PRIDE

Touchdown Club was a big part of football season.

Tackling dummies pose as immovable objects at practice time.

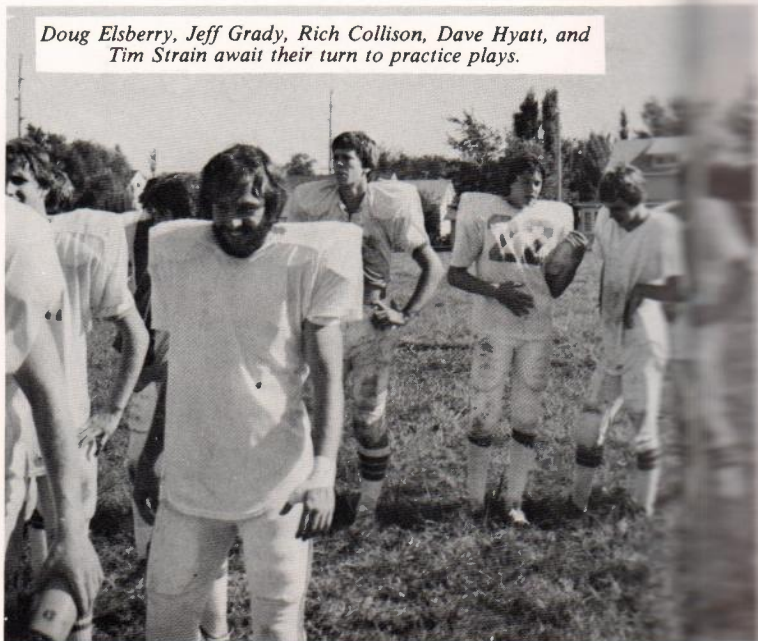

Wayne Abrahamson, Todd Hutcheson, and Jeff Tucker prepare for the game.

Coach Jon Walczyk explains the play to one of his players.

Doug Elsberry, Jeff Grady, Rich Collison, Dave Hyatt, and Tim Strain await their turn to practice plays.

Craig Howard takes a cooling douse of water after practice.

The Toreador football team started the 1978 season with a new coach, Mr. Jon Walczyk. After a very disappointing 2 losses the Toreadors kept up their enthusiasm and won their first game against S.E. Polk. The red and green ended the first half of the season in better shape perhaps statistically than was expected.

Toreador Craig Howard stated his feelings about the season which seemed to be shared by many, "It was more of a feeling of pride. Coach Walczyk and his staff really did a good job of keeping the team together."

Boone has a reason to be proud, for 5 Toreadors were named to the Central Iowa Conference All-Conference team. They were Craig Howard, Sr.; Mike Pritchard, Jr.; Scott Myers, Sr.; Bill Killion, Sr. and Randy Efkamp, Sr.

Fifteen Toreadors received honorable mention.

The Toreador football team of 1978 ended their season with 3 wins and 6 losses.

We Marched On ...And On...

The 1978-79 marching band began the season with a new band director, Mr. Richardson.

The band dazzled spectators with their formations and playing. The band performed before each home football game and during halftime.

The students participating in marching band spent many hard hours practicing, not only did they march outside during band period, but they also spent many solitary hours practicing. The band students had lessons during the week that kept them in tune for the Friday night football games.

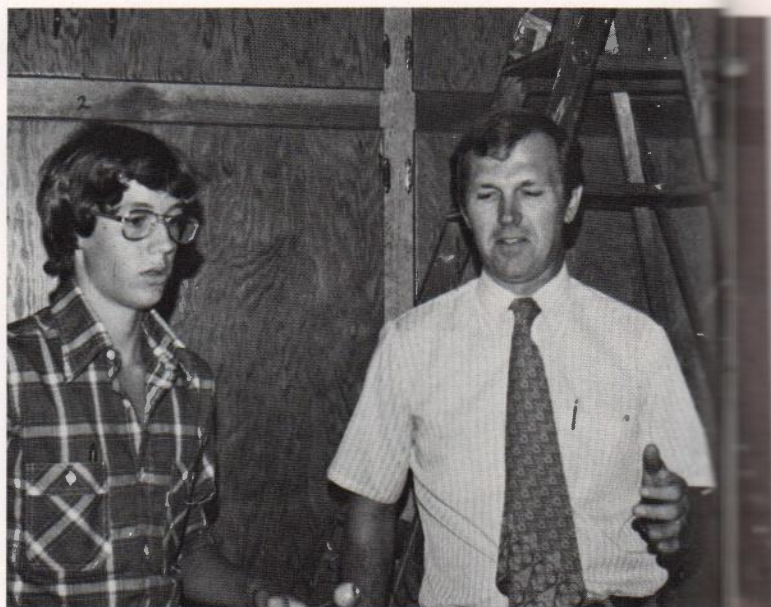

Concert band held several concerts throughout the year. Many marching band players also participated in concert band.

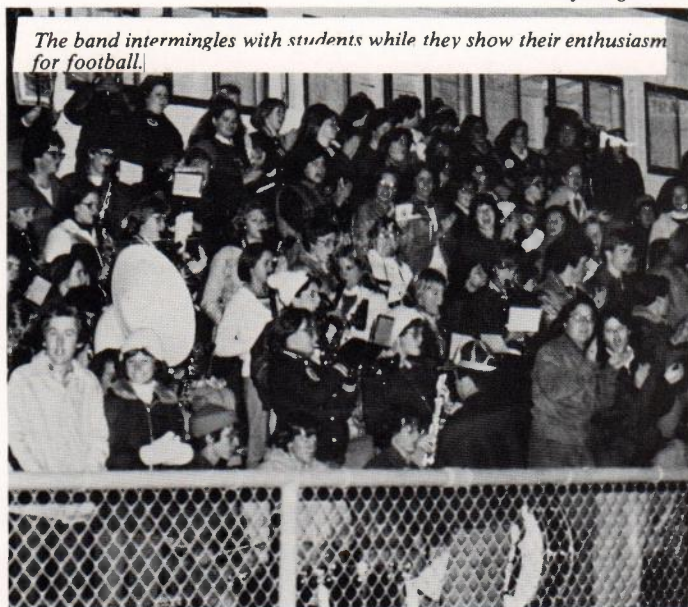

Band members relax and cheer for the Toreadors.

Halftime shows the band at its best and in formation.

Mark Walters spends a lot of time with Director Richardson practicing before games.

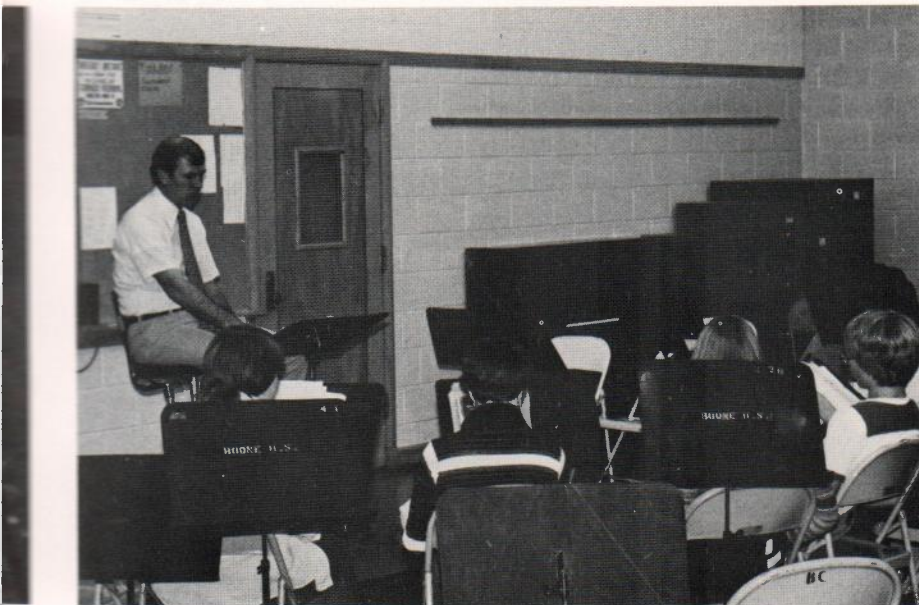

The band intermingles with students while they show their enthusiasm for football.

Kathy King leads the band in her Drum Majorette role.

Students have a good time during band.

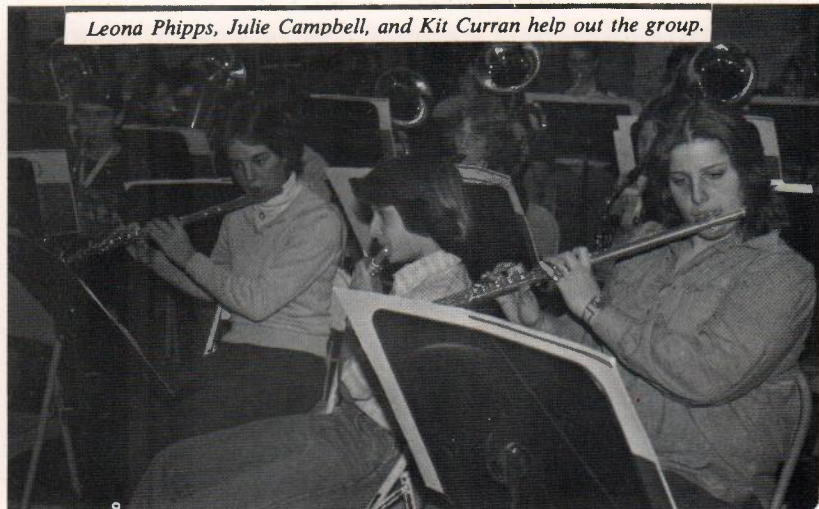

Director Richardson helps in group sessions.
