FACULTY ADVISORS

Mr. Carlson
 Miss Schild

We are sorry that we couldn't get any member of the measles club to pose.

Fair One to Ralph Merkel:—"Is there an assembly today, Ralph?"

Ralph:—"How should I know?"

Fair One:—"You're all dressed up."

Ralph is one of the few people who deems it necessary to dress up for an assembly.

Jerome Wells to Claude Houghton:—"See my report card—93, 91, 95. But, just wait till I get my French grade!"

Claude:—"Oui, Oui."

Jerome:—"It'll be 'wee' all right."

Tramp, tramp, tramp, the boys are marching,
 But don't get frightened at all.
 It's only "yours truly", Miss Perry,
 My shoes sure do squeak in the hall.
 —W. P.

Have you heard of my wonderful trombone?
 I'm a scientist, actor, and wit;
 "Roundy" Carlson the pupils all call me,
 There's no place in which I don't fit.
 —H. E. C.

 Chicago, Ill.

(What possible reason was there for Mr. Daehler receiving the above?)

Teacher to Emil T.—"Why were you tardy today."
 Emil:—"Class began before I got there."

Warren Otis:—"Well, Marion, you're getting very bent. Why don't you stand up straight like me?"

Marion Lithgow:—"Eh, man, do you see that field of corn over there?"

Warren:—"I do."

Marion:—"Well you'll notice that the full heads hang down and the empty ones stand up."

Miss C. to Lester Sutton:—"Do you have your lesson today?"

Lester:—"No, I'm against preparedness in all forms."

Things That Make Life Miserable for the Board.

"Say, when are the Annuals coming out?"

"Was my class picture good? Which one did you like the best?"

"You ought to put 'this' in the Annual."

"Is the Scroll going to be as good as last year?"

"Is there much work in putting out the book?"

"To whom are you going to dedicate it?"

"If you run that picture of me and my girl, I'll break every bone in your body."

"I trust that your joke section will be exceedingly humorous this year. Of course you must mention no names or persons, expose no 'bone-heads,' and scrupulously avoid all slams, and above all, don't run any jokes on the Faculty!"

A WORM'S EYE VIEW OF THE HIGH SCHOOL

A Message

TO THE BUSINESS MEN:

You, whose advertisements appear in these pages, have given The Scroll a support which shows that the business-men are backing the students of Boone's High School. Now, more than ever before, is the time for co-operation between the businessman and the young man and woman in the high school. You have shown this co-operation by helping us go "over the top" with a greater support than has ever been accorded The Scroll. Our contact with you, our personal talks, your advice has broadened, strengthened and helped us beyond measure. The Scroll Staff thanks you and its only wish is that its members can return tenfold the favors you have given us.

TO THE READER:

This High School Annual has been made possible by the loyal support of our merchants. "One good turn deserves another." In patronizing our advertisers, the Senior is repaying an obligation, the Under Classman is repaying a future obligation. "Do your bit." Patronize the merchants of Boone. Favor the advertisers of The Scroll.

W. GLENN JONES.

The Freshmen and Sophomores I teach.
I know lots of things about science,
In that I am surely a peach.

Well done, my faithful pony,
 You are a gallant steed!
 In my examinations
 You were a friend indeed.

I fed you, and I groomed you,
 And I curried you with care,
 Until, I ween, your sleekness
 Was unrivaled anywhere.

How well the run you managed!
 Prof. never heard a sound
 Of the clatter of your hoof-beats
 As you galloped safely round.

Now in your stall, my pony
 Repose, and chew your hay;
 And wax more strong and hearty
 For exams another day.

A FELLER'S RELATIONS

If there's anything in this wide world that makes a feller mad,
 It's to have his blamed relations allus pickin' on the lad.
 They are allus tellin' things they know and things they do not know
 About a guy to vex him if he doesn't do jus' so.
 They go a-talkin' 'bout his clothes and how he ought ter dress,
 "Not by style, but pocketbook"; but now you must confess
 That if those meddlin' folks of his would practice what they preach,
 They'd learn the noble lesson which they try so hard to teach.
 If on Sunday he goes fishin', oh, my! but how they rave,
 And say that he's more wicked than their Jim, or Jack, or Dave.
 Now, if they'd only go their way and let a feller be,
 There wouldn't be a better chap in the neighborhood than he.
 So let 'em be careful and try right hard to keep
 Their own dusty doorway clean, ere another guy's they sweep.

—Nellie Stumbo '20

Do you happen to know Miss Snyder?
 Then surely you must know me.
 For we are one and inseparable—
 Miss Margaret Heaps, I be.

—M. E. H.

Oh curls and twirls are my hobby,
 I'm a teacher of scales and trills.
 Miss Thelin's my name, if you ask me,
 My clothes surely run up the bills.

Freshman Letter

One of the dignified Seniors picked up the following letter which had been dropped by one of our Freshmen babes, a few days before Christmas vacation. Such a significant literary achievement should not fail to be in print,—so here goes:

Boone, Iowa, Dec. 18, 1917.

Dear Santa Claus:

I'm only a little Freshman boy, and I'm not going to ask for much—only please Santy,—I wisht you would bring me a few things. Most of all, I'd like to have a nice present to give Miss Rolston, so maybe she won't pick on me no more or chase me up and down the hall when I don't know nothing. And I'd like to have a 95 in English and General Science, and a new bow tie for Sunday, so I can get a date with the pretty girl with the yellow curls they call Isabel, that sits by me.

Now, Santa, if you will give me just these few things, I will be awfully good this year, and I will tell all the rest of my friends what a good Santa I have.

Goodbye,
KENNETH GREENE.

— MR MENDENHALL —

SECOND COOK
AND BOTTLE-WASHER.

I love a big white apron,
A dish-pan and a towel,
Some nice, warm, soapy water
To banish every scowl.

I love Home Economics,
I like the teacher, too.
I find it's very helpful
To learn to cook and stew.

I hope there's no objection
To this little stunt of mine.
I trust 'twill soon pass over
If you'll only give me time.

Cox:—"Get some classy pictures—some of these fake kisses."
Mary Brown:—"I'd hate to trust Cox at a fake kiss."

In Times Like These

when Patriotism issues its highest call, when the spirits of men leap within them and flame with the fire of patriotic sacrifice as they read the heroic story of brave deeds on land, in the air, on the sea; in times like these, we, who stay at home, cannot help wishing that we could do "something like that;" render to the common cause some great service. Ut But let us not forget that patriotism is a spirit, not merely an act; that the housewife, the farmer, the mechanic, the school boy or girl, can discharge the trifling daily task with the same high spirit of Lincoln, or of the soldier in the trenches.

SEPTEMBER.

Tuesday, 4—Fall round-up of Freshmen.
(Things look extremely green for the fall of the year.)

Wednesday, 5—A new plan—school opens at 8:30. Many breakfasts missed, and much hustling. (Genevieve J. just gets in on time.)

Friday, 7—Happy day! School dismissed early.

Monday, 10—Fall rains begin, also tardies. We have something new this year—"Physical Torture."

Thursday, 13—Bumble "B" subscriptions taken—Popular Paper—450 subscriptions!!

Sunday, 16—Preacher says we must love one another. Well—these autumn nights—

Wednesday, 19—Win. J.:—I guess I'd better take some tea tonight to keep me awake." Two hours later she was seen with Glenn.

Friday, 21—Terrible crime—George James is "Lynched."

Monday, 24—
Jack Wells had a stick of gum,
He chewed it long and slow,
And everywhere that Jackie went
That gum was sure to go.

Wednesday, 26—You ought o' seen Donald Clapp's green socks.

Friday, 28—Fred Goeppinger accidentally falls into Honey Creek—sweet boy!

OCTOBER

Monday, 1—Why this sudden hush?
Verna Hunter is out of school.

Friday, 5—Genevieve J.—"Mary Frances, lend me a nickel for a minute."
Mary F.—"Wait a minute, and you won't need it."

Saturday, 6—Did we beat Lake City?
Yea—Bo-o-o-o!!!

Monday, 8—Ruth McMahon:—"Say, Clarence scratched his hand something awful on a pin in the back of my dress last night."

Wednesday, 10—"Somebody's" theory of "meter:"

"There are meters of accent,
And meters of tone,
But the best of all meters
Is to meet 'er alone."

Saturday, 13—Boone 27, Humboldt 0.

Monday, 15—Miss Boies and Miss Laux show their ability and long experience by teaching Russell Johnson to make love like John Alden.

Wednesday, 17—Mr. Fischer is trying to sing like Schumann-Heink. Result doubtful.

Friday, 19—Seniors elect ossifers.

Saturday, 20—Boone-Indianola.
Was it 5? No! Was it 10. No!
What was it? 13-13-13!!!

Monday, 22—Great woe among students—Hershey bars begin to get scarce.

Friday, 26—Leslie Mackey, one of our soldier boys, visits us.
At last the long hoped for "Mendy" appears, and charms us for a few brief moments. Some pep-meeting!

Friday, 27—Tragedy in two halves—
Newton 35, Boone 6.

Tuesday, 30—Mendy and Fischer, at masquerade, make large sum as monkey and organ grinder.

Wednesday, 31—Wm. Morgan:—"Did your watch stop when it dropped on the floor?"

THE END OF THE TERM.

Now the term is ending
And "exams" are nigh,
Shadows dark of "flunking"
Flit across the sky.
O, teacher ask each fellow
Questions that he knows.
Merciful compassion
Will assuage our woes.
When you send our grades home
Upon our little cards,
Place upon the paper
Figures that look large.

The stuff is writ,
The ink is dry,
Our work is done,
The end is nigh;
And now let's all
Join in and shout,
"Hip—hip, hooray,
The blamed book's out!"
