

CALENDAR

September 2. The "Co's" and "Eds" enroll.

September 8. School starts after three months of vacation that went altogether too fast for most of us.

September 9. We wait in line for interminable ages to get our locker keys.

September 11. Vacation already! The teachers attend county institute.

September 14. The Bumble "B" gives us a most entertaining assembly.

September 17. The junior and senior classes hold meetings for the purpose of nominating committees. The Student Council elects officers at its first meeting.

September 18. Sophomore class chooses its nominating committee. We beat Scranton 26-2, even if it did rain!

September 23. Extra-curricular activities start. Science and Social Science clubs hold their first meetings for the purpose of electing officers. Phyllis Davidson, a sophomore, leads the Y's Co-Eds.

September 24. Yell leaders are chosen in assembly. The college boys have compassion on themselves and elect a girl secretary to do all the work. Williams is president.

September 25. The new yell leaders demonstrate their ability at our first pep meeting. Boone defeats Story City, 19-0.

September 29. The classes elect their officers. Dr. Hoffman of Persia speaks and shows slides of that country in an assembly.

September 30. Masque & Buskin and B. H. S. Players hold their first meetings. The second issue of the Bumble "B" announces class officers. Thus ended the first month of school.

October 1. We are assigned definite seats in the auditorium, and an assembly is held for the purpose of finding them.

October 2. The P. T. A. holds its state convention in Boone. Webster City defeats Boone, 8-7, at Webster City.

October 7. "Circle Francais" elects Messieurs Adix and Tillson to govern.

October 9. We play Roosevelt at Des Moines, losing to them, 7-6.

October 13. Science Club elects charter member, Fitzgerald as president.

October 14. The Boone Junior College men report for basketball.

October 16. Question: Was the Junior College party a success?

October 17. Oskaloosa 14—Boone 7. Too bad!

October 21—Dr. Adams Puffer speaks in assembly on "How to Choose Your Vocation".

October 21. Our parents are given a taste of our school life on Parents' School Night. Dr. Adams Puffer is the speaker, his subject being, "How to Use Your Leisure Time".

October 23. Creston 13—Boone 19. Sounds better, doesn't it?

October 29. C. E. Lofgren speaks in assembly and shows moving pictures of the

CALENDAR

Byrd Expedition in Little America. He had with him an adorable Eskimo dog named Tommy, quite a popular creature with the ladies.

October 30. Everywhere red and green. Today is color day and students and faculty are all bedecked in red and green, for 'tis rumored dire punishment is meted out to those not flaunting the colors of B. H. S.. We are defeated by Ft. Dodge, 25-0.

November 6. The "Howling Hundred" makes its debut at the pep meeting before the Perry game. Perry 0-Boone 0.

November 10. A Junior College hard-times party was very appropriate in this age of depression.

November 11. We celebrate Armistice Day by tying Ames, 7-7. Do you s'pose we're overcoming the jinx?

November 13. The teachers convene in Des Moines and we have two days of vacation.

November 20. The Junior High presents "Cinderella".

November 23. The B. H. S. Players entertain us in assembly with a one act play, entitled, "What's the Matter With Mother?"

November 26. Marshalltown defeats Boone 18-6 in the annual Turkey-day game.

November 27. We recover from the effects of the day before.

November 30. The college orchestra and glee club, as well as the modernized "Hamlet" make their premier showing in the junior college assembly.

December 3. Robert Zimmerman gives a very entertaining as well as instructive address on deep sea diving.

December 4. The junior college declares an illegal holiday. "The Swan" was a success. At least there was more than a fifteen cent profit.

December 9. Twenty-six brave souls try out for yell leaders.

December 10. The first declamatory try-out is held in assembly.

December 11. We think our new yell leaders are plenty good! We defeat Story City, 16-14.

December 17. More "declaimers" speak in assembly.

December 18. Boone 16, Grinnell 14. School closes for Christmas vacation.

December 22. We defeat Ogden in a charity game.

December 23. Alumni of B. J. C. are entertained.

December 29. East Hi (Des Moines) meets a 27-26 defeat.

January 4. Our dear teachers welcome us back to school with open arms.

January 5. B. J. C. basketeers begin the New Year right. Score 29-11 against Des Moines Catholic college.

January 8. Two dramatic selections are given in an assembly. B. J. C. 24, Marshalltown 9.

January 8. Another declam try-out.

January 8. B. J. C. defeats Marshalltown Junior College, 24-9.

January 9. We are forced to bow to the Marshalltown Bobcats, 16-10.

January 9. The Toreadors suffer their second defeat at the hands of the Marshalltown Bobcats.

January 12. The members of the Scroll staff entertain the junior and the senior

JUNIOR COLLEGE BASKETBALL—(Continued from page 80)

Captain Dyer's consistency in controlling the tip-off, and also his fine leadership made him one of the most valued players on the squad. Reid and Canakes, stellar forwards, accounted for the majority of the three hundred two points that the Bears piled up during the entire season. This alone pleased Coach Evans as much as the number of games won.

The season's record is as follows:

Boone 26	Alumni 16
Boone 31	D. M. Catholics 16
Boone 24	Marshalltown 9
Boone 27	Ft. Dodge 41

Herman Hull:—"Not now father! Wait till women get better wages."

Mr. Cunningham:—"How did they discover iron?"

John Gustafson:—"They smelt it."

Miss Morgan:—"Why are you late to school, Janet?"

Janet Martin:—"Well I saw a sign down the street which said, 'School Ahead. Go Slow'."

Howard Lyon:—"Isn't Freddie Mauck a wonderful conductor?"

Frank Sanders:—"I don't know. I so seldom use the street car."

Professor:—"This is the third time you have looked on Percival's paper."

Student:—"Yes sir. He doesn't write very plainly."

Mrs. Gunn:—"Frederick, who were the Apostles?"

Frederick:—"The wives of the Epistles."

Miss Murray:—"Are you familiar with mathematics?"

James Barrow:—"Yep, I call 'em Math for short."
