begins.

Extra-curricular activities include speech, dramatics, band, orchestra, chorus, Bumble 'B' Scroll, Quill and Scroll, Pep Club, Student Council, Future Nurses' Club, girls' basketball, Dolphin, football, basketball, baseball, track, golf, tennis, and swimming.

One of the most useful things Boone High has added in the last few years is the Code of Conduct. Through the help of the Student Council and the family, it has been well enforced.

In order to graduate from Boone High School, 25 credits are required, all based on academic courses, not extra activities.

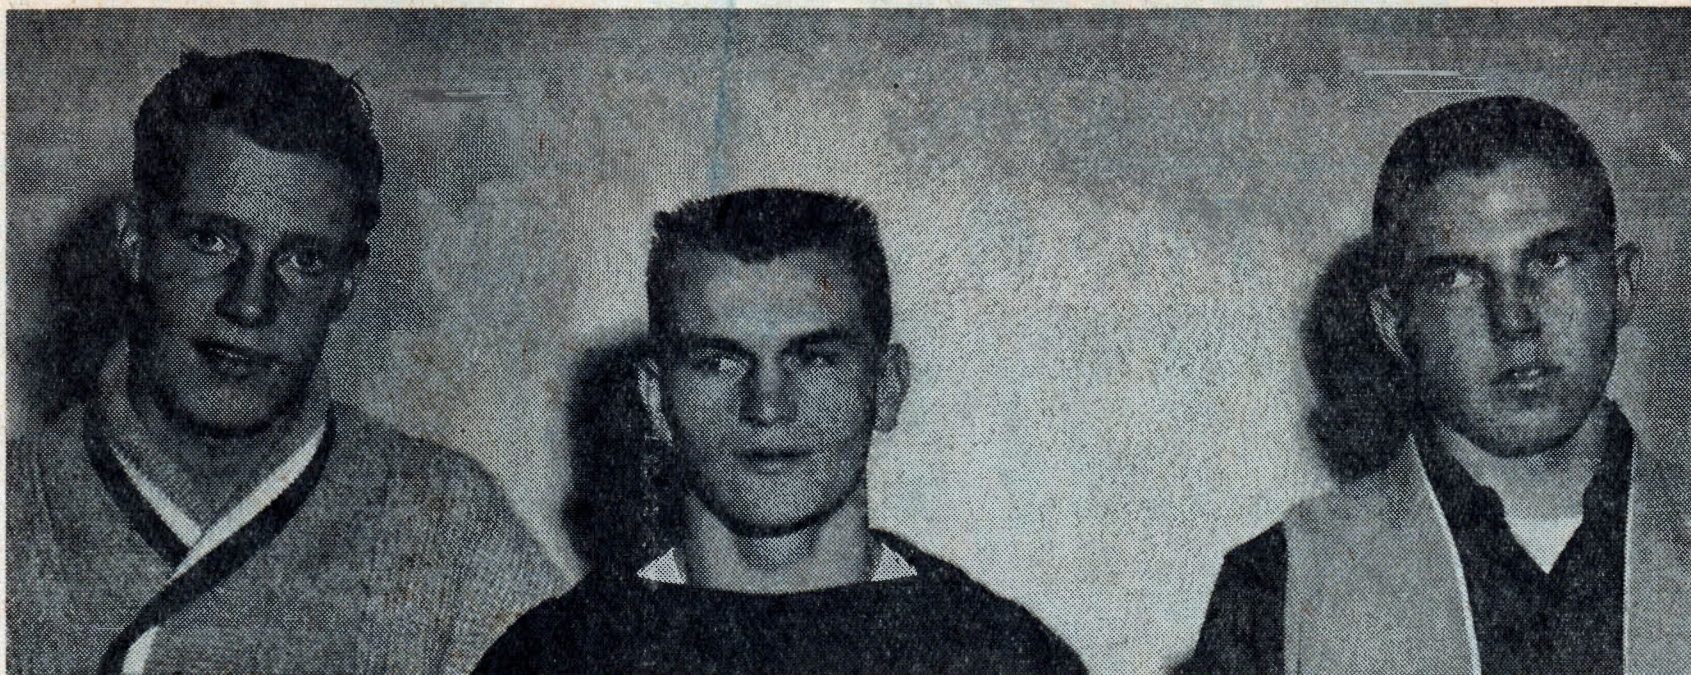

At Boone High a student may quit school if he has completed the eighth grade or is 16 years old. A few years ago the P.-T. A. wanted the faculty to change this age limit to 18 years. However, school authorities and faculty felt that it would be detrimental to the other students in school if they were held back by students who simply could not learn. However, a student may be suspended if he fails two of four subjects in a semester.

Ten years ago, in grades from seventh through 12th there was a 7% dropout. Last year a study was made of the graduating class and there was less than a 4% dropout. This proves that by raising the standards there are fewer dropouts.

MEET THE TOREADORS

This blue-eyed football player is known to all as 'Steve' Miller. Steve weighs 170 pounds and is six feet one inch tall. This is the first year that he has been out for football in senior high and he lists it as tops on his schedule.

Steve likes: chemistry, turkey or anything to eat that does not eat him first, Oldsmobiles, golf, and pizza parties. He dislikes: Fords, homework, his little brothers (sometimes), Ricky Nelson, and staying home.

Steve's hobby is to tinker around with his trusty little 1951 Oldsmobile. (The last time he started tinkering around with his car he ended up with a new one.)

Although he doesn't know where he is going to go yet, he hopes to attend college next year.

Another of our feature football players for this week is Mickey Cornelius. Mickey plays left half on the squad and has lettered in football. He has also lettered in track and junior high basketball.

Mickey is 17, and is five feet nine inches tall, and weighs 150 pounds. He has brown hair and blue eyes.

Although he isn't hard to please, there are certain things he especially likes; these include: Johnny Cash, food, especially fried chicken; being 17; auto mechanics; and dark green.

Mickey plans to attend junior college after graduation this spring, although no definite plans have yet been made.

If You've Never

If you've never seen an old witch
Riding through the sky—
Or never felt big bat's wings
Flopping, as they fly—
If you've never touched a white thing
Gliding through the air,
And knew it was a ghost because
You got a dreadful scare—
If you've never heard the night owls,
Crying, "Whoo-whoo-whoo,"
And never jumped at pumpkin eyes
Gleaming out at you—
If all of these exciting things
You've never heard or seen,
Why, then—you've missed a lot of fun,
Because—that's Halloween!

Recent tests in the physics department prove that grasshoppers hear through their legs. When a tuning fork was placed near a grasshopper, it was found that in all cases the insect would hop. There was no reaction to the stimulus, however, when the insect's legs were removed.

Jokes ...

Frosh: "Are they strict at Boone High?"

Soph: Are they! Why, when a boy dies during a lecture, they prop him up in the seat until the end of the hour."

"Did they take an x-ray photo of your wife's jaw at the hospital?"

"They tried to, but all they got was a moving picture."

Dad: "Son, I'm spanking you because I love you."

Son: "I'd sure like to be big enough to return your love."

Victim: "Hey, that wasn't the tooth I wanted pulled."

Dentist: "Calm yourself, I'm coming to it."

"Hey, you guys, where are you carrying that fellow? Is he drunk?"

"Nope."

"Sick?"

"Nope."

"Just a gag?"

"Nope."

"Well, what is the matter with him?"

"Dead."

Mr. Porter: "Mark Tompkins, can you tell me what is meant by a polygon?"

Mark: "I guess it means a parrot that's died, doesn't it?"

B.H.S. Roars to Homecoming Victory, 21-6

The 'Triumphant Toreadors' romped and roared their way to a 21-6 win over the North Des Moines Polar Bears here homecoming night. This was victory number three for Coach Harris' Toreadors.

Halfback Mickey Cornelius scored the first Toreador touchdown early in the beginning chapter. A 12-yard pass from quarterback Darrell Richards to end Keith Ablett set up the T.D. Fullback Terry Perry smashed for 11 yards before Cornelius carried the ball from the five-yard line for the score. The extra point was run by Richards.

Quarterback Larry Bauer scored the lone Polar Bear touchdown from the one-yard line. The attempt for extra point by Gary Knight failed. Boone's next touchdown came in the second quarter when Richards threw a 27-yard pass to Cornelius. This was set up by a screen pass by the same pair which netted 11 yards. Dave Adams kicked the extra point. The score at half-time was 14-6.

Before the gun sounded ending the third quarter North Des Moines fumbled on a punt return which was recovered by Toreador halfback George Hannum. In the opening minutes of the fourth chapter Perry went wide to the left for seven yards which set up the one-yard plunge for the score by Richards. Dave Adams kicked the extra point.

Fullback Perry led both teams in rushing with 104 net yards with a 5.7 average per carry.

Mickey Cornelius, who scored Boone's first touchdown, was injured late in the third quarter, which amounted to torn ligaments on the inside of his right knee.

End Larry Paulsen, who has held the responsibilities on the right end of the line in the last two games, helped considerably in the Boone offense.

TRICKS OR TREATS

Halloween—a time of ghosts and hobgoblins—is eagerly anticipated by people of all ages, ranging from two to 72.

To many it symbolizes a time for impersonating terrifying creatures and going from door to door collecting treats and threatening to play all sorts of little tricks on people if they refuse. Then, too, it means enjoying treats afterwards and comparing your treasures with others. It means costume dances, hayrides, pumpkin faces, and bobbing for apples. This is one side of Halloween.

There is also another side of Halloween which is not so much fun. Some pranksters lose all sense of reason and play all sorts of unfair pranks on others. These tricks are played at the expense of others and are highly impractical as well as useless. Besides this, they defame the names of our school.

Have fun this Halloween, but make it good, clean fun.

Question of the Week

Each year when the seventh graders come over to junior high, it is considered quite a change from grade school.

When asked, "What do you think is the biggest change from grade school to junior high?" the following seventh graders gave these answers:

Jo Ellen Allen: "Going from room to room for classes."

Jolene Anderson: "Harder work."

Wanda Tam: "Going to different rooms for classes."

Tom Miles: "Having so many teachers."

Ida Stumbo: "Going to so many rooms for classes."

Bob Reedholm: "Having swimming."

Judy Johnson: "So many people."

Les Hohanshelt: "Having different teachers."

Kathy Pratt: "The work."

Y-teens Plan Activities

Seventh grade Y-teens have been giving devotions on Thursday mornings at the Eastern Star Home, alternating with the eighth and ninth grade Y-teens. They are planning a Halloween party with the time and the place to be announced later.

The eighth grade Y-teens, together with the ninth grade, took part in a window display in a store downtown. They are planning a hayride for the near future.

The ninth grade Y-teens held a scavenger hunt on October 10. They are now making plans for a service project.

At a busy corner a man waited for a traffic break so he could cross the street. After 10 minutes he saw a man on the other side of the street and called to him, "How did you get over there?"

The other man cupped his hands around his mouth and shouted, "I was born on this side."

Little five year-old Betty was taken to church for the first time. As she walked out of the church with her parents, the preacher stopped her, leaned over, and asked her how she liked church.

"I liked the music okay," said Betty, "but the commercial was too long."

An elderly man entered the hospital for treatment. One of the first meals served to him included a bowl of quivering gelatin, which he refused to eat.

Pressed for an explanation, he replied, "I'm not going to eat anything that's more nervous than I am."

Fads Favor Fuzz

One of the most talked about subjects this time of year is clothing. Now that school is in session and fall is here, almost everyone is wanting new clothes.

The fall colors are vivid. A few of the main colors are bright blue, beige, tan, olive green, and red. Many of the popular outfits consist of a one-colored straight skirt, topped with a matching colored sweater. Most of the sweaters are shags, which are soft and fuzzy. In addition to the straight skirts and sweaters the multi-colored pleated skirt is very popular.

Many of the dresses and blouses have puffed sleeves, which add to the outfit.

For this time of year many girls are wearing flats. Many are wearing squash, or Queen Anne heels. These have become popular throughout the United States. Later in the season the desert boots will be very popular with bobby socks.

Ask-it Basket

Dear Editor: Why can't there be more than three minutes between classes?

Answer: Our school is small enough so that three minutes is enough time to pass between classes. More than three minutes is unnecessary.

Dear Editor: Why can't there be a longer lunch period?

Answer: Boone has a large number of students eating in the lunchroom. To accommodate every student, five periods of 30 minutes each are allowed. Our lunchroom works efficiently enough so that 30 minutes is a sufficient time.
