Favorite Classes and Parting Words of Advice

Edward Babbit

"[My favorite class is] probably Consumer Math. It teaches you things you don't learn in Algebra like taxes or buying a car."
"Stay on top of your homework and don't skip school."

Siena Matthews

"[My favorite class is] probably Art. I like painting, the water colors section, and just drawing in general. It's my hobby and my passion. It teaches me techniques I didn't think of before."
"Don't skip school."

Ryan Young

"[My favorite class is] Calculus because of the stories that go on and I just like the class material."
"Keep on top of things, don't fall behind, and always make time for yourself."

Melissa Briggs

"[My favorite class is] Algebra II with Wells because he always made it fun and interesting."
"Start really thinking about what you want to do after high school and visiting colleges during junior year because senior year flies by and deadlines come fast."

Daniel Bouk

"My favorite class is Pre-Calc mostly because it's easy and pretty straight forward."
"Don't put your homework off to the last minute."

Danielle Meadows

"[My favorite class is] Orchestra because I've been in it for so long and this is my last year. I'll miss it a lot."
"Get involved as much as you can because high school goes by really quickly."

Mason Hawley

"[My favorite class is] probably Pottery because it's the first time I've done it in high school."
"Take the classes you want and make sure you get them."

Alyssa McCabe

"[My favorite class is] Government with Bachman--we never do anything and I always crack jokes with him."
"Work hard the first few years because it will make your senior year a breeze."

Jack LaFollette

"[My favorite class is] Criminal Justice at DMACC because they taught us how to tell when people are lying."
"Don't slack off, it will make the rest of your high school career so much easier."

Haley Masker

"[My favorite classes are] World Lit I and Advanced Studies with Olson because they're interesting and we get to talk about things we normally don't get to."
"My advice for kids is to be yourself and don't conform to what's popular. Be yourself and you can make it through."

Otis McWilson Jr.

"[My favorite class is] AP Spanish, it's a challenge but I like a good challenge here and there."
"Study hard, do your homework first and then have all the time in the world to have fun."

Kaitlyn Lewis

"I've always liked English and Mrs. Schuler because it's easy going and she's fun."
"Stay in school and don't skip."
