Worth...Last
chance!

•When the school year is over, it is time for everyone to be thankful that we have had a safe year.

•Don't drink and drive...in fact, don't drink...you are too young.

•Why can't we get hotter pizza in the lunch line? By the time we get in there, everything is cold or there isn't enough food.

•I don't understand why we can't chew gum in some classes.

•Join the chess team! See how some minds work.

WHAT'S ON Your Agenda????

FAVORITE WAYS TO KILL TIME.....

- Study for the test next week....every day just for 15 minutes.
- Rewrite notes taken in class...in fact, take notes in class so that there is something to rewrite.
- Put time on agendas for a little brown nosing.
- Ask teachers if there is anything they need...such as coffee brought in every morning or fresh warm muffins that mother could make for them.

FREEDOM!!! Parties to go to, tests to study for, and people to bid farewell to. The stress level reaches its max and then all at once is gone!

WHAT AGENDA?

As the year came to a close you
partyin' with friends
had three things on your mind:
takin' a nap
semester tests, senior parties, and surfin' the 'net summer. Free time was more of eatin' tons of food
a foreign word than not. With no alarms..... no clocks... no time!
work, school, and play, everyone
goin' to senior parties was swamped. The stress gettin' new summer clothes climbed to its max and after the preparin' for graduation
last test there was a sigh of relief.
Tests, tests... YOU'RE FINALLY FREE!

Enjoying the float parade, the varsity swimmers and divers blow bubbles. Homecoming activities enabled the students to get together and have fun.

Concentrating on his project, Bob Madson works intently as Josh Smith walks by to admire the drawing. Drawing class was a provided for those students who enjoyed drawing and art work.

•Showing off their outer beauty, Clint Hurley and Mike Etringer try on fashionable glasses. Homecoming Dance was an opportunity for students to be themselves and just have fun.

•Taking chairs in from the rain, junior chorus members try to get in the building as fast as they can. The picture for the year-book was held outside when it strted to rain.

•Showing deep concentration Heidi Hockett works on a Spanish workbook activity. Homework and other activities proved to be stressful yet relieving when completed.

Your 2 1/2 ¢ Worth

•Why do teachers always compare their class to a college class? In college you only have to show up for the test if you want to and still get an A in the class.

-Annoyed

•The boy I like is in love with another girl. What should I do?

- Hopelessly Devoted

•I wish every class was like Publications, we learn so much and hardly have any homework.

-Loving the class.

•I think food should be allowed in the school. I learn better and easier.

-Always hungry.
