Things really moved this year for Delta Tau. At Christmastime the kids decorated the school with evergreens, mistletoe, and lights. Later this winter the organization sent its representatives to the Student ISEA Delegate Council. During the year, the group has had a number of special speakers. Finally, this spring, a group of Junior College students toured Salisbury House in Des Moines by arrangement of Delta Tau.

The variety of the campaigns encouraged student voting.

The campaigns this year were some of the most lively and competitive in years. The speeches were presented to the tune of a combo, after arriving in a hearse and in the usual straight-forward manner.

During the school year, the Student Senate sponsored a Fall Picnic, first semester, and the Valentine's Day Dance, second semester.

Ray Martin presented a somber figure as he arrived in his campaign hearse.

John York chose the aggressive, straight-forward approach. The dubious looks on the faces of his entourage are due to their squinting in the sun.

The Black Pasture played for the Fall Picnic. All of the boys are students at B. J. C.

Kazio Gilowski's campaign speech was preceded by three or four tunes from a combo consisting of Dave Merrill and Mike Peterson.

Bernie Hohanshelt reads his selection before the assembly.

Speech Department

The drama department presented four plays this year. The above scene is from the play "Shoemaker's Wife" with Kathy Schall as the wife, Bernie Hohanshelt as the customer, and Ron Olson as the shoemaker. Others who participated in the plays this year were Frances Rickertt, Randy Davis, John York, Betty Briggs, Sandy Berkland, Lynn Snedden, and Jackie Morris.

Also, this year, the speech department sent a large delegation to the Junior College Speech Festival at Centerville. Those participating who received critical acclaim were Bernie Hohanshelt and John York.

Some students participating in the speech festival were: John York, Ron Olson, Vicki Routh, Don Neiman, Lynn Snedden, Marshall Grabau, Judy Smith, Gene Underwood, Jackie Morris, Denny Vaudt, Barb Rand, Hal Contonwine, David John.

Mr. Poyzer is one of our most devoted sponsors.

Mr. Porter shows no end of enthusiasm for his group's activities.

The Young Republicans, or Y.R.s as they are called, have had a fairly busy year. This fall they had their annual hayride. They presented a bulletin board for activities to the Student Senate, and they sent delegates to their annual convention.

A typical Y.D. meeting

The Young Democrats, or Y.D.s, had a very busy year. In the fall they helped the Democratic candidate, Mr. Don Baker, successfully campaign for re-election as County Representative to the state legislature. Later in the fall, they traveled to Des Moines to hear Senator Robert Kennedy of Massachusetts. In the early spring, they held a very successful fund raising dance, and, finally, later this spring, the organization sent representatives to its annual conference.

The Library Staff

Now we know why Jerry wants people to be quiet--so he can sleep.

Our library staff has good reason to be a little tired this year. Its hours were extended from 7:30 A.M.-3:30 P.M. to 7:30 A.M.-4:00 P.M. plus Monday and Wednesday nights from 7:00 P.M.-10:00 P.M. And if you don't think these hours were put to good use about research paper time...!

The Circle K Club's service project for this year was to scrub, paint and wax the recreation room. They also repaired some broken chairs. The Club is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Boone. Also, this year, the boys held a name-the-bear contest, at which time the school obtained a mascot. They sponsored a dance this fall and this spring Jackie Morris was chosen Circle K Sweetheart.

Fourth row: Bob Carlson, Ron Olson, Randy Davis, Keith Rasmussen, Marshall Grabau, Kazio Gilowski, Gene Underwood. Director: Mr. Bertanoli. Accompanist: Dave Howell.

Dave Howell accompanies at a concert. Frances Rickertt also was an accompanist.

The Chorus had a very active year. They presented a Christmas concert and a spring concert. They also attended a Music Festival held at Marshalltown with the Director of Music at the University of Iowa, Dr. Daniel Moe. At this festival, Randy Davis sang a solo.

The Pep Band

The Pep Band was a welcome addition to the organizations this year. It was organized under the direction of Frances Rickertt and played at all of our basketball games (or as many as it could get to). It has done a great deal to encourage enthusiasm and participation both on the part of the players and fans.

Becky and Frances forget about music for a while as the game gets rough.

BEAR FACTS

Staff

The BEAR FACTS has just started this year as a regular feature of this school. The sponsor is Mr. Schaeffer and the editors have been Linda Johnston, first semester, and John York, second semester. Features in the paper have been a commentary on the state of the school, Mt. Condemnus, a comic strip, Peanuts, reports on clubs, activities, and teachers and news announcements, jokes and small talk, Bits and Pieces.

The CUB is the school yearbook. The staff of the CUB worked hard this year to include all of the year's activities. This year's annual includes more students' pictures, more clubs ( Circle K and Pep Band ) and more advertising. This year, also, the staff took most of their own pictures. For this reason, they look forward to having a developing room of their own in the new building. Next year the CUB plans to expand to four more pages to provide fuller coverage of B.J.C. life.

"I don't care what you say, you can't make that tree a member of your team."

"You realize, of course, we could blackmail the entire faculty with this one."

Leroy and Ray let everybody know exactly what's going to happen.

The fall picnic was held at McHose park. There was good food and good fun. Leroy Clabaugh was master-of-ceremonies, with Ray Martin as his able assistant. The program consisted of music, by Randy Davis, Evie Coleman, Karen Mondt, Dave Howell and the Black Pasture. But the real fun started when some of the teachers were led over eggshells--stocking-footed. Proof of the panic is below; just look at Lynn's and Randy's faces.

Open House

Some of the fathers see what their sons study during lab.

It looks like Mr. Porter is making a good impression.

Open house is held every year for the sole purpose of acquainting the parents of the students with the school. This year it was held in the fall. At this time, the teachers were present to answer questions and show the parents exhibits designed to create interest in their various departments. At this time, also, the parents are given a chance to tour the building.

Mr. McCargar seems to be enjoying the conversation. I wonder if it's in French?

The Blue and White Ball

Some would rather eat than dance. Others would rather dance than eat.

With a "Wonderland theme" of blue and white colors, the Boone Golf and Country Club was decked out Friday night, November 11, for the annual Mr. and Miss Boone Junior College selection at the Blue and White Ball. Dancing started at 8:30 P.M. with music provided by "The Gentlemen."

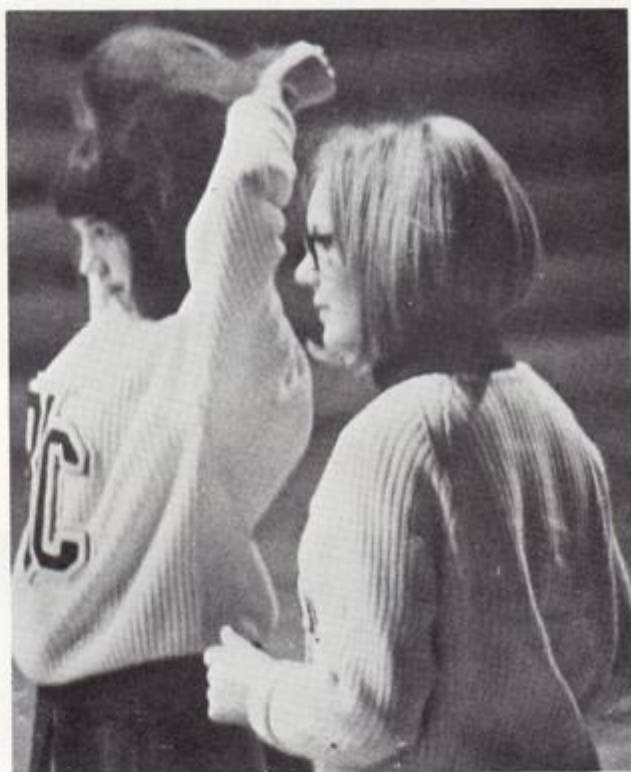

Master of ceremonies was Ray Martin of Luther, Student Body President, who presented flowers to Miss Boone J.C. and gifts to all candidates on behalf of the student body. Dean Clair Abbott announced the selection choices and was assisted by Sue Tingwald in making the coronation. -BEAR FACTS

It was a big night for Jim and Lynn as they finish the ceremonies with the traditional dance.

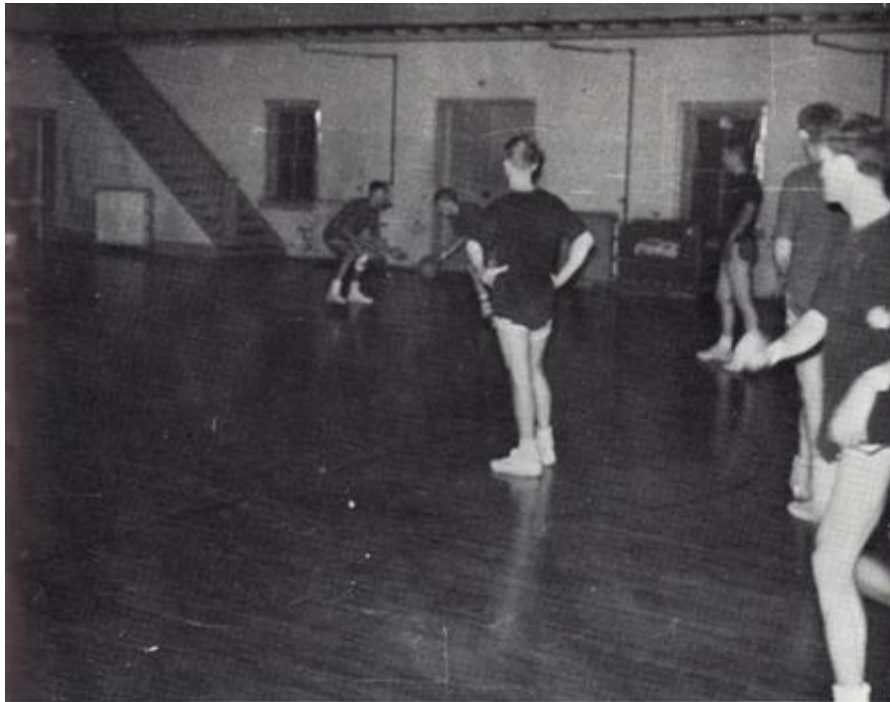

It looks as if Bob might have made one.

When Denny has a free throw, it calls for concentration.

Our team, this year, started out with a definite disadvantage--they were considerably shorter than their opponents. The coach believed their strenght lay in outside shots. The high scorer this year was Denny O'Malley, followed by Larry Stolte, Denny Ringgenberg, and Tarry Justice. Although we did not win most of our games, they were not lacking in excitement and action.

One of those rare, cherished moments. Quick, everybody! Look at the scoreboard!

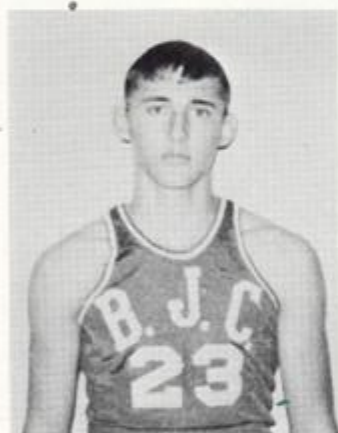

As the old saying goes--

Meet the cheerleaders: Sandi Christianson, Kathy Sinn, Jackie Morris, and Sandi Berkland.

Spring Dinner Dance

The annual Spring Dinner Dance was held at the Boone Golf and Country Club. The Freshmen students here at

J.C. were responsible for all the arrangements with the sophomores and faculty as their invited guests. Bob Smittle was the master-of-ceremonies. Performing in the program were Lynn Snedden, Frances Rickertt, Dave Howell, Randy Davis, Evie Coleman, and Karen Mondt. The Dinner Dance is the last social event of the year, and, as such, usually enjoys record attendance. This year was no exception. Special recognition must go to the decoration committee, whose work so greatly enhanced the beauty of the affair.

It looks like someone just told a corny joke.

Three happy couples. It was some party!

The Decorations Committee really outdid themselves. The colors were purple and green in this picture.

Mrs. Hartley sponsored the dance. But has success gone to her head?

Two satisfied customers will testify-- the dance was a ball.

Assemblies

Our first assembly was held in November in the high school auditorium. The speaker was Bob Crouch. He showed films and spoke of his experiences during a ten week study tour in Africa. In March, Mr. Robert Peterson presented an interesting talk on the new capital of Brazil, Brazilia. This, too, was held at the high school auditorium. Finally, in April, Rabbi Newman of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, spoke to the student body in the Presbyterian Church on the differences and similarities of the Christian and Jewish faiths. These lectures, for the most part, were well attended and well received.

Robert Peterson relates an experience in Brazilia.

Bob Crouch tells the students about Africa.

Orientation

Orientation took place during the last days of September. At this time, the students were given a welcoming address by Donald Seaton, President of the College, and Mr. Abbott, Dean. The students were told what was expected of them and given literature to explain the adjustment they must make from high school to college. A testing schedule was set up for the freshmen tests and students were given a chance to get acquainted both with the other students and the school.

For some, this is their first taste of college life.
