News Briefs

Something new and different was held in the auditorium Tuesday, December 15, sixth hour, when a pep assembly was held for the swimming team. This is the first time such an assembly has been held. Mr. Brookhart was the speaker and explained the rules and regulations of swimming meets. He then introduced the members of the team. The cheerleaders closed the assembly by leading three cheers and singing the school song.

Future Teachers Meet

Future Teachers held a meeting December 10 at 7:30 a.m. The members discussed the time at which the meetings could be held and it was decided to hold them each Thursday morning at 7:30.

They discussed briefly on when and where the members wanted to have the Future Teachers banquet held but didn't arrive at a conclusion.

Mr. Lyness used the rest of the meeting time to discuss with the members the steps in making an application for teaching.

B.H.S. Supports March of Dimes

Hear ye! Hear ye! For only 65 cents you, as a student, can help the March of Dimes program, and at the same time be the owner of the Kingston Trio's newest record, 'Haul Away,' and 'Molly Dee.' This record is on sale in the principal's and Mrs. Engen's office, and is a 45-r.p.m. recording. Sales will continue until the middle of January, but hurry, don't be one of those persons left out!

TRICKPIC WINNER

Winner of the last Trickpic was Terry Ferry, who correctly identified the picture as a light fixture in the back of the auditorium. He will receive a free Bumble 'B' for the rest of the school year. Look for this week's Trickpic on the insert page.

Homemaking Project

Every year the homemaking classes try to do something different to decorate the Christmas tree in the department. This year they have decided to decorate with school supplies, mittens, and small story books. The things on the tree will eventually go to the needy and the tree, itself, is given to anyone who desires it.

B. H. S. Elects Capps to Head Council

Campaign festivities for the new Student Council president ended Thursday morning, December 17, as John Capps was elected the new leader.

Both candidates, Darrell Richards and John Capps, began their campaigns early last week, by decorating the halls and lunchroom with posters and banners.

Wednesday, December 16, was the date of the assembly held to hear the campaign speeches from the managers and the candidates. Speaking in behalf of Darrell Richards was Jon Gustafson. Neal Gragg and Keith Ablett served as managers for John Capps.

Council activities for the next semester include the Boone-Ames talent exchange to take place late in February. According to the plan now under observation a talent assembly featuring Ames students will be presented here early in March. Then, the Boone students will go to Ames late in February to present a talent show for the Ames students.

School Praises High Scholarship

Awards to 18 Sophs

Eighteen sophomores were presented with the Goeppinger Award honors at an assembly Thursday, December 17.

The Goeppinger Award winners were: Judy Muench, Robert Herman, Helen Sinn, James Stumbo, Dawn Rosengreen, Joe Reedholm, Mary Ellen Clark, Edward Myers, Jan Thatcher, James Sakellaris, Karen Puntenney, John Cook, Beverly Stutzman, Robert Bush, Cheryl Anderson, Richard Barry, Audrey Nelson, and John Ades.

The rules governing the Goeppinger Award have been changed from those originally set by Louis Goeppinger in 1942. In keeping with changes within the school system and to more adequately recognize all of the higher scholastic achievers the following changes have been made:

1. The discontinuance of mid-year promotions gave rise to giving the award to two boys and two girls each year, replacing the giving of the award to one boy and one girl each semester.

2. In 1957, with the approval of the Goeppinger estate, pin awards were given to each of the top 10% of the girls and the top 10% of the boys in the sophomore class who were members of the Boone Junior High School and who met the standards for this recognition as set up by Louis Goeppinger.

As of November, 1958, these two changes, in addition to the basic principles, of selection, are the points of consideration in making the awards.

Crescendos to Present Jazz Concert

The Crescendos, the school dance band, will present a jazz concert January 12 at the Boone High School Auditorium. The program will start at 8:00 p.m.

The high school dance band will play songs and give the history of popular and other different styles of music. They will also play numbers made popular by various bands.

The Crescendos have white corduroy blazers and dark skirts or slacks. The pockets have a music emblem sewed on them.

The 16-member group is made up of students from grades nine through 12. Mr. McLean, Boone High School band instructor, directs the group.

December 10 the Crescendos played for the Iowa Electric Light and Power Company and on December 19 for United Community. Tonight the band is playing for Dayton Homecoming.

Students Learn Many Phases of Math

Boone High Math Club members meet every Wednesday at 7:30 a.m. There are 17 juniors and seniors in the advanced section of the club.

At each meeting, one of the members selects a topic on any phase of math and gives a report on it. This tends to broaden the knowledge of the members in the mathematics fields. It also gives the students a chance to study matters not discussed in regular math classes.

The officers for this year are Jay Pieper, president; John Doran, vice-president; and Karen Bennett, secretary. Mr. Porter, the advanced algebra teacher, is the club sponsor.

Staff Tabulates Bumble 'B' Survey

Results of the recent Bumble 'B' survey taken in the homerooms have been tabulated by the staff.

Seventh graders overwhelmingly agree that they buy the paper sometimes, would like to see more feature stories, and read the Junior Hive news first.

Students of the eighth grade profess that twice as many of them buy a Bumble 'B' sometimes, instead of every issue. Feature stories and jokes rank high among their choices of more reading material, and Junior Hive page gathers their attention first.

Always was the ballot box marked most often among the ninth graders, concerning the selling quality of the paper in the freshman class. Feature stories again out ranked the others suggested as the most wanted copy, and the Junior Hive predominated as the first page read.

Equally balanced in the sophomore class were the results on whether or not the students bought the paper always or sometimes. More pictures and feature copy are wanted by the tenth grade, who read the feature page in the paper first.

Combining the 11th and 12th grades, it is found that slightly more people always buy the paper. They express the desire to see more pictures and feature news, but stated the majority read the news and jokes first.

One hundred and sixty students stated that they would be interested in writing for the paper or joining the staff.

As far as criticisms are concerned, here is a sample of the many constructive ones turned in: "Not enough variety."

"Too much old news."

"Have a homeroom reporter for the junior high homerooms."

"Would like to see more controversial editorials."

"Hunk's Bunk is good, let's have more of it."

"It's a good paper and keeps the students up to date on school happenings."

"It is a very good paper that shows a lot of enthusiasm."

Student Teachers Practice at B.H.S.

Boone High School has two student teachers from Iowa State University for the first six weeks of the winter quarter, which extends from November 30 to January 20. Mrs. Marjorie Luckett is a mathematics major at Iowa State University, and is helping out in the mathematics department in Boone. She is originally from Springfield, Missouri, where she attended the Springfield High School.

Miss Glenda Ferneau majored in art at Iowa State and is practice teaching in the Boone High School art department. Her home town is Grinnell, Iowa.

Y.W.C.A. to Hold Annual Christmas Formal Dance

The Christmas Formal, which is annually sponsored by the Live Y'ers and Hi-Tri groups of the Y.W.C.A., will be held Wednesday, December 23, from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. at the Boone Community Building. Cost of the tickets will be $1.50 per couple and may be purchased from Karen-Shafer, Nancy Parkinson, Sue Moore, or Marcia Ward. Any member of Boone High or Sacred Heart is invited to come.

Cottee Student Visits Y.W.C.A.

Margaret McKinney, a graduate student from Iowa State University, a former Cottee College student, spoke before the Hi-Tri group at the meeting December 7.

She presented a program concerning Cottee, a girls' college at Nevada, Missouri. She showed slides of the college and spoke of its curriculum.

Twenty-five girls from Boone High, Sacred Heart, and Madrid High School were present. Refreshments were served by the local chapters of the P.E.O.

French Club Holds Christmas Party

Joyeux Noel! French Christmas greetings were exchanged Monday, December 14, at the French Club party. Students from United Community were invited to the event held in the lunch room at 3:45 p.m.

President Nancy Westfall welcomed the group and introduced the entertainment. Jean Abbott, accompanied by Ann Senholz, sang 'Winter Wonderland,' alternating the verses in French and English. Karen Hubby read a traditional French Christmas poem. Paul Kratoska then accompanied the group while they sang familiar Christmas carols in French. A short skit presented by the United Community French Club was preceded by Ann Senholz who told of Christmas customs in France.

Refreshments were served from a festively decorated table. Chocolate eclairs, a French delicacy at Christmas time to symbolize the traditional yule log, and punch were served. In the French manner, students placed food in a wicker basket to be given to a needy family.

Committees for the program were, program committee: Karen Hubby, Nancy Westfall, Jean Abbott, and Jean Goeppinger; decoration committee: Tolly Boyd, Linda Coghlan, Vickie Johnson, and Merline Kline; and refreshment committee: Marilyn Adix, Barb Bowley, and Beth Sorenson.

Miss Heaps is the sponsor of the French Club. Guests besides United Community students were Mr. McCarger, the first year French teacher, and Mrs. McCarger.

'Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men'

Christmas is a day for worship, a day to renew our pledge of Christian living, a day for communication with Christ to chant the age-old wish, "Peace on earth, good will toward men."

Unfortunately, there is no real peace on earth, and good will toward men is strictly limited to a few countries, of which our own is particularly blessed. The lesson to be learned from the turmoil of wars and aggression was preached nearly two thousand years ago by Jesus; never yet learned by the human race. His lesson is that the solution to all world problems is spiritual and not military or economic.

It is necessary to change the hearts of men to let in the light of religion and the true spirit of brotherly love. There is no hope for permanent peace today because one nation does not and cannot trust another. The world is in tragic need of the true spirit of Christmas. We in America can do our part by starting a spiritual revival and encouraging mutual trust and respect which must be achieved before "peace on earth and good will toward men" can be fully realized throughout the world.

SPORTLIGHTS

Sharon Jones, born loving basketball, achieved fame in grade school, and in junior high when in ninth grade she received the great pleasure of playing on the varsity team. Since then she has continued to play on varsity as a forward. She practices six hours a week during the school year and also in the summer. The highest score she has made this year was against Ogden with a total of 38. She has earned one letter and two chevrons in girls' basketball.

John Malcom plays first string guard on the varsity basketball team. He started playing the game in grade school and liked it so much that he came out for basketball when he entered junior high and has continued to play ever since. The only thing John doesn't like about basketball is that the games are too short. John comments: "It's fast moving, competitive, fun, and it's a team sport." John has lettered in basketball, track, and baseball. He is also coming out for track again this year. He made the most points in one game when he was a freshman, scoring 32. This year the highest total has been 11.

Dear Ann Slanders:

Dear Ann Slanders,
I'm desperate! My mother-in-law has been with us five years, and every Christmas I have trouble picking out a gift for her. What do you suggest?

'A Desperate Reader'

Dear 'Desperate,'
Try a one-way ticket to Siberia.
Ann Slanders

Dear Ann,
What do you think I've been giving her every Christmas for the last five years?

'The Same Desperate Reader'

Dear Ann Slanders,
I have no friends, relatives, or landlords. My problem is, who am I going to get a present from?
'49865193'

Dear 49865193,
Have you written Santa?

Dear Ann Slanders,
What can I give to my 80-year-old grandmother for Christmas? She is very fond of ice skating and has won the national amateur championship for the last three years.

'Lost'

Dear 'Lost,'
Never mind what to give her, just send us her address.

Falling Snow

See the pretty snowflakes
Falling from the sky;
On the walk and housetops
Soft and thick they lie.
On the window-ledges
On the branches bare;
Now how fast they gather,
Filling all the air.
Look into the garden,
Where the grass was green;
Covered by the snowflakes,
Not a blade is seen.
Now the bare black bushes
All look soft and white,
Every twig is laden—
What a pretty sight.

The Poet's Corner

Out in the barn
On a milking stool
Sat Frantic Freddie,
A real gone ghoul.

His wife's there, too.
She's up in the hay.
She's tied to a rafter
And there she will stay.

Beatnick Betty
Was her name.
Nagging her husband
Won her fame.

The reason she's up there
Is plain to see.
If it's plain to you,
Then please tell me.

Bea's Sting

Hi, kids, for this week's chat I've decided to do something a little different. Hope you all enjoy it.

—M—

Use yours head. It's the little things that count!

—E—

If it's sing, sang, and sung,
Why not bring, brang, brung?
Yet it's eat, ate, eaten,
Not defeat, defate, defeaten.
One may teach and have taught,
Yet may preach, but not have praught.

In English I am very lost,
Confused or should I say confost?

—R—

There once was a deer acting
'cutie'
He slipped and fell on his snootie,
Having broken his nose
It now lights and glows.
We all know his name, it's Rudy.

—R—

Retrospect

I love to do my homework,
It makes me feel so good;
I love to do exactly
As my teachers say I should.
I love my schoolwork very much,
I never miss a day;
And I even love the men in white
Who are taking me away!

—Y—

Kiss beneath the garden gate,
Kiss beneath the rose,
But the nicest place to kiss a boy
Is right beneath the nose.

Santa Visits Pepsters

Ho! Ho! Ho! Santa made a trip from the far away North Pole to visit all the good, little kiddies of the senior high.

Yes, all this came about this morning at a pep assembly. Karen Shafer, the m.c., took all the students to Old St. Nick's work shop for a sneak preview at all the Christmas goodies his elves were making. As the curtain opened, the elves were painting signs for the game tonight and one little fellow was making a special treat for all the basketball team.

The next scene depicted a typical holiday scene—a party, with mistletoe and all the trimmings. Here a number of couples were dancing and discussing the Boone-Des Moines game tonight. In the middle of the act carolers made an appearance singing a revised version of 'Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer.' The curtain was quickly drawn to finish the scene when several of the girls had finally succeeded in getting one fellow under the mistletoe.

Finally Santa made his appearance to give the Toreadorettes a special present—a victory over Valley.

—C—

Close the year with gifts and cards
To people yoo detest and corse!
If you think '59 was bad, friend,
'60 will be much worse.

—Alfred E. Neuman.

—H—

There are other things in the world besides money; there's hunger, sickness, poverty...

—R—

It has been called to my attention that there are 223 boys to every girl in B.H.S. Would my 223 please call Uni. 3374?

—I—

Attention all football heroes! Keep this poem in mind when your girl friend says you're her one and only.

Will you love me and remember
In the sprightly month of May,
As you did, dear, in September,
When I made that touchdown play?

Or will you forget that story,
And your fickle fancy swing
To the dope who wins the glory
At the track meet in the spring?

—S—

Psychiatrist: "Are you troubled by wicked thoughts?"

Patient: "Well... no. Fact is, I kinda enjoy them."

—T—

Congratulations to John Capps for being elected Student Council president. His campaign, as well as that of his opponent, Darrell Richards, was one of the best the school has had in many years.

Christmas Celebrations Begun in Fourth Century

Somewhere in the middle of the fourth century, a day destined to be famous thereafter as Christmas, namely December 25, was formally set aside by the Church in Rome for the observance of the birth of Christ. Since the choice of this day cannot be from tradition, the reason for the church's fastening upon it raises an interesting subject. Some authorities say it was to counteract pagan customs of the period. Others say it was to establish the Church firmly in the minds of the people.

The word Christmas is as distinctly English as Weihnacht is German and Noël is French. It is no older than the twelfth century and came into use, no doubt, through the medieval custom of celebrating Mass at midnight on Christmas Eve, the only time in the year when this was permitted. In itself the name is quite colorless, but by its many happy and holy associations it has become to all English-speaking peoples both radiant and redolent with the religious romance of the ages.

Christmas arrives on December 25 in celebration of the Nativity. The origin of the festival is unknown, but scholars believe that it was derived in part from the pre-Christian rites of Germanic and Celtic Tribal celebrations in the winter.

During the fourth century the use of mistletoe and holly was considered heathen by the Christians during their Christmas festivals, as well as yule logs. The use of the Christmas tree probably found its origin in Rome during the pre-Christian times, and spread later on to Germany and from there to the British Isles.

In later times Christmas celebrations acquired a wide social significance and were expressed in many countries by the exchange of presents, the sending of cards, and the vacation from work and school. The early Dutch settlers brought to the New World the custom of celebrating Santa Claus day on Christmas Eve.

A tree is something that will stand by the side of the road for 50 years and then suddenly jump in front of a woman driver.

Students decorate tree in cafeteria. This was one of the three trees decorated by Student Congress and Student Council.

Realization

I stood beside that starlit crib,
And looked in rapturous awe
Upon the life-like figures there,
And all the things I saw.

A lady sat upon some straw,
Her head was bowed and bent,
A shawl of blue did cover her,
Who was quite tired and spent.

The humble man beside her stood,
His eyes were wet with tears,
He thought of past and present too,
And dark, hard, future years.

Three kings robed well in costly gems,
Did pray beside the poor,
Who left their sheep without a watch,
To come, to see, adore.

But best of all that I did see,
Was a wee Baby Boy,
Who was the Christ, the God and Man.
Who brought the world great joy.

I knelt beside the starlit crib,
And wept with tears so true,
For born that night in Bethlehem
My God! My God! 'Twas you.

Is This You?

Because of the lack of material, you met your opponents with sheer fight and determination. No game was more or less important than another. You wanted to win. It did not take long for you to learn that it takes team effort to defeat your opponents. Maybe there are six or seven of you who play in every game, but what about the players who sit on the sidelines—the ones who take the knocks and blocks during practice? Although they never see action, they play an important role in every game. From them you get the moral support that gives you the drive and desire to win each and every basketball game.

You are making your families, the students, and your community proud of this year's basketball team.

Sherrie Spaur led the Pantherettes in scoring with 15 points, and Joann Kline was next with 12.

Boone Suffers Loss to Roosevelt

The 'Sweet Georgia Brown' boys, under the coaching of Paul Lambert, swayed under the onslaught of the Roosevelt Rough Riders. The Boone basketball team seemingly never recovered from the first quarter defeat. Roosevelt had control of the boards from quarter to quarter, leaving Boone with little fast-break material.

Roosevelt, after obtaining a first period lead, continued to hold this position throughout the remaining quarters. Ed Bittle raked in 19 rebounds and 16 points. Jay Robert also of Roosevelt netted 17 points for game high honors. High scoring honors for Boone were held mutually by Don Dutton and Darrell Richards with 12 each, tallying the final score to 54-37.

Score by quarters:

Roosevelt	13	28	37	53
Boone	6	14	20	37

JUNIOR HIVE

Student Reads 92 Books in Nine Weeks

Can you imagine reading 92 books in nine weeks? The girl in the picture above did. Her name is Sally Brown and she is in the seventh grade. She read these books for her reading design. She read biographies, career, adventure, science, and animal stories. Her favorite of all categories was horse stories.

At the present time, she is working on another project concerning books. This time she is reading 12 fiction favorites. She is trying to discover why these books are favorites of girls.

On top of all her book work, Sally went out for girls' basketball and takes piano lessons.

She obtains all of her reading material from the Ericson and Boone Junior High Library.

A man went to an insurance office to apply for life insurance.

The insurance agent inquired, "Do you drive a car?"

"No," replied the applicant.

"Do you fly?"

"No."

"Sorry," said the agent curtly, "but we no longer insure pedestrians."
