

Jerry Cooper

Ray Brown

Ron Hopkins

Marcia Day

Kathy McDonald

Mary Kay Keller

Sacred Heart Junior Senior Prom Tonight

"Underwater Fantasy" will mark the theme for the annual banquet and prom at Sacred Heart High School on this Wednesday evening.

The junior decorating committee has transformed the Parish Hall into a realistic replica of the bottom of the sea. A large sunken ship dominates the scene. The walls are decorated with painted waves and a varied array of colorful fishes. To complete the underwater atmosphere, a large mural of a whale forms a backdrop for the stage.

"Neptune's Court," the junior-senior banquet, will start the evening off at 6:30. Ed Dittmer, junior president, will act as master of ceremonies. Speeches accenting the theme will be given by Ron Hopkins, Bernard Judge, Pat Duffy, Karen Fitzgerald, Pat Douroumes, and Janet Barger. "Asleep in the Deep" will be sung by Tom Matt, Gary Mullins, and James Cady. Annette Carroll, Gary Mullins, Janet Barger, Linda Hale, Janet Steuerwald, Tom Matt, James Cady, and Mary Sue Rolfes will sing "Three Little Fishies." Rosemary Culver will be the accompanist. Following the entertainment, Monsignor Ryan will speak at the banquet.

The Oscar Hall Trio from Marshalltown will provide dance music from 8:30 until 11:30. The orchestra will play "Ebb Tide" to begin the Grand March. Taking the lead will be Ed Dittmer and Janet Barger, and Ron Hopkins, senior president, and Mary Sue Rolfes.

The next step for the group will be the Rialto Theater for a showing of "Hey Boys, Hey Girls." Voting for King and Queen will take place at the theater. Candidates are: Marcia Day, Kathy McDonald, and Mary Kay Keller; Jerry Cooper, Ray Brown, and Ron Hopkins.

A smorgasbord together with more dancing will be held in the Parish Hall following the movie. A special talent show among the members of the group is also planned.

To Enter Sisters Of Charity, B.V.M. Novitiate, Dubuque

Miss Marcia Day, daughter of Mrs. Clara Day, 1522 Marshall street, will leave Sunday, August 2nd, for Dubuque, where she will enter the novitiate of the Sisters of Charity, Blessed Virgin Mary, at Mount Carmel. She will become a postulant in the Congregation.

Miss Day, a graduate of Sacred Heart High School with this year's class, was active in various school groups. She was Sodality Prefect, president of the Pep Club, and was an honor student, a member of the National Honor Society.

'Homecoming' Activities At Sacred Heart Successful, Despite Storm 1959

It was "Homecoming" day at Sacred Heart high school Thursday, January 29th, and the special events planned were successful — despite some disappointments created by the severe snowstorm and icy highways that developed later in the day. The festivities began with a spirited Pep Rally in the Parish Hall Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, at which time Sister Mary Aquilina, B.V.M., sister superior of Sacred Heart, announced the selection of the "homecoming queen."

Miss Sue Wilson, a senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, was elected homecoming queen by the student body through a secret vote Wednesday. The votes were kept sealed until the announcement Thursday morning at the pep rally.

"Queen Sue" was crowned by Larry Conway, with Jerry Cooper, crown bearer, both senior students, and she was presented a bouquet of roses by Jerry Cooper as a "tribute" from the student body. Misses Marcia Day and Patricia Brice, both seniors, were queen candidates and they served as the queen's attendants. They were presented colonial bouquets by their escorts, Ronnie Hopkins and Jim Matt, respectively.

The Sacred Heart high school cheer leaders, who have been doing an excellent job of leading cheers throughout the basketball season, led some peppy and novelty cheers to spur the Sacred Heart Spartans to victory in their scheduled homecoming game with St. Joseph's of Bode — and there's where the weatherman stepped in!

During the noon hour, when the storm had already become severe in parts of the state, a telephone call from Bode brought word that the St. Joseph's boys would be unable to make the trip to Boone because of the storm — so no game! But the Homecoming Dance went on as scheduled, beginning with a Grand March at 8 o'clock led by the queen, Miss Wilson, with Howard I. (Chris) Cooper, director. Mr. Cooper also took charge of recorded music for dancing throughout the evening. Father Richard Macke, assistant pastor and athletic director, spoke briefly at the pep rally and chaperoned the dance in the evening.

The dance was planned especially for parents of students and Sacred Heart alumni members and a number of them braved the storm to be present. But many others who had planned to attend, looked out the window at snowdrifts piling up and decided that "home was the safest place to be" — and so missed the "Homecoming."

The Parish Hall was festively decorated with the school colors of blue and white and with the basketball motif, as a tribute to the Spartans, who have had a successful season which carried them into second-round play in the eastern section of the Sioux City diocese tournament.

Refreshments were served during the evening, with Mrs. E. R. Brown and Mrs. Rosella Hopkins assisting the students. Arrangements for the Homecoming were in charge of the Pep Club. Most of the student group went to the Chick-A-Dine for an after-the-dance supper.

Shown in the accompanying picture, taken at the Pep Rally Thursday morning, are the queen and attendants and escorts, left to right: Larry Conway, Ronnie Hopkins, Marcia Day, "Queen" Sue Wilson, Patricia Brice, Jim Matt and Jerry Cooper. (Staff photo by Jim Anderson.)

Sisters of Charity, B.V.M. Honored At Recognition Program On 125th Anniversary

The Order of The Sisters of Charity, Blessed Virgin Mary, who have taught at the local Sacred Heart School for the past 71 years, received a special tribute Sunday afternoon, November 23rd, at the Parish Hall in observance of the 125th anniversary of the founding of the Order at Mount Carmel, Dubuque, Iowa. The recognition program and "open house" was sponsored by the Sacred Heart Altar Society, of which Mrs. William Bauler is president, and the Parent-Teachers Association of which Mrs. Roy Thede is president.

Arrangements for the afternoon were in charge of various committees from both sponsoring groups, assisted by others in the parish. A large group of members and friends of the parish, including St. Mary's and neighboring parishes assembled at 2 o'clock to pay tribute to the eight Sisters of Charity B.V.M. now teaching at Sacred Heart.

At 2:30 a program was presented with an alumnus, Dr. T. J. Kane, as toastmaster. Interspersing his introductions with appropriate observations and quotations, Dr. Kane presented the following program:

Opening remarks and a tribute of appreciation to the Sisters by the pastor, the Rt. Rev. Monsignor J. J. Ryan, "History of the Sisters of Charity, B.V.M. since its founding 125 years ago at Mount Carmel, Dubuque, Iowa," Miss Helen M. Stevens, hymns, "Our Lady of Fatima" and "Mother Beloved," by a group of alumnae members of Sacred Heart, Miss Deloris Headley, Mrs. Roy Thede, Mrs. Richard Riordan, Miss Madonna Mestdagh, Miss Eileen Ryan, Mrs. Robert Wickman, Mrs. Myron Elsberry and Mrs. Raymond Snyder, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Frances McDonald, selection, "Let the Rest of the World Go By," by the Fitzgerald family, John Fitzgerald, and his sisters, Mrs. Richard Riordan, Mrs. Myron Elsberry and Mrs. Raymond Snyder, accompanied by Mrs. McDonald.

Early-day graduates were introduced as follows, Mrs. Mary Murphy, of the first graduating class of 1890, Mrs. Joseph Flannery, class of 1893, Mrs. Nora McDermott, 1900, Mrs. Harry Nelson, 1896 and Miss Nellie Fox, 1891, Miss Fox being unable to attend. Regis Duffy read the history of the Sacred Heart School.

Speaking in behalf of the parents and expressing appreciation to the Sisters was Richard McDonald played a medley of piano numbers, and Steve Chance, representing the school students, presented the Sisters a spiritual bouquet from all of the school children, and a large basket of flowers from the high school students.

Mrs. Roy Thede, representing the P.T.A., and Mrs. Henry Judge, representing the Altar Society, presented a "money tree" composed of 125 dollar bills, to the Sisters as a remembrance from the societies.

Concluding the speaking program, Sister Mary Aquilina, B.V.M., the Superior of Sacred Heart, expressed appreciation in behalf of all of the Sisters for the many courtesies extended on the occasion. The program closed with the showing of colored films taken at Mount Carmel, shown by the Sisters. During the afternoon, a complete list was read of all of the Boone young men and women who have entered religious orders, and greetings were read from alumni members, former assistant priests, Monsignor C. J. Ivis of Storm Lake and others unable to attend, including a message from Mother Mary Consolatrice, B.V.M., Superior General of the Sisters of Charity, B.V.M., Mount Carmel, Dubuque. Father Francis J. Illg, pastor of St. John's Catholic church in Ogden, was introduced. All of those participating in the program were graduates of Sacred Heart.

In the history of Sacred Heart, it was recalled that in 1887 the late Father Lenihan established the local school, at which time four Sisters of Charity, B.V.M. were sent to Boone, with Sister Mary Barromeo as the first superior. From that small beginning, the parish grew to its present properties, including a new school and convent. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. J. Ryan, who was appointed pastor here in June, 1931, started a fund for a new school building, and later a new convent building, which have been completed through the years.

In the course of the years, Sacred Heart Parish has had five young men become priests and two more are now studying for the priesthood, and 29 young women have entered religious orders.

Following the program, a social period was enjoyed and refreshments were served. A celestial blue and white color note was featured in all of the beautiful decorations throughout the hall. The gift table, covered with a lace cloth over blue satin, was centered with a white chrysanthemum plant and lighted with blue and white candles in crystal candelabra. At one end of the table was the "money tree," fashioned of blue and white, with branches "blooming" with dollar bills. At the other end of the table were two large decorated baskets of frozen foods and canned goods, gifts from the St. Mary's members of the parish.

There are a lot of tired members of the junior and senior class of Boone Sacred Heart high school this Thursday and rightfully so because they had their all-night party Wednesday night, which started with a 6:30 o'clock banquet and wound up about sun-up this Thursday morning. "Underwater Fantasy" was the general theme for the annual banquet and prom which was held at the Parish hall. The hall was transformed into a realistic replica of the bottom of the sea with a large sunken ship as the dominate scene.

Pictured above are some of those enjoying themselves at the banquet.

The next stop was the prom with a Marshalltown musical trio providing the music which opened with "Ebb

The thrill of being elected king and queen of your high school all-night junior-senior party is plainly visible in the faces of Ray Brown and Kathy McDonald as they were being crowned the royal couple at the Boone Sacred Heart party Wednesday night. Crowning the king, left, was Dick Riordan and crowning the smiling queen was Mrs. Tom Quinlan. Mr. and Mrs. Riordan and Mr. and Mrs. Quinlan were the chaperones for the party. The crowning took place at 2:30 o'clock this Thursday morning at the Parish Hall. (Photos by Lainson).

"Tide" as the grand march got underway. Leading the grand march were, left to right, Janet Barger and Ed Dittmer, junior class president, and Mary Sue Rolfes and Ron Hopkins, senior class president. After the group enjoyed their dancing until 11:30 o'clock the entire party moved to the Rialto theatre for a special showing of "Hey Boys, Hey Girls". At this time balloting took place for the king and queen to rule over the balance of the all-night party.

After the showing the group returned to the Parish hall for a smorgasbord and more dancing and special entertainment which filled in the night. The crowning of Queen Kathy McDonald and King Ray Brown, shown below, was the high point of the after-theatre party. (All photos from Lainson Studio).

Nurses Training

Miss Patricia Mlover, daughter of Mrs. Mary Mlover, 1227 Boone street, will leave Monday, August 31st, for Sioux City, where she will enter the St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing. She will be accompanied to Sioux City by her mother and aunt, Miss Helen Burke. Miss Mlover was a member of the 1959 graduating class from Sacred Heart High School, where she took the college preparatory course and was active in various school groups.

Sacred Heart Graduates in Profession And Reception Ceremonies at Mt. Carmel

Two graduates of Sacred Heart High School participated in reception and profession ceremonies at Mount Carmel, Dubuque, Tuesday morning, February 3rd at 7:30, at which Archbishop Leo Binz of Dubuque pontificated. Sister Mary Miguel, B.V.M., the former Lorraine Conway, made profession and pronounced her first vows in the Community of the Sisters of Charity, Blessed Virgin Mary.

During this semester, Sister

Beth Fangman In Novitiate At Mt. Carmel

Miss Beth Fangman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Fangman, 422 South Linn street, was one of 77 young women to enter the novitiate of the Sisters of Charity, Blessed Virgin Mary at Mount Carmel, Dubuque, Iowa, Saturday, August 2nd. She will be a postulant for six months and will then be received as a novice into the Community and receive her religious name.

Miss Fangman was a member of the 1958 graduating class from Sacred Heart High School and was valedictorian of her class. She was accompanied to Dubuque by Mr. and Mrs. Fangman and son, James, who visited for a few days in Dubuque and have returned to Boone.

Mary Miguel will continue her college studies for a bachelor of arts degree at Clarke College until the fall semester, when she will take up residence in the new scholasticate and complete her studies at Mundelein College, Chicago. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Conway, 1021 15th street.

The former Beth Fangman was received into the Community of the Sisters of Charity, B.V.M., receiving the religious habit of the order, and will now be known as Sister Mary Bernadina, B.V.M. She will spend a canonical year in a study of the Scriptures and the rules and vows of the order in preparation for her religious life. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Fangman, 422 South Linn.

Among the many members of the clergy and the Sisters who were permitted to be present for the ceremonies were the Rev. Father Robert M. Fangman of Corpus Christi, Fort Dodge, Jim Fangman, of St. Paul's Seminary at St. Paul, Minn., and Sister Mary Sylvestra, B.V.M., of St. Dorothy's parochial school in Chicago, brothers and sister of Sister Mary Bernadina, B.V.M.

Ronald Hopkins Of Sacred Heart Superior Student

Ronald Hopkins, a senior in Sacred Heart High School, has been commended for a superior performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test in the 1958-59 program. The Letter of Commendation indicates that Ronald ranks in the top two or three percent in ability of senior students in their respective states and should be given every encouragement to continue with his education. According to the President of the NMSC, John M. Stalnaker, each of these commendatory students "has demonstrated highly superior ability and outstanding promise to benefit from college training."

One of the purposes of the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test is to identify able and promising students throughout the country, and because of the superior ability these seniors have demonstrated, they are recommended by the NMSC to any college or university they may wish to attend, since they are classified as belonging to a distinguished group of students. They are the next highest scorers, after the finalists in each state.

Ronald Hopkins is the son of Mrs. Rosella Hopkins, 11 Greene St.

April 1971

Math champs

Winners of second place in the Mathematics Tournament for high school girls at Clarke College in Dubuque, April 3, were eight girls from St. Edmond High School in Fort Dodge, taught by Sister Mary St. David, B.V.M.

From left they are: Patty Ford, Mary Kelly, Mary Riches,

Joanne Bohs, Trudy Shaw, Sister Mary St. David, Debbie Wiederin, Margaret Mills and Marcia Lawlor.

One hundred fifty-six girls from 23 high schools participated in the 13th annual tournament. St. Edmond's placed first in the 1967 contest.

59 SPARTAN STALWARTS — Boone Sacred Heart basketball coach Noel Jones is encircled by six senior members of his 1958-59 team. All but one was a regular. In three years since rebirth of program at Sacred Heart the team has compiled 23-29 won-lost record. It was 11-8 this season. Mike Fitzgerald and Ray Brown are in foreground with Larry Conway, Ron Hopkins, Jerry Cooper and Jim Matt behind Coach Jones. (Staff photo by Wayne Shaw).

Boone native, Jesuit, to be ordained priest

Boone — The Rev. Mr. Peter J. Fleming, son of Mrs. Florence Fleming here, will be ordained to the priesthood in the Society of Jesus Sept. 1 at 7:30 p.m. in St. John's University Church on the Creighton University campus in Omaha, Neb.

Archbishop Daniel E. Sheehan of Omaha will confer the sacrament. A reception will follow in Becker Hall on the Creighton campus.

Rev. Mr. Fleming will be chief celebrant at a concelebrated Mass of thanksgiving Sept. 5 at 1 p.m. in the Church of the Sacred Heart in Boone. A reception in the parish hall will follow.

Born Oct. 24, 1939, he was graduated from Sacred Heart High school in 1957 and attended Creighton for one year on an academic scholarship. He entered the Jesuits Aug. 17, 1958 at St. Stanislaus Seminary, Florissant, Mo., taking his first vows in August 1960. He continued his classical studies at Jesuit College, an affiliate of Marquette University from 1960 to 1962, serving during that time as assistant librarian in the Jesuit College at St. Bonifacius, Minn.

Philosophical studies continued at St. Louis University from 1962 to 1965 where he earned a bachelor's degree in philosophy and a master's degree in English.

During these studies he served as assistant librarian of the College of Philosophy and Letters at St. Louis University, took pastoral training with minority groups in St. Louis and taught religion at St. Francis Xavier elementary school in St. Louis.

The Rev. Mr. Fleming was a high school instructor at Creighton Preparatory High School in Omaha from 1965 to 1968, instructor in English, French and film criticism, and assistant director of development from 1967 to 1968. He established the first film criticism program in Nebraska, and on a National Defense Education Act grant studied Mandarin Chinese at San Francisco State College in 1968.

Rev. Peter J. Fleming

He pursued theology at the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley, Calif., an affiliate of the University of Santa Clara from 1968 to 1971. He will receive his master's degree in theology in June of 1972.

He is doing post-graduate work in language and theology at the Goethe Institute and the University of Berlin in Germany working toward his doctorate in Comparative Religion. He has contributed to several Catholic and secular publications.

Peter Fleming Gets His Degree

Peter J. Fleming, S.J., son of Mrs. Florence Fleming, 921 13th street, received a bachelor of arts degree in the college of philosophy and letters at St. Louis University at St. Louis, Mo., in June.

There were 1,161 degrees presented at the commencement bringing the total of 2,043 degrees conferred during the 1963-64 academic year.

Jerry Cooper, Boone native, dies in crash

Jerry Cooper, 36, a native of Boone, was killed Sunday afternoon in a plane crash near Tama.

Cooper, a Perry pharmacist, had owned Cooper Pharmacy and Drug Store in Perry for ten years.

Cooper, Ron Bronnenberg, a Perry businessman, and Gay B. Hall, a student at the Mental Health Institute at Independence, were flying to Independence when the mishap occurred, according to authorities. The victims died instantly when the plane nosedived into a snow-covered field on the Arnold Chantland farm northeast of the Long Point Bridge over the Iowa River.

The wreckage was spotted first by a freight train crew, which radioed the Northwestern Railroad Tower at Tama.

The Tama County sheriff's office was notified around 3:40 p.m.

Randall J. Tarlton, manager of the Perry Municipal Airport, said Bronnenberg came to the airport early Sunday to get reacquainted with flying. He took off between 2 and 3 p.m., he said.

Cox was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cooper of 910 Fourteenth St. in Boone. Other survivors include a sister, Mrs. Tom Currier, 927 South Marshall St., a brother, Jan, 910 Fourteenth St., both of Boone, his wife, Kitty Cooper, three sons, Tracey, 10; Sean, 8; and Jason, 7, all of Perry.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 10 a.m. at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Boone with the Rosary at 8 p.m. at Schroeder Funeral Home on Tuesday evening.

DITTMER

BOONE — Patricia J. Dittmer, 45, 820 14th St., died June 21, 1985, from injuries received in a auto accident. She was born Feb. 10, 1940, in Melcher the daughter of Ed and Mary Schaefer Dittmer.

Dittmer had been employed at Iowa State University for 10 years.

She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers and one sister.

Survivors include five brothers, Charles, Chicago, Ill., Herb, Boone, Clarence, Orlando, Fla., Dean, Colorado Springs, Colo., Ed, Winter Harbor, Maine; three sisters, Nora Ripperger, Milan, Ill., Marcella Norman, Des Moines, Viola Smith, Ankeny.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday at the Church of the Sacred Heart with the Rev. James McAlpin officiating. Burial will be in the Sacred Heart Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Schroeder Funeral Home until 9 p.m. Monday and from 8 a.m. until time of the services Tuesday. Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. Monday at Schroeders.

The Juniors and Seniors of the Boone Sacred Heart high school held their annual prom Wednesday evening at the parish hall of the school using the theme "The Cinderella Ball" for the evening's entertainment. A complete story of the prom appears on Page 5 of this issue. On the left above Tom Conway, junior class president, Miss Susan Kane, Miss Mary Sue Rolfes senior class president and Ronald Hopkins stop for a cup of frappe at the ball while in the center Miss Judy Shuster was chosen to enact the role of Cinderella and Mike Kunz was elected prince. They were crowned during the evening's festivities while on the right, before the gold-wheeled pumpkin are Kirby Flanagan, vice president of the junior class, Miss Judy Master-son, Miss Sue Miller and Tom Pestotnik as they enjoyed the occasion. (Staff photos by Jim Anderson).

—Van's Studio, Denver, Colo.

George A. Rolfes and Daughter, Mary Susan, At College Event

George A. Rolfes and daughter, Miss Mary Susan, 1425 Benton street, sit out a dance at the Dad-Daughter dinner dance, a highlight of the second annual D-D Weekend held recently at Loretto Heights College, Denver, Colo., where Mary Sue is a freshman. She was a member of the 1960 graduating class from Sacred Heart High school.

The three day festivities opened with attendance at the final performance of Loretto's 'Star Nights' 1961 production of Brigadoon.

To acquaint the dads with intellectual life on campus, several interdisciplinary academic sessions were featured, centering about the theme, "Man and the Universe." A recreational interlude of tennis, swimming, golf, chess, cards and checkers was highlighted by a "Peter and the Wolf" swim show arranged by the Heights' Swim Club and a dads vs. daughters softball game.

The weekend closed with Sunday mass followed by a breakfast entitled Agape, (Love Feast).

Obituary

RT. REV. MSGR. J. J. RYAN

A Solemn Requiem High Mass was offered at 10 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 5, in Blessed Sacrament Church, Sioux City, for the Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. J. Ryan, 79, retired, who died Monday, November 2nd, at mass, in the chapel at St. Monica's Home, Sioux City. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. E. F. Casey, Fort Dodge, was celebrant of the requiem mass, Father Jerome Koenig, Denison, was deacon and Father Richard Macke, Dayton, sub-deacon.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Newman Flanagan, pastor of Blessed Sacrament Church, preached the sermon, paying tribute to Monsignor Ryan and noting his many achievements as a pastor in the Sioux City diocese for more than 50 years. Father Dean Walker, formerly of Boone, directed the priests' choir; Fathers Armand Elbert and Walker served as chanters for the Office of the Dead.

Priest pallbearers were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. James Duhigg, Estherville, Father Gerald Skahill, Cherokee, Msgr. J. L. Bauer, Boone, Father E. E. Apt, Merrill, Father Robert Fangman, LeMars, formerly of Boone, Father Norbert Roes, Salix. Lay pallbearers were C. F. Stillwell, Dr. F. J. Lohr, William Berger, Thomas Greer, Uhlrich Bunkers and A. J. Toller. Most of the participating priests were former assistant pastors who served with the late Monsignor Ryan at Boone or other parishes.

In addition to Monsignor Bauer and Father Richard Remmes, a large group attended the services from the local parish, including all of the Sisters on the faculty, as school was closed for the day.

Following mass, interment was made in the Priests' lot in Calvary cemetery in Sioux City, following the recently expressed request by the deceased.

Tuesday morning, November 3, a requiem mass was solemnized at 11 o'clock at the Church of the Sacred Heart for the late Monsignor Ryan. The pastor, the Very Rev. Msgr. J. L. Bauer, was celebrant. Father Richard Remmes, assistant pastor, was deacon, and Father Richard Macke, pastor of Christ the King Church at Dayton, a former assistant pastor here, was subdeacon. The mass was sung by the school choir. Monsignor Bauer preached the sermon, paying tribute to Monsignor Ryan for his work in the Sacred Heart parish, as he reviewed his years as pastor.

Among the members of the neighboring clergy attending were Fathers John Ryan, Ames, Karl Hanson, Madrid, Francis Ilg, Ogden, Clemens Knobbe, Grand Junction, J. P. McGuire, Jefferson, William Buckholz, Lohrville. All of the school children and faculty attended the mass, along with many members and friends of the parish.

Thursday morning, a requiem mass was solemnized for Monsignor Ryan at Sacred Heart church, with Father Thomas J. Munn, chaplain at Woodward State hospital as celebrant. The mass was sung by the school choir and attended by a large representation of the parish.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. John J. Ryan was born June 1, 1885, in Lewistown, Maine, the son of Lawrence Ryan and Julia Buckley. He attended public and parochial schools in Lewistown and his secondary education was received at the Sacred Heart Prep School in Watertown, N. Y. He also studied at Laval University, Quebec, and the Catholic University at Washington, D. C. He was ordained to the priesthood on April 8, 1908, by Bishop Henry Gabriels, Bishop of Ogdensburg, N. Y.

Monsignor Ryan served as a pastor in Catholic churches of the Sioux City diocese for more than 50 years, including parishes at Onawa, Early, Sioux City, Salix, and at Sacred Heart church from 1931 until February, 1964, when he retired. He was later appointed chaplain at St. Monica's Home. He was elevated to the dignity of Domestic Prelate on April 16, 1959. During his pastorate at Sacred Heart, he was honored on numerous occasions, including his silver and golden jubilees, and at a farewell tribute on his retirement at which the members of the parish were joined by many in the community.

Rev. Jerome Koenig

Father C. H. Friedman

SISTER MARY URSULINA

2507
Four Sisters of Charity, BVM with ties to the Diocese of Sioux City are celebrating 75 years in religious life this fall.

Sister Marian McGonegle (William James) taught at Sacred Heart, Boone, 1936-47.

She has also been an educator and parish minister in Dubuque and Clinton, Iowa, and in South Dakota, Wyoming, Illinois, Arizona and Illinois.

Sr. Marian

Father Robert Phillips, Newly Assigned Assistant Pastor Here

Recently appointed new assistant pastor to Father J. J. Ryan at the Church of the Sacred Heart is Father Robert Phillips. This is the second assignment for Father Phillips. He is taking the place of Father John Terpstra, now a chaplain in a hospital in Estherville.

Previous to his new assignment, Father Phillips was an assistant pastor in the Immaculate Conception Church in Sioux City. He was head of athletics in Catholic schools in Sioux City and had a grade school boxing program.

He was also area chaplain for the Sgt. Floyd Boy Scout Area and helped organize the Catholic boy scouts in the area.

As assistant to Father Ryan, his duties will be varied. He may be in the school some in the fall and will take over the Sacred Heart Student Club. He will also be the head of athletics.

Born and raised in Emmetsburg, Father Phillips graduated from St. Mary's Academy there, participating in six-man football, basketball and baseball.

Following high school, he attended Trinity College in Sioux City and took a seminary course in the Kenerick Seminary in St. Louis. He was ordained May 4, 1949 and went to Sioux City to serve.

Living in different parts of the country, Father Phillips has two brothers and two sisters. His father still lives in Emmetsburg. (Staff Photo by Tom Siler)

Father Remmes August 14 '66

The Church of the Sacred Heart and St. Mary's Mission will hold a farewell party at the Boone Golf and Country Club Sunday evening, August 14, at 8 o'clock honoring Father Richard Remmes, assistant pastor, who will leave next week for Storm Lake, to assume his duties as assistant at St. Mary's Church, of which the Rt. Rev. Msgr. C. J. Ivis is pastor. Father Remmes has been the local assistant for the past four years, during which he has made many friends in the parish and throughout the community.

A brief program will be presented, after which the rest of the evening will be enjoyed informally, during which those attending will be given an opportunity to extend personal farewells to Father Remmes. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

All parishioners are invited to attend the farewell event. All others in the community are welcome.

MSGR. JOHN BAUER

Msgr. Rev. John Lawrence Bauer, former pastor at Sacred Heart died March 9, 1978.

Msgr. Bauer, since 1974, had been pastor at Corpus Christi at Fort Dodge.

He is preceded in death by his parents William and Clara Bauer.

He was born August 23, 1919 at Rembrandt.

He attended elementary school at Rembrandt and St. Mary's at Storm Lake. He attended high school at St. Mary's and he received a bachelor of arts degree at Trinity College at Sioux City.

He studied theology at St. Mary's Seminary at Baltimore, Maryland.

He was ordained to priesthood on Feb. 18, 1945 in Sioux City by Bishop Edmond Heelan.

Survivors include Rev. W.B. Bauer, St. Cecilia parish in Algona, Mrs. Dorothy Speckeen, Billings, Montana, Mrs. Tony (Mary) Ganje, Riverside, California, Mrs. Harold (Loretta) Sholl, Covington, Kentucky.

Services will be Monday, March 13, 1978 at the Corpus Christi Church at 11:00 a.m. at Fort Dodge.

Fr. McAlpin

Fr. McCormick

Father Richard Macke Honored At Farewell Parish Tribute

The Rev. Father Richard Macke, who has been assistant pastor at the Church of the Sacred Heart for the past five years, was given a farewell tribute Sunday evening, May 14th, at the Parish Hall, with a large attendance from Sacred Heart and St. Mary's parish, many non-resident guests and visiting clergy. Father Macke has been named pastor of the Christ the King church at Dayton, Iowa, and will assume his duties this week.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. J. Ryan, pastor, opened the program with a tribute to Father Macke, speaking words of praise for his splendid service to the people of the parish and observing that he has made many friends throughout the community.

Robert E. Mahoney introduced the program, which opened with an organ solo by Paul Douroumis. Kirby Flanagan, senior class president, spoke in behalf of the school, expressing appreciation of Father Macke's work with the school children and the great interest he has taken in the various phases of school activities. He presented Father Macke a "spiritual bouquet", a gift from the students.

Miss Kathy Havens gave her Marion Day Rally tribute with which she represented Sacred Heart High School in the recent Sioux City diocese speech contest at Sioux City. The High School Girls Glee Club sang two numbers, "Who's That Tapping at My Door" and "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You", accompanied at the piano by Miss Alice Carver.

Speaking in behalf of the visiting clergy was a former Boone resident, Father Robert Fangman of Fort Dodge, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Fangman of Boone. Richard T. Jordan, speaking in behalf of the parish, praised the excellent work of Father Macke in the parish, noting that in addition to the customary duties of an assistant pastor, he has given so many services above and beyond the call of duty. He spoke of Father Macke's special interest in every phase of parish life, with the small children, as counselor and teacher of religious education in the older groups, in the school's athletic program, conducting inquiry classes, promoting Christian Family movement and many other special activities outside the regular schedule of duties.

Concluding the program, Mr. Mahoney spoke further greetings from the parish and presented Father Macke a purse from Sacred Heart and St. Mary's as an expression of appreciation and friendship. Father Macke responded with farewell remarks, first introducing his mother, Mrs. Will Macke of Carroll, who was a guest of the evening. Mrs. Macke was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Leo Scheuller, of Carroll, long-time family friends.

In his remarks, Father Macke thanked Monsignor Ryan, the visiting clergy and all who helped make the farewell tribute a heartwarming memory to take with him to nearby Dayton. He said it was an occasion of "part joy and part sadness—sadness in leaving his Boone friends, and happiness in entering into his new duties as a pastor."

Members of the clergy attending the farewell party were the Rev. Fathers John P. McGuire, Jefferson, Clem Knobe, Grand Junction, Francis Illg, Ogden, Robert Fangman, Fort Dodge, Joseph Griffin, Sts. Peter's and Pauls of Gilbert, Al White, St. Mary's of Colo, Phillip McDermott, St. Cecelia's, Ames, Karl Hansen, St. Malachy's, Madrid, and John Brickley, St. Patrick's, Nevada.

Following the program, the rest of the evening was enjoyed informally, with personal farewell greetings to Father Macke, from the large group attending. Refreshments were served by the ladies of the Sacred Heart and St. Mary's Altar Societies with Mrs. Dean Briley and Mrs. Virgil Lyons co-chairmen. Those presiding at the coffee service were Mrs. S. N. Fangman, Miss Genevieve Flannery, Mrs. Florence Fleming and Mrs. Arnold Reinsch.

Mrs. Robert Vickery was in charge of the beautifully appointed serving table, featuring a pink, orchid and purple color note. Covered with a white embroidered linen cloth, the table was centered with a floral container featuring a tall white statue of St. Francis of Assisi, with the rim of the flower bowl ringed with white bird figurines, encircling a cluster of orchid and deep purple lilacs. The table was lighted with orchid and purple twist candles in a tall silver candelabra, and appointed at either end with silver service and orchid napkins. The gift table was centered with an arrangement of white snapdragons and pink and white roses.

Father Macke's successor as assistant pastor at Sacred Heart is Father Paul Bruening, who comes here from the Sacred Heart parish in Fort Dodge.

Thoughts for the week

FATHER TOM NASH

500 Attend Farewell Salute to McCormick

Father James McCormick, assistant pastor at the Church of the Sacred Heart for the past five years, who has been appointed pastor of the Sacred Heart Church at Ledyard, Iowa, was honored at a farewell party Tuesday evening, October 12, in the Ryan Parish Center. The event was planned by the Church of the Sacred Heart and St. Mary's parish.

About 500 members of the parish and many friends from throughout the community attended, including a number from out of the city. Special guests were Father McCormick's mother, Mrs. Elmo McCormick, and his brother and sister-in-law, Judge and Mrs. Mark McCormick of Fort Dodge.

At 7:30, the pastor, the Very Rev. Msgr. J. L. Bauer opened the evening's activities with a greeting of welcome and served as toastmaster for the program. The guest of honor, Father McCormick, who recently returned from a trip to Germany and Africa with his mother, showed beautifully colored slides taken during their tour of missions.

Father McCormick, who is a member of the Holy Spirit Community of Frankfurt, Germany, with missions in Africa and Sioux City, Iowa, devoted most of the time to the missions, getting acquainted with the churches, schools and convents, and the work that is being done in the mission field. As the slides

Father James McCormick

Good-Bye to Boone

Oct 1971
were shown, Father McCormick gave an interesting description of the places visited, with many personal observations.

After the pictures were shown, Monsignor Bauer introduced a guest speaker, Father James Hohlfeld, Priest-in-Charge of Grace Episcopal Church, who spoke as a representative of the Boone Ministerial Association, of which Father McCormick is a past president and active member, and also in behalf of many friends in the community.

In his farewell tribute, Father Hohlfeld said, in part, that the large gathering of friends epitomizes Father McCormick's involvement in the community; that the reaction of the various churches of the community is one of regret that he is leaving Boone. "We will feel very deeply the loss of a valuable worker in the community. We will look back and think of all the good work he has done and the good advice he has given."

In closing the program, Monsignor Bauer paid tribute to the "tremendous impact Father McCormick has made in the parish and community". He has been involved in many parish activities and responsibilities — teaching in the high school, the inquiry classes, calls on ill and shut-ins and many other phases of parish work. Monsignor Bauer also quoted figures on the number of adults and children baptized by Father McCormick during his five years in Boone; his work as chaplain of the (Continued on page 2)

Father McCormick, who is a member of the Holy Spirit Community of Frankfurt, Germany, with missions in Africa and Sioux City, Iowa, devoted most of the time to the missions, getting acquainted with the churches, schools and convents, and the work that is being done in the mission field. As the slides

Father James McCormick

Good-Bye to Boone

Oct 1971
were shown, Father McCormick gave an interesting description of the places visited, with many ties and responsibilities — teaching in the high school, the inquiry classes, calls on ill and shut-ins and many other phases of parish work. Monsignor Bauer also quoted figures on the number of adults and children baptized by Father McCormick during his five years in Boone; his work as chaplain of the

(Continued on page 2)

NOT GOODBYE . . . but "I'll be Seeing You", was the farewell message given by Father James McCormick, shown here, as he greeted relatives, members of Sacred Heart parish and friends in the community who assembled for a farewell party in his honor Tuesday evening, Oct. 12.

(Staff photo by Bob E. Person)

1971

FATHER ANTHONY PICK of the Sacred Heart Church is being transferred to the Holy Rosary Parish in Fort Dodge. Father Pick was the assistant pastor at the Sacred Heart church and an instructor at the Sacred Heart school. In his five years in Boone, he has been very active with the elderly, particularly with nursing home residents and shut-ins. Father Pick has practiced with the Boone High School boys' track team and was awarded a school letter for track. He is also known as the "jogging Father." He said of his departure, "I feel as though I will be dying to the extent that I will be missing many friends that I got to know so well. Boone has been very challenging, as well as interesting, and what I've learned while in Boone I know I will be able to use at my new assignment in Fort Dodge." Father Pick will be the Assistant Pastor at the Fort Dodge church and an instructor in the Catholic consolidated school system. There will be an open house for Father Pick at the Parish Center, Sunday, August 22, from two until four p.m. Father Pick will be leaving for Fort Dodge on August 23. His replacement will be newly ordained Father Allan Reicks. Father Reicks is currently teaching in the Storm Lake area.

1976

*who I got my instruction in join church
he help with 1929*

REPUBLICAN Boone, Iowa, Sun., June 12, 1977 3

Golden jubilee as priest

The Rev. Monsignor Clarence E. Farrelly of Emmetsburg, a former assistant pastor at the Church of the Sacred Heart in Boone, will offer a Mass of Thanksgiving at St. Thomas Church in Emmetsburg on the occasion of his golden jubilee as a priest. He served as assistant pastor at Sacred Heart from 1927 to 1931.

Monsignor Farrelly was born March 20, 1901, and was ordained a priest at the Cathedral of the Epiphany in Sioux City June 11, 1927. That year eight young men were ordained for the priesthood for the diocese of Sioux City and of that number, only two are still on active duty. Monsignor E.L. McEvoy is chaplain at the Marian Home in Fort Dodge and Monsignor Farrelly is pastor of St. Thomas Church, Emmetsburg.

On March 10, 1974, Monsignor

Farrelly was appointed a Prelate of Honor with the title of Monsignor, by His Holiness Pope Paul VI.

Monsignor McEvoy and Father Elmer D. Thom, pastor of the Assumption parish in Emmetsburg, will celebrate in offering the mass of thanksgiving. His Excellency, Most Rev. Frank H. Greteman, DD, Bishop of the Sioux City Diocese, will deliver the sermon.

It is expected that His Excellency Most Rev. Joseph M. Mueller, DD, the retired Bishop of Sioux City, will preside in the sanctuary.

After mass, dinner will be served in Harrison Park for visiting priests and guests, and for members of the parish. About 700 are expected for the dinner, including friends from the Boone area.

Father Daniel Cooper Elevated 1955

Rev. Father Daniel E. Cooper, pastor of the Presentation Catholic Church at Bellwood, Nebraska, has been honored by the Holy Father, Pope Pius XII, in selection as a member of his Pontifical Household, with the title of Monsignor and the privilege of wearing the purple robes of this office. Announcement of his selection for this honor was received from the Most Rev. Louis B. Kucero, bishop of the Lincoln, Nebraska diocese.

The new monsignor, who was ordained to the priesthood May 6th, 1937, at St. Mary's Cathedral at Lincoln, Nebr., served as an assistant pastor at the cathedral for 4½ years, after which he was appointed pastor of the Presentation Church at Bellwood, where he has continued as pastor for 14 years. He is the son of John G. Cooper, 1204 Tama street, and is a former well known resident of Boone. The family is also widely known throughout Boone and Story counties.

Monsignor Cooper, who was graduated from the Napier consolidated school, spent six years in commercial work before beginning his studies for the priesthood. He took preparatory work at the Holy Cross seminary of Notre Dame University at South Bend, Indiana, and then majored in liberal arts at Columbia College, Dubuque, now known as Loras College. He attended the St. Paul seminary at St. Paul, Minn.

Throughout his pastorate at Bellwood, Monsignor Cooper has been especially active in youth work. He has been serving as coach and athletic director for the parish school and has had charge of two school orchestras, a junior and senior musical group. The parish has experienced a steady growth through the years, and in 1949 a large new recreation center was built on the church property, which includes a church, high school and grade school and a recently completed convent home for the Sisters. The school is in charge of the Community of Franciscan Sisters from Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Father Flannery honored

Father Clement T. Flannery, 415-11th Street, was honored at a series of events Sunday, May 27, in observance of the 40th anniversary of his ordination to the Priesthood, May 21, 1939. The ordination service was in the Cathedral of the Epiphany, Sioux City, with the Most Rev. Edmond Heelan, DD, Bishop of Sioux City, officiating.

Hosts for the day's celebration were Father Flannery's four sisters and families, as follows: Miss Genevieve Flannery, at home, Mr. and Mrs. O.V. Blaylock (Katherine), of Council Bluffs and their family, Major and Mrs. James Blaylock and children, Christopher, Theresa and James Jeffrey of Indianapolis, Ind. and Joe Blaylock, Council Bluffs, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schall (Josephine), Ogden and family, Miss Kathy Schall, Council Bluffs, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schall and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Schall, Ogden and Sister Mary Dorothy Flannery, B.V.M., who has been principal at Corpus Christi School in Fort Dodge for six years and will join the faculty at St. Agnes School, Phoenix, Ariz., in the fall.

The day's observance began with a Mass of Thanksgiving at 11 a.m. in the Church of the Sacred Heart with Father Flannery celebrant. Concelebrants were Father Thomas Nash, pastor and Father Allan Reicks, associate pastor.

Acolytes were Robert E. Mahoney, who served as altar boy at Father Flannery's First Mass in Sacred Heart Church, and William Curren, Jr., a cousin. Mrs. Raymond Chance, a cousin, served as lector. Father Flannery's sisters, Mrs. Charles Schall, Sister Dorothy and Miss Genevieve Flannery presented the gifts at the offertory. Ushers were Pat Flannery, a cousin, James Ballantyne and Steve Duffy. Music for the mass was provided by a group of members from the adult and youth choirs with piano and instrumental accompaniment.

Father Nash gave the homily, paying tribute to Father Flannery with Scriptural references and recalling events of his forty years in the priesthood. At the close of mass the Jubilarian gave a message of appreciation to his family, relatives and friends for their interest and help through the years.

After mass, a buffet luncheon was served in the Parish Hall for the relatives and long-time friends. Father Reicks gave the invocation and Father Nash served as master of ceremonies for the after dinner program of congratulatory remarks and reminiscences.

FATHER CLEMENT FLANNERY

Schumacher, pastor of St. John's Church, Ogden, told of his close friendship with Father Flannery for many years. He recalled their pilgrimage trip to Rome 25 years ago and noted that they are the only two priests of the Sioux City diocese to attend both International Eucharistic Congresses held in the United States, one in Chicago in 1926 and the other in Philadelphia in 1976. Father Flannery also attended the Congress in Melbourne, Australia in 1973. Father Schumacher closed his tribute by pointing out the opportunities for service in the priesthood as exemplified by Father Flannery.

Father John Cain, pastor of St. Malachy's Church, Madrid, expressed congratulations and gave the closing benediction. All of those present introduced themselves and told of the relationship or friendship association with Father Flannery and his family.

Father Flannery closed the program with words of gratitude for all that was done by his family, relatives and friends in the community to make the day memorable for the family and the parish.

Following the luncheon, Open House was held from 1 to 3 p.m. in the Parish Hall where a Frances, Sister Joanna and Sister Patricia, all of Corpus Christi School, Fort Dodge.

Father Flannery, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Flannery, was born in Boone and was graduated from Sacred Heart High School in May, 1923. After graduation he was employed in the offices of the Chicago & North Western railroad for eight years. He began his studies for the priesthood at Trinity College, Sioux City, in 1931. In 1935, he entered St. Thomas Seminary at Denver, Colo. and was ordained May 21, 1939.

First assignment for Father Flannery was assistant pastor at Immaculate Conception Church, Sioux City. In 1940, he was assigned assistant pastor of St. Joseph Church in Sioux City with Annunciation and Kelly Park missions.

In 1944, Father Flannery was appointed chaplain at St. Anthony's Hospital in Carroll, where he also assisted at St. Lawrence Church. In December, 1948, he was named pastor of St. Joseph Church in Struble, Iowa, with a mission church at Maurice, Iowa. December 27, 1951, he was appointed pastor of St. John's Church at Gilmore City and the mission of St. Patrick's-on-the-Lizard.

homily, paying tribute to Father Flannery with Scriptural references and recalling events of his forty years in the priesthood. At the close of mass the Jubilarian gave a message of appreciation to his family, relatives and friends for their interest and help through the years.

After mass, a buffet luncheon was served in the Parish Hall for the relatives and long-time friends. Father Reicks gave the invocation and Father Nash served as master of ceremonies for the after dinner program of congratulatory remarks and reminiscences.

Robert Mahoney, whose father, the late T.J. Mahoney was the speaker at Father Flannery's First Mass observance 40 years ago, gave a talk on behalf of the parish. In his remarks he noted that Richard P. Cook, who also served as an altar boy at the First Mass, was unable to be present for the anniversary. He closed his remarks with the thought, "The parish was very proud of Father Flannery on the day of his First Mass and the parish is also proud of him today for what he has done for God and for the parish".

Darrin, Charise and Eric Mudge, children of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Mudge of Bondurant, former Boone residents, sang the song, "You Light Up My Life", dedicated to Father Flannery.

Representing the family, Sister Dorothy recalled Father's early years in the priesthood and other family reminiscences of the past forty years. In closing she said, "We are very proud to have Father Clem as a priest and brother".

Speaking for the priests of the area, Father Leo

Father Flannery.
Father John Cain, pastor of St. Malachy's Church, Madrid, expressed congratulations and gave the closing benediction. All of those present introduced themselves and told of the relationship or friendship association with Father Flannery and his family.

Father Flannery closed the program with words of gratitude for all that was done by his family, relatives and friends in the community to make the day memorable for the family and the parish.

Following the luncheon, Open House was held from 1 to 3 p.m. in the Parish Hall where a large number of friends called to extend congratulations. Ruby, the color symbolic of a 40th anniversary, pastel green and white were the colors used in the decorations.

The serving table was centered with a pyramid arrangement of red and white carnations and appointed with a crystal punch bowl and gold coffee service. The luncheon tables were decorated with ruby ribbons over white cloths and crystal bud vases of ruby red roses.

The dinner was prepared by the family with members of the Altar Society assisting with the serving and other arrangements throughout the afternoon.

Pictures of Father Flannery at his ordination and more recent pictures, along with newspaper clippings, were displayed on the gift table. Father received many gifts, cards, monetary gifts and other remembrances of his 40th anniversary.

Special guests included Sister Jonann, former principal at Sacred Heart School, Sister St. Luke, Sister Marie, Sister

Flannery was assistant pastor at Immaculate Conception Church, Sioux City. In 1940, he was assigned assistant pastor of St. Joseph Church in Sioux City with Annunciation and Kelly Park missions.

In 1944, Father Flannery was appointed chaplain at St. Anthony's Hospital in Carroll, where he also assisted at St. Lawrence Church. In December, 1948, he was named pastor of St. Joseph Church in Struble, Iowa, with a mission church at Maurice, Iowa. December 27, 1951, he was appointed pastor of St. John's Church at Gilmore City and the mission of St. Patrick's-on-the-Lizard.

February 26, 1959, Father Flannery was named pastor of St. Joseph Church in Anthon, Iowa and January 27, 1960, he became pastor of the Immaculate Conception Church at Graettinger. From June 12, 1962 until the fall of 1963, he was on a leave of absence because of illness, and was then asked to serve as acting pastor of St. Cecelia's Church at Sanborn and the mission at St. Joseph's in Hartley.

Father Flannery retired from his pastoral duties on March 26, 1967, and returned to his home in Boone. Since then he has been busy serving as a substitute pastor in a number of the parishes of the diocese.

40TH CLASS REUNION - BOONE GOLF & COUNTRY CLUB

Sacred Heart luncheon group gathers for friendship and conversation

Photo by MATT OLIVER

Tuesday afternoon was the eighth annual luncheon held by Sacred Heart High School graduates and friends. Approximately 50 women, all native to Boone, attended the get-together at the Tic Toc Restaurant, 716 Keeler St. The luncheon provided the long-time friends with the opportunity to sit down and catch up on the happenings in each other's lives.

MATT OLIVER Staff Writer

After one graduates high school there is often the challenge of maintaining friendships over the years as priorities begin to change and physical distances become a factor. However, a group of approximately 50 native Boone women have no such concern as they have discovered a means of getting together on a yearly basis for friendship and conversation.

These 50 women were either graduates of the Sacred Heart High School or simply just friends and acquaintances. The group was reunited Tuesday afternoon at the Tic Toc Restaurant, 716 Keeler St., where a luncheon was held and the women reminisced of days gone by.

In 1999, three sisters formerly of Boone arrived back in Boone due to their father's death. These women were Judy Conway of Manhattan, N.Y., Pat (Conway) Parks of Elm Grove, Wis., and Sister Mary Miguel of Quito, Ecuador. During their time back in Boone there was a small gathering of friends and family – and it grew from there.

The first year the group of women held a luncheon was in 2000 and it was spearheaded by Rosemary (Phelan) Moorman of Boone, Miguel, Conway, Parks, Irene Jacobson of Boone, Mary Kay (Jacobson) Brown of Des Moines, Janet Boesen of Boone, Ruth Morgan of Oskaloosa, Alice Brice of Ames and Ethel (Vest) Morgan of Boone.

Ever since the first luncheon, the event has gained popularity amongst its members.

"We've been doing it since 2000 and it seems to grow each year," said Conway.

Conway explained that the increase in attendance has been caused chiefly due to people's willingness to get reacquainted.

"People are wonderful and

MEMBERS OF THE BOONE HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 1957 are pictured above, left to right, front row: Loren Ely, Chuck Westberg, William Roberts, Richard Rinker, Robert Hamilton, Teddie Bergloff, Larry Meyers, Larry Land, Frank Adreon, James Lindahl. Second row: Robert Brown, Elaine Germer Glantz, Betty Cole Mowrer, Sandra Atherton Snedden, Barbara Atherton Barrett, Richard Ray, Pat Johnson Smith, Barbara Koppenhaver Johnson, Karen Dennis Horne, Shirley

Carter Calkin, Betty Ross Moorman, Sandra Chance Nordstrom. Back row: Paula Trulin Guge, Karen Ferguson Keitch, Jo Ellen Sparks Engnell, Betty McElyea Vitt, David Nelson, Carolyn Kirk Pigott, Karen Bohlen Campbell, Joyce Clark Smith, Larry Burke, Judy Houston Knutson, Mike Newbold, Tom Lainson, Jack Robertson, Jack Brannon, Laverne Snyder.

Class of 1957 celebrates 25th reunion

Members of the Boone High School graduating class of 1957 met Aug. 13 and 14 to celebrate their 25th anniversary.

Class members, spouses and invited guests met Friday evening for an informal get-together and pig roast at the Legion Cabin. The evening was spent visiting and catching up on the news of the past 25 years.

Saturday afternoon several members played golf at the Boone Golf and Country Club, while others were taken on a tour of the Mamie Eisenhower Birthplace, the Livery and the Private Stock Winery.

Saturday evening the group assembled at the Boone Elks Club for a banquet and dance.

The class colors of emerald green and white and the class flower the carnation, decorated the club rooms.

The banquet tables were decorated with arrangements of white carnations and emerald green candles. The head table featured bouquets of large yellow mums accented with "Bumble Bees" and ribbons of red and green. All arrangements were later given as door prizes.

A business meeting was conducted following dinner, and the class voted to hold another reunion in five years.

A moment of silence was held in respect for the deceased members of the class.

Prizes awarded included several humorous golf tokens. The evening concluded with dancing to music by Sweettooth.

Co-chairwomen for the anniversary reunion were Sandy Chance Nordstrom and Pat Johnson Smith. They were assisted by many classmates and their spouses.

ADDITIONAL 1957 CLASS MEMBERS are, left to right, front row: Ron Comstock, Mike Flannery, Dennis Hora, Fred Vitt, Morgan Thompkins, Bruce Williams, Lee Cook, Clyde Hall, Bob Appenzeller, Larry Jackson. Second row: Roxanne Rose Aplanalp, Mary Ann Hasstedt Reed, Janice Moorman Swain, Lylia Swain Maynard, Ed McAlpine, Donna Craven Kruse, Evanne Jennings Wagner, Caroline Stephenson Lehman, Evelyn Schoff Stockman, Jerry Manriquez. Back row: Joanne

Jacobi Tedesco, Shirley Hines Clarke, Rosemarie Kiddie Sargent, Margaret Carpenter Pepper, Fern Abramson Broome, Janice Stevens Belmar, Marilyn Pesek Hora, Marlene Weir Snyder, Raymond Guenther, Hazel Deal Pike, Susan Jones Baldus, Sandra Richmond Thompkins. Larry Ohge, Chuck Musser, Ronald Reed, Richard Young and Don Stevens attended the reunion but were not present for the picture.

Classmate memories

1995

Members of the Sacred Heart School Class of 1960 gathered recently at the Sacred Heart Parish Ball at Camp Hantesa for a class reunion. There were 18 in the class, and nine attended the event. In front is Karen (Fitzgerald) Lechlitter, Boone. In the next row are, from left, Tom Matt, Boone; Michelle (Miover) Stanley, Marshalltown and Gary Mullins of Sacramento, Calif. In the third row is Rosemary (Culver) Moore of Omaha, Neb. In the back row are Jim Peterson, Boone; Mary Sue (Rolfes) Tate, Denver; Judy (Shuster) Sorber, Boone and Janet (Steurwald) Matt, Boone.

(Photo by Chuck Hackenmiller)

Sacred Heart reunion 1978

Sacred Heart classes of 1958 and 1959 held a joint 20 year reunion, July 1 at the Colonial House. Visiting, reminiscing, looking at pictures and school items preceeded a gourmet buffet.

Delores Morain, 1958 class president, welcomed the group and invited the class members to introduce themselves, their guest and give a brief resume of their life since graduation.

Minutes from the five year reunion were read. School events, former classmates and teachers were recalled.

Eleven members of the 1958 class present were: Richard Hare, Webster City; Aaron Vest, Cherokee; Mrs. Don Hinman (Sue Casserly), Ankeny; Mrs. Larry Brown (Colleen Bennett), Boone; Mrs. Gary Richmond (Kay Turner), Boone; Mike Stammeyer, Ankeny; Patricia Dittmer, Boone; Mrs. Richard Mc-Donald (Patricia Donovan), Tulsa, Okla.; Mrs. LaVerne Morain (Delores Headley), Ogden; Thomas Murphy, Dallas, Texas; Larry Ackerman, Ames.

Of the class of 1959, the six present were: Mrs. Harold Kline (Elaine Collins), Boone; Mrs. Don Johnson (Jane Burke), Stratford; James Matt, Derby, Kansas; Mrs. Robert Elsner (Sue Wilson), Boone; Mrs. Jos'e Calderon (Mary Kay Keller), Omaha; Mrs. Don Heim (Kathy McDonald), Ames.

One death from the class of 1959 was reported, that of Jerry Cooper. It was decided to hold another reunion in five years.

Any change of addresses are to be sent to Kay Richmond or Elaine Kline.

Kay Richmond, Sue Elsner, Eline Kline and Delores Morain were in charge of the arrangements for the reunion.

Oct 2-201

Contributed photo

The Sacred Heart School graduating class of 1961 gathered recently at the home of Michael Lacey for their 40th class reunion. Graduates attended Sunday Mass and took a tour of Sacred Heart School before joining the Boone High School class of 1961 on Sunday. The class presented a generous donation to the Sacred Heart School Endowment Fund. Pictured above are, first row, from the left, Susan Kane Govier, Steve Chance, Pat Keller McGriff, Judy Masterson Mertens, Kay Elsberry Ingalls and Alice Carver Fellinham. Second row, Michael Lacey, Don Garvey, Kirby Flanagan, Judy Loehrer, Linda Hopkins Nutt and Bill Ryan.

Photo by MATT OLIVER

Pictured at left, is a group of the women who attended the Sacred Heart luncheon on Tuesday afternoon. Though most of those in attendance were Sacred Heart graduates, some were friends and acquaintances of the group.

SACRED HEART CLASS OF 1958
50 year reunion - Oct. 11, 2008 - Tic Toc Rest. - Boone, Ia.

Eleven of the class of 15 are living and all returned for the reunion. We invited others that were classmates through the years but did not graduate from SHS.

L. R: Colleen Brown, Gary Richmond, Vreela/Dean Aloright, Tom Pestotnik, Kay Richmond, Jerry Murphy, Diane Curran (standing), Beth Maulik, Harold (Bill) Schell, Sue Hinman

L-R: Gary Richmond, Sue Hinman, Colleen Brown, Pat Frazier, Tom Pestotnik, Diane Curran, Dan Garvey, Roger/Beth Maulik, Jerry Murphy

L R: Diane Curran, Dan Garvey, Sue Hinman, Jerry Murphy, Beth/Roger Maulik, Pat Frazier

L-R: Kay/Gary Richmond, Harold (Bill) Schell, Colleen Brown, Vreela/Dean Albright, Tom Pestotnik

L-R: Loran Frazier, Dale Elsberry, Karen Svenson (all Boone High), Earl Brice

Conway Gathering - Tic Toc - August 2004 or 2005

Organizers - Pat Brice, Rosemary Moorman, Janet Boesen, Alice Lowe

SEPT

L-R: Gary & Kay Richmond, Vreela Albright, Charlene Brice

L-R: Jane Johnson, Sue Nickel, Elaine Kline, Judy & Ron Hopkins,
Lisa Boucher & daughters, Clare & Grace (Sue Nickel's family)

L-R: Ed & Charlene Brice, Pete Mlover, Dan Garvey

L-R: Delores Miller, Mary Kay Calderon, Vreela Albright, Joe Calderon

Church of the Sacred Heart, Boone

Boone Catholic community dates back to 1860

The Catholic community of Boone dates back to June 13, 1860, when Father John H. Marsh said the first Mass for two Catholic families in Boonesboro (West Boone).

A frame church dedicated to St. Joseph was built at 5th and Clay Streets in Boonesboro in 1865. Father Delany (1868-1872) was the parish's first permanent pastor. Following the acquisition of a parish cemetery to St. Patrick, the parish name was changed to St. Patrick in 1871.

Father John Concannon (1872-1875), Father T. J. Mackey (1875-1878), Father Patrick Smith (1878-1886) and Father B. C. Lenehan (1887-1903) served St. Patrick's/Sacred Heart into the 20th Century.

ther Edward Masterson (1925-1931), Msgr. John J. Ryan (1931-1964), Msgr. J. L. Bauer (1964-1974) and Father Thomas Nash (1974-1981) all served at Boone.

Father Barron is credited with purchasing a home for the teaching sisters, repainting the interior of the church and building a new brick rectory. In addition, he established St. Mary's Mission, eight miles northeast of Boone, to serve the Catholics in that area.

A new pipe organ was installed for $3,100 during Father Masterson's pastorate at Sacred Heart. Msgr. Ryan oversaw a major redecoration of the church, substituting the Transfiguration

Catholic families in Boonesboro (West Boone).

A frame church dedicated to St. Joseph was built at 5th and Clay Streets in Boonesboro in 1865. Father Delany (1868-1872) was the parish's first permanent pastor. Following the acquisition of a parish cemetery to St. Patrick, the parish name was changed to St. Patrick in 1871.

Father John Concannon (1872-1875), Father T. J. Mackey (1875-1878), Father Patrick Smith (1878-1886) and Father B. C. Lenehan (1887-1903) served St. Patrick's/Sacred Heart into the 20th Century.

Father Smith purchased the first portion of the current properties at 12th and Marshall Streets in Boone, thereby moving the congregation from Boonesboro to the more rapidly growing Boone. A new frame church, named Church of the Sacred Heart, was built in 1880: When the parsonage burned in March of 1881 it was quickly replaced with a new brick structure that summer. All of the parish records to date were lost in the fire.

Sacred Heart School was established under Father Lenehan. Sisters from the Community of Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary (BVM) in Dubuque staffed the school. Since Father Lenehan vacated his residence to be used as the first school, a new parochial residence was built in 1890.

On June 1, 1894, the cornerstone was laid for the current Church of the Sacred Heart. The church was a massive Romanesque stone structure, embellished with beautiful fresco paintings and magnificent stained glass windows throughout. The total cost was $35,000.

The church was dedicated in gala style on Dec. 18, 1894. The old frame church was utilized as a parish social hall for many years, after which it was moved to Madrid to serve as the Catholic church there until the 1960s.

Sacred Heart Church became part of the newly-formed Diocese of Sioux City on Jan. 15, 1902. That same year, interim pastor Father Stravens started the local Knights of Columbus Chapter, Leo Council 814.

Father Saunders (1903-1910), Father Barron (1910-1925), Fa-

Nash (1974-1981) all served at Boone.

Father Barron is credited with purchasing a home for the teaching sisters, repainting the interior of the church and building a new brick rectory. In addition, he established St. Mary's Mission, eight miles northeast of Boone, to serve the Catholics in that area.

A new pipe organ was installed for $3,100 during Father Masterson's pastorate at Sacred Heart. Msgr. Ryan oversaw a major redecoration of the church, substituting the Transfiguration scene for the original Apparition scene.

The new Sacred Heart School was built in 1951 and a new brick convent in 1958. Msgr. Bauer had a goal of building a new high school, which was completed in 1967. It was named Ryan High School in honor of Msgr. Ryan. Due to increasing costs and declining numbers of teaching sisters, the high school graduated its last class in 1970. The church was redecorated in a simple, plain motif that year.

The church was refurbished in 1978 with new pews and carpeting. In addition, St. Mary's Mission was closed after 64 years as a mission of Boone.

Father LeRoy Seuntjens (1981-1983), Father James C. McAlpin (1983-1990), Father Thomas E. Geelan (1990-1996), Father Gerald Feierfeil (1996-1998) and Father Clem W. Curran (1998-present) served at Boone over the years.

In 1989, the church regained some of its original grandeur when it was redecorated with gold leaf stenciling and color. On Oct. 9, 1994, the parish celebrated the 100th anniversary of the construction of the Church of the Sacred Heart.

Sacred Heart School continues to provide a strong Catholic education for students in preschool through 8th grade. In 114 years, Sacred Heart School has graduated 1,307 students. The school's enrollment at the end of the 2000-2001 school year was 171.

Sacred Heart Parish currently has 2,100 parishioners. Boone is clustered with St. John's of Ogden and St. Malachy's of Madrid. There have been 11 men from the parish to become priests and 30 women to become sisters.

1965 CHARTER MEMBERS—Among those attending the golden jubilee, who were members of St. Mary's Mission when the church was founded 50 years ago: front row, left to right: Virgil Lyons, Ben Moriarity, Regis Fitzgerald, Ames, Mrs. William (Catherine Lyons) Coffey, Mrs. James (Irene Lyons) Fitzgerald, Mrs. James (Beatrice Lyons) McHugh, Lawrence McNertney, Eldora, Edward Ivis, Pat McNertney; second row, left to right, Sylvester Garvey, Miss Norma Lowry, Mrs. Frank

(Florence Ivis) Judge, Ames, Mrs. George Lowry, Mrs. Dennis Garland, Mrs. George (Irene Ivis) Rickerel, McIntyre, Iowa, Mrs. Peter (Clara Mestdagh) McGlynn, Mrs. Arnold (Agatha Wilhelm) Reinsch, Mrs. Kenneth (Genevieve Lowry) Walters, John Moriarity, Ed. Garvey; 3rd row, left to right, Raphael Garvey, Miss Exilda Moriarity, Mrs. George Fitzgerald, Mrs. Charles (Mae Sullivan) Walker, Mrs. Frank (Catherine Lacey) Shuey. Des Moines, Mike Lacey, Miss Elizabeth Moriarity.

SOLEMN HIGH MASS—Participating in the Solemn High Mass observing the golden jubilee of St. Mary's Mission Church are, left to right: Father Richard Remmes, assistant pastor at the Church of the Sacred Heart, the Very Rev. Msgr. J. L. Bauer, pastor, Father Edward Mason of Garrigan High School, Sioux City, Father Richard Macke of Roselle, Iowa, former assistant pastor, celebrant, and Father Joseph Griffin, pastor of Sts. Peter's and Paul's Church at Gilbert. Acolytes are Jim, Don and Pat Riordan, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. (Dick) Riordan. (R. P. Brown photo)

...the very Rev. Msgr. J. L. Bauer, pastor, Father Edward Mason of Garrigan High School, Sioux City, Father Richard Macke of Roselle, Iowa, former assistant pastor, celebrant, and Father Joseph Griffin, pastor of Sts. Peter's and Paul's Church at Gilbert. Acolytes are Jim, Don and Pat Riordan, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. (Dick) Riordan. (R. P. Brown photo)

ST. MARY'S MISSION—St. Mary's Mission Church, founded 50 years ago, is pictured as it appears today, the scene of the golden jubilee Solemn High Mass June 16th. (Photo by R. P. Brown)

St. Mary's Mission Church Marked Fiftieth Anniversary, June 16th

St. Mary's Mission Church, located northeast of Boone, observed its golden jubilee Wednesday, June 16th, with a day of anniversary events and reminiscing. The activities began with the Solemn High Mass at 10:30 a.m., with Father Richard Macke of Roselle, Iowa, formerly of Christ the King Church at Dayton, as celebrant. Father Macke was a former assistant pastor at the Church of the Sacred Heart and St. Mary's Mission.

Father Edward Mason of Sioux City served as deacon, Father Joseph Griffin of Sts. Peter's and Paul's Church at Gilbert was subdeacon, and Father Richard Remmes, assistant pastor of the Church of the Sacred Heart, was master of ceremonies. The mass was sung by the junior girls high school choir with Miss Kathy Gibbs organist, under the direction of Sister Mary St. Natalie, B.V.M., instructor of music at Sacred Heart School. Acolytes for the mass were Jim, Don and Pat Riordan, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. (Dick) Riordan.

Father C. E. Farrelly of Emmetsburg, former local assistant pastor, was to have given the sermon, but he was unable to be present as he was in Dubuque to attend funeral services for Monsignor Sylvester Luby, a Loras College roommate. He sent his sermon to the local pastor, the Very Rev. Msgr. J. L. Bauer, who read the text prepared for the occasion. It was with regret that a number of other former assistant pastors were also unable to attend because of illness or conflicting commitments.

For the event, the church altar was adorned with golden flowers and foliage. After mass and visiting with old friends in the church yard, the group assembled at noon in the Sacred Heart Parish Hall for a bountiful buffet dinner. The food was provided by the St. Mary's Altar Society and the Sacred Heart Altar Society had charge of the serving.

The special guests and speakers were seated at one long table centered with a miniature church with toy autos nearby and a beautiful arrangement of golden chrysanthemums stood in the background, designed to resemble the setting out at St. Mary's. Nut cups were decorated with a gold "50." There were gold place cards and the white napkins were engraved in gold, "St. Mary's, 1915-1965." The other guests were seated at several tables throughout the room, all of the tables being centered with bouquets of flowers in golden tones. The gold and white color note was featured in all of the appointments and the dessert course featured a decorated golden jubilee cake.

Monsignor Bauer served as master of ceremonies for the after-dinner program, as follows: "History of St. Mary's," reviewed by Miss Elizabeth Moriarity, "The Clergy During the Golden Years," Melvin Stoltz, a member of the Board of Directors for St. Mary's, and "Reminiscences," Father Remmes. Monsignor Bauer introduced the other board member, Virgil Lyons, and also read messages of congratulations and good wishes from many of the former assistant pastors who were unable to attend.

It was on November 1, 1914, that the cornerstone of St. Mary's Mission was laid and the First Mass was solemnized on June 9th, 1915 by the late Father James P. Barron.

Those serving on the first church committee were: John Lyons, John McNertney and L. J. Garvey; auditing committee, John Lyons and John McNertney, and the first secretary was T. E. Fenton, now deceased. Membership of St. Mary's now numbers about 75, with 20 families, and the present directors are Virgil Lyons and Melvin Stoltz.

The St. Mary's Altar Society was organized the day the cornerstone was laid, with the following first officers: Mrs. Dan Lyons, pres., Mary McKenna, vice pres., Mary Moriarity, sec. and Catherine Lacey, treas. The church has acquired many needed items and equipment through the years and the most recent improvement was completed in December, 1964, when the Altar Society provided for the redecorating and improved light for the church. About 200 present and former members and families of St. Mary's Mission and friends were present for the memorable day, marking a half century of church history.