MEMORIES . . .

The students--the faculty--the academics--the athletics--the social life - - - these are the elements that comprise our school . . . our memories .

Our first days at Boone High were met with much anticipation and a certain amount of anxiety as we discovered an entirely new facet of our life . And now, as graduates, we experience the same feelings at the threshold of a life filled with independence, responsibility and challenge .

Our education has taught us that as a person matures, his goals and ideals race farther and farther ahead of him, leading him into new realms of thought and experience . However, no matter what our future may yield, our years at B.H.S. will always be remembered .

As the doors open slowly on Graduation Night the first strains of Pomp and Circumstance are heard . The procession begins and with each step, memories come drifting back . . .

DEDICATION

The Scroll has been the cause of much worry, much work, and immeasurable pride for the past fifty years. Each book was planned and produced by enthusiastic staffs working under the guiding hands of their editors. We, the 1962 staff, wish to dedicate this, the youngest Scroll, to the past five editors in recognition of the precedents their efforts have set forth.

MEMORIES OF

We registered eagerly . . .

worked up the old 'school spirit' . . .

romanced a bit . . .

A SENIOR . . .

'prettied up' for the Prom . . .

gave our farewell performance . . .

had frightening experiences at the class picnic . . .

(posed by Sharon Cook)

GRADUATION COMMITTEES

What's the class flower going to be? Miss Plum's quartet of Marcia Ward, Dave Ross, Sandy Weber, and Denny Grabau must decide.

Jane Rice, Jean Beckwith, and Leon Anderson put their heads together to draw up the class will.

PLANS

REPARATION

Bob Bush collects money from Garrett Nyman for caps and gowns.

No masquerade. Just Mr. Parr distributing caps and gowns to the seniors.

PICNIC SNAPS

The picnic included many surprises for all--including the "Teacher of the Year."

Everyone enjoyed the food.

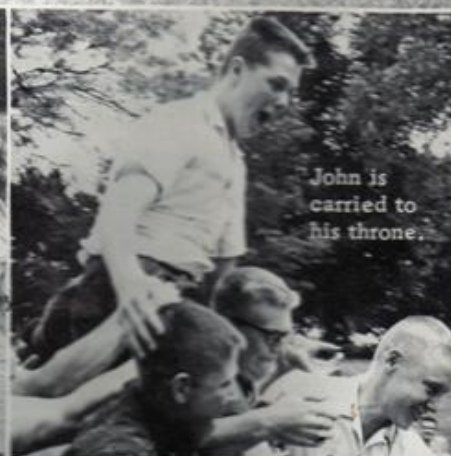

The group awaits the announcing of the class "favorites."

John and Silvia enjoy a cool spot in the shade away from the crowd.

Three pretty maidens enjoy the fun.

John is carried to his throne.

"Teacher's Pet," Mike Brown, receives his award.

Come on, gang, dig in.

CLASS DAY, 1962

CLASS FLOWER: ORCHID
CLASS COLORS: ORCHID AND WHITE

CLASS SONG

This special time, this special place
Is brightened by our special grace.
And all too soon will come the time
For our class to sing "Auld Lang Syne."
Although we go our separate way,
We share the mem'ry of this day.
We wish the best with all our might

To each and every graduate to night.
May we always keep the mem'ries of the Class of '62,
Mem'ries of our smiling faces we'll remember through the years.
May we give thanks to our teachers and our friends who've been so true.
Giving us the happiness we honor with our tears.

May our prom and banquet be remembered through the years,
May all the dances and romances we have shared bring us good cheers.
May we always be a beacon, shining for tomorrow's class.
May we hold the key to life in all the years to pass.

Leon reads the class will.

Jan reads the class prophecy.

Seniors sing the class song.

Seniors croon to the tune of "May You Always."

Memories are reminisced by Jean as she reigns as Homecoming Queen.

Silvia is delighted with her gift from the student body-- a '62 class ring.

Jackie Parrish receives the key of knowledge from Mike Sindlinger, Senior class president.

BACCALAUREATE

On Sunday, May 27, 1962, the Senior Class attended Baccalaureate.

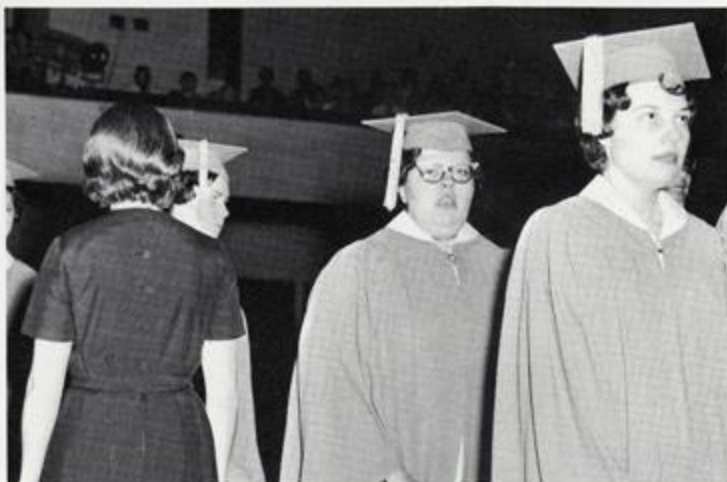

Rev. J. Stanley Schmidt spoke on "A Place to Set Your Feet."

The chorus, accompanied by the orchestra, sang "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

COMMENCEMENT

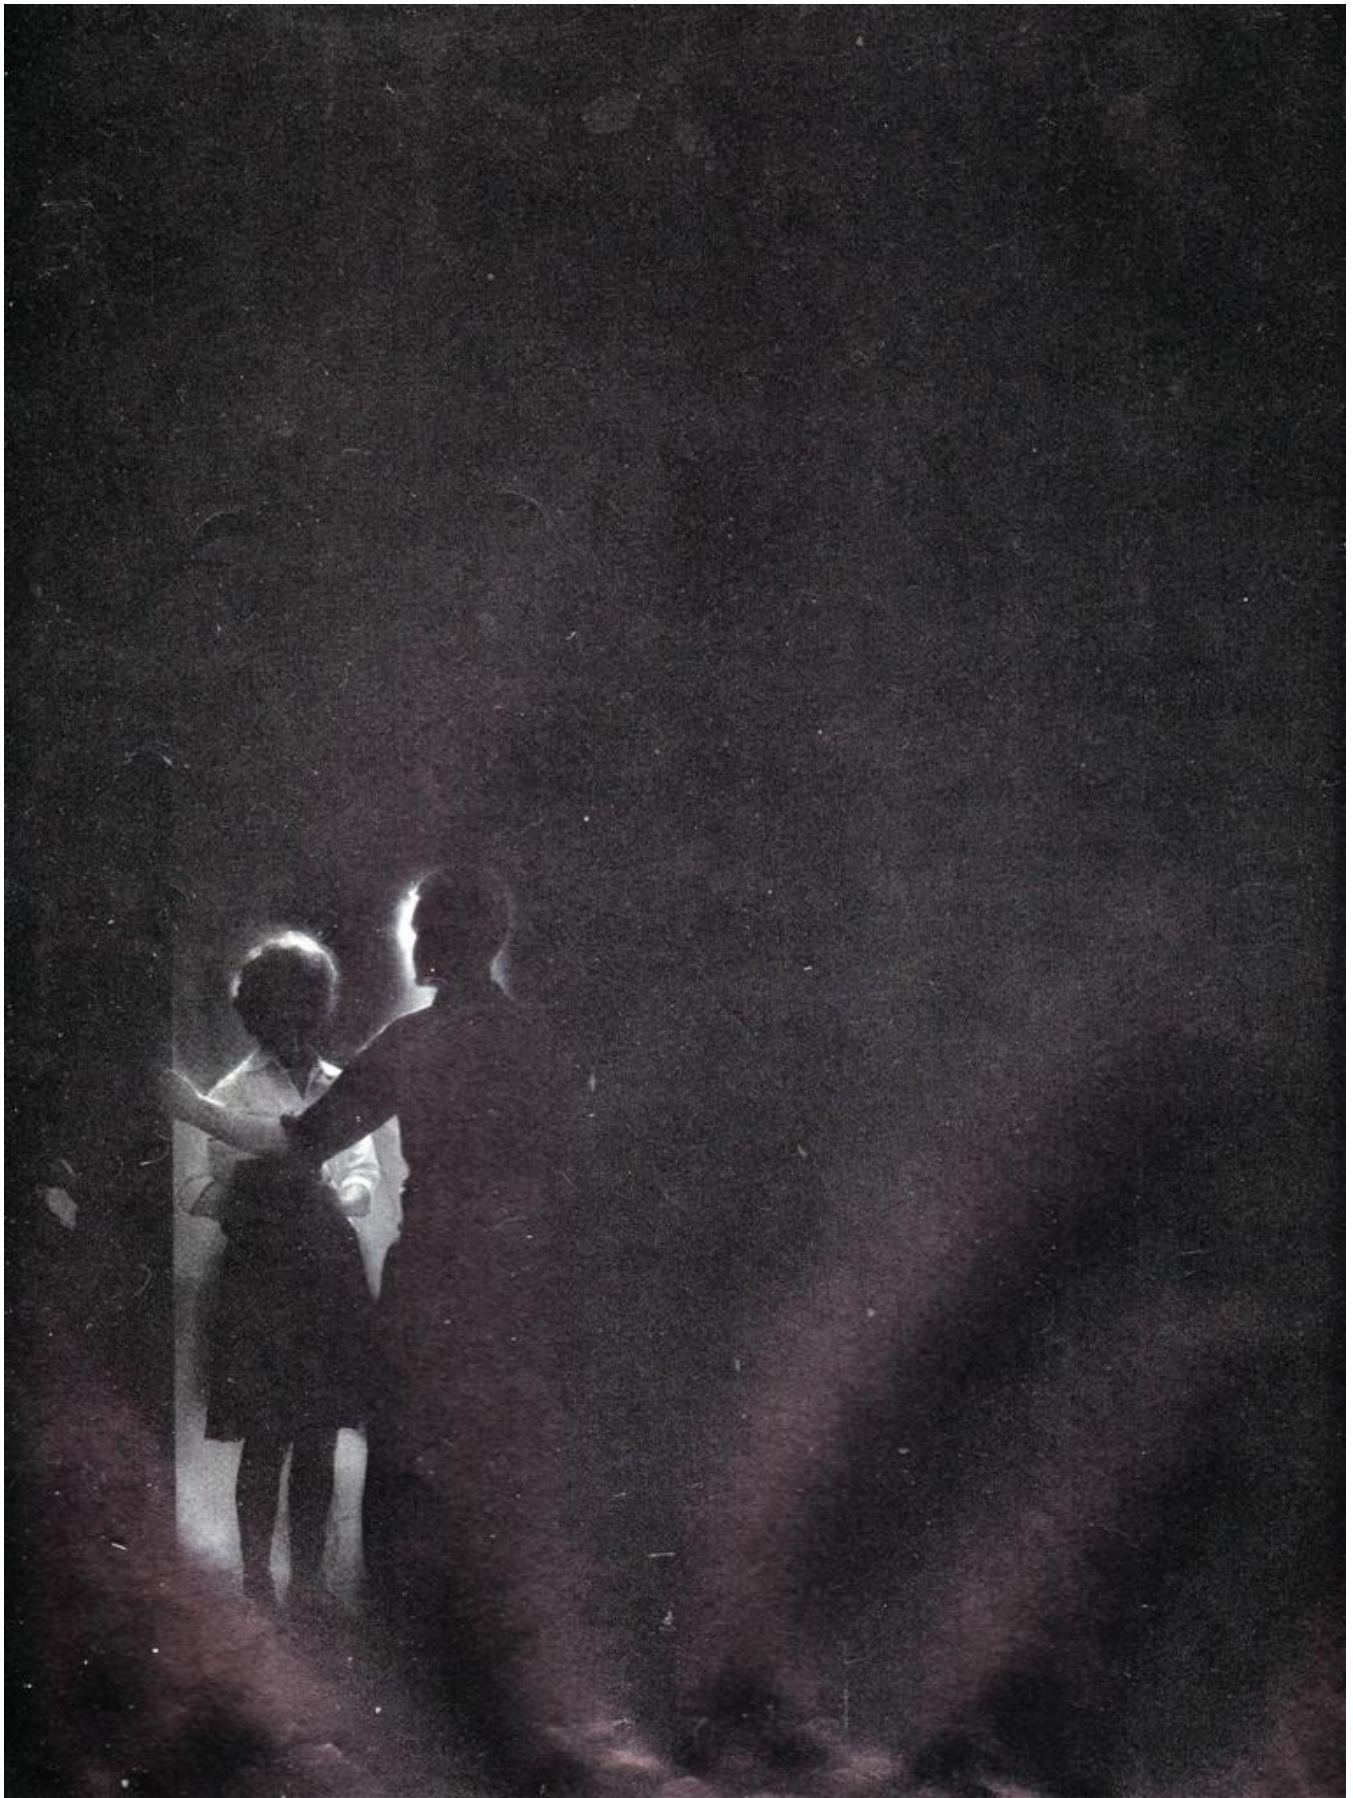

On Tuesday evening, May 29, 1962, one hundred sixty four seniors received a diploma.

"Going Places," was the title of the address given by Dar Roa of Waldorf College

The end of high school opens the doors to the beginning of life.
