Dear Friends

I am so happy to hear about our 50th Class Reunion. Time goes so fast and I really don't know where to begin.

I married Lee Bach of Des Moines, Iowa. He worked for Look Magazine and it was purchased by Reader's Digest in 1963. We were married in Iowa and moved to Spokane, Washington.

We had four children, Scott, Kim, Jeff and Brian.

Scott was married in 1990 and passed away in 1993. He had a boy and girl. Girl (2) newborn.

Kim was a real good basketball player and loved playing sports with her three brothers. She has 2 children, Sean and Kristina, and is now single.

Jeff, our business man and Entrepreneur was married in 2001 and passed away with heart problems like Scott. He had a 3 year old daughter.

Brian is 37 and a single parent, with a 12 year old boy, Christian.

After my husband, Lee, passed away in 2003, I've been a nanny for two girls, 8 and 12; just five minutes from the house. I get them off to school and I am then free until 3:45. I play cards; belong to Red Hatter's and a Monthly Birthday Luncheon for the Attorney firm where I worked for 14 years.

I have a cabin at Priest Lake in Idaho. It is about 60 miles from my house. I don't know about keeping it because it takes a lot of work. I try to spend most of the summer there with the grandkids and friends.

My daughter-in-law, Molly, is still the owner of Millie's Bar & Grill. She is busy with lots of summer tourists and has live music on Fridays and Saturdays nights. She plays snow shoe baseball in the winter.

There have been lots of year go by since graduation, but life goes on.

I've been very blessed with family and friends to help me.

Love and God Bless

Sacred Heart Freshmen Initiated

The eight member freshman class of the Boone Sacred Heart high school were formally initiated and welcomed into the high school this Friday with an all-day outing at the Ledges state park for the entire high school student body. The eight freshmen were appropriately dressed and from marks overheard it was evident they would be given plenty of extra duties during the day. Freshmen were practically unrecognizable even to their friends and when it came time to get in for this picture there was much snickering as to the sex of the pupils. They are, back row, right, Marilyn Fitzgerald, William 'Duke' Conway, Rosalie Day, Eileen Ryan and Robert (seated, left to right, Peter Fleming, Thomas Fitzgerald and Edward Bice. (Staff Photo by L. GERALD (JERRY) MANRIQUEZ
SACRED HEART HIGH SCHOOL
CLASS OF 1957

I started school in Boone at Franklin, then Sacred Heart, back to Franklin, on to Boone Junior High, then back to Sacred Heart in my sophomore year. I impressed people later in my life when I told them I graduated ninth (9) in my class. That's right; I did not tell them there were only 9 in my class.

After graduation, I worked on the Chicago Northwestern section gang for the summer. Joined the US Navy and was sent to San Diego, CA. for Boot Camp, then stayed and did 3 month of K.P. I spent the next 44 weeks taking radar and computer courses at Great Lakes, IL. My next two year were on the Cruiser, USS Des Moines, sailing round and round the Mediterranean.

I then attended Boone Junior College and between my freshman and sophomore years married my high school sweetheart, Joanna Lacey,. Then on to The State College of Iowa (now The University of Northern Iowa) where I graduated with honors with a Teaching degree in Social Studies. Our son Tony was born in Cedar Falls. I was unable to get a teaching job in Iowa, so I ended up as a Management Trainee, working for the F.W. Woolworth variety store in Emporia, Kansas, where our daughter Ann was born. After a year, I was offered a graduate assistantship at UNI, so I returned and received a Masters degree in Social Studies.

I received a teaching job offer and moved the family to California, where I taught for a short time in Watts. That did not work out, so I joined North American Aviation in Anaheim, CA. in business management. I pursued more education at night and received a BA in Accounting and worked towards my Masters degree. Rockwell International bought out the company, and then Boeing bought them out. I retired in 1997 after 30 years of various accounting and financial positions. Joanna and I owned and operated a coin laundry and a dry cleaning business for ten years.

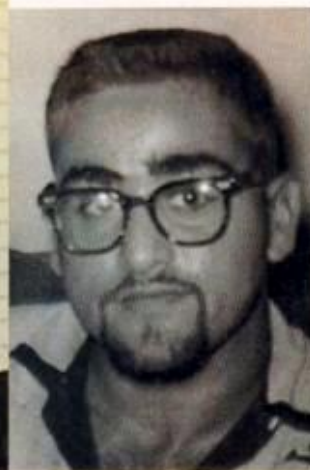

Retirement has been spent with the grandkids, Matt (18), Meagan (13) and Charissa (6) as well as travel, work and golf. I became a consultant and my son, who was the CFO of a company, hired me to run the accounting department of one of their subsidiaries. After he became the VP of another company, I worked for him creating various financial programs and was in charge of new building expansion.

I am the Vice President and Secretary of the Boone Iowa Society of Southern California. People who lived in Boone or Boone County and live in Southern California meet once a year for camaraderie and lunch. The society met for the 93rd year on Feb. 3rd, 2007.

I retired a second time after I had a knee replacement in Feb. 2006. Joanna and I are enjoying our second retirement.

Attended Boone Junior College and Iowa State University graduating in 1961. Taught middle school and worked as New Jersey Extension Home Economist until married Bill Vander Meer and raised 5 children-John, Patrick, Elizabeth, Debra and David. As children grew and time allowed, volunteered in children's schools, girl scouts, Birthright, church related organizations, music ministries, and sang in community chorus. Returned to college to study computer programming when children reached college age(college bills to pay!). Worked until retirement programming computers for automatic test equipment for the Navy at Lakehurst NAS. After living in Toms River, NJ for over 35 years, retired and moved back to Iowa settling in Ankeny to be closer to family and to our lake retreat in Battle Lake, MN. Currently spending winters in IA and summers at our log cabin in MN where fishing and gardening are our hardest work and spoiling our seven grandchildren is great fun!

Picture was taken 3 years ago, so the children look very different now; adults pretty much the same.

Peter J. Fleming, S.J.
 Sacred Heart High School
 Class of 1957

Pete was born October 24, 1939 to Florence Fleming. He had a younger brother Michael and a sister Linda. During his school years, Pete was active in school, church and community affairs. He was the best student in the class, and you can understand how he became a Jesuit, teacher and leader as an adult. In his later years his interests were gardening, sports, fine arts, dance and cooking.

Pete started with Boy Scout Troop 139 and later joined Troop 199. He became an Eagle Scout in 1953. Of the 120 merit badges available, he had to earn a minimum of 21. Another award was the Ad Altare Dei Catholic youth award for serving as an altar boy for more than 150 masses.

Some of the Pete's activities and awards in 1956 were:

- Top honors in the Boone Jr. Chamber of Commerce's "Voice of Democracy" contest.
- Named to American Legion Hawkeye Boys' State.
- Chairman of the Boone County Junior Young Republicans.
- Served as a Page at the Republican National Convention.

Since Pete's life was dedicated to the church and to education, and since he is not here to write his biography, perhaps we can get a better understanding of his life by seeing which schools he attended, what he studied and what and who he taught. (Jerry Manriquez)

December 1999 - with our new granddaughter.

O. Thanks to Mona and Duke's son William for the pictures and Duke's Biography.

Duke attended St John's University in Minnesota, graduating in 1961 with a Bachelor's Degree in Economics. He then went to work for Dunn & Bradstreet in Minneapolis, where he met his future wife and love of his life, Mona Jensen. They were married in June, 1965 and moved immediately thereafter to Milwaukee Wisconsin, where Duke assumed a sales position with Symons Corporation, a manufacturer and distributor of concrete formwork and related construction materials. After moving with Symons to Michigan, Iowa and finally Denver, Duke rose to the position of Regional Sales manager. In the late 70s, he took a job as National Sales Manager for Japanese Company selling a revolutionary construction bonding agent. After spending time with the Japanese, Duke went back to his roots and started a concrete construction company in Denver, which he ran throughout the 80s.

In 1992, Duke was named President of Raymond International, one of the nation's largest industrial construction companies. He was hired to manage the company through its Chapter 13 Bankruptcy Filing. He was so successful at guiding Raymond through this difficult period that he was hired several years later by another large construction firm in financial difficulty, MMR Construction out of Louisiana. Duke ran the company during its bankruptcy as well and was recognized by the court, the creditors and the employees and managers of the company for his creative approach to taking care of all of the people affected by MMR's situation.

Following his tenure with MMR, Duke invested in another company coming out of bankruptcy: excavating and boring equipment manufacturer Pengo Corporation, located near Oakland California. Duke became president and majority owner of Pengo and grew the once troubled company into an economically sound, major player in the world of construction excavation equipment market. Before his death in 2000, Pengo had grown into one of the top players in the US market as well as Europe, Asia and Australia. It was a great success, and would have been even bigger had he been around to continue his work.

But Duke was not just a numbers guy. He bought a manufacturing facility for Pengo in Laurens Iowa (a nod to his home state) which employs up to 100 people. He took time to talk to all of them and find out about their families and lives outside of work. They knew that he cared about them and he made sure they were happy employees and that they felt like they were part of a team. That to him, I think, was his greatest success.

Mona writes:

Life with Duke was always a blast! We had so many laughs - always danced every dance and never missed a party. Together we traveled to Ireland, England, France, Spain (motorcycle 3 week trip), Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Italy, the Check Republic, Hawaii, and South America.

Duke spent his last ten years working or world wide companies in turn around management and eventually bought the Pengo Corp. It was a great move for him; he had offices in China, Europe, Australia, India and Indonesia. He finally made his goal and shared the benefits with so many. His loss left a hole in our hearts.

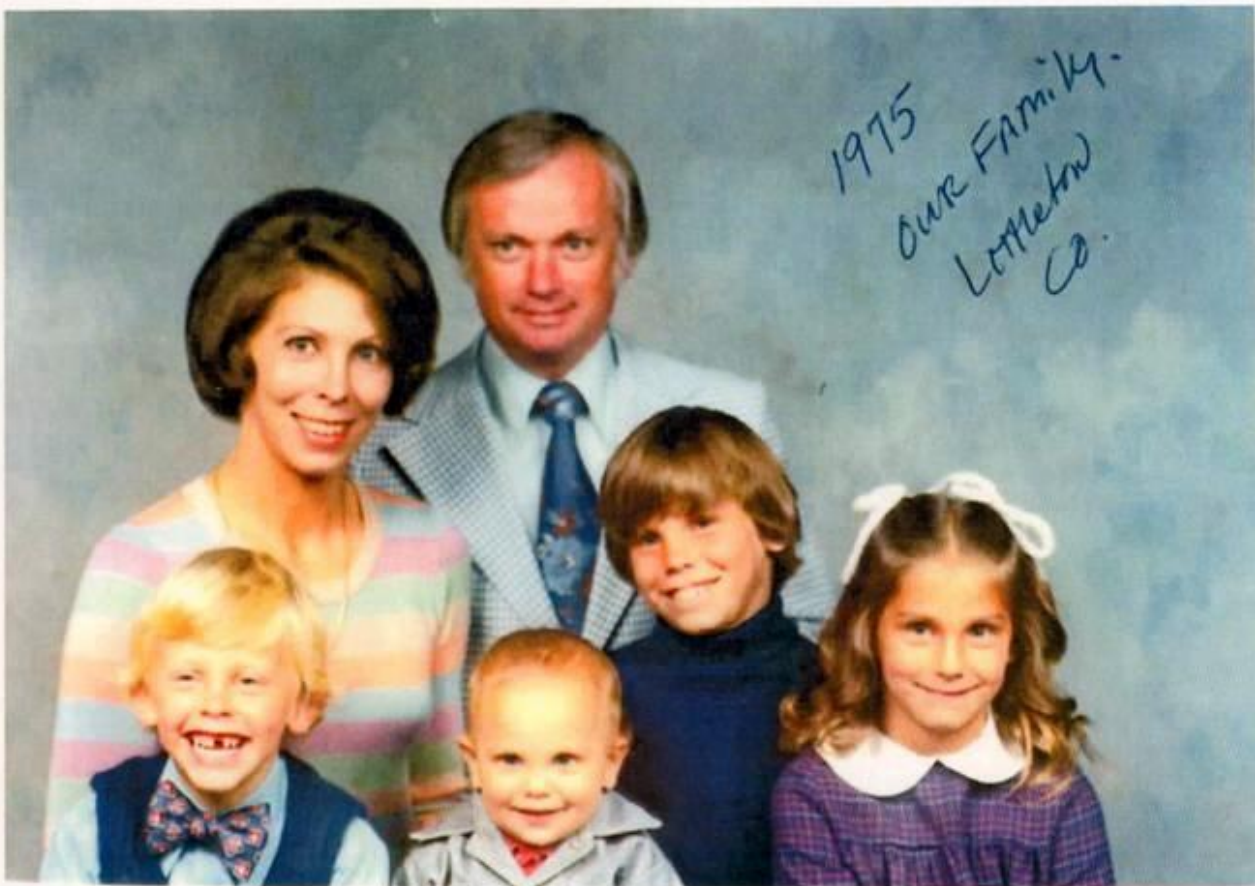

Please greet all the fellow Booneites and give them my unending love. I always keep Boone and Duke's friends close to my heart.

Thomas B. Fitzgerald

Sacred Heart High School
Class of 1957

Tom was born on September 18, 1937 in Boone, Iowa to Thomas John Fitzgerald and Teresa Elizabeth Smith Fitzgerald (both of his parents went to Colo High School). While growing up in Boone, Tom loved to ride his horse with his brother, Mike; go fishing, hunting or shooting; and he always had as much fun as possible. After graduating high school, Tom went on to the State Teacher's College of Iowa (University of Northern Iowa) to earn his degree in teaching.

Tom would also earn his Master's degree from Drake University. Tom taught at several smaller school districts (Ventura, Pella) upon graduation before settling down in the Des Moines School District where he taught for 37 years before retiring. During retirement, Tom continued his part-time job at a local grocery store in Des Moines, Dahl's. Tom was best known as "Fitz" and no matter where he was someone always seemed to know him.

Tom married his wife, Jean E. Woletz, of 39 years on December 27, 1965 in Eau Claire, WI. They made their home in Grimes, IA with their four children. Tom and Jean were very proud grandparents and have 6 grandchildren.

Tom was a very loving husband, father, and grandfather who enjoyed spending as much time with his family as possible. Tom and Jean always put their family first, no matter what. He was always teaching someone, whether through the classroom or through his example of hard work and professionalism at Dahl's.

Most of all, Tom was a family man. Whether it was going to his children's activities (baseball, football, softball, track, volleyball, wrestling, debate contests, or band contests), going to grandkid's birthday parties, traveling to baby-sit his grandchild, or just going to see his grandkids; Tom's family came first.

Tom enjoyed going to his hometown of Boone, IA several times a week to shoot his handguns and rifles. Tom was quite a gun collector throughout the years. When he found the time, Tom enjoyed pheasant and deer hunting with his friends. Tom always had hunting and non-hunting dogs around the house. He always spoiled his dogs by taking them swimming, running, or just spending a lot of time with them. All of his dogs an integral part of the family. Tom also liked to go on fishing trips with his good friends and family to Northern Wisconsin. He always enjoyed a good baseball game, especially when his Cubs were playing, no matter how bad they were.

Tom passed on November 21, 2006 after battling Leukemia. Tom was preceded in death by the love of his life, his wife, Jean in 2005. Although Tom & Jean are no longer with us, their love for each other lives on in their family.

ROSEMARY BURKE, QUEEN

Rosemary Burke, sodality prefect, crowned the statue of Our Lady in the annual coronation ceremony held in the church on May 10, at 2 o'clock. She had won this honor by writing the prize winning essay on "Our Lady of Fatima" in the senior class. Her senior attendants were Clare Judge, Mary Friel, Geneva Morgan, Arlene Campbell, and Grace Erickson. The essay winners of the Junior, Sophomore and Freshman classes were also attendants to the queen. They were Therese Fitzgerald, Madonna Mestdagh, and Betty Pepper. The attendants wore formals, with arm bouquets of bridal wreath.

The high school choir sang the Litany of Loretto, the queen and her attendants answering the invocations as the procession moved through the church.

Michael Stammeyer in white suit and gold cane was crown bearer. Accompanying him were James and Jerry Manriquez, William Conway and Bobby Garvey, with gold and blue canes. The members of the First Communion Class formed a guard of honor.

A beautiful picture was presented, when, as the choir sang "O Mary We Crown Thee with Blossoms Today," Our Lady was crowned Queen of the May.

RECEIVE FIRST COMMUNION

May 5 will always be remembered as their "First Holy Communion Day" by twenty-two children of Sacred Heart parish.

The girls were dressed in white, the boys wore dark suits.

The main and side altars were decorated with peach colored glads and bridal wreath.

During the Mass, the Glee Club sang appropriate hymns--"Little White Guest," "Mother of Christ," "Jesus, Thou Art Coming," and "O Lord, I am not Worthy."

As the sacred moment of receiving their First Holy Communion approached, the children were led into the sanctuary by Peter Fleming and Bobby Garvey in white suits with gold capes and sashes, and by William James Conway, Jerry Manriquez, Michael Stammeyer and Daniel Garvey with blue capes and sashes.

Sister Mary William James prepared the children for this important event in their lives.

THREE BEARS COMING

These are busy days in the First and Second Grade room because practice is going on for "An Up-to-date Goldilocks and the Three Bears" to be presented in the school hall on April 12, with the members of the P.T.A. as guests.

The show manager is Dean Dittmer, the assistant show manager is Peter Fleming. Rosalie Day is Goldilocks. The Mother Bear will be played by Tommy Pepper, Father Bear by Larry Burke, and Baby Bear by William Conway. The entertainers are Carol Briges, Rita Brown, Marilyn Burke, Mary Casserly, Terry McManus, James Manriquez, John Manriquez, Jerry Manriquez, Aaron Vest, Edward Brice, Vreela Collins, Patty Curran, Marilyn Fitzgerald, Danny Garvey, Bobby Garvey, Tommy Quinn, Michael Stammeyer, Freddie Vitt, and Robert Barry.

Scene One opens on a playground where a group of children are preparing an entertainment to make money for the missions. In Scene Two the home of the Three Bears is shown, and in Scene Three Goldilocks brings the Three Bears to join the show.

Between play practice periods, these first and second graders have found time to work on their two Lenten projects. The first is a sacrifice club whose members deposit in a Lent bank the pennies they save by not buying candy. The second project is a study of the "Way of the Cross" booklet by Father Lord. During the last week of Lent the booklets will be on display. The class will decide which child will receive the prize for the book showing the neatest coloring, and for the best explanation of each station.

Robert Barry has come to join the second grade, having moved to Boone from Marengo, Iowa.

AROUND THE GRADE SCHOOL

The 7th and 8th graders have become "bird conscious." They have joined and received their membership pins in a national bird organization--the Audubon Junior Club.

During the year the society will send each member pictures of birds found in Iowa, leaflets on birds and their habits, and a newspaper called "News on the Wing."

The boys of the two classes are having a bird house contest. The architect and builder of the best bird house wins a prize.

Birds are not their only interest. For a Lent project they will purchase and present to the Sisters' chapel a "benediction set"--stole, veil andburse.

The 5th and 6th grade room has completed the ransom of two pagan babies, and are now working on a third. The names chosen are Xavier Cabrini and Sebastian Stephen. Besides their mission work, they improved their classroom by the purchase of a crucifix, chair and clock; had a Valentine party and an art exhibit--posters of Lincoln, Washington, and valentines.

The big event in the 3d and 4th grade was the preparation of a patriotic program which they presented for their mothers at the P.T.A. meeting on February 14.

With the opening of the second semester, 1st and 2d graders welcomed three new pupils--Maureen Anderson for the primary group, Delores Headley for 1st grade, and Richard Rinker for 2d.

They made valentines for their mothers and enjoyed their Valentine party on the 14th. Their next project will be a patriotic play honoring Lincoln and Washington.

1-2 9-10 GRADES ENTERTAIN

On the evening of April 21, a "Father's Night Entertainment" brought to the school hall a crowd that packed the hall to its capacity.

The 1-2 graders and primary presented "Pony Boy," "Priscilla's Week," and "We Saw the Sea" under the direction of Evelyn Fisk Anderson.

Those taking part were Larry Burke, Dale Elsberry, Peter Fleming, Jimmy Matt, Tommy Matt, Tommy Pepper, Tommy Quinn, Richard Rinker, Aaron Vest, Frederick Vitt, Maureen Anderson, Kay Hines, Laurette Perrier, Susie Quinn, Sue Casserly, William J. Conway, Rosalie Day, Jerry Manriquez, Jane Burke, Patty Curran, Sharon Garvey, Danny Garvey, Bobby Garvey, Earl Brice, Edward Brice, Vreeladine Collins, Tommy Fitzgerald, Delores Headley, Bobby Hunter, Mary Kay Keller, Michael Stammeyer, Coleen Bennett, Diane Duffy, Marilyn Fitzgerald, Bertha Walker, Larry Conway, Beth Pangman, and Constance Kuhl, and Ray Brown.

The 9-10 grades part in the program was a one-act play "Call It A Day." The scene was a doctor's reception room in a mid-west city; and the characters were as follows:

Doctor Culver, John Doyle; Mrs. Culver, Betty Pepper; Mr. Brown, James Morrissey; Mrs. Brown, Clarice Coffey; Susie Brown, Susie Quinn; Oakley Cheever, Jack Quinn; Homer Howell, Roger Burke; Mrs. Blevin, Virginia Erickson; Mrs. White, Anita Day; Miss Frank, Rita Uthe; Evangeline Kiefer, Barbara Briley; Mrs. Cousins, Rosellen Koehler; Mr. Crawford, Donald Vest; Miss Newton, Theresa Carver; Mrs. Evans, Katherine Masterson; Dorothy Evans, Rosalie Day; Beulah Stowe, Madonna Miller; Mrs. Dunham, Martha Ann Gorney; Mrs. Crowell, Arlene Beals; Salesman, James Bennett; Mrs. Blue, Rose Cronin; Mrs. Green, Rita Uthe; Miss Edington, Gertrude Miller; Mrs. Gray, Anita Day; Willie Schwartz, Pat McCoy; Amos Schwartz, Thomas Penner; Lucy Schwartz, Maureen Anderson; Ben Schwartz, Aaron Vest; Mrs. Schwartz, Patricia Fitzgerald; Mrs. Deever, Clarice Coffey.

RECEIVE FIRST COMMUNION

On Ascension Thursday, at the nine o'clock Mass, twenty-four children of Sacred Heart parish received their First Holy Communion. The altars were decorated with baskets of yellow snap dragons. Reverend J. J. Ryan was celebrant of the Mass.

As the solemn moment of communion came, six little girls garbed as angels led the first communicants to the prie dieu placed before the main altar.

During Mass, the Glee Club sang appropriate hymns with Thomas Pepper as soloist.

Those who received their First Holy Communion were: Robert Anderson, Gerald Baldus, Edward Brice, Vreeladine Collins, William James Conway, Patricia Dittmer, John Donnelly Dale Elsberry, Thomas Fitzgerald, Peter Fleming, Delicia Garvey, Sharon Garvey, Daniel Garvey, Robert Garvey, Dolores Headley, John Kelly, Constance Kuhl, Gerald Manriquez, Mary Musgrove, Laurette Perrier, Marilyn Pesek, Richard Rinker, Bertha Walker, Margaret Wilhelm.

The angel attendants were Kay Hines, Mary Kay Keller, Susan Casserly, Susan Quinn, Maureen Anderson and Beth Fangman. Frederick Vitt was cross bearer, with Earl Brice and Michael Starmeyer as acolytes. Mass servers were Larry Lyons and Mickey Conway.

MAINTAIN FIRST HONOR RATING

Fourteen students in the school year 1946-7 succeeded in maintaining first honor rating.

They are Jane Doyle, Therese Fitzgerald, Joan Sullivan, Bonnie Haberer, Madonna Miller, Patricia Conway, Ann McNertney, Delores Coffey, Patricia Phelan, Alice Casserly, Lorraine Conway, William James Conway, Peter Fleming, and Frederick Vitt.

Meriting perfect attendance honors are Jane Doyle, Therese Fitzgerald, Joan Sullivan, Rose Marie Cronin, Patricia Fitzgerald, Julianne Doyle, Larry Lyons and Joan Lyons.

Class records show the following students to have acquired highest average in their grades: 12th grade, Jane Doyle; 11th, Doris de Mouth; 10th, Martha Ann Gorey; 9th, Madonna Miller; 8th, Corinne Phelan; 7th, Julianne Doyle; 6th, Patricia Conway; 5th, Lorraine Conway; 4th, Janet Day; 3d, Robert Barry; 2d, William James Conway; 1st, Constance Kuhl.

SEND DONATIONS FOR SCHOOL

In response to an appeal to Alumni members to contribute to the new school fund, the following generous donations have come in from alumni who are now residing outside of Boone: Mr. and Mrs. Er-

HONOR OUR LADY

May is the month of Our Lady, and to honor her in a special way, a coronation ceremony was held in Sacred Heart Church on May 9 at two o'clock. The members of the Parent Teacher Association and their friends were honored guests.

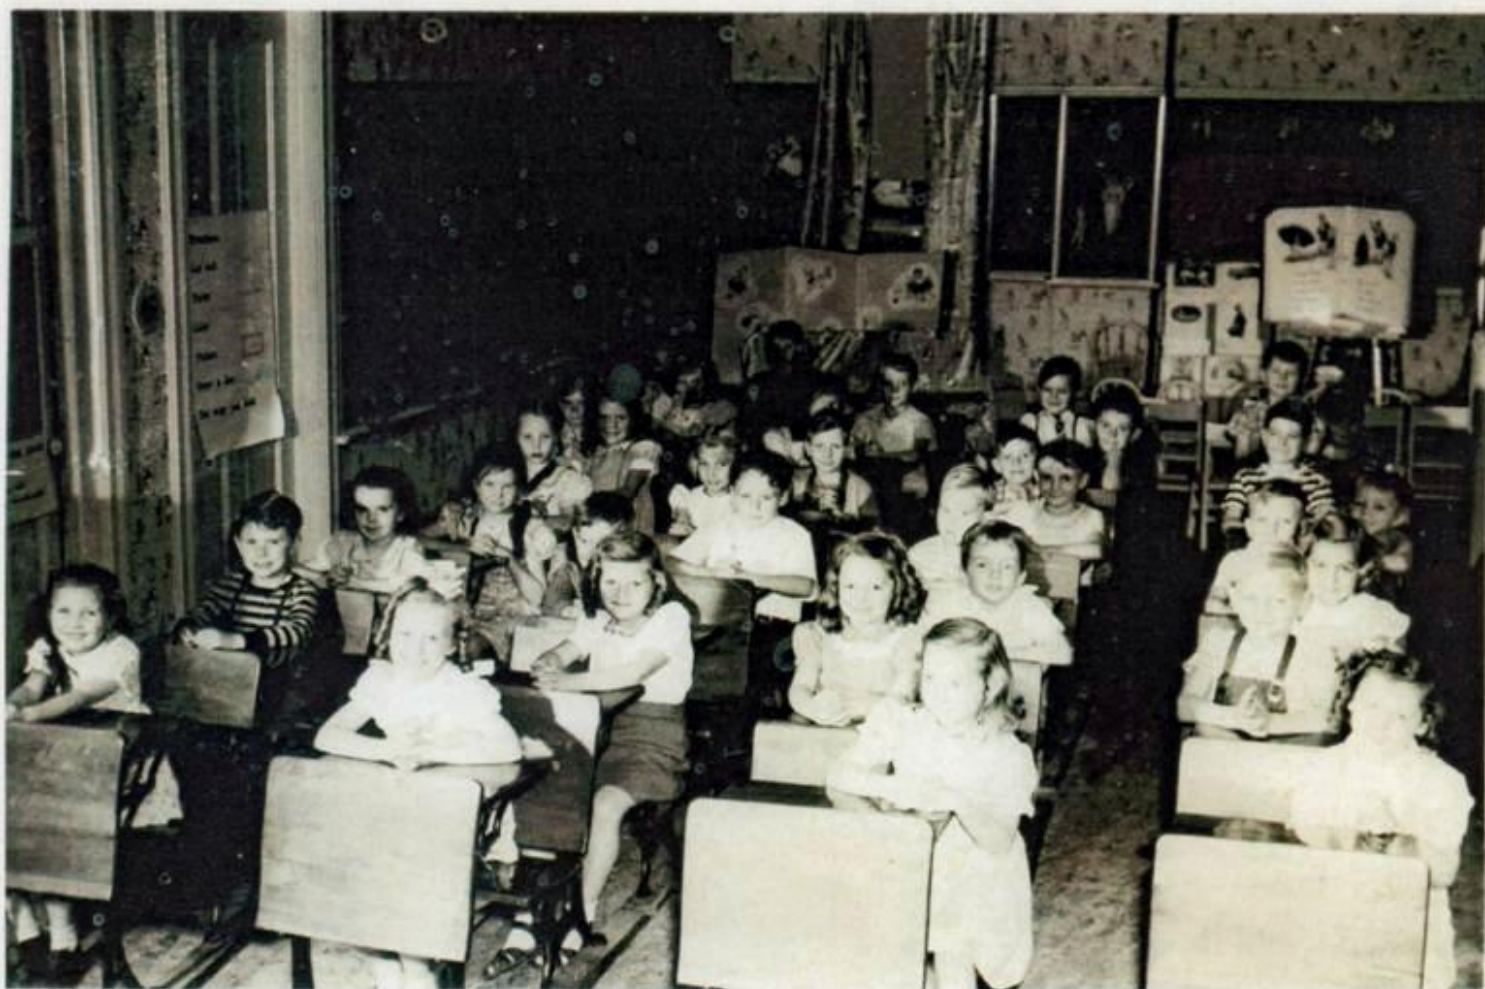

Therese Fitzgerald, Senior, was chosen as May Queen, and was attended by Ray Eppel, with Maureen Anderson as crown bearer. Other attendants were Doris de Mouth and Dick Matt, John Doyle and Rita Uthe, Arlene Beals and James Bennett. Forming a guard of honor to the Queen and her attendants were Rita Schell and Duane Day, Maxine Dittmer and James Morrissey, Joan Quinn and Frank Burke, Jane Doyle and Paul Eppel, Joan Sullivan and Pat McCoy, Shirley Powers and Eldon McManus, Patricia Cahill and Joe Burke, Mary Pepper and Donald Vest; and from the grade school representing their respective grades were: Corine Phelan and Robert Day, Yvonne Fitzgerald and Paul Harder, Patricia Conway and Louis Anderson, Richard Brown and Frances McNertney, Janet Day and Patrick Rea, Marilyn Burke and Robert Barry, Patty Curran and Thomas Fitzgerald, Dianne Duffy and Michael Stammeyer, Larry Conway and Kay Hines.

Back to School

Eileen Ryan says there is nothing to do during vacation, so she is glad to hear school bells ring again. So are the other Fifth and Sixth Graders who have voiced their thoughts in serious words.

Fred Vitt says that school puts him on schedule and that he likes to see his playmates. Seeing playmates is also a joy to Patricia Dittmer and Marilyn Fitzgerald. Of course some like their teacher, but Bertha Walker thinks it's fun to work. Thomas Fitzgerald shows wisdom beyond his years in saying that school gives him a chance to learn the things he will need when he gets out of school.

What is your opinion on this subject? Quiet halls, orderly classrooms and studious pupils of Sacred Heart School are proof enough that sincere effort makes the beginning of the school year a very happy one.

Is Your Heart Prepared
For Christmas?

Putting Christ into Christmas means doing acts of kindness, praying, and making sacrifices. I can show my love for God by going to Mass, receiving Holy Communion, adoring Him and keeping free from sin. If I do all these things and obey God, my parents, my teachers, my parish priests, and all my superiors, I can truly keep Christ in Christmas.

Marilyn Fitzgerald

Suggestions from other members of the class are:

Pray for the sinners in the world and for the poor children in Korea, China, and Russia in your prayers during Advent.

Earl Brice

I should be kind and think of the kindness of Christ at this season.

Carolyn Catron

Let us put love into everything we do.

Delores Headley

Make your cards symbolic of the true Christmas.

Duke Conway

At home, make the Crib and the Advent wreath the center of attraction.

Rosalie Day

The real spirit of Christmas is not in receiving but in giving.

Eileen Ryan

Remember a holier Christmas means a happier one, too.

Urge Registration

Boone News Republican

The Sacred Heart School Civics Club, made up of eighth grade students, have taken upon themselves to help out in the drive to get voters registered in Boone.

"Register and Vote" is the slogan adopted by the group of boys and girls whose average age is 12 years. Peter Fleming is president of the club with Duke Conway as vice president; Richard Rinker as secretary and Michael Ferry, treasurer.

The club president said that the members will be working hard to do their share to get the voters registered.

Sacred Heart Freshmen Initiated

The eight member freshman class of the Boone Sacred Heart high school were formally initiated and welcomed into the high school this Friday with an all-day outing at the Ledges state park for the entire high school student body. The eight freshmen were appropriately dressed and from remarks overheard it was evident they would be given plenty of extra duties during the day. The freshmen were practically unrecognizable even to their friends and when it came time to get names for this picture there was much snickering as to the sex of the pupils. They are, back row, left to right, Marilyn Fitzgerald, William 'Duke' Conway, Rosalie Day, Eileen Ryan and Robert Garvey; seated, left to right, Peter Fleming, Thomas Fitzgerald and Edward Bice. HIGH SCHOOL ELECTS OFFICERS

Oct-Nov 1953
Vol. 1

Business of the 1953-54 school year moved forward with the election of the following class officers:

Seniors:

President : Richard Brown
Vice Pres.: Michael Carney
Treasurer : Frances McNertney

Juniors:

President : Rosemary Ryan
Vice Pres.: Larry Catron
Treasurer : John Lacey

Sophomores:

President : Leo Dittmer
Vice Pres.: Joan Schaffner
Treasurer : Geraldine Newland

Freshmen:

President : Peter Fleming
Vice Pres.: William Conway
Treasurer : Eileen Ryan

Freshmen class, we welcome you,
Rejoice! You're high school students too;
Everything is new; new and strange,
Studies are of higher range;
History and Biology class,
Moments of prayer at morning Mass;
All are important parts of the day,
None is forgotten; no time thrown away.

Initiation begins the year,
Now, Freshmen, your senior masters you fear;
It's not as bad as it may seem,
The tales of old have made you dream;
If you act and dress as we tell you to,
All goes well, and the ordeal is soon through.
Then the air of schoolwork again will reign,
Instilling knowledge in all our brains;
Over the years, you must work and strive
Never forget, keep Wisdom alive.

Sacred Heart Students Present Play To PTA

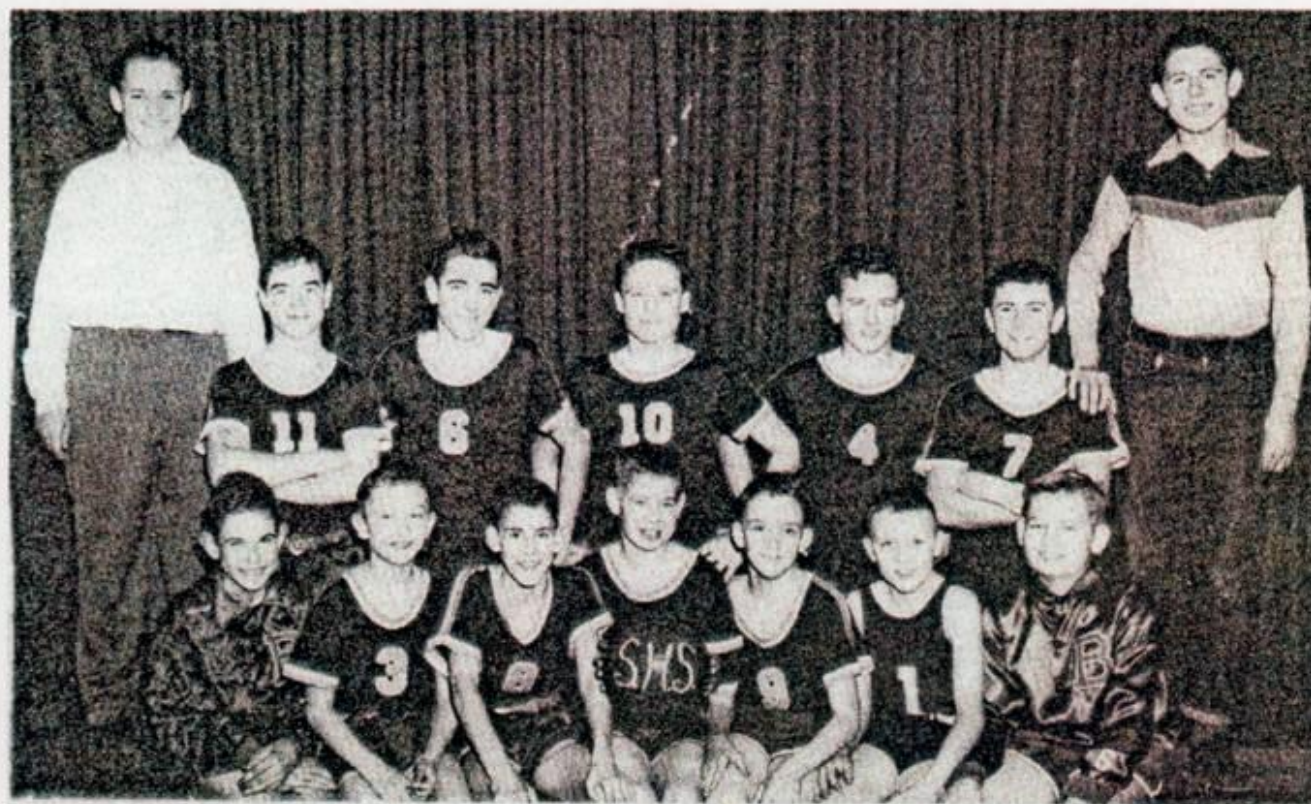

"Boy of Nazareth," an inspirational and finely groomed panegyric, was enacted for the Parent-Teachers Association by the students of the Sophomore-Freshman division of Sacred Heart High School, Friday. The panegyric consisting of four episodes, emulated the wisdom and holiness of the Boy Christ. The program was dedicated to the parents of the students and given in honor of our Blessed Mother in tribute to her Marian Year. Students in character parts were: Shepherd Maidens; Rosalie Day, Marilyn Burke, Rose M. Keller, Eileen Ryan, Joan Schaffner and Margaret Judge; Shepherd Women; Mary Wilson and Geraldine Newland; Boy of Nazareth: Thomas Fitzgerald; Mother of Jesus, Rita Brown; ePeople of the Sandal Shop, Peter Fleming and Edward Brice; Christ in Disguise—People in Need, Duke Conway, Bob Garvey and Marilyn Fitzgerald; Doctors of the Law, Dean Dittmer, Patrick Rea, Leo Dittmer and John Jacobson. Special commendation goes to the following students for excellent team work in the grooming of the play: Stage Crew: Dean Dittmer, Leo Dittmer, Patrick Rea and John Jacobson; Lights and Sound: Duke Conway and Robert Garvey; Music: Joanna Lacey and Rose Mary Keller; Settings: Dean Dittmer, Leo Dittmer, Pat Rea, Peter Fleming and Robert Garvey. JUNIOR TEAM GOES TO TOURNAMENT

* Sunday, March 17th, the eighth graders won their first tournament game at the Corpus Christi gym by beating Sacred Heart, Fort Dodge 28-19. Monday evening, the winners played Corpus Christi on their own floor taking a hard fall 28-21. Dale Elsberry was high point man of the evening. Dan Garvey, Mike Stammyer, and Earl Brice also did their part. Sacred Heart lead 13-12 at the half but Corpus Christi pulled ahead to win the tournament. The season has been very successful this year with a 9 out of 11 victory. Their business manager, Pete Fleming, has shown splendid leadership qualities in his dealings with the team.

HIS LUCK CHANGES

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS:

- Margaret Judge - To stay home five nights a week
- Karen Erickson - To come to school on all days even Saturday and Sunday
- Lorraine Conway - To get my passengers to their destination
- Joan Judge - Not to talk about myself; just listen
- Kenny Gilliam - I'll be a very, very good boy
- Peter Fleming - To follow his diet closely
- Marge Friel - To be kind to three-legged creatures
- Rita Brown - To use no more peroxide or bleach

NEW MEMBERS PLEDGE DEVOTION

Happy the students who are received into the Sodality of Our Lady during this Marian Year when pledges of our personal devotion to Mary are in order.

Eight freshmen and three upper classmen formed this group, and each received a medal blessed by our pastor, Father Ryan, who opened for them the Treasury of Indulgences for their use. Lorraine Conway and Richard Brown acted as leaders in the name of the Sodality.

Peter Fleming Elected President of Glee Club

By Rosemary Phelan

On Wednesday, Sept. 15, the members of the Glee Club and Choir held elections in the freshman-sophomore room. Several nominations for each of the offices made elections close.

Elected were: Peter Fleming, president; Eileen Ryan, secretary; Rosalie Day, music librarian.

Members of the Glee Club and Choir will be very busy this year singing the High Mass every Sunday and working extra hard on the Christmas and Easter Masses.

To commemorate the Month of the Holy Rosary, the full choir of unison voices sang the Gregorian Mass of the Angels on Sunday, Oct. 3. The Offertory hymn, "Salve Regina Rosarii," sung in mixed voices paid special tribute to Our Lady of the Rosary. Delores Headley was organ accompanist, and Judy Conway played the Recessional.

New Faces

By Judy Conway

We noticed new faces in the group of students who entered school as the bells "tolled" beginning the new school year.

Among the new students were: Larry Ackerman, a freshman; Neal Runyon, a sophomore, Jerry Manriquez. Larry transferred from Nevada High School and prefers that school to ours as he had to leave so many good friends behind. Jerry and Neal are both happy with their choice as most of their friends attend Sacred Heart. All three boys participate in sports and maintain good grades. We welcome them and

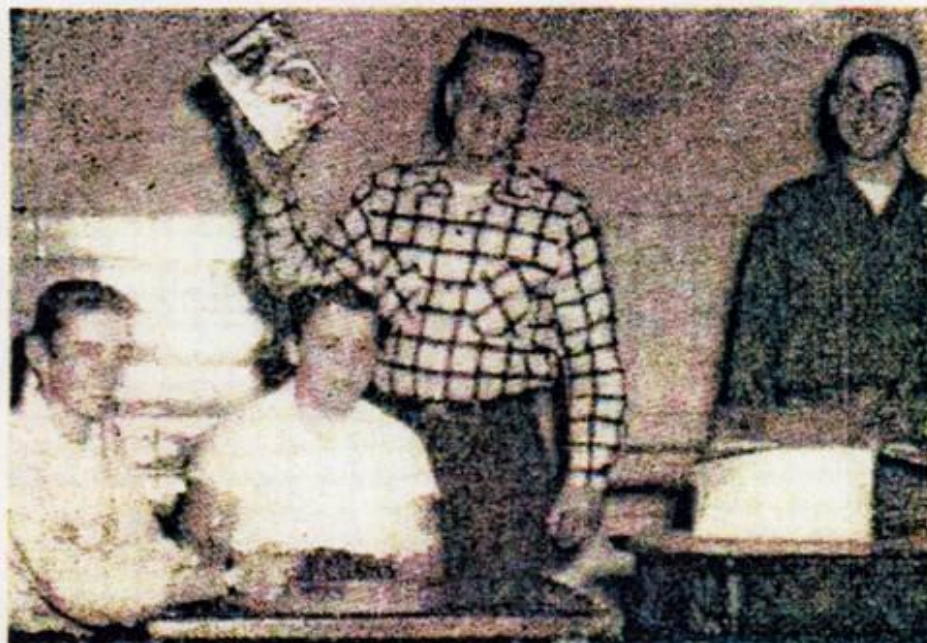

Special Recognition Ceremony Honors Eagle Scouts

Receiving the Eagle Scout Badge will be the greatest thrill of Peter Fleming's career as a Boy Scout. On Oct. 19, nine boys from Boone including Peter will receive this honor which places them in the highest rank achievable in scouting.

The Scouts will be honored by Fred Maytag at a special Recognition Ceremony on October 21, at Grinnell College. Other Eagle Scouts of the state promoted this past year will receive honors along with Peter.

His Excellency, Bishop Joseph M. Mueller, D. D. presented the "Ad Altare Dei" Badge to Peter in 1871 at the Fort Dodge D.Y.O. day. Faithful service at Mass as an altar boy for more than 150 hours merited Peter this honor.

WHITE ELEPHANT AUCTIONEERS

Christmas Mass To Be Aired

The Six O'clock High Mass of Christmas morning will be celebrated by the Reverend J. J. Ryan, Pastor of Sacred Heart Church. The Mass will be sung by the High School Student Choir of mixed voices singing J. Alfred Schehl's "Missa de Nativitate" which will include the Offertory Hymn: "Jesu Redemptor Omnium" in alternate setting by Taler. The boy trio, Peter Fleming, William Conway and Aaron Vest will sing the Proper of the Mass by Rossini.

At five-thirty a.m. the choir will sing the traditional carols of Christmas. Choir accompanists are: Judy Conway, Janese Carney, Delores Headley, Coleen Bennett and Patricia Donovan. The entire program will be broadcast from the church over KWBG.

YOUR MANNERS ARE SHOWING . . .

The students in the high school had a chance to be reminded of a few courtesies when the freshmen and sophomores presented a panel discussion of "Courtesy". Eileen Ryan and Duke Conway introduced the speakers-Rosalie Day, Dianne Duffy, Peter Fleming, and Tom Fitzgerald-who discussed various phases of life where good manners are essential. The rest of the freshmen and sophomores contributed additional pointers on etiquette.

X "Among Ourselves"

An event that remains in the memory of every high school student is the prom. Probably the memory that is most vivid within us, however, is the morning and afternoon of the prom—the beauty parlor appointment, the last minute dress pressing, and the barber shop. The memory of such events was revived within all of us when the Freshman-Sophomore class presented the play, "Among Ourselves", on February 11. The comedy revolved around preparation for the prom, a P.T.A. meeting, and teen-age financial difficulties. The entire class presented a beautiful choral reading entitled, "The Great Guest". Members of the cast were: Beth Fangman, Mom O'Reagen; Peter Fleming, Dad O'Reagen; Tom Fitzgerald, Bill O'Reagen; Patricia Donovan, Jane O'Reagen; Patricia Dittmer, Mrs. McSnoogle; Marilyn Fitzgerald, Aunt Mag; Master Headley, Hercules O'Reagen; Delores Headley, Sue Casserly, Vreela Collins, Kay Turner, Connie Butler, Patricia Lacey, Jane's school chums; William Conway, Michael Stammyer, Bill's friends; Bob Garvey, Paper Boy. Credit for the lighting, recordings, and settings is given to Bob Garvey, Ed Brice, Patricia Dittmer, Peter Fleming and William Conway.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior class of 1955, Sacred Heart School, Boone, Iowa, being of sound minds and memories, therefore make, ordain, publish and declare this to be our last will and testament hereby revoking all other and former wills by us here-to-fore made.

Jim Morgan leaves his car to Aaron Vest and his dark, curly hair which he never had to Dean Dittmer.

Gretchen Buss leaves her internationally known and broadcasted democracy speeches to John Jacobson and wills her long, soft locks to Rosalie Day.

Janese Carney leaves her ability to give the correct tone for the morning hymn to Rose Keller and her "A" in deportment to Beth Fangman.

Karen Erickson leaves her amateur whistling to Duke Conway and her world-famous cheerleading title to Diane Duffy.

John Lacey leaves his charitable work of gum passing to Dick Hare provided he gives it only to Senior girls; to his sister, Joanna, he wills the green Chevy provided that she keeps up the Lacey rodding title.

Rosemary Phelan leaves her ringside front seat which she held for ten years to Rita Brown provided she is as loyal to it as she was, and her shorthand notes to Pat Dittmer.

Joan Fitzgerald leaves her freckles to Marilyn Fitzgerald; and if Marilyn uses them to an advantage, Joan may throw in a jar of freckle cream. Her acting and flower vending career go to Coleen Bennett.

Alice Brice leaves her height to Patty Donovan provided she doesn't pass her up; and her reserve seat at the famous Thursday night dances goes to Pat Lacey.

Joan Judge leaves her weekly migrations to the East to Rosalie Day and her chattering ability in class to Earl Bruce with hopes that he uses it to the best of his ability.

Josephine Selzer leaves her curly, brown hair to Delores Headly, knowing that she will have an abundant supply, and her doodling avocation to Tom Fitzgerald.

CLASS MOTTO:

What we are is God's gift to us,
What we become is our gift to God.

Cathy Coffey leaves those dearly beloved milk bottles that served as her income for so many years to any one who needs them; her pedigreed hound, King, is willed to Danny Garvey.

Rose Mary Ryan leaves her job at the library to Jerry Manriquez and her Irish jiggling talent to Kay Turner and hopes she keeps in it the good old Irish spirit.

Judy Conway leaves her capabilities for procuring friendships with the Sisters to Eileen Ryan and her seat that doesn't turn, to any rubber-necked person in the school.

We all leave to the Sisters of Charity of the B.V.M., who taught us through grade and high school; our sincere appreciation and gratitude for the guidance and patience they have shown us.

We leave to Sister Mary St. David, our thanks for endeavoring to get government, sociology and English into our heads; To Sister Mary Aquilina, our humble admiration for trying to make us good business men and women. To Sister Mary Virgine, we leave our grateful appreciation for her undying efforts to lift our voices to God.

We leave to Father Ryan and Father Phillips our deepest gratitude and esteem for having instilled into our hearts and minds the great principles of religion.

The Sophomore Class was entertained at a party given in their honor by the Freshman Class during the afternoon of May 6. A quiz program, recalling events in the early lives of the Sophomores was the main feature of the party. Expressions of gratitude to the members of the faculty were given by Beth Fangman, Aaron Vest, Duke Conway, and Peter Fleming. Refreshments, followed by the singing of the class song, "I Believe," brought this enjoyable party to a close.

Students Enjoy Gala Evening

The Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom was held May 4, at the Sacred Heart Parish Hall. "Three Coins in a Fountain," the theme, was beautifully carried out in the Seniors' class colors of pink and silver. Holy water containers were presented the Seniors as gifts from the Junior class.

Father Ryan, Father Phillips, and Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Brown were special guests; the spotlight being on the Seniors. After a delicious banquet, the traditional toasts were given. Marilyn Burke extended a toast to the Seniors which was acknowledged by Joan Judge. Father Ryan was toasted by Joanna Lacey while Leo Dittmer extended a toast to Father Phillips. Dean Dittmer and Rita Brown presented toasts to the Sisters and parents.

Margaret Judge, Jerry Manriquez, Joan Judge and Keith Carlson lead the Grand March at 8:30. An evening of dancing to the fine music of the Carl Nebbe orchestra was enjoyed by everyone. At 11:30, the students gathered around the shrine and sang, "On This Day O Beautiful Mother," thus ending another wonderful prom night.

Father Friedman's new system in Religion Class is preparing us for college. It should be beneficial, like it or not. Father's idea for Thursday nights is dress clothes. Our example will gradually be followed by others. So have Mom press in those pleats and creases and show up real cool-like . . . It seems Punky Ryan and Larry Ackerman ought to go in for big-time gambling with their luck. They really cleaned up during the World Series. Rumor has it Sister Mary Virgine also won in the pools. Some people were born lucky . . . October 3, Dean Dittmer, in his bright blue Plymouth took Rita Brown, Rosalie Day, Jerry Manriquez, Duke Conway, and this columnist to see Father Phillips. Father has a beautiful little church which the parishioners themselves built and a nice little house. Although he has no housekeeper, Father said he is faring pretty well on his own cooking. We are certainly going to go again and Father has promised to come and see us some Thursday night real soon . . . Let's all support the juniors in their prom project of selling Christmas cards. They'll be glad to show their line . . . Delighted seniors received their class rings the first week of school from Josten's in Minnesota. The style of the rings is "Morning Star," featuring built-up sides which protect the stone from cracking and the medallion from wear.

Choir And Glee Club Rehearsals Begin

MASS OF HOLY ROSARY OPENS YEAR

New Numbers Are Chosen Choir Officers Elected

The echoes of Church chant and Glee Club numbers can be heard as the Choir and Glee Club practice in earnest. Under the direction of Sister Mary Virgine B.V.M., the singing was in full swing at the end of the second week of school. Rehearsal began immediately for "Mass of the Holy Rosary," a part arrangement by Schiffer, sung on Oct. 2, the first Sunday High Mass of the year. The Mass, in honor of the Holy Rosary, was appropriately chosen for October, the month of the rosary. "Janua Coeli" by Griesbacher is now being practiced. In this unison Mass the boys and girls choruses alternate the singing. Beautiful and inspiring is the, "Missa de Natevetate" by Schel, the Mass selected for Christmas. In the Gloria of this Mass, the combination of voices and the swelling of the organ give the effect of heavenly chimes and hosts of angelice choirs. "Mass in Honor of the Blessed Sacrament", the Mass chosen to be sung at Easter, is arranged in soprano, tenor, and bass voices with a number of solos.

"Ave Maria" by Boex is one of the new glee club selections. "Protect Us Through the Coming Night" by Vincent Novello, "Dry Yo' Eyes" by Landsberg, and "Through the Leaves" by Schubert are others.

Election of Choir and Glee Club officers was held on Oct.

Nosey, The News Hound

Unknown, known or coming, he knows because he has a nose for news and his name is, "Nosey", the little puppy you see scampering through the halls, classrooms, in the school basement, and out in the yard. "Nosey" appears at the most unexpected places and really gets his ears full. What's new, Nosey?

The revival of the Thursday teen-age dances on September 8 brought relief from a summer of quiet solitude and tranquility to the symphonious school hall of Sacred Heart. All year the hall echoes with such great symphonies as, "Rock Around The Clock," "Crazy Otto," "Melody of Love," and "Mr. Sandman." Finally the summer brought peace and tranquility. Now the school hall again lives with "hepped up" tunes giving the beams of the sisters' convent a rattlin' goor time! . . . The intestinal fortitude of the girls in the biology class is being taxed to capacity on crayfish, fish and insects. Two knife-happy surgeons are always persecuting the inhabitants of formaldehyde and revel in this skill as they slice away . . . The news of initiation rang through the whole high school when October 7 was set for the initiation of the lowly freshmen . . . A week after school opened the Sacred Heart Art Studio was in full swing. Sister Mary Ursulina again has her students at the ol' drawing board. A new piece of equipment has been added to Sister's room, a platform, no less. When asked for comment Sister said, "Well I have to get up in the world too, don't I?" . . . Watch those tootsies! Hay Mambo! Ouch! My aching feet! Three wizards of the dance floor, Dean Dittmer, Margaret Judge, and Jerry Manriquez, will recognize these colloquialisms as they work on their degree in dancing at the Betty Mae Harris School of the Dance . . . A note of thanks goes to Mr. Paul Ward, manager of Sears & Roebuck Co. for the use of a handsome television set to view the World Series. Of course the Dodgers beat the Yankees four games to three and this ol' hound was barking for the losers and had to "paw" over twenty-five "dog" cents. Thanks to Father Friedman, Sister Mary Aquilina and other members of the faculty, the

Juniors And Seniors Elect Class Officers

Early in September class officers were elected at Sacred Heart in the junior and senior rooms with presidencies going to senior Margaret Judge and junior Peter Fleming. These class officers hold a responsible position of initiation planning for the senior president and of money raising for the prom, Christmas card selling, and planning the decorations for the prom for the junior president. In these projects they have the assistance of their fellow officers. The senior officers are Joanna Lacey, vice-president; Rita Brown, secretary; and Leo Dittmer, treasurer. The junior officers are Duke Conway, vice-president; Eileen Ryan, secretary; and Tom Fitzgerald, treasurer.

Fashion Fads

Looking in our classrooms we see Pat Brice in her pink corduroy jumper and Geri Newland in one of brown wool telling us that jumpers in either dark or bright colors seem to be the big hit this year. Rosalie Day's moss green sweater with matching socks make an attractive outfit and Mary K. Keller wears a lavender sweater with a plaid skirt of the same color. We know that blue is still among the favorites as we see Susan Wilson with her royal blue sweater set. Other colors are toast brown, apricot, charcoal gray, and avocado.

Several striking outfits are worn at Mass on Sunday. Two outstanding ones are Delores Headley's brown and black plaid wool dress with the new princess style waistline, with which she wears a black hat and heels, and Patty Lacey's green and white checked suit is worn with black accessories.

DUKE CONWAY'S MASTHEAD LIGHTS UP LISTENIN' IN

They Hereby Resolve:

Every Jan. 1, a new year begins and with it a mania for making resolutions. People's personalities are sometimes reflected in their resolutions. Read these resolutions of SHS high school students and discover their personalities.

Delores Headley is going to improve in every way and especially by practicing kindness, generosity, and politeness, and to become closer to Blessed Mother and Jesus.

Beth Fangman resolves to answer all her letters. If you would like to get some mail write to Beth.

Kay Turner has reformed. She is going to study harder this year.

Pat Dittmer's resolution is not to drive recklessly when she gets her license. What about before?

Pat Donovan is discouraged and is going to give up boys and all other hopeless creatures.

Sue Casserly is going to study geometry harder this semester.

Aaron Vest will be found at home four nights a week from now on.

Pat Lacey is going to give more attention to her school work.

Colleen Bennett also, is going to become more studious in school and in her music.

Dick Hare is going to do his home work every night.

Vreela Collins will start going out at least two nights a week. It will be your downfall, Vreela; next year your resolution will be to stay home at least two nights a week.

Larry Ackerman is going to Mass and Communion as often as possible.

Larry Conway will try to take better care of his little brother, Duke.

Peter Fleming is going to experiment with R.D.X.

Tom Fitzgerald is going to charge $10 to each person using his taxi service at noon.

Ed Brice has the right idea. He is going to change 100%.

Kathy McDonald isn't making resolutions, because she can't keep them.

Rita Brown also will be found at home five nights a week studying her chemistry.

Pat Brice is going to keep away from the refrigerator.

Dave Stuckey isn't making any resolutions either.

TOPS IN POPS

Fads are very important in the life of a modern teen-ager. He is impressed by fads not only in clothes and cars, but also in popular music. Currently the trend in music seems to be going toward songs featuring memories. "Memories Are Made of This" is on the top of the list and "Memories of You" is climbing steadily.

Another disc, "Moments to Remember," is still on the best selling list. An old favorite "Memories" has been cut by the Toppers.

Very popular among the teen-agers are the rock and roll songs. Presenting a rhythm which cannot be found in other styles of music, these songs are excellent dance tunes. "Sixteen Tons," a folk song recorded by Tennessee Ernie Ford, has been on top for a number of weeks and promises to remain there for some time. Kay Starr's new recording, "Rock'n Roll Waltz," brings to the listener a combination of a swing tune and a waltz.

New records are constantly being released. Acting as critics, the public can make or break a record. In proportion to the number released few become popular.

Recently a survey in our school showed these records to be the top ten:

1. "Memories Are Made of This"
2. "The Great Pretender"
3. "Sixteen Tons"
4. "Rock Around the Clock"
5. "Only You"
6. "Lisbon Antique"
7. "Are You Satisfied?"
8. "Memories of You"
9. "Burn That Candle"
10. "Rock'n Roll Waltz"

The girl looked shocked beyond belief. She couldn't understand how the car could have rolled so far or toppled over. Why, not ten minutes ago everything had been quiet and peaceful and now . . . Well, there was nothing she could do about it now.

The clerk at the toy shop walked over and told her that the little car was not damaged. It had just rolled down the shelf and fallen off.

Rosalie and Dean Top 'Best Dressed' of Year

Best-dressed girl in SHHS is Rosalie Day, a junior, while the best-dressed boy is Dean Dittmer, a senior. It was announced today that Rosalie and Dean captured first place honors on the 1956 list of the best-dressed students in SHHS.

Six students, three boys and three girls, were chosen by the Couture Group of Sacred Heart School. Selection was made by compiling the votes of experts in this line.

Capturing second place honors were Eileen Ryan and Peter Fleming. Mary Kay Keller and Duke Conway were number three on the list.

Hot Grease Mars Eileen's Nose

Everyone looked at it until finally curiosity got the best of them. It was in the most conspicuous spot possible and no one overlooked it. Walking down the street was the most embarrassing part. Those who passed couldn't help smiling when they noticed it. It happened at home one night while helping in the kitchen. It made a blister but that soon popped and it turned red. Such names as "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer" have been applied to it. Of course, it's the burn on the end of my nose.

Each year the Boy Scouts of America send 12 explorer scouts from various parts of the nation to report to the President on the activities of the scout program. Competition is held in districts, councils and regions. After eliminations are completed, each council sends one scout to the regional headquarters; and, after region competition, the chosen scout goes to Washington D.C. to report to the President. The Tall Corn Area Council selected Peter Fleming as its alternate to represent the scouts of this part of the country.

Peter, who is an Eagle Scout, has been active in scouting for five years. He holds the Ad Altare Dei medal, presented to him by the Most Reverend Joseph M. DOUBLE HONORS GO TO PETER FLEMING Democracy was the subject of a speech given by Peter Fleming, Sacred Heart School entrant, in the "I Speak for Democracy" contest held in December at the Erickson Public Library. Peter won second place in this contest sponsored by the Boone Junior Chamber of Commerce.

In his speech Peter compared a football team to democracy and brought forth the ideas that the home, community, nation and world brotherhood might be called the four horsemen of democracy, and democracy is every-

Enrollment Shows Building Need

Increased enrollment in the lower grades as well as the need for physical education at Sacred Heart School have necessitated inauguration of a building program.

Approved by Bishop Mueller, the long-range program includes a much needed convent for the sisters, a gymnasium and the addition of four classrooms.

At several parish meetings, Father Ryan reported on the financial standing of the parish and the willingness of the parishioners to assume the responsibility of so large a debt resulted in a vote to go ahead with the entire program.

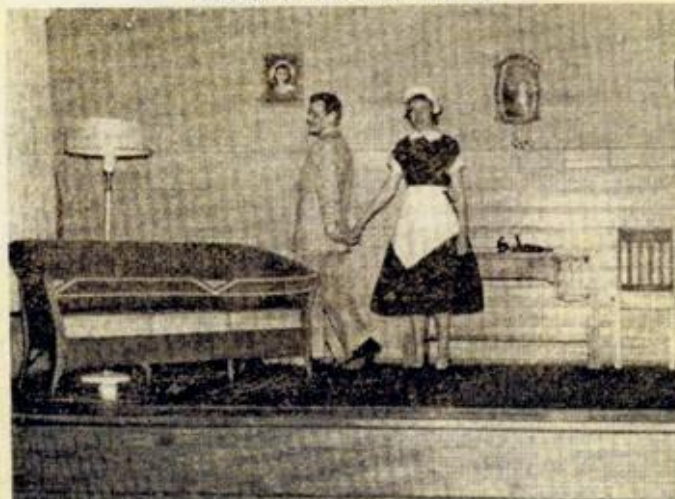

Because of the location of the present convent and the urgent need for a new one, the convent will be started before anything else is attempted. The McAlpine property, which is directly west of the rectory, has been purchased as the site of the new convent; the addition to the school and the gymnasium will extend south along Marshall street toward Eleventh street.

Plans for the program are becoming definite as architects and fund-raising firms are being consulted.

JUNIORS PLACE FIRST AND SECOND AS DESIGNERS

Since basketball games have been scheduled for Sacred Heart's teams next year, the need for cheerleaders arises. Designing of the outfits for the cheerleaders has been assigned to the girls, each girl submitting one sketch of the design she liked best by March 9. Three young women in parish have been selected to judge the designs according to originality and style. Marilyn Fitzgerald's design placed first; that of Rosalie Day won second place.

Editors Lunch and Plan With IHSPA Advisors

On Saturday, Feb. 25, Joanna Lacey and Eileen Ryan attended an IHSPA advisors' meeting. Held at Drake University in Des Moines, the meeting began at noon with lunch in the university cafeteria. After lunch the business meeting took place in New York Hall, Drake's journalism building. Most important of the matter discussed was the date for the next IHSPA convention to be held at Drake. It was decided that Oct. 19 would be the best date, and details concerning the convention were then discussed.

The meeting adjourned at 3 o'clock after all present business was discussed.

On Sunday, Feb. 4, and March 3, the parish hall was the scene of a ham and eggs breakfast. Put on by the Athletic Association to raise money for the Athletic Fund, these breakfasts also provided the members of the parish an opportunity to discuss the proposed building plans over their coffee cups.

The team members helped the Athletic Association mothers with the serving showing their willingness to help with this program and their appreciation for the way everyone has supported their cause.

CHOIR PARTICIPATED IN MODIFIED CEREMONIES OF HOLY WEEK LITURGY

Holy Week Services held at Sacred Heart Church this year were very beautiful, the choir members singing as if they were inspired by the joys of Easter which had come after the Lenten time of sacrifice and penance.

On Holy Thursday, the Kyrie and the Gloria of the Mass were taken from the Mass, "Juana Coeli." During the procession of the Blessed Sacrament the entire choir sang the "Pange Lingua."

Variable parts of the Masses of Maundy Thursday and Holy Saturday, the Services of Good Friday and the Canticles and Lauds of Holy Saturday were chanted by a special group of singers—James Matt, Duke Conway, Jerry Cooper, Ron Hopkins, Larry Ackerman, Peter Fleming, Sue Casserly, Marcia Day, Beth Fanger, Eileen Ryan, Mary Kay Keller, Joanna Lacey and Pat Dittmer.

"The Mass of the Holy Rosary" was sung on Easter Sunday, "Regina Coeli" being chosen as the Offertory Hymn and "Christ Is Risen" as the recessional. The boys chosen to chant the Proper of the Mass for Easter were: Ron Hopkins, Duke Conway, Peter Fleming, Larry Ackerman, James Matt and Jerry Cooper.

Firebird Ring Wins By Unanimous Decision

Choosing class rings is one of the high spots in the junior year, but having a number of styles from which to choose makes an agreement on any one style difficult. However, this year the class seemed to be in agreement as to what they wanted, and quickly narrowed the selection to two styles. After much discussion and deliberation, it was decided that the Class of '57 would wear the Fire Bird. Then came the selection of stones. All the rings are beautiful, and the juniors will wear them with pride during their final year at S.H.S.

this he would like to wear a mint green shirt and black tie.

Sacred Heart, Better In Hardcourt Drills

Jordan Plays Host To S.H.S. Cagers

Basketball practice has progressed very well and members of the squad are showing improvement. Two games were held between the Jordan F.F.A. team and our team at the Jordan High School gym. The first game saw Ronnie Hopkins score repeatedly on a set shot from out by the free throw line. Jim Matt controlled quite a few rebounds with Duane Stuckey backing him up. In spite of the combined effort and good playing of the team, we ended on the wrong side of the score, eight points behind.

In the second game our team pulled from nine points behind to one point ahead with only a few minutes remaining. Capitalizing on a bad pass, the Jordan team played the ball in and scored. They won by a score of 36-34. Dan Garvey was high point man for our team with 10 points. Duke Conway got 8, Dave Stuckey 7, and Ed Brice chalked up 6. Most of the rebounds for our teams were controlled by Brice, Stuckey and Cooper.

STUDENTS WERE OFF TO EASTER PARADE

What would you want to wear if you were in the "Easter Parade"? This question was asked some of the students around the S.H.S. Here are a few replies:

Margaret would like to join the parade in a new light-blue print crystallette torso style dress with a blue crystallette duster. A blue hat and gloves with white heels and purse completes her "Easter Wardrobe."

What could be more ideal for the Easter Parade than Dick Hare's tweed sport coat with the matching slacks? A mint green shirt and tie would complete his desirable "Easter Outfit."

Next would come Beth in her new white pill-box styled hat. Her avocado suit would be butcher-linen. White heels, gloves and purse would add style to her attire.

Leo's choice for the "Easter Parade" would be a black sport coat with gray flannel slacks. With

Outstanding Boy Of The Moment

Duke Conway, a 16-year-old junior, is one of our devoted high school students.

Duke enjoys himself while participating in school activities, such as glee club, junior-senior play and C. S. M. C.

Our teen is a very good worker; after school and on Saturdays, you will find him at Kembles Flower Shop where he is employed. His summer plans include working with his dad, Mr. William Conway, of Conway Construction Company.

Duke also enjoys basketball. In his spare time he heads for the "Y." His favorite foods are roast beef and carrots. His song is "Why Do Fools Fall in Love"

Iowa State may have a new student in 1957. Duke explains that a civil engineering course there after high school graduation is his foremost hope.

Wittiest: Jerry Manriquez and Rita Brown.

Best citizen: Geraldine Newland and Jerry Cooper.

TOPS IN POPS

Sure'n St. Pat's Day rolled around again, and all loyal Irish donned their shamrocks and dusted off their shillalahs. Once again we heard the ever-loved Irish tunes such as "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" and "Mother Macree." But soon this day passed, and we now have nothing left but memories.

Thus it is, with music becoming popular in what seems like overnight, the tunes are almost completely forgotten in a few weeks. For instance, has anyone heard "The Shifting, Whispering Sands" lately? Or "Moments to Remember"? When thinking of these one-time tops, we have many pleasant memories come back to us; but they have had their day of glory and, like many others, will remain forever memories.

Currently topping the list of favorites are:

1. "Boll Weevil"
2. "See You Later Alligator"
3. "No, Not Much"
4. "I'll Be Home"
5. "Why Do Fools Fall In Love"
6. "The Great Pretender"
7. "Eddie, My Love"
8. "Blue Suede Shoes"
9. "Juke Box Baby"
10. "A Tear Fell"

Rosalie Day Leads In Junior-Senior Play

When a young man came to the Osborn house for lunch and Lois Osborn, driven half crazy by salesmen, pretends to be the disagreeable maid, a one-act farce develops in "Luncheon for Six." Staged by the junior-senior class for the P.T.A. March 9, "Luncheon For Six" proved to be a very entertaining play. Rosalie Day played Lois Osborn with Dean Dittmer, her leading man, as Barton. Dolly and Jim Osborn were portrayed by Margaret Judge and Peter Fleming, and Eileen Ryan and Leo Dittmer as Mary Wilcox and Jim Stewart completed the cast.

There was a double cast for the play, the second cast giving their performance on March 7 for the school. In the second cast were: Tom Fitzgerald, Jim Osborn; Duke Conway, Barton; Joanna Lacey, Dolly Osborn; Rita Brown, Mary Wilcox; and Leo Dittmer, Jim Stewart.

DECAPODA CONVEYS BROWN TO SCHOOL

What would you do with a decapoda?

Duke Conway: Soot it!

Rita Brown: Scream!

Marilyn Fitzgerald: I don't know what I'd do.

Jeri Newland: I'd eat it.

Ed Brice: Hang it in a tree by its head.

Jerry Manriquez: Roast it and then share it with the class.

Duane Stuckey: Sell it. I'm low on money.

Vreela Collins: I wouldn't have any idea what to do.

Kathy McDonald: I'd throw it away.

Ray Brown: I'd ride it to school every morning.

A decapoda is an order of the crustaceans. It has five pairs of legs upon the thorax so Ray can make a quick trip to school.

May 2 Marks New Milestone At Sacred Heart; Juniors and Seniors Visit Planet Of Mars

On Wednesday evening, May 2, the first trip to Mars was made by the juniors and seniors of Sacred Heart and their guests. "A Trip To Mars" was the theme chosen for the annual junior-senior banquet and prom held in the Parish Hall.

Guests at the banquet were Father Ryan, Father Friedman, and the parents of the junior and senior class officers. Covers were set at a U-shaped table with appointments in pink, mint green and silver. Centering the table was an arrangement of pink and white majestic daisies and snapdragons. Placed at intervals along the table were vases of carnations and mint green candles.

After the banquet a very entertaining program was presented with Peter Fleming as toastmaster. Assisting Peter with introductions was "Rebelsky," the robot, portrayed by Bob Garvey who presented the following program of toasts:

Juniors toast of welcome, Rosalie Day; response to junior toast by Margaret Judge; toast to Father Ryan, Eileen Ryan; response by Father Ryan; toast to Father Friedman, Duke Conway; response by Father Friedman; toast to parents, Tom Fitzgerald; toast to Sisters, Ed Brice. During this part of the program two skits were given by several members of the junior class with accompaniment by Mrs. Wm. Conway at the piano.

Following the program, the spaceship landed on Mars for the annual prom. Beginning with the grand march led by Peter Fleming and Rosalie Day, Margaret Judge and Jerry Manriquez, dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening. Carl Nebbe's orchestra played for dancing.

DEDICATION TO FATHER RYAN

Father John Joseph Ryan came to the parish of Boone in June, 1931. In 25 years of service to his parish school and community our Pastor has never failed in any project undertaken for the Church.

Father Ryan is not only one of the ablest administrators of the Sioux City diocese, but is also a very devout priest, and a highly respected citizen of Boone.

We, the students of Sacred Heart, want to express our deepest and most sincere gratitude and appreciation to Father. To him, we dedicate this issue of Listenin' In.

Celebrate Unusual Event In Parish

Celebrating an event which has never taken place in the parish of Sacred Heart, and seldom occurs in any diocese, the students of Sacred Heart presented a program to Father Ryan on May 29.

The program opened with "Wave High Our Lady's Banner," an all school chorus, especially commemorating Father Ryan's silver years in Boone. At the conclusion of the chorus, Miss Margaret Judge, senior class president, in a congratulatory address, expressed to Father the students' deep appreciation and admiration of his 25 years of priestly work among them. The Sacred Heart High Glee Club sang Millard's Ave Maria, with solo parts taken by Sue Casserly and Peter Fleming.

Throughout the months of April and May the classes said rosaries, attended Mass and received Holy Communion as a spiritual token of gratitude for Father Ryan. This spiritual of-

Students, Clergy, Parishioners, And Friends Join In Celebration Of Silver Jubilee

A unique observance in the history of the Church of the Sacred Heart was held on Ascension Thursday, May 10, when the pastor, the Rev. Father J. J. Ryan, marked his 25th anniversary as pastor of Sacred Heart.

Father Ryan came to Boone in 1931 from Salix, Iowa, by appointment of Bishop Heelan.

The present assistant pastor of Sacred Heart, Rev. Father Cecil Friedman, and members of the parish planned the anniversary event, all cooperating to provide a memorable day for the jubilarian. Reflecting the high esteem in which Father Ryan is held was the presence of many priests of the diocese and neighboring parishes outside the diocese.

The festivities began with a 5:30 o'clock dinner in the parish hall for the visiting priests. The dinner was served by the members of the Altar Society.

The program opened with a vocal solo, "Bless This Priest," by James Matt, accompanied at the piano by Miss Coleen Bennett, with an introduction by Miss Eileen Ryan. Msgr. McElroy spoke in behalf of the Fort Dodge Deanery, of which Father Ryan is a member; Father C. E.

his ordination in 1906; Msgr. C. J. Ivis of Storm Lake, superintendent of schools of the Sioux City diocese, spoke to the group as "a former Boone boy;" others expressing sentiments of the spiritual influence of the jubilarian included Father Robert Phillips, Father Everett Apt and Father Koenig, all former assistant pastors of Sacred Heart.

The selection, "On Wings of Song," was sung by a girls sextet: Misses Eileen Ryan, Sue Casserly, Marcia Day, Beth Fangman, Mary Kay Keller and Elaine Collins, with Miss Dolores Headley as piano accompanist.

Speaking in behalf of the parish, T. J. Mahoney gave a brief history of Sacred Heart's expansion during the 25 years of Father Ryan's pastorate.

Concluding the program, Father Ryan spoke words of thanks for all the courtesies extended to him on his 25th jubilee in Boone. He also thanked the congregation for their cooperation through the past 25 years and observed, in closing, "The Kingdom of God is in the hearts of men. It has been a pleasure to work in the Sacred Heart parish of Boone through 25 years of loyalty and cooperation from

'A Trip To Mars' Boone Banquet-Prom Theme

By Irma Masterson Hines

BOONE — Time was when junior-senior high school proms featured such old-fashioned themes as a garden, land or sea travel, a cabaret or the like, but not so in this age of spaceship talk which makes a trip to the moon seem credible. "A Trip to Mars" was the theme chosen by the junior class of Sacred Heart High School here for the annual formal banquet and prom in honor of the senior class, held Wednesday evening, May 2nd at the parish hall.

Banquet guests, other than the seniors and juniors, were the pastor, Father J. J. Ryan, assistant, Father Cecil Friedman, and the parents of the junior and senior class officers.

After the serving of the three-course banquet, the program of toasts was presented with Peter Fleming, junior class president, as toastmaster. All of the introductions and program numbers carried out the theme of "A Trip to Mars". The toastmaster was assisted in the introductions by a robot, portrayed by Bob Garvey.

Following is the program, each speaker covering various phases of the route covered by the spaceship: toast of welcome, Miss Rosalie Day; Toast to Father Ryan, Miss Eileen Ryan; response by the pastor; response to the juniors, Miss Margaret Judge, senior class president; Toast to Father Friedman, Duke Conway, response by Father Friedman.

A skit entitled, "Space Opera", was presented by Peter Fleming and Misses Eileen Ryan, Rosalie Day and Marilyn Fitzgerald, after which the three girls, introduced as the Starlettes, sang "When You Wish Upon a Star." A toast to the Sisters of Sacred Heart School was given by Ed Brice and the program closed with prayer by Father Friedman. The invocation was given by Father Ryan.

Following the banquet program, the spaceship landed on Mars for the annual prom, with all of the Sacred Heart high school students and invited guests participating. The dancing began with a grand march led by Peter Fleming, Miss Rosalie Day, Miss Margaret Judge and Jerry Manriquez. Carl Nebbe's orchestra played for dancing.

During the evening punch was served from a buffet table centered with a floral arrangement and mint green candles. Standing in the center of the room on a platform was a large guided missile with blinker lights overhead and puffs of smoke at the base, realistic effects created from dry ice. Suspended from the lights were large balloons disguised to resemble various planets and also floating in the "sky" were two large flying saucers and rocketships.

Tables were arranged on the "spaceport" for refreshments. In one corner of the hall was a beautiful shrine of the Blessed Virgin, with a heavenly blue satin background glistening with streamers of cellophane and silver foil, dropping into a mass of clouds at the base, with special lighting effects. Three-dimensional stars twinkled in the "sky" and the orchestra stage was adorned with a background curtain of blue with glittering streamers in waterfall effect.

Eileen Ryan To Attend Journalism Workshop At University of Iowa

During the week of June 4 through June 9, Eileen Ryan will attend the annual High School Publications Workshop for students and advisors, at the State University of Iowa.

From four major fields of study, Eileen has chosen printed and offset papers. Under this topic, classes will be devoted to all phases of editing and publishing a newspaper. Classes will be given in news writing, feature writing, editorial writing, column writing, copyreading and editing, photography, and business management and advertising.

The workshop is not entirely a program of work. Food, fun and festivity are a main part of the week. Featuring a reception and "get-acquainted" party on Monday night, the week builds up to a graduation banquet with diplomas being awarded to the students on Friday evening. Various activities planned for the session are: Conducted tour of SUI Television studios, bus tour of Davenport and a tour of the Davenport newspapers, a trip up the great Mississippi, visits to the Observatory, a swimming party in the fieldhouse pool and a picnic. In this well-rounded program, there are activities to suit everyone.

Father Studer Gives One Day Retreat At Sacred Heart

Silence and meditation prevailed at the day of recollection held at the high school for the students on May 18. The day of recollection was conducted by Father Studer, assistant at Sacred Heart Parish, Fort Dodge, Iowa.

The retreat began with Mass at 8:30 a.m., followed by breakfast in the parish hall. Highlighting the activities of this day of prayer were the interesting conferences given by Father Studer. Stations of the Cross, rosary, examination of conscience, a sermon followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and private prayer and meditation supplemented these conferences.

Anticipation and appreciation of this day of recollection were expressed in the following student opinion poll:

Marilyn Burke: It's a good way to end our senior year.

Margaret Judge: It is a good opportunity for the seniors to begin their careers on the right foot.

Dave Stuckey: We're very fortunate to have Father Studer as our retreat master.

Rita Brown: I think it's a good idea.

Eileen Ryan: I think it's fine of Father Studer to give up his time to be our retreat master.

"POINT SYSTEM SPURS ALTAR BOY FIDELITY

At the beginning of the second semester the boys were put on a point system. Each boy was given 30 points, which number could be lessened by tardiness or absence and increased by substitution. Any boy who loses all 30 points foregoes the privilege of serving the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The boys have had a splendid record and it is hoped they will prove themselves as faithful during the summer months when it is so hard to get up.

Those who have maintained or increased their 30 points and are eligible for the altar boy merit pin are: Tom Conway, 50; Larry Conway, 45; Don Garvey and Tim Mahoney, 40; Billy Ryan and Duke Conway, 35. The following have 30 points: Ronnie Hopkins, Peter Fleming, Bob Garvey, Mike Lacey, David Longergan, Gary Mullins, Tom Payne, Mark Collison, Mike Lochrer, James Donelson and Phillip Seiler.

Upper Classmen Win By Margin Of Three Runs

Playing softball is fast becoming the most popular sport at Sacred Heart. Challenged by the junior-senior class to a game, the freshman-sophomore class played their hearts out only to be downed by the upperclassmen.

At bat first were the seniors. Jerry Manriquez brought in the only run of the first inning. As the juniors came to bat things improved and they brought in three runs; however the seniors showed their superiority as five more runs were brought in in the next inning to make the score 6-3 in their favor.

Highlights of the game: Home run king, Ed Brice, came to bat and was successful again. A few runs were brought in by Duke Conway and Bob Garvey and Peter Fleming got a single. Errors by the underclassmen gave Duane Stuckey a homer. Making three runs for the lower classment were Aaron Vest, Dan Garvey and Larry Conway. At the close of the game the upper classmen were still at bat, having been up twice to the junior set's once. Umpire for the game was John Jacobson.

Lineups for the game were: Jerry Manriquez and Aaron Vest, pitchers; Bob Garvey and Dan Garvey, catchers; Duane Stuckey and Larry Conway, first base; Duke Conway and Jerry Cooper, second base; Tom Fitzgerald and Ronnie Hopkins, third base; Dean Dittmer and Earl Brice, right field; Peter Fleming and Jim Matt, center field; Ed Brice and Ray Brown, left field.

The junior class really outdid themselves on the prom this year. Their theme "A Trip to Mars," was really "out of this world." The parish hall was transformed into a beautiful ballroom and the banquet was fit for kings or, should I say, graduating seniors. The seniors certainly appreciated all the work and planning the juniors did to make their last prom a memorable one.

May was filled with many happy events for the seniors' last month at S.H. The prom, of course, was the major highlight, and their skip day in Des Moines was their last trip together.

Duke Conway is sporting a black eye for the spring season. Wherever Duke got it seems to be a complete mystery.

Pattie Lacey was trying to keep pace with sister, Joanna, by having an accident at the choir-altar boy picnic. Pattie had a little more discretion, though, and used a bicycle instead of the family car.

A movie no one should miss is "Miracle in the Rain," starring Van Johnson and Jane Wyman. Two other stars are St. Andrew and St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York.

As this is the last time I will be with you "On the Party Line" I would like to say thanks for Listenin' In.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor: To give credit where credit is due, I would like to congratulate and pay special tribute to the conduct and spirit of the students of Sacred Heart High School at the annual Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom.

A smile is contagious. On the night of May 2 there were no exceptions. Everyone wore a radiant smile. The "blues" were off hiding in a corner. Students, priests, sisters, parents, and visitors enjoyed themselves thoroughly. The spirit of the Prom was a reward for the months of planning and work by the junior class. Not only the students but also parents enjoyed the dance. Many hadn't been on the dance floor in 25 years but gave the young people competition.

The Prom was a shining example of what American youth can do. It proved that the youth of America are not a horde of barbarians as they are made out to be by the mediums of communication. That night Sacred Heart students were not boys and girls but men and women—men and women who deserve laurels of congratulation. The Prom proved that youth can be good citizens and be an asset to the Church, the community, and the nation.

Blessed Mother must have been pleased when the students concluded the evening with "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" at her shrine, thanking her for a wonderful evening and asking her protection for a safe journey home.

As a fellow student, I take my hat off to the students of this high school. As president of the junior class, I thank all those who assisted the juniors in making the Prom the success that it was.

Respectfully, Peter Fleming,
President of the Junior Class.

Rosalie Day Selected Prefect by Sodalists

Will Crown Virgin In May Ceremony

Rosalie Day, senior, was elected by the members of the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin. Elected from among the senior girls, Rosalie will have the great privilege and honor of crowning Blessed Mother in May.

Attending Sacred Heart for all but two of her school years, Rosalie has been active in all extracurricular activities. Every third Sunday she can be found attending Mass and Holy Communion as her active part in Sodality. Active membership in C.S.M.C. has led Rosalie to take part in all projects connected with this student club. In school, work is her theme as she strives to achieve her best grades. Typing proves to be her favorite subject. In addition to school and extracurricular activities, she works part time at Virginia's House of Flowers.

Practical Thought: What does the bride think when she enters the church for the wedding ceremony? "Aisle altar hymn."

Many Stunts Test Freshmen At SHS Annual Initiation

On Tuesday, Sept. 18, the Freshman Class was formally initiated into high school by the seniors.

Initiation began at noon with the freshmen providing a tasty lunch for the seniors. Throughout the day the mentality of the freshmen was tested by the recitation of a flowery speech to any senior who so desired.

Entertainment for the entire afternoon was provided by the willing freshmen. Ranking tops among the stunts were the balloon blowing contest in which each received a free bath and "The Broad Grin" was won by Cecilia Hick and Tom Matt. Only one fatality occurred during the entire day when in the broom stunt Michelle Mlover became dizzy and toppled over. She received a big hand when she got to her feet and propelled herself to her chair. All in all the day was enjoyable to all present, especially the freshmen who proved to be good sports in everything.

At 3 p.m. the initiation was brought to an official close by Peter Fleming as he welcomed the tired freshmen into high school.

Eileen Ryan Selected IHSPA Panel Member

Eileen Ryan will be one of the 70 students chosen as panelists at the annual I.H.S.P.A. convention to be held at Drake University on Oct. 19. Miss Ryan will be a member of the panel on "The School Editorial Page."

Other Seniors from Sacred Heart will attend along with journalism students from all over Iowa.

To exchange information among the schools of Iowa is the purpose of the press convention and the theme, "High School Journalism,—An Education and a Service," will be carried out in the 14 different panel discussions as well as in the talk by the principal speaker. Panelists for the different discussions will be chosen from a number of schools. Prof. Robert M. Bliss, head of the department of Journalism at Drake, will be chairman of the convention.

School Participates In Scholarship Program

Sacred Heart High School will participate in the National Merit Scholarship Program sponsored by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. This program is a national search for high school seniors who have demonstrated ability and promise to benefit from a college education.

Eileen Ryan, Duke Conway, Tom Fitzgerald and Peter Fleming have registered for the scholarship Qualifying Test.

Cheerleaders Begin Practice Sessions

"TE--AM," Sounds such as these echo through the halls of SHS every Tuesday and Thursday as the girls are practicing for cheerleading.

Sophomores, juniors and seniors are eligible with eight sophomores, two juniors and two seniors "going out" for cheerleading.

Two practice sessions have already been held and there will be one more before Oct. 11., when five girls are finally chosen best.

Sizzling Games Played On Sacred Heart Field

Sizzling football games have been played on the gridiron at Sacred Heart this fall. Seniors, juniors, and sophomores formed the first team while the gigantic freshman boys formed the second line.

Strongest play in the game was the famous "flying wedge" executed by the upperclassmen. In this play Dan Garvey and Jerry Manriquez daringly carried the pigskin through the towering freshman line. Although the freshies failed to score, they proved to be great sportsmen, playing their best game against the feared upper-classmen.

Fleming Chosen Page Attends Convention

To become better acquainted with the mechanics of a convention and to prepare for the great privilege of voting, Peter Fleming sought appointment as page at the Republican National Convention.

Because of his excellent school record and outstanding Boy Scout work, Peter secured the appointment from Mr. Don Pierson, state chairman of the Republican convention.

With the support of Boone civic leaders, Peter was off to San Francisco on Aug. 17, and took up the work of a page on the convention floor of the Cow Palace, with the press, radio and television departments for four memorable days.

Resourcefulness and diligence while on the job earned for Peter the honor of being assistant to the Chief Page, Marlin McDaniel. On the day of President Eisenhower's acceptance speech, Peter was in charge of the convention floor. The convention was a wonderful experience and one that "I will never forget," Peter says.

CSMS Unit Launches Seven New Projects

At the first CSMS meeting of the year seven projects were launched by the Sacred Heart unit. Peter Fleming, chairman of the month, welcomed the freshmen into the club.

Santa will be welcomed into the Indian orphanage at Winnebago, Neb., as a result of the Butternut coffee strips saved by the students of SHS. The idea of the club is that the coffee strips be saved and then sent to the Butternut Company. Then the company sends gifts to a designated charitable institution in sufficient number that each child will be remembered on Christmas. On Dec. 15, the day on which the strips were mailed, 1,846 strips had been collected. 475 of these from second and third grade put these young missionaries out in front, and 411 from the zealous third and fourth grades won second place for that group. In charge of this project were Pat Donovan and Mary Sue Rolfes.

Prayers for missions are also an important part of mission work. Each Tuesday the students gather in the church at 12:15 to say a rosary for the missions. Chairmen for this project are Eileen Ryan and Mary Kay Keller, who lead the rosary on these days.

Pat Brice and Rosalie Day, chairmen of the cancelled stamps drive, reported that 3,756 stamps have been turned in by the grades. In collections, 1,425 put the first and second in the lead followed by the fifth and sixth with 645 stamps.

Plans for the White Elephant Sale to be held in January were presented to the students at the second meeting of the CSMS conducted by Beth Fangman, chairman for the month. Duke Conway and Cecelia Hick head the committee for this project.

Reports on other projects will appear in the next issue of Listening In.

In observance of the annual National Education Week, Sacred Heart held open house for all parents and friends.

Peter Fleming welcomed the parents, who assembled for a planned tour of the class rooms. Senior girls, Rosalie Day, Marilyn Fitzgerald and Eileen Ryan acted as ushers while two junior girls, Delores Headley and Patricia Lacey were in charge of the guest book.

TV was the medium chosen by the first graders to present a program of modern art featuring drawings of various domestic animals.

Smoke and flying cinders were on the program of the second grade as they boarded a Religion train.

Speed in addition and spelling was on the roster in the second and third grades with the second taking spelling and the third highlighting in the numeral column.

Three-dimensional art was the attraction in third and fourth. Since Thanksgiving was just around the corner, these youngsters designed turkeys. Profiles of each child were drawn by Sister Mary Baptiste and hung on the bulletin board with initials attached for identification.

Proceeding to grades five and six, the tourists enjoyed a dramatic reading in which many of the students took part.

The pinks proved to be the winners in the mental arithmetic contest in grades seven and eight.

As part of their world history lesson, the ninth and tenth grades featured Hannibal's crossing of the Alps.

Displaying the new physics equipment was the main objective of the junior-senior physics class as students performed informative experiments in the science of physics.

BOB GARVEY ASSUMES PROJECTIONIST DUTIES

Projectionist at Sacred Heart this year is Bob Garvey, a senior student in physics. As a part of his job, Bob operates the projector when the News Magazine of the Screen is shown to the student body.

After school and on Saturdays Bob can be found working at Boesens. It is a well-known fact that Bob likes Chevys and wouldn't take a Ford if someone gave one to him.

Next fall Bob plans to enroll at Iowa State College or the local Junior College to pursue a course in engineering.

Boys Outnumber Girls in SHHS

Statistics show that for the first time in a great number of years the boys outnumber the girls in Sacred Heart High by 3 1/2%.

The biggest odds are in the senior class with 67% boys and 33% girls. In the junior-senior room, also, the boys outrank the girls by 8 3/4%.

There are high hopes among the girls that odds will continue

SHHS SPARTANS LAUNCH NEW ATHLETIC ERA

St. Edmond's Game

With but a few weeks of practice, the Sacred Heart Spartans launched a new athletic era as they opened the basketball season against St. Edmond's Junior Varsity.

Ed Brice, Duke Conway, Dan Garvey, Jerry Cooper, and Larry Conway formed the starting squad for the Spartans.

Shooting was the main weakness of the Spartans; however, they did yeoman-like service in the rebound category.

Soph forward Cooper popped in nine points and was a tower of strength under the boards. Duke Conway tallied 11 points to lead the scoring column. Center Ed Brice held his own in the rebound department.

Sacred Heart Suffers Third Straight Loss

While the offense clicked for top point production of the season, the Spartan defense allowed St. Joseph of Bode to tally more points than any of their previous opponents in bowing to the host team 74-47.

Constituting the third straight loss, the Sacred Heart team, who was never able to score more than 34 points, bagged 47 points.

Carroll Tramples SHS Spartan Team

A powerful Carroll Kuemper reserve team handed Sacred Heart its fourth setback of the season by a score of 56-22.

Poorest offensive output of the season occurred in this game when the varsity scored only 22 points. Never really in the game, they trailed 15-1 at the first quarter. By halftime the Kuemper reserves had gained a 37-7 lead.

Bagging 6 points each, gave Ed Brice and Duke Conway a tie for leading position for the offense.

Nine field goals in the final quarter constituted the best offensive display for the Spartans.

Students Merit Honors For Exceptional Work

Honors were given to the many students, who did exceptional work during the first quarter. Requirements for first honors are an average of 90%, an A in conduct, and no tardiness. An excused absence of one day does not disqualify a student for honors. Second honors have the same requirements except for the average which is 85-89.

Those who achieved these goals are: Second grade: Jonell Fitzgerald, second honors. Third grade: Mary Margaret Mahoney, first honors. Fourth grade: Billy Hale, Vicki Strain, Linda Fitzgerald, first honors. Fifth grade: Diane Carroll, Rita Healy, Michael Loehrer, Jude Rolles, Anne Seiler, first honors. Sixth grade: James Donelson, Kathleen Dahlgren, Ronald Keller, Marilyn Pestotnik, Philip Seiler, first honors. Karen Elsberry, Linda Fleming, Paula Pestotnik, second honors. CSMC Holds Annual White Elephant Sale; Returns Reach Record High This Year

The CSMC held a White Elephant Sale on Wednesday, Jan. 23, the proceeds of which have been sent to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Starting the day off with a bang, the senior boys—Jerry Manriquez, Peter Fleming, Duke Conway, and Thomas Fitzgerald auctioned the various packages, donated by students. At the end of the auction Bob Garvey, treasurer, announced that $23.50 had been realized on the sale.

To keep activity in full swing an old-fashioned cake walk was held with the senior boys in charge. Made and decorated by Pat Dittmer, the cake was won by Earl Brice.

Popcorn balls and candy were the mediums used to increase the auction fund. In the popcorn balls was a lucky number on two theatre tickets donated by Beth Fangman and won by Colleen Bennett. Hidden inside daintily wrapped candy was another lucky number on a pair of hand embroidered pillow slips, a donation of Rosalie Day. Kathy McDonald was the lucky girl. Freshman and sophomore girls made the popcorn balls while the senior girls provided the candy.

As the afternoon drew to a close, refreshments were served by the junior girls. Hot chocolate was donated and made by Delores Headley and Pat Lacey; the junior and senior girls provided cookies and served the refreshments.

Congratulations are in tone for the high school students, who, this year, set a new high for this traditional sale with a total of $37.01.

SPARTANS END SEASON WITH TWO WINS

Victory Falls Short By Six Points As Gaels Steal Win From Spartans

After taking an early lead, Coach Noel Jones' basketballers fell short of victory by only 6 points as St. Edmond's, who whipped Sacred Heart by 20 points in a previous game, won 50-44.

In the opening minutes Sacred Heart went into the lead and might have widened the gap but for four missed lay-ups. The hosts then applied a full court press with which the Spartans could not cope.

A balanced attack brought the Spartans within 6 points of the Gaels.

This 6 point deficit was the closest the Spartans had come to victory.

Mt. Carmel Scalps Spartans In Tournament

In the first round of the diocesan basketball tournament, Sacred Heart was defeated by Mt. Carmel, 68-40.

Jerry Cooper, who moved into the center post to replace Ed Brice, bagged 12 points to share top honors with Duke Conway who netted 13, and Dan Garvey who chalked up 11.

The victors led 19-4 at the end of the first period, 36-16 at half-time, and 54-34 at the end of the third session.

At one time the Spartans cut Mt. Carmel's lead to 13 points by using a full court press.

The faculty and student body express appreciation to Coach Jones, who in capturing and holding the boys' interest has shown the Spartans the way to victory.

SPARTANS IS THE NAME FOR WHICH WE STAND

S is for the spirit that helps us win our games.

P is for prayer asking God's guidance.

A stands for the activity of the cheerleaders and fans.

R stands for righteousness with which we play each game.

T stands for team work, the foundation of success.

A stands for apparel, blue and white for Mary.

N is for the New Year of basketball's rise to fame.

S is for the bright and sunny faces shown at each game.

Managers Play Big Role During Spartan Season

Success of the basketball team this year is due greatly to the planning, scheduling, encouragement, and prayers of managers, Peter Fleming and Tom Brown. To them congratulations and heartfelt thanks are extended.

SACRED HEART RIPS ST. MATTHEW'S TEAM

Using a balanced attack, which had been absent in previous games, Coach Noel Jones' Spartans walloped St. Matthew's of Clare, 57-35.

Snapping a 13 game losing streak, the victory added much needed confidence to the team who are competing in basketball for the first time in a number of years.

An output of 18 points by Dan Garvey paced the quintet, while Jerry Cooper assisted with 14, Larry Conway with 13 and Duke Conway with 10.

St. Matthew's tallied 7 points before the Spartans moved quickly into the scoring column to lead 13-9 at the end of the first quarter.

Still in command at halftime, 21-18, a 21 point outburst in the third period put the game on ice for the Spartans.

Sacred Heart connected on 15 of 24 free throws, while Clare hit on only 9 of 23.

Sacred Heart Loses To Kuemper In Best Played Game of Season

Following a week of vigorous practice, Sacred Heart came with the Carroll Kuemper varsity reserves. After being behind by 15 points in the third quarter the Jonesmen lost by a slim margin, 45-43.

At the onset of the opponent's 15 point lead, Sacred Heart was sparked and tallied 7 points in the final two minutes of the third quarter, and trailed by 39-31 going into the last act.

With 10 seconds left the Spartans controlled a tip but missed a long shot and time ran out.

Dan Garvey's 17 point firing paced Boone, while Duke Conway added 11, and Larry Conway 9.

Spartans Tounce Clare For Season's Second Win

After defeating St. Matthew's of Clare on Sunday, Feb. 3, the Sacred Heart Spartans turned in a repeat performance the following Thursday, whipping St. Matthew's by a score of 53-37.

Center Jerry Cooper did an outstanding job in rebounding, while Dan Garvey and Larry Conway sparked the offense, flicking in 18 and 17 points, respectively. An addition of 10 points by Duke Conway and 9 by Cooper completed the balanced attack launched by the Spartans.

Owning a 13-6 first period advantage, Sacred Heart went on to lead by 29-14, and 42-22 at the respective quarters.

Garvey's outside shooting, plus Larry Conway's tipping and close in shooting ability gave Sacred Heart a versatile attack.

Forwards Larry Ackerman and Duke Conway turned in a top-notch defensive game.

Dawson Player Lends Helping Hand To SHS

As the ball was put into play from out-of-bounds at the Dawson-Sacred Heart game, an ardent Dawson player saw the chance of a lifetime. Every one else was at the other end of the court and he was wide open for a lay-up. A few steps—the shot—and it was good. But alas, to the surprise and embarrassment of the player, two points were chalked up for Sacred Heart. He had shot at the wrong basket.

Spartans Aim For Fame

Spartans may come, Spartans may go,

But the team we have will never be slow.

We meet our foes with all our might.

For we are trained to fight, fight, fight.

Sometimes we win, sometimes we lose.

But what ever happens Sacred Heart makes news.

Taking advantage of Tuesday morning's activity period are Linda Hale and Ray Brown, Rosalie Day and Larry Ackerman, Michelle Miover and Ron Hopkins, and Delores Headley and Bob Garvey.

TIMELY TOPICS

THE CLASS OF '58 chose the "Skystreak" as their class ring on Tuesday, February 5.

ON THURSDAY, JANUARY 31 Mr. Howard Cooper was a guest at the SHHS pep assembly at 11 o'clock. Mr. Cooper showed a motion picture of the Spartans, cheerleaders and fans at the Diocesan Tournament at Fort Dodge on January 20.

RECOLLECTION DAY at Sacred Heart High School was held Friday, January 18. Father Ryan Clancy, Passionist, conducted the discussions.

PREPARING BROCHURES for the Elks Scholarships are three Sacred Heart seniors: Duke Conway, Pete Fleming, and Eileen Ryan.

THE GLEE CLUB AND CHOIR have been making considerable progress in the past few months. Sister Mary St. Clare is very pleased with the effort and cooperation which the girls have shown.

THE CHOIR has devoted much time to funeral and Requiem Masses; in the Glee Club, Sister Mary St. Clare plans to have the girls do skits with their songs. If all goes as planned a concert will be presented in the spring.

EILEEN RYAN received the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow pin, a badge of honor symbolizing the fact that "Home is Where the Heart Is."

Enrollment Increases?

Current conversation echoing through the halls of Sacred Heart reveals the enrollment of a group of new students.

"Mildred, wait for me," calls Matilda. "Hurry up, slowpoke!" "Gertrude, did you have the car last night?" "I still don't understand some of those geometry proofs," comments Jiggs. "Olive are you going to work tonight?" "By the way, where did you go yesterday, Mildred?" asks Agnes. "Myrtle and I waited for a half hour for you." "We're not supposed to be noisy in the halls," scolds Eva. "There's the bell—hurry up everybody."

If anyone is wondering who these new students really are, listen closely to the conversation of Pat Lacey, Sue Casserly, Pat Dittmer, Jane Burke, Beth Fangman, Pat Brice, Marcia Day, and Rosalie Day.

"FESTIVAL OF LANTERNS" FEATURED IN PROM AND BANQUET SETTING

"Festival of Lanterns" was the theme chosen by the junior class for the 1957 Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom held in the Parish Hall May 1.

In the "Festival of Lanterns" a realistic Oriental tea garden was created with an abundance of fresh flowers and hundreds of artificial flowers which created the effect of a floral paradise. Torii arches decorated with oriental designs and figures opened the doors to the Oriental Gardens.

Colorful oriental fans and paintings adorned the walls; beautiful lighted Japanese lanterns of various colors and styles hung from the ceiling and reflected their light on multi-colored metallic oriental balls and Chinese wind chimes, below in the center of the hall a bridge spanned a flowing stream whose banks were dotted with African violets. On the stage were torii arches with appropriate drawings in the background. Enhancing the beauty of the setting were trees blooming with artificial flowers.

With its Chinese arched roof fashioned of pink and green foil, a shrine to the Blessed Virgin Mary, adorned with large colorful umbrella blossoms, was assembled in one corner.

Tables were arranged around the hall where the dancers enjoyed resting and refreshments during the evening.

To start the evening, a banquet was held for the members of the junior and senior classes. Guests at the banquet were Father Ryan, Father Muecke, and Mr. Noel Jones and Mrs. Jones. Centering the U-shaped banquet table was a floral arrangement of pastel flowers. Favors were presented to the seniors and other guests.

Following the banquet, Beth Fangman, toastmistress for the evening introduced the program. A toast to the seniors was given by Dick Hare accompanied by the lantern lighting ritual, and response was given on behalf of the seniors by Pete Fleming. Pat Donovan gave a toast to the Sisters, while Pat Dittmer read the prophecy in the tea leaves.

Continuing the program, Mike Stammeyer in mandarin costume presented a dance number and a quintet composed of Coleen Bennett, Sue Casserly, Beth Fangman, Dan Garvey and Aaron Vest sang

HONORS GIVEN TO THREE JUNIORS

Scholarships to attend the Iowa High School Publications Workshop at the State University of Iowa have been awarded to Delores Headley and Colleen Bennett this year. Delores and Colleen are to be co-editors of "Listening In" next year.

Beth Fangman has been selected by the American Legion Auxiliary as alternate to the Boone representative at Girls' State this year.

Beth is a junior at Sacred Heart and an honor student. She has been very active in class projects and is president of her class this year.

and Aaron Vest sang the duet, "Beautiful Dreamer." Delores Headley accompanied the performers.

After the banquet the annual prom was held for the high school. The music was provided by the Musitones of Iowa State College for the grand march and prom.

Christ Is Guest Of Young Hearts

At the 8 o'clock Mass on Sunday, May 5, 49 youngsters received their First Holy Communion. Father Ryan officiated at the Mass, after which a breakfast was served for the children in the school hall.

Those in this year's class were: Paul Baldus, Daniel Billings, Robert Brice, Anne Briley, Michael Burgstrom, Ronald Cady, George Christos, Paul Clark, Colleen Collison, Byron Davis, Kim Dittmer, Raymond Eppel, Richard Evens, Steven Farley, Peggy Feeley, Thomas Ferry;

May Coronation Honors Queen of the Universe

May is a time of happiness, eagerness, and new growth. To some it means a birthday . . . flowers . . . baseball . . . a stepping stone to summer vacation, but to every student of Sacred Heart it represents the month of Mary, our Mother—Mother of the King of Kings. May with all its fragrance and beauty is the most perfect month in which to honor our Queen—Queen of the Universe—Queen of May.

On May 19, at 7:30 in the evening the entire student body paid tribute to their Queen.

Special highlight of the ceremony was the crowning of the Blessed Virgin Mary with a wreath of spring flowers by Miss Rosalie Day, Sodality Prefect. Attended by senior boys—Edward Brice, William Conway, Thomas Fitzgerald, Peter Fleming, Robert Garvey, and Gerald Manriquez—in cap and gown and senior girls—Marilyn Fitzgerald and Eileen Ryan—in pastel formals, and flower girls—Mary Lourdes Conway and Ruth Ryan, the queen entered the church as "Tis the Month of Our Mother" was sung.

The crowning party came down the aisle and during the singing of "Bring Flowers of the Rarest," proceeded to the altar where Miss Day placed a wreath of spring flowers on our Lady's head, after which she led the student body in the Act of Consecration to the Blessed Virgin Mary. A sermon by Father Ryan entitled "The Glories of Mary" was followed by Benediction. The recessional "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" concluded the ceremony.

BISHOP MUELLER BESTOWS CONFIRMATION ON GROUP

His Excellency, Rt. Rev. Joseph Mueller presided at the ceremonies at 10:00 a.m. when a class of 72 received the Holy Ghost in the sacrament of Confirmation.

CLASS OF '57 RECEIVES DIPLOMAS FROM PASTOR

At the 10:30 Mass on Sunday, May 26, nine seniors received diplomas from Father Ryan. Hymns for the occasion were sung by the girls' high school choir which was accompanied by De-

Dignity of Worker Is Source of Strength

The recognition by Christ of the dignity of the workers was from its very beginning, one of the great sources of the strength of the Christian religion; in the history of the American republic some of the greatest and most powerful leaders of the nation have been workers. Their own labors have given them a sympathy with all who have labored. No one has better expressed this sympathy for the worker than Patrick Cardinal Hayes, who for the workers whom he loved with brotherly love wrote the prayer, "Carpenter of Nazareth, you were a worker as I am; give to me and all the workers of the world the privilege to work as You did, so that everything we do may be to the betterment of our fellow men and the greater glory of God the Father."

The Class of '57 will in short time become members of the work group. BOB GARVEY has decided to attend Boone Junior College for one year in preparation for an engineering course elsewhere.

ROSALIE DAY has the opportunity of attending the Floral Design School in Chicago and has decided to make a career of this work.

GERALD MANRIQUEZ plans to work in Boone for the summer months before going to Arizona where his brother resides.

DUKE CONWAY, PETER FLEMING and TOM FITZGERALD have made plans to attend St. John's University at Collegeville, Minn.; Duke to study engineering, Peter to take the liberal arts course, and Tom to study business administration.

EILEEN RYAN states that she plans to go to Iowa State to major in home economics. ED BRICE plans to join the Air Force or go to J. C. MARILYN FITZGERALD is going to St. Thomas Hospital at Marshalltown to take nurses training.

Seniors, in whatever branch of activity you choose to work, let the Church and her teachings be your guide. Only by application of Christian principles to the problems of economic life can true peace be restored to the world. For true peace must come not only among nations but also among individuals and among groups within the nations.

Class Day Highlighted By Presence of Ghost

Opening Class Day by attending Mass and Holy Communion, the senior class was served breakfast in the school by their mothers. Guests at the breakfast were Fathers Ryan and Macke.

"Something different" was added to the Class Day program this

As the play opens Helen, portrayed by Rosalie Day, has taken over directing the senior play, "Romeo and Juliet," which is not shaping up very well. While the characters in the play are on a five minute break, Helen is visited by Mac, a young newspaper man played by Duke Conway, who is looking for a scoop, and Anthony, the janitor played by Peter Fleming. Upon hearing of Helen's predicament, Anthony reveals the fact that he was once a good actor, and cooks up a scheme to scare the players into working hard. Shakespeare appears in person while the players are rehearsing, gives them advice on how to do justice to his play, and throws a good scare into them when he promises to haunt them to their dying day if they do not follow their director's instructions.

Other members of the cast are: Bob, Tom Fitzgerald; June, Eileen Ryan; Peggy, Marilyn Fitzgerald; Tubby, Gerald Manriquez; Pinky, Bob Garvey; and Alfred, Ed Brice.

Seniors Make Progress In Ten Years' Time

Following the pattern of Edward R. Murrow's TV show, Person to Person, the life of each member of the Class of '57 was portrayed by a junior.

As the juniors saw it, each senior had made amazing progress in ten years' time. Peter Fleming had become a gubernatorial candidate, Eileen Ryan a world renowned physicist, and Ed Brice a chef famous for his pastries. Both Tom Fitzgerald and Bob Garvey made it to Hollywood, Bob as a noted M.D., and Tom, a famous cowboy movie star. Duke Conway had distinguished himself as a judge, while Marilyn Fitzgerald had been promoted to head nurse at a dental college. Gerald Manriquez had been rated one of the best FBI workers of his day, and Rosalie Day had become a famous children's story teller and author.

SOPHOMORES GIVE PARTY IN HONOR OF SENIORS

On the afternoon of Class Day, the sophomores gave a party for the senior class in the school hall.

Featured in the decorations were the class colors and flower, the carnation. Bouquets of pastel carnations made the hall festive. Hanging from the lights were silhouettes of the graduates.

The program began with toasts to the senior class. Mary Kay Keller related the life of the class patron, St. Anthony, and the sophomores sang their version of "Graduation Day." A carnation was given to each senior.

A sincere wish of good luck to the seniors was given by Peter Mlover. Predicting the future of the seniors were Larry Conway, Marcia Dav, Mike Fitzgerald and
