

From Bohemian poetry to camping in the great outdoors, students found that their time was filled with a variety of activities. Most of the things they chose to do were anything but boring, that is unless they were caught in classes or at work.

SENIORS

means pictures and that is exactly what these seniors girls are doing...smiling for the camera. After graduation, seniors hosted receptions and visited with friends.

SAYING GOODBYE in the halls after class day ceremonies, Abby Knight has a smile through those tears. Family and friends attended the assembly.

EVEN UNDERCLASSMEN, Amanda Byas and Marci Eller react to the emotion. As the seniors left, the juniors took over a new role.

MAKING an entrance to class day, the seniors are led in by the junior class officers. Traditionally, the girls wore white to the assembly and the boys wore whatever they wanted.

THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES

Heading to new experiences

Happy smiles and tears rolling down faces appeared normal on class day. The smiles came because the seniors saw the end of their high school experience, the tears came because of the past memories.

"As the end of the school comes, I think about how I am going to go out and start making my own money. My worst memory from high school is Driver's Ed. I'm going to miss seeing all of my friends every day like I am used to now," John Anderson said.

Being done with school didn't register with some people until they moved out on their own. They had the whole summer to be with friends before everyone went off to the real world.

"In all I'm going to miss two teachers, Mr. Lyness and Mr. O'Brien. They are two of the best teachers I have ever had or have even heard of. The thing I hated most about high school was the stupid rumors," Matt Stotts said.

As the year ended, seniors found out who their real friends were. The entire class appeared to get along quite well most of the time.

"I'm going to miss all of the underclassmen that I have become such good friends with. I am not going to miss the gym uniforms that we've had to wear for four years," Kylie Boon said.

As the seniors came to the end, they had many memories. They had some of their best times in high school, but the best were yet to come.

"I have a lot of memories from high school. I am definitely not going to miss trying to find a parking spot in the mess of cars in the parking lot. I'm trying to decide where I want to go to college but in the meantime I am going to have fun with everyone," Stacy Bogue said.
