Boone High Class of 1939 holds 40th reunion

The class of 1939 held its 40th reunion at the Boone Country Club Friday, Oct. 5 and 6. Of 173 class members 62 plus spouses and guests attended a cocktail hour Friday evening and a 7 p.m. dinner held Saturday night.

The weekend plans were tied in with Pufferbilly Days and homecoming. The class was represented in the parade by classmate, Bud Kruck in his 1939 Rolls Royce with a banner reading, "The Class of 39 Stills Rolls On." Mae Blaess, chairman of the reunion opened the dinner meeting with a welcome to classmates and her committee.

Lowell Holmgren gave the opening prayer and a moment of silence for the 22 departed classmates was observed.

Master of ceremonies Chuck Pestotnik gave the program and highlights of the Class of "39" and comments on school activities. Table decorations were in red and green, the school colors, with red roses in white milk glass vases and rose nut cups. Each classmate was presented a white pen with the inscription Class of "39" Boone High 40th Anniversary. The center piece at the head table was given to Mae Blaess for her chairmanship. In response, Mae thanked her classmates and committee who worked with her, Mildred Nickell, Chuck Pestotnik, John Johnson, Lucille Kelly, Lucille Forney, Denola Young, Jackie Erbe, Juanita Welch and Jan Fraatz. Door prizes were given.

It was voted to have a reunion in five years at the Boone Country Club in the fall of 1984.

Members attended from Wisconsin, California, Colorado, New Orleans, Mason City, St. Louis, Kansas City, Arlington, Ill., Florida, Arizona, Ohio, Clarion, Ames, Clinton, Jordan, Stratford, Nevada, Omaha, Missouri, Shenandoah, North Carolina, Marshalltown, Minneapolis, Burlington, and Boone.
