Detour

Hit the road...follow the rules...stay safe...come home

The advice given to seniors by Mr. Jeff Wells at graduation was to use their common sense when going out on their own.

"You need to get off the trike and find new challenges that await you."

The main thing that people need to remember as they begin their Roadtrip is to not let anyone interfere with their dreams. Hit the road~!

1. Tyler Gustoff ('10), Julia Stockhausen ('09), Pierce Gustafson ('11) 2. Presidential candidate Senator John McCain and Brek Ealy ('08) 3. Chaz Dally ('11) and Maddie Dally ('08) 4. Nick Vanderwarka ('11) 5. Nick Woods ('08) 6. Kurt Richmond ('09)

CHRIS WHITTEN

Birthdate: June 26, 1989

Death: April 30, 2008

"When I visited with parents of Chris, they talked about how happy and full of laughter he was. He loved to sing and whistle for the class.

When the room was very quiet because we were trying to work, Chris would start singing and whistling as loud as he could. The more I said his name to be quiet, the louder he became and would laugh so hard until the whole classroom was laughing and everyone was off task.

This young man had more disabilities and health issues than most of us will ever know and yet he was the happiest person I have ever met. The best thing I can say is 'Laughter is contagious.'"
