

We, the 1936 Scrollette Staff, wish to THANK the following business and professional men for the help they have given us in publishing this Annual. We urge the student body of Boone High to patronize those who have advertised in this book.

Why Not Help Those Who Help You?

BETTY MAE HARRIS says:

- If you are not graceful — TRY DANCING
- If you are not happy — TRY DANCING
- If you are not popular — TRY DANCING
- If you are not healthy — TRY DANCING
- If there is nothing wrong — DANCE !!

Magistrate: "What is the prisoner?"

Lawyer: "Your honor, he is a professional football player and is the best outside-right in the team."

Magistrate: "Well, I'll change his position. He'll be left inside for seven days."

Charles Lainson: "I spent last evening with the one I love best."

Jimmie Curtis: "Don't you ever get tired of staying alone?"

Garry Chambers (returning from Sunday School): "Say, dad, our lesson told about the evil spirits entering the swine."

Father: "Yes, my son. What is it you wish to know?"

Garry: "Was that the way they got the first deviled ham?"

Mr. Longnecker: "You're a chemistry student; tell me how they discovered iron?"

Miss Maxheim: "I heard Mr. Bechtel say that they smelt it."

Start the Young People Right!

What better graduation present for any young man or woman than a life insurance policy in an Old Line Company, increasing in value as the years go by and purchased now when their premium is low, but the protection is high. A gift these young people will cherish as long as their memory lasts. Such a policy is issued by the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company,

Mr. Lainson (taking class pictures):
"Now let's have some nice looking little fellow down in front."

Art Smith lost no time in getting located.

The fraction leaned over and touched the whole number on the shoulder, "Say," she whispered nervously, "is my numerator on straight?"

"Mmmmm but that popcorn has a heavenly smell!" Eleanor exclaimed as they drove past the stand.

"Hasn't it?" Jack Leland agreed. "I'll drive a little closer."

Mr. Drake to Miles, just coming in:
"You should have been here at 8:30

When I got married it was a runaway match. I ran away and my wife ran after me. She sued me for breach of promise. The judge made me give her $10,000, so I had to marry her to get my money back.

Sutor: "Mr. Perkins, I have courted your daughter for fifteen years."

Perkins: "Well, what do you want?"

Sutor: "To marry her."

Perkins: "Oh, I thought you wanted a pension or something."

Fortune Teller: "You have a tendency to let things slide."

Bruce Corl: "Yes, I play the trombone."

Observing little girl: "Blue eyes seem to run the most in our family."

Observing little boy: "Well the nose seems to run the most in ours."
