Juniors, once again we need card tables

Many long and hard hours were spent decorating for this year's prom. Many large murals were drawn and painted by hand and a volcano was also constructed as the center piece. Throughout the dance smoke rolled from the volcano as goldfish swam peacefully within it. The theme for the prom was Evening in Paradise.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Fire up!!!

The cheerleaders, unlike other squads, do not compete during the school year. Our varsity cheerleading troupe, consisting of co-captains Laurie Jensen and Dawn Tourtellott, followed by members Po Jensen, Jamie Johnson, Paula Nystrom, Sue Stecker, Sue Cassotti, Tammy Wilson, and alternate Kathy Mikesell, traveled to Okaboji to attend summer cheerleading camp. There, among numerous other awards, they earned the Spark Plug Award, an honor voted by the rest of the camp to the squad who added the most to the camp. Most of Boone High's population is not aware that our school is the home of one of the best cheerleading squads around.

V-I-C-T-O-R-Y

Sparks Are Flying

The season was sparked by 10 returning lettermen in Coach Hutcheson's sixth year at Boone. As this page was made up, the season record was improving over last year's.

It's not that we were the doormats of the CIC's major leagues this year. It's just that we were a couple of notches below the powerhouse category.

There are several respectable alibi's we might use. We were hurt by graduation and are rebuilding. The cheerleaders didn't have that old zing. Our opponents practiced more than is good for a healthy academic-athletic balance. Poor officiating cost us good key games.

We use no alibi's whatsoever. We did our best. Our best was not good enough. We salute our conquerors. They were upright. They were strong. They were skillful. They were lucky. Boy, were they lucky!

Girls steal winning season

I think we can, I think we can—we tried our hardest, but we couldn't. But it was close as the girls finished the season with a 17-5 record and were second in the sectionals. One of the highlights of the season was providing Ankeny with one of their few losses. Maybe next year we can!

They cheered the champs

This year the sophomore cheerleading squad consisted of five members, they were: Annette Jensen, her second year; alternate Michelle Stecker, her third year; captain Lisa Tiller, her third year; Shelly Raulston, her third year; and Becky Barstad, her first year.

Let's go Boone!!

The wrestling cheerleaders had an exciting season by first attending the Great Lakes Cheerleading Camp this summer. They were taught a new cheer each day and judged in the evening. They received an outstanding, excellent, and superior for their cheers and a spirit stick to bring home. Other events included waterskiing, sailboat-ing and swimming.

Other than camp they also held a parents' night and a hog roast.

This year the Varsity Wrestling squad had five qualify for district and one on to state! The five were—Todd Kennedy, Jeff Mattson, Kevin Ford, one junior—John Frandson, and one sophomore—Brian Wilcox. Kevin Ford was a qualifier for state.
