Miss Stena Hansen . . . . .	Adviser . . . . .	Miss Stena Hansen

THE Social Science Club consists of sixty-two members, all of whom strove this last year to reach the club's aim, to further educate the members along economic and governmental lines.

Several local people spoke before the club, furthering its worthy purpose. Among these were Mr. L. R. Johnson, who informed the students on the functions of the electoral group, and Mr. M. C. Williams, county attorney, and former member of the Social Science Club.

Along with serious educational programs there were, for variety, a few meetings planned solely for entertainment. A Thanksgiving play was enjoyed by the members, and at another time Lillian Holloman, a former Boone High student, told, with the aid of a map and fascinating pictures, about her recent trip to Scotland.

Each year the Social Science Club renders a service to the school and community by sponsoring a Christmas tree on which students place gifts of food, clothing, and toys to be distributed to the poor.

Public Speaking

"He now speaks 'ex-temp'
With the greatest of ease!
The timid young man
On the weak, trembling knees!"

THIS year excelled all others in the field of speaking, for we had one hundred and five entered in extemporaneous speaking and sixty-five in declamatory work. Sixteen from the one hundred and five entered in the extemporaneous speaking competed in the inter-class meet with ten surviving. Of those ten Dorothea Jipp, Marie Seymour, Angie Dickeson, Florence Moore, and Eleanor Sparks were the victors in the semi-finals. The finals were held before the High School Parent Teachers' Association. The judges, Mr. Harley Walker, Mr. Drake, and Mr. Tillotson, chose Eleanor Sparks to represent Boone at the sub-district contest at Perry, but she was defeated there.

At the same time, students interested in declamatory were doing their bit to put Boone High on the map. Of the sixty-five who started the work, all but eleven were eliminated. Eight of these lost out in the home contest, which was judged by Dr. Harry Barnes, who chose Avis Dodge as the winner in the oratorical division, Dorothea Jipp in the dramatic, and Dorothy Robertson in the humorous. Avis Dodge and Dorothy Robertson passed the preliminaries, but lost in the sub-district contest.

In both of these fields of speaking Miss Lamb, the coach, tried a new method. The plan was to divide the contestants into groups and meet with them once a week. After a time, the group meetings were dispensed with and private lessons were given the contestants. This plan worked advantageously for both the coach and the students.

Gridiron Season in Review

AFTER trouncing Eldora the week before by a score of 53 to 7, the Boone High Toreadors suffered their only defeat of the season when Oskaloosa took them by the small score of 7 to 6. Boone scored early but failed to make the extra point. In the last quarter Oskaloosa uncorked a pass which went for a touchdown.

Boone High defeated Jefferson, 26 to 0, and then tied Roosevelt of Des Moines the next week, 6 to 6. During the Jefferson game nearly every player saw action, but the Roosevelt game proved to be a much tougher combat. The Toreadors were behind until the last quarter when they came over the goal with a touchdown to tie the game.

By steady and good playing the Toreadors defeated the Bobcats of Marshalltown, 7 to 0. It was one of the best games of the season.

Another very good game was the tie that came off when Boone played Fort Dodge. The score was 0 to 0. Both teams were evenly matched, but by great fighting spirit they kept each other from scoring. Boone proved to be very much the better when Newton was tripped up by a score of 32 to 19.

In the last game of the season, with the old rival, Ames, a third tie of the gridiron season was chalked up by a score of 7 to 7. Ames took advantage of a break and scored early in the first quarter. In the last quarter the Boone High footballers made an 82-yard drive to tie up the game. Only by putting "the spirit to fight" on a working basis were the Toreadors able to score. This season definitely proves that Boone is ready for the best and biggest opponents in the state. It marks a turning point in Boone's fighting spirit. No more can it be said that another team has a "jinx" on Boone.

BASKET-BALL

ONCE again the mid-year evil dampened Boone High's hopes of being a state champion contender! Starting at the first of the season the Boone High team was one of the best, well-balanced fives in the state. Coach Mau and his assistant, Clarence Bain, had a wealth of material with which to work. With the help of Enich, K. Anderson, and G. Brogden, who finished their school work at the end of the first semester, the Toreadors completed the first half of the season with only one defeat. The climax of the season was reached when Boone defeated Newton during mid-season to become the conference leaders in the first series of conference games.

After the loss of the before mentioned three veterans, the revamped Toreador team bravely faced the remainder of the season. By steady and sensible playing, plus the ability to make free throws, Boone defeated Fort Dodge and Grinnell in very close games. From then on, Boone won only one more of the scheduled games, that being another close game with East High of Des Moines.

The Sectional Tourney was held at Perry. Boone easily out-scored Madrid and Rippey and entered the finals against Perry. This game proved to be to the liking of the Perry five as it defeated the Toreadors.

During the second semester the squad was much smaller but played some very good basket-ball. In the forward positions several boys gave good accounts of themselves—Paul Brogden, Young, Grayson, Vernal Anderson, and McIntosh. Dutton handled the center job very creditably and Crouthamel became a serious threat for the position toward the end of the season. Washington, Schroeder, and C. Hendricks handled the back court job. Hendricks was a new face to Boone fans, having come here from Stratford.

Paul Brogden won the free throw championship conducted during the season, and as a reward will have his name placed upon the plaque presented to the school by the local Junior Chamber of Commerce.

G. Brogden was the leading conference scorer the first semester. Anderson ranked fifth.

Mike Enich and G. Brogden were placed on the Second All Conference Team.

Guy Brogden was honorary captain for the season.

Kenneth Anderson and George Dutton placed on the all conference honor roll and Rex Grayson placed on the all state honor roll.

Pep Club

THE Pep Club, organized in the school year 1936-37, was composed of senior high boys and girls who evinced a willingness to yell and show enthusiasm at athletic contests. Yell leaders Bruce Corl and Frances O'Connell were instrumental in starting the group.

During the first semester of this year, red and green felt caps with the letters "B. H. S." on the side were purchased by the members.

At Pep Club meetings new yells were tried and learned, novel songs were practiced with the co-operation of the band, and old yells were polished up.

A special interurban was chartered to take the group to the Fort Dodge football game last fall. A hundred tickets were sold, about fifty for band members and fifty for pepsters.

This year there were approximately sixty members in the group of students who organized to furnish some support and pep for Boone High competitive sports.

Mother Goose Convention

Hiss! Squeak! Crash! Bang! Think nothing of it. It's just the "Mother Goose Convention" meeting in the o-o-ld town hall. Well, if it isn't Mother Goose, herself; or is it Dorothy Robertson? Blamed if I can see a thing with these new fangled spectacles! Want to say a word to the folks, Mother Goose? What's that? You'll take complete charge? Now isn't that fine? Just go right ahead! There's Simple Simon over there in the corner. What's that? You say it looks just like Jimmy Reynoldson? Never mind! Never mind! Now folks, Mother Goose will take complete charge and introduce some of her god-children to you. Mother Goose! (Applause and cat calls.)

Well, folks, (more applause) it gives me great pleasure to see all of you here; and now we will proceed with the program. Tommy Smith Tucker will sing our theme song, "We Won't Get Home Until Morning," which he wants to dedicate to Mary Quite Contrary Jo Bostwick. Thank you, Tommy; that was lovely. And now I will read a sentimental poem which is dedicated to Little Blanche Muffet:

Little maiden,
Better tarry;
Time enough next year to marry.
Hearts may change,
And so may fancy;
Wait a little longer, Blanche.

We hope you won't take it too much to heart, Blanche, but a word in time saves nine, or something.

Our star reporter, Walter Dean Wilson Winchell, will give you some juicy tidbits of gossip—Mr. Winchell.

Ladies and gentlemen:

It gives me great pleasure to appear
Before you and give you the news.
If something I say should almost bring tears,
My humblest pardon I offer to youse.

Flash!! New York:

Just received news that the Bug-house Symphony quartette, composed of Lander, Jorgenson, Rice and Davis, Esqs., has been contracted for a week's engagement at the Metropolitan Opera House.

Hoochie Koochie, Egypt:

Ellsworth Vines Busby, heir to the Busby millions (of what?), just before setting sail for Long Island after his Egyptian tennis exhibition, announced his engagement to Miss Helen Hedrick.

Underhills, Calif.:

"Mutt" Phillips, hero of millions of nightmares, has announced his selection of a career. After his resounding reception at Minors Hall in Underhills, he has decided to devote his ability to toe dancing.

Bad-dag, Russia:

Because of the acclamation of thousands of listeners, the sponsors of the Un-natural Soprano, Orville Casebolt, have decided to keep him in Bad-dag another year. P. C. (Personal Comment): Maybe they think the solitary confinement will increase his popularity.

That's all, folks.

Thank you, Mr. Winchell. I will close the program with the reading of one of my favorite poems.

Little Jack Horner sat in a corner
Eating his Christmas pie.
He stuck in his thumb and pulled out a plumb,
And said, "I'll take vanilla."

G'night, folks!

National Honor Society

A CHAPTER of the National Honor Society was organized at Boone High School in 1933. The aim of this organization is to hold before the school such motives as shall induce students to aspire to scholarly habits, enlist in worthy service and lead forth in all things that shall advance the welfare of the school.

Students chosen as members must excel in scholarship, character, leadership, and service and must rank in the upper third of their class. They must pledge eternal loyalty to the society which represents the fundamental objectives for which schools are instituted and which recognizes those who have most nearly attained the desired standards. Members are allowed to wear the honor pin upon which is emblazoned a keystone, symbolizing high ideals, and a flaming torch, the emblem of purpose. This year those who received this coveted honor were: Tom Atherton, Agnes Benson, Mary Burke, Mike Enich, Mildred Fetzer, Edith Gunn, Dolores May, Dwight Morrison, Pauline Mueller, Mildred Olander, Annabel Pepper, Angeline Poulos, Juanita Richmond, Dorothy Robertson, Junior Savereid, Maxine Stephens, Mary Stump, Jean Temple, Paul Thorngren, William Updegraff, Virginia Vail, James Wallace, Lois Wilson, Ina Mae Zimbelman.

Junior Epitaphs

Paul Brogden was a tiny twirp,
He was a bit witty and liked to chirp.
One bum joke sent him to his grave;
His head was split with a barrel stave.

* * *

Milo Miller went through the war;
But he didn't get the least bit sore.
One day he tried a revolving door;
Now Milo isn't anymore.

* * *

Harry died a sudden death;
By some 'twas said 'twas better.
He burst a lung and lost his breath
While showing off his letter.

* * *

Here lies the body of brave Eudora
Who set the fella's hearts a-flutter;
But when our "Scoop" stepped to her door,
Her heart gave 'way without a sputter.

* * *

Philip Ruschmeyer was his name;
No brawn nor muscle could he claim;
But he could really wag his tongue
And did his part to think up fun.

* * *

Here you will find under six feet of mud
The ghastly remains of Frank Linderblood.
They say that he died when he lost a debate
With Mary Jo who refused him a date.

* * *

Johnny Shadle lies in peace;
We thought his "line" would never cease.
He yelled too hard one day in meeting
And now the angels (?) he is greeting.

Here lies Max Hall, the much admired,
Who'd fight through swamps and sages.
He passed away because he was fired,
And so could collect no wages.

* * *

Jane was really a sweet little girl—
Clayton thought her quite a pearl.
But now his heart with grief is torn—
She blew too hard on her big "slip-horn."

* * *

Here lie the remains of Kenny Jones,
Some thought him a saint—some thought him a rip.
The poison that killed him completely dead
Was that charming flame—Dorothea Jipp.

* * *

As to why dear (?) Clayton died
Any knowledge is denied.
But to see his short straight hair
You'd think he'd had an awful scare.

* * *

Here beneath the cold, cold ground
Lies Betty Knudson, plump and round.
'Tis too bad she left so soon.
For she could really play a tune.

* * *

Marie Seymour was a bright little maid,
A phenomenal salary she was paid.
She made up the problems to fill a book,
But to figure the answers she completely forsook.

BUSY SENIORS

BUCKLES only ranks first in this feature,
As he alone knows more than the teacher.

UPDEGRAFF, of course, would be the next,
For his sole companion has been his text.

SAVERIED comes running right up to third,
For he's important in this scholarship herd.

YOUNG'S always busy writing it seems,
Say, LaVonne, are they love notes or just English themes?

STEPHENS comes fifth in this race for success,
Maybe it's because of her ability to guess.

ENICH'S outstanding in scholarship and sports,
That's why he wears the green and red shorts.

NICHOLSON can be fairly bright at times,
So he at least ought to rate two lines.

INA MAE Z. the dear loving soul,
Is down here still striving to reach her goal.

O'CONNELL flits around like a boid in a cage,
My! She's the busiest gal for her age!

RICHMOND rates "one" in a subject each hour,
And still looks just like a fresh blooming flower.

SUMMERS doesn't show that he uses his mind,
But just the same we can see through his blind.

CALENDAR

Benny Boone High's Diary

September:

8. School started today with the usual rush for books and the usual deflation of the purse.
9. Locker assignments. What a mob!
18. S-s-boom! Rah! Played our first football game of the year with Eldora. We grabbed the victory with a score of 53 to 7.
24. Mayor Irwin spoke to us today on safety in driving.
25. County Institute. No school! Played Oskaloosa tonight. Gave them a touch-down but took the kick, 7 to 6.
28. Murdered! Boone High's yells. Murderers—students. Pratt, Casebolt and Shadle committed the perfect crime, so they got the job.

October:

1. Declam started today, which means all work—no play.
2. Raised the roof in our pep meeting. As a result, we showed Jefferson how to play football by giving them the zero of the score 26 to 0.
6. Herbert C. White, a man who has spent most of his life in China, provided the entertainment today in an assembly. He showed pictures of China, and had several paintings with him worth $200.00 apiece.
13. Red Letter Day. Received first report cards.
16. Gala color day. Home coming game with Marshalltown, topped off by a colossal pep meeting. The score was in our favor, 6 to 0.
18. U. S. Navy Band, directed by Lt. Charles Benter, entertained the public today at the H. S. Auditorium.
27. Junior College students enjoyed themselves at a party. Was it a wow! (Ask the J. C.'s)
30. Fort Dodge took the wind from our sails by topping the score at 0 to 0. Chartered the interurban to go.

November:

2. Charles Brown lectured about Indians. He did several Indian dances and explained Indian life and lore.
3. Frank Fielding, a human guinea pig, took away the monotony of school life today. Although he has been inoculated with all diseases, he lives on. What a man!
5. Hurrah! Two days vacation for Teachers' Convention.
6. Newton took the little end of the score, 32 to 19, in the game at night.
11. "Bugbear" Ames just can't let us gloat. They had to tie us, 7 to 7.
17. "Hollywood dogs entertain school." Mr. Browning, trainer and owner of "Rinlo" and "Rinlo Jr.," made the "doggies" perform for us today. They did everything from imitating Garbo to playing dead.
18. Masque and Buskin Dramatic Club presented two plays for the P. T. A., entitled "One Word Alone" and "Park Lights."
19. Two non-decision debates between Newton and Boone given here.
26. Thanksgiving means two things to me—vacation and turkey. I am going to enjoy both. Au revoir!
30. First day back and Dr. Harper, president of Simpson College, addressed us on education. "Humor, common sense and personality" describe him.

December:

1. Decoration Day? You said it! Report cards.
3. Mothers' dinner given by the senior high girls' home economics class.
4. Bang! Boone began her basket-ball season by sweeping Roosevelt High off their feet, 21 to 16.
5. Debate tournament held at Perry permitting Boone debaters to win four debates.
8. Junior College had a party in the form of a carnival. What price hilarity?
10. Moving pictures today. "Death Takes No Holiday," starring Death, and "Stop That Thief," starring Fraud. Two Iowa Highway Patrolmen put on the entertainment.

11. Zowie! A double victory. Boone took the bacon from East High, 24 to 20, and our Junior College won their first game from Webster City, 18 to 15.
Debate Tournament was held at Newton. Our team won nine and lost five.
15. The teachers must have been complaining, for we had an assembly about our hearing today.
16. Audiometer tests for Junior High.
Boone High Players, aided by the glee clubs, gave a beautiful Christmas nativity play for the High School P. T. A.
17. Audiometer tests started in Senior High. For once, in the history of Boone High, all is quiet!
18. Boone Junior College beat Des Moines Four C's College, 24 to 18.
Maybe there is a Santa Claus! We get a two weeks' vacation to find out.
Boone High shines even at Grinnell by giving them the smaller end of the 38 to 32 score.
21. Again the Toreadors sally forth to bring back from Albia the score, 36 to 33, (in our favor.)
22. Our luck changes—Boone 41, Centerville 42.
30. You can't keep a good team down. Boone proved it by sending Oskaloosa back with the little end of the score 30 to 21.

January:

2. Debate session held at Fort Dodge yielded us four debates.
4. Back in the harness again.
Fort Dodge Junior College defeated our boys in their fair metropolis tonight, 30 to 19.
Our second team is progressing, too. They showed Ogden what kind of stuff they were made of. Boone 25, Ogden 18.
7. The entertainment is getting "ritzy" around here. Today, a master potter, by the name of Edwin M. Dill, spoke to us and made several articles.
8. Whee! Hot Copy! Boone beat Ames at Ames, 39 to 33.
12. Debaters journeyed to Iowa State College to compete against their debaters at the afternoon forum.
The Junior College trimmed the Iowa Falls team there, 39 to 37.
13. Cast chosen for the dramatic clubs public play and work began.
Y-Coeds had a covered dish dinner at the Y. W. C. A.
The H. S. Band entertained the P. T. A. along with the Gym Exhibition.
15. Woe is me! Six weeks tests again, but the basket-ball game cheered me a little. Boone High took the glory from Marshalltown, 31 to 17, but our Junior College didn't do so well. Marshalltown submerged them, 35 to 25.
22. Got new semester schedules today along with a grand rush for classes.
Boone went to Newton and came home with the majority of the score—27 to 17.
23. "Hot Dogs!" (Not those you eat, but the ones you stand on.) This was the day you get your books.
A little joy though—our debaters journeyed to Rockwell City to win five out of eight debates in a tournament there.
26. Boone went Fort Dodge one better, winning 29 to 28 on the "Dodger's" floor.
28. Worry! Worry! Report cards today. Both the negative and affirmative debate teams journeyed to Perry to come back the winners of two debates held there.
29. Basket-ball victory is ushered forward by Boone again, for they beat Grinnell 23 to 21.

February:

1. Exclusive news! The teachers had a party at Miss Shaler's and we weren't invited!
2. Declam elimination contests began today.
3. A good time was had by both the Boone and Perry debaters as they held two non-decision debates here today.
5. The three-act comedy entitled, "New Fires," was ably presented by the combined dramatic clubs.
The Oskaloosa Indians scalped our Toreadors at their reservation, 30 to 25.
6. Debate tournament at Carroll resulted in ten victories for Boone.
9. Junior College shone again by defeating Osceola, 35 to 30.
12. A two-day Southwest Iowa District debate tournament was held at Boone starting today. Our debaters took first place.
Ames came to Boone today to win the basket-ball game and—they did! 30 to 21.

16. Our Junior College proved they could win a basket-ball game by sending Ellsworth back home the losers of the 34 to 25 score.
17. C. W. Kammereur, the president of the tuberculosis association, spoke to us about the dangers and prevention of tuberculosis. Then we had "movin' pitchers" showing in detail everything he said.
18. The home declamatory contest was held this evening and judged by Dr. Harry Barnes from the University of Iowa.
19. Dr. Harry Barnes spoke to us in assembly today, presenting several readings in a style all his own.
Double-header at night between the Marshalltown High School and Junior College teams and ours. The scores were 44 to 19 and 27 to 23 respectively. Boone got the smaller number in each case.
20. Boone debaters debated with East High at East High in two non-decision debates. The county tournament which was held yesterday and today was won by Jordan.
23. Basket-ball game between Boone Junior College and Fort Dodge J. C. with Boone as the victor, 26 to 25.
25. Boone J. C.'s journeyed to Marshalltown today and lost a perfectly swell basket-ball game, 33 to 31.
26. Six weeks tests!
Debaters had a non-decision debate with Iowa State.
Pep meeting for the game with Newton at night which we lost, 33 to 29.

March:

2. Our Junior College played the last game of the season tonight with Eagle Grove and won with a score of 36 to 25.
Tuberculin tests were given to the students today.
4. Junior College had an old-fashioned party with several well-dressed damsels and gentlemen. A good time was had by all.
8. The Drake University Band, plus the male chorus, entertained us in an assembly today.
9. Report cards so soon? Oh Hum!
- 11, 12, 13. Drake Debate Tournament was held, with our boys winning a total of four debates.
19. The combined glee clubs presented an operetta entitled, "Hollywood Bound," to a full house this evening.
Whee! Spring vacation for one week!
20. Sent several contestants to Music Contest at Manson, Iowa. They received several superior ratings for their efforts.
29. No more vacation! Forward! To the "Grindstone."

April:

- 1, 2, 3. Boone debaters entered a debate rally and won five debates today.
Also our music contestants journeyed to Nevada, bringing back with them numerous superior ratings.
8. The Misner Players came back again to present another Shakespearian drama entitled, "The Taming of the Shrew."
9. "Childhood days, wildwood days." You said it! For today is Kid Day.
The cooking class served a dinner to the School Board in the evening which was followed by the Junior High play, "Tom Sawyer."
Also, we sent Mary Stump, Tom Poulos, Jean Pratt, and Junior Munson to represent us at the Student Conference at Ames today and tomorrow.
16. The National Honor Society assembly for the Seniors was as impressive and ritualistic as usual.
17. We entertained the Boone County Music Festival contestants here today.
22. Mrs. Inskeep Morgan spoke to us today, inspiring us on to new and higher standards and ideals.
26. Glenn L. Morris, an electrician, demonstrated a few of the wonders of science.
30. "Can ya spare a dime for a cup o' coffee, mister?" That's what the seniors are asking—for today is Hobo Day.

May:

14. The students displayed their work in the all-school exhibit today.
21. The reception was a gala occasion.

E. Harvey: "Have you read, 'To a Field Mouse'?"

Buechler: "No, how do you get them to listen?"

Clerk: "Did you kill any moths with the moth balls I sold you?"

Buckels: "No, I tried for five hours but I couldn't hit one."

Shaler: "What are you late for?"

Fronsdahl: "I dunno, class, I suppose."

George: "Last night I dreamt I was married to the most beautiful girl in the world."

C. Harmer: "Oh, George! Were we happy?"

He knew his arithmetic. During history class the teacher asked: "What happened in 1483?"

"Luther was born," answered a student promptly.

"Correct! What happened in 1487?"

After a long pause: "Luther was four years old."
