Student Council

Jane McCaskey, Charles Hammond, Bob Ward, John Garvey, John Sandon, Tom Inman (Vice President), Rene Poyzer, and Jane Eshouse (Secretary). Not Shown: Colleen Lawson (Treasurer).

The Boone Junior College Student Council met every Thursday noon during the school year. Members of the group helped revise the Student Council constitution.

In the fall, because recreation room improvements were needed, the Student Council sponsored a Work Day and with the proceeds purchased the wood paneling on the Snack Bars walls. In connection with this the Student Council members also painted the Snack Bar.

A sweatshirt dance sponsored by the BJC Student Council was held in November, and in December. Christmas activities were sponsored by this group. A Christmas tree-lighting ceremony and a Christmas tea were held.

The Student Council succeeded in sparking enthusiasm to reactivate a basketball team.

The annual Blue and White Ball and the Dinner Dance were organized.

BJC Basketball 1964-65

Team captain, Mike Bennett and squad members John Garvey, Ron Silver and John Hinz look on with high hopes of having an outstanding season.

The fall and winter of 1964-1965 saw the return of basketball to the Boone Junior College athletic program. Although team scores were low (100-45, and 76-47), team spirit remained high.

It is hoped that the 1965-66 school year will see Boone Junior College with an adequate physical education program, including a victorious basketball season.

Student Body Officers Were Elected

Boone Junior College student body officers were elected September 18 after a week of active campaigning, climaxed by political speeches on Thursday, September 17. Duane Haglund, sophomore at BJC, and a member of the Promoters Party, was victorious over Dave Redfield, also a BJC sophomore, and representing the Progressive Party in the race for president.

Other winners and their parties were Tom Inman, vice president, Progressives; Jan Eshouse, secretary, Progressives; Colleen Lawson, treasurer, Promoters; John Garvey, student council representative, Progressives; René Poyzer, student council representative, Promoters; and John Sanden, student council representative, Progressives.

BJC Faculty and Students Enjoy Fall Picnic

Boone Junior College's fall all-school picnic was held September 16 at 6 p.m. at the McHose Park Shelter House

Following a delicious picnic supper, students, faculty, and guests enjoyed an interesting and entertaining program.

THE LINE-UP of Boone Junior College faculty at the picnic includes, Grayce Osborne, William Hartley, Lyle Poyzer, Jack Tillson, Marguerite Hartley, and Winifred Barquist.

Boone Junior College Students Pay Tribute to Hoover

"We join fellow citizens of America and millions abroad who mourn the passing of Herbert Hoover," stated Lyle Poyzer, math instructor at BJC, in his tribute to former President Herbert Hoover given at the memorial services held in honor of the former president at BJC Thursday, October 22.

Preceding Mr. Poyzer's tribute, the flag was raised and then lowered to half staff by Jim Grabau and Alan Schroeder. Duane Haglund, student body president, then introduced Mr. Poyzer. Following one minute of silent meditation, William Martin, Jr. played taps.

BJC Work Day--October 16

The October 16 Work Day was organized by the BJC Student Council to earn money to remodel the recreation room in the basement of the Boone Junior College building.

Members of the student body were hired by merchants and home owners in Boone to work during the day of October 16. Money that was paid the students was turned in to provide funds to obtain materials needed for the recreation room.

The goals of the student council in remodeling the recreation room are to cushion the stone ledge, to put acoustical tile on the ceiling so the juke box may be played while classes are going on upstairs, to wood-panel the walls, and to tile the floor.

"How many more of these things did you say we have left to put on?!?" Ron Silver (on ladder) and John Hinz are shown here as they earned their money for the work day.

"You said I forgot to do what???" asks John Niemants.

Jim McDevitt wonders if anybody will ever give him a moment's peace! John Niemants, McDevitt, and Tom Inman decide they've done their day's work and stretch out for a little snooze in the warm sunshine.

Judy Peters, her dad, and Mr. Tillson have a friendly discussion in the Boone Junior College library. Judy's dad visited the library at the Open House held November 13.

Lyle McCargar, French instructor, who was talking to Bill Sapp at the Open House before the photographer interrupted, wanted to know, "Do you really have to take this picture?"

BJC Open House Attracts Many Parents

Lyle Poyzer, math instructor, Gail Nystrom (visitor), Ben Bruns, chemistry teacher, and Ralph Bottorff, another BJC math instructor appear to be having a good time in the math room at the Open House. Maybe Mr. Bruns told one of the jokes he learned recently.

Everett Porter, English instructor, explains to these parents "Well, you see it's like this..."

Young Republicans on the Move-Hold Car Smash and Receive an Award

BEFORE

The BJC Young Republicans held a car smash in October. The object was for all Young Republicans to smash the Democrat side before the Democrats could smash the Republican side. A chance to give a few blows to the car with a sledge hammer could be bought for 25 cents.

Boone Junior College Young Republicans attended the State Convention of YR's at Cedar Rapids, March 19-20. While there, the group received a plaque for having over 20 per cent of the total enrollment of the college as members of the BJC Young Republicans. Grinnell was the only other town in the state to receive such an honor.

Jan Pritchard, Margaret Doran, and Lenora Wane were on hand to help register the students and also to greet them with a friendly "Hi."

Fifty-six high schools students attended a one-day Prospective Teacher's meeting at Boone Junior College Wednesday, November 1.

Ten representative speakers spoke at the morning session. Lyle Poyzer greeted the students. Other speakers were Ralph Bofftorff, Margaret Blake, Marguerite Hartley, Lyle McCargar, Charles Schaeffer, Everett Porter, Jack Tillson and Winifred Barquist.

Arthur Blue, psychologist of the Boone Intermediate School District, hosted the sponsor's round table discussion.

Following a noon luncheon, Dick Kelso opened the afternoon session as master of ceremonies. Entertainment was provided by BJC students.

Afternoon speakers were Lyle Poyzer, Harland Reed, Donald Seaton, Dave Little, Judy Peters, Kathy Evans and Margaret Blake.

Prospective Teachers' Day is held each year to encourage interested and qualified high school students in teaching as a career. The day is sponsored by the Iowa Commission of Teacher Education and Professional Standards, in cooperation with the Iowa State Education Association and the State Department of Public Instruction.

School was not held February 11, either because of an eight-inch snow. The March 18 blizzard made it impossible to hold school and it was cancelled the night before. The storm which proved to be the worst for several years also caused school to close on March 19. Many motorists going or coming from Ames were stranded as was Margaret Blake, BJC secretarial practice instructor, who lives in Ames.

Blue & White Ball Also Known as...

Margaret Blake and her husband look as charming and handsome as a king and queen. They were present for the festivities at the Blue and White Ball.

"Oh, Clair, you say the most flattering things," says Betty Carroll. She was one of the judges for Mr. and Mrs. BJC.

These two couples seem to be mixing a little conversation with their dancing.

And just whom do you see, Judy, that puts that smile on your face and that twinkle in your eye?

Mr. & Miss BJC Dance Provides Many Memories

"Did they say ME? Not me, really?!?" Yes, they said your name, Marj!

"And now, Marj Kobaldt, I crown you Miss BJC of 1965."

"Well, Marj got flowers. You mean I get a flower, too? What'll I do with two of them?" Jim Grabau was crowned Mr. BJC of 1965.

"It's too bad I don't get to crown more pretty girls." Now, we ask you, Mr. Abbott, just why you want to do that."

"Well, there they are folks, Mr. and Miss BJC of 1965" announced Master of Ceremonies Charlie Hammond.

It Was A Night Of...

...laughter and talk.

...dancing, drifting and dreaming.

...good music provided by the Don J's.

...smelling flowers, perfume,
men's cologne.
...seeing pretty gals, handsome guys, and happy faces.
...hearing lovely music,
flowing voices, and much laughter.

...Fun, Folly, and Frivolity

Charlie Hammond served as master of ceremonies for the evening's fun.

John Garvey and Dick Wiebe (in front) filled up punch cups while Bob Ward and René Poyzer waited their turn.

Duane and Linda laughed, talked, and had fun.

Jim Grabau wondered WHAT they put in the punch.

...And More Fun, Folly, and Frivolity

"May I help you with your glove, Miss Holly?" "Why thank you, Sir Steve."

"Well, where did those girls go, and when will they be back?"

"We could have danced all night....."

"You'd think there'd be some time they wouldn't talk politics!" says Margaret Baker, wife of Rep. Don Baker to Frances Hamman, wife of Supervisor Lucian Hamman. Mr. Baker and Mr. Hamman are shown here, standing by their wives.
