Foreword

*To solve the problem of just what to put in this book so that you would always cherish it,
we tried to analyze this problem...*

"Just What is School Life"

WE took the factors at hand...a friendly faculty plus steady students . . . and found they equal co-operative classes...active athletes...and artistic activities. It is the purpose of the 1949 Scroll to preserve in our minds through pictures . . . script . . . and sketches the memories of these phases of our school life.

Friendly Faculty

Administration

Adeline Nelson, Superintendent A. B. Grimes, Louise Benson

High school days should be happy days. Friendships made during the years in high school are often more enduring and more effective than knowledge acquired.

The Scroll serves as a sort of treasure chest for the events, the "old-familiar faces," the clubs and clans, and the accustomed meeting places in the good old days at Boone High. As the years pass by, many of you will turn the pages of the 1949 Scroll and your memories will be refreshed by seeing your friends as they used to be.

Congratulations to the Scroll staff for the splendid way they have preserved, in pictures and script, the events and faces of today's Boone High School . . . tomorrow's memories.

The Scroll is one of many activities provided in Boone High School for students to gain actual experience in this work-a-day world.

I am proud of the staff that has made this yearbook possible. They and their faculty advisers are to be commended for their cooperative effort. May they have as great success in future endeavors.

Democracy at Work in the School

Virgil Byerly

We are preparing ourselves to take an intelligent part in the democratic governing of our community by gaining experience in choosing leaders. Because we have had practice in electing those who are well-fitted to hold our school offices, we shall be able to do a better job of voting for officers whose decisions will affect our lives in future years.

All students in the senior high school voted for a student-body president last fall. Virgil Byerly was their choice. Ambitious and open-minded, he has a high scholastic standing. He has also been outstanding in sports, particularly basketball.

Because they liked Dick Bridges' winning smile and unassuming manner, the senior class elected him president. Dick is one of our promising art students as well as an important part of the football team. The seniors feel that Don Houser, their vice-president, is 100% democratic in his friendly attitude toward everybody. Most of us will remember him in the midst of a basketball game. Joan Cunningham's ability to organize, coupled with enthusiasm and a congenial disposition, won for her a place as secretary. As she is feature editor of the Bumble "B," she seemed a natural choice for this office.

Jim Berglund, the good-natured, easy-going president of the junior class, has been a member of our swimming team the past two years. The quiet, dependable vice-president of the junior class, Denny Klute, was manager of the sophomore basketball team and has been out for football and track this year. Mari Jo Olson is their vivacious little secretary who is always ready to smooth over a difficult situation. She has won honors in speech work and for her work on the business staffs of both school publications.

Our sophomore class is glad to cooperate with their president, Bob Swank, because he always manages to see the pleasant side of things. Bob likes sports and is a promising athlete. Floyd Schoff is so friendly, cheerful, and dependable that his class made him vice-president. As Lorene Collis's classmates feel she is reliable and always understands things well, she was chosen for secretary. She plays basketball, too, and is in chorus, band, and orchestra.

We are very proud that our school is moulding both good citizens and leaders for them to follow in the world of tomorrow.

Junior Jingles

Oh, lowly sophomores, honored seniors,
Please lend an ear to us today;
For we're the juniors of our high school
And we wish to have our say.

Now first we have Miss Ruanne Martin,
And the poor girl sometimes sounds quite queer,
Kerchoo! Kerchoo! she sneezes, gasping;
But at hay-fever you must not jeer.

And then Don Gustofson comes forward,
Who's known to all his friends as "Gus."
He's always telling funny stories,
Trying to get a laugh from us.

John Duffy rushes down the hall,
In his usual frightful hurry.
He never seems to be on time;
And to every class must scurry.

The giggles that in the hall you hear
Are those of Barbara Briley.
She has green eyes and a pretty face
And is always very smiley.

In basketball Shirley Ingalls stars;
At guard she always plays the game.
She gets right in the thick of it
And well deserves the fans' acclaim.

And in the orchestra you will see
Another smiling junior's face.
It's talented Alice Herman now,
Always willing to play her bass.

Paul Henry Stark, our fine cage star,
Is also here with us today.
You may find him somewhat bashful, girls,
But yet he has a winning way.

And special mention should be made
Of "Blondie" Grimes who comes up with "A's."
In Scroll and Speech she does her share,
And in orchestra the oboe she plays.

The grinning fellow we notice now
Is happy Tom Fangman, who plays the drum.
Beside him, Dahl, a swimmer, stands,
Adept at the breaststroke he has become.

There's a popular boy whose name is "Butch."
His interests are sports and selling gas.
He's always happy and very gay;
Well liked by the teachers—and a senior lass.

Does anyone feel in a comical mood?
Harold Nelson will furnish a joke for you.
The laughs you hear above the rest
Are those of Shirley and Mary Lou.

Two bashful ones in the junior class
Are Dale L. Larson and Zelda Cline.
Although they're seldom brought to light,
Their hidden talents are very fine.

Berglund and Smith are swimmers two,
For old Boone High they always race.
They break all records old and new,
And for every foe they set the pace.

Out under the sun on summer days
We see our golfers, strong and skilled;
Johnson, Moffitt, and Shultz are they.
"Form" and fame they've been able to build.

In basketball and football, too,
And on the track you'll discover
Two junior boys; one's name is Glenn,
And Arlo is his brother.

There's Helen Pounce and Betty Thompson,
Who do their best at work or play.
It's nice to see their pleasant faces
In hall and class throughout the day.

And in this junior class so fine
A number of brilliant minds have we.
Dorothy Zagel is one of these
And another is William Biernatzki.

And so you see, we have much talent
In this, our first-rate junior class;
And really we'd like to pay a tribute
To every single lad and lass.

Although they're newcomers, the sophomores are already shouldering a portion of the responsibility for Boone High's tradition, a tradition which is rich with memories of students who have brought honor to Boone, our school, and themselves.

Among the prominent 51'ers is Luene Hartsell, who won the "I Speak for Democracy" speech contest sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. William Mickle and Lorraine Murken will go down in Boone High's history as winners of the 1948 Goeppinger Award for scholarship and character.

In the world of sports, Richard Bechtel and Sally McCartney, as well as Marilyn Quinn, Clarence Bielfelt, Sam Duley, Bert Deering, Art Dixon, and Kenneth Mallas are to be commended for their records.

Jill Johnstone and Nina Barnard are sophomores who lead cheers with the junior and senior cheer leaders.

SOPHOMORES

...newcomers to the High School World

Kay Honohan, too, is a sophomore and Mr. Pinkham's choice for the lead in the all-high school play, "Growing Pains." Also in speech work is Marion Strickler, a promising debator.

Dick Hughes, Mary Lee Vickery, Madelaine Nelson, Roger Olson, Jean DeHoet, and Lorene Collis are only a few among the many sophomores who are winning renown in the field of music.

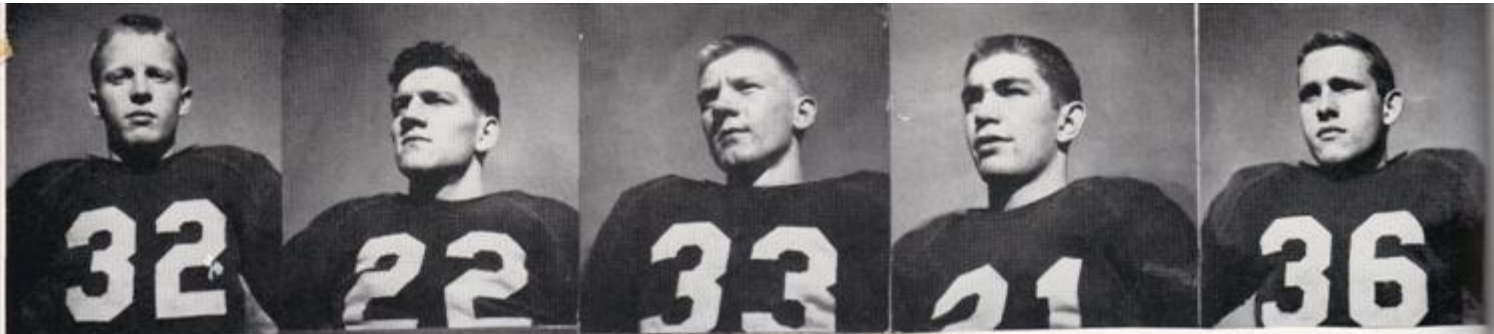

Joan Duncan, Virleen Garner, Kenyon Hoffman, and Bob Swank are making names for themselves in art under Miss Simon's direction.

These students are setting a priceless example of leadership for their classmates to follow. Tradition is a precious thing when it is kept alive by students like these who are striving for bigger and better laurels for themselves and Boone High as well.

Football Team

The Toreadors opened the '48 grid season against the powerful Roosevelt Roughriders, the city champions of Des Moines. Roosevelt, using a tricky offense and an air-tight defense, sent the locals down to defeat with a score of 28-0. Outstanding for Boone were Bob Powers at tackle and Don Houser in the backfield.

Fed by the accurate passing of Virgil Byerly, Boone completely outclassed the Webster City eleven by the score of 33-0. In this game the Toreadors gave warning that they would be hard to beat during the rest of the season.

Entering conference play, Boone toyed with the Cskaloosa Indians, finally winning 14-0. The outcome was never in doubt, as the local eleven dominated the game from the opening kickoff. Marshalltown's big line and hard-charging backfield finally wore down the hard-fighting Toreadors. After a fairly even first quarter, vaunted Marshalltown power plays clicked for 3 touchdowns, making the final score 19-0. Jack Blanshan's rugged play at guard was the outstanding feature for Boone.

Rebounding from this defeat, the "Red & Green" steamrolled hapless Grinnell, 39-0. The entire team looked impressive in gaining their second conference victory while adding to Grinnell's grid woes.

An undefeated, untied, and unscored upon Carroll team provided the opposition at Boone's homecoming. The Toreadors played well before the alumni but had to settle for a 6-6 tie with the tough Carroll aggregation.

Heavily-favored Newton was happy to leave the field with a 20-6 victory over an inspired band of Toreadors. The play of Everett Long in the line was again outstanding on defense.

The final game of the season brought the traditional encounter with the Ames High Little Cyclones. Ames got off to a quick 7-0 lead only to see the score tied on Houser's touchdown and Adamson's perfect placekick. In the fourth quarter the battle-weary Toreadors wilted under Ames' powerful running attack and finally succumbed by the score of 28-7. Long and Linderblood looked good on defense while Byerly and Houser led the offensive parade for Boone.

At the season's end when the sports writers gathered to select their all-state team, Boone's rugged center, Everett Long, came in for a good share of the glory. Jack North selected Long on his third all-state team. This is the highest honor to be received by a Boone footballer in the past decade. Head Coach Larry Baldus put in a season of hard work with his boys, developing them into a fighting team. Line Coach Vern Elslager worked his men into a tough bunch of linemen while Howard Stutzman scouted the other towns for the team. All in all, these three coaches made the Toreadors do their stuff.

Boys' Basketball

With only one returning veteran from the team that carried Boone to the state finals last year, the Boone High Toreadors underwent a complete remodeling under the guidance of newcomer Gayle Johnson. Starting from scratch, the local cagers developed a lightning-fast break and an almost impregnable zone defense that carried them victoriously through 11 out of 19 games.

Against a highly-regarded Perry five, the new Toreadors got their first taste of battle as they literally swept their opponents off the floor in a 51-30 victory. Carroll, and conference foe Grinnell, also felt the sting of defeat at the hands of Boone before we were defeated by Oskaloosa and Webster City.

The game of the year was that with the Ames "Little Cyclones" who thought they were good enough to spot Boone points. The five Toreadors proved that they were a team to be reckoned with; and when center Robert Powers hit a field goal in the last four seconds, the locals were victorious, 27-26.

A stalling Newton team put the brakes on Boone's free-wheeling offense; and even with Virgil Byerly's brilliant performance, Boone dropped their second conference tilt.

Ames came to Boone determined to teach the Toreadors a lesson. However, with our Boone cagers displaying an almost perfect defense and a sparkling offense we rolled to a 41-36 victory.

All hopes of retaining our conference crown won in 1948 were dashed to bits as on successive Friday nights Marshalltown and Newton stopped the Toreadors.

Coming back strong in late-season play, Boone dropped Clinton and Cedar Falls before they entered tournament play.

Drawing Webster City for first-round play, the Toreadors gave all they had in an effort to continue in the tournament. But Webster City's ability to shoot over our zone, and connect, turned the game in their favor; and Boone's basketball season was ended.

The brunt of the Toreador attack was carried by seven boys who were used interchangeably. They were Virgil Byerly, Paul Stark, Donald Houser, Robert Powers, Richard Bechtel, Eldon Krug, and Warren Morris. Boone's Virgil Byerly was one of the finest guards in the state. Virgil was the team's leading scorer, defensive ace, and a consistent driver in every game. He was elected captain at the end of the season and was honored by being placed on Jack North's fifth all-state team and I.D.P.A. honor roll. Paul Stark, a junior who performed brilliantly for Boone, was also placed on I.D.P.A.'s honor roll. With the selection of the all Central Iowa Conference teams it was Virgil Byerly again who received top honors. Virgil was awarded a forward position on the first team. For his fine performance at center, Robert Powers won honors on the second team at that position. Paul Stark added to his laurels with a guard position on the third team. Honorable mention was given to Donald Houser and Richard Bechtel.

Girls' Basketball

Keeping up with their big brothers, the Boone High Toreadorettes tipped the victory scales in their favor this year as they emerged from the 1948-1949 season with nine victories and seven defeats.

The team, under the tutorage of Mr. Noel Jones, had the entire squad returning from the previous year. Opening their season against Gowrie, the girls showed flashes of ability; but as they were not able to keep a sustained drive going they fell, 47-45. The girls' hopes were dashed again the following week as they lost to Valley at Des Moines, but they bounced back against a previously undefeated Grand Junction team to notch their first victory.

For the fourth consecutive year the girls moved through the county tournament and captured the championship trophy. As always Napier supplied the main opposition, but Boone's insatiable hunger for victory won them the thrilling battle, 57-55.

In one of the highest scoring games in the state, Boone and Paton waged a furious basket duel with the Toreadorettes on the short end of an 86-64 count. Forward Alice Fisher set a school record for total points scored in a regular season game as she bombarded the basket for 42 counters. A strong Coon Rapids team attempted to protect a five-year victory record on their home floor, but Boone's attack was so forceful that the game ended in a 53-48 victory for Boone.

Moving into sectional tournament play, the Toreadorettes literally chased a hapless Woolstock sextette off the floor as they moved into the semi-finals with a 48-17 victory. In a nip-and-tuck overtime battle, Stanhope ousted the locals, thus putting them into the consolation against defending state champions, Kamrar. Boone fell before the champs, 63-58, but only after a fierce battle for supremacy.

The girls completed their season on a high note as they dropped both Eldora and Gilbert.

It would be hard to point out an outstanding player on the team for all the girls were capable of playing fine basketball. With the selection of all-state teams, mid-semester graduate Alice Fisher, who maintained a 30-point scoring average to lead her team, was placed on both Jack North's and the I.D.P.A.'s honor roll.

"O. K., girls, jump in and swim twenty lengths!" What a way to prepare for a water ballet! Last fall the members of the Dolphin Club donned their red, green, and blue tank suits and began to practice for their water show in the spring. During the first week of May they presented the "Seasons in Water." Although this is only the second year for the Dolphin Club in B.H.S., the show was so successful that we are looking forward to seeing the club in action again.

Swimming

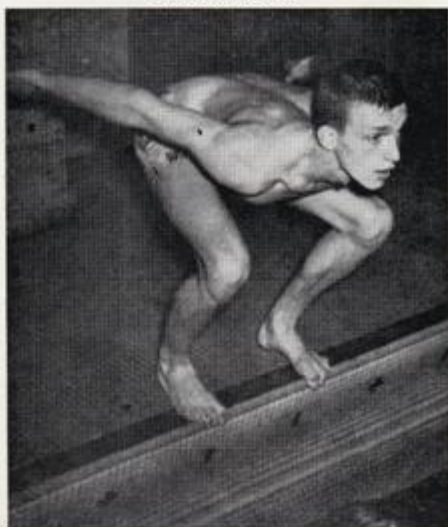

The Boone High swimming team, coached by Mr. Baldus, started off their tank season at home with a 48-27 victory over Lincoln of Des Moines. On the average the team had a successful season with three victories and three losses. Throughout the entire season the boys showed improvement in their style and time ratings. Many members of the team have another year left in high school and ought to prove outstanding next year.

Jerry Smith, a junior, brought backstroking honors to Boone, with a first place in every meet but one. Robert Dahl, also a junior, showed remarkable speed in the breast stroke and was rewarded with five first places during the swimming season. Because of illness Robert was not able to finish out the tank season. James Berglund completed his last full year of swimming. He received considerable recognition for the crawl stroke, in which he excelled. Swimming the 40 and 100-yard freestyle, he took first place in most of the events in which he was entered, and a second place in the state meet.

Diving for Boone were LaVerne York, a senior, and Robert Jensen, who has one more year left.

Golf...

In the springtime a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of—golf. Four letter-winners from last year's squad, which walked off with the district championship and finished fourth in the state, became the nucleus for this year's squad. They were Russell McGee, Richard Schultz, William Johnson, and Clayton Moffitt. Boys battling for fifth place on the squad were Roland Wiley, Duanne Dubois, and Perry Spies. Under the able tutelage of Coach Johnson the Boone niblick-swingers engaged in meets with Ames, Roosevelt of Des Moines, as well as the Oskaloosa Invitational, the Conference, District and State meets.

Track

As this book went to press, Coach Howard Stutzman, with a squad that included ten returning lettermen, was looking forward eagerly to the coming track season. This year's track team was expected to be especially strong in the dashes and short relays with such experienced cindermen as Gayle Manges, John Linderblood, Richard Chance, Robert Powers, and Glenn Grimm. Coach Stutzman was counting heavily on his crack half-miler, Virgil Byerly, and weight-men, Everett Long and Lee Pepples, to bring in their share of points.

The schedule included dual meets with Webster City, Marshalltown, Ames, and Perry, as well as the Valley Relays, Clarion Relays, Drake Relays, and Conference, District and State meets.
