Number 4.

"PARIS IN THE SPRINGTIME" IS SCENE OF ANNUAL DINNER-DANCE

"Paris in the Springtime" was the scene at the Boone Golf and Country Club, on May 2 when the Sacred Heart High School junior class entertained upper classmen at the annual banquet and dance.

The entrance, the Arch of Triumph, fashioned of green and pink crepe paper, together with the miniature Eiffel Towers on individual tables gave a gay Parisian atmosphere to the dinner dance.

To begin the festive evening, a three course dinner featuring a flaming dessert was served at one long table decorated with floral and candle arrangements in pink and green. Nut cups were in the shape of tiny Paris bonnets, while the programs pictured the Eiffel Tower.

Presenting the after dinner program was Alice Carver as Mistress of Ceremonies. Sharon Shuster, junior class president, welcomed the senior class and guests. Kirby Flanagan, senior president, gave the response.

Accompanied by Alice Carver, the junior quartet—Terry Feller, Sandra Roberts, Sue Coop-

"The Last Time I Saw Paris." Following this, the seniors sang their class song, "Graduation Day," and then both classes joined in singing "I Love Paris."

Closing the program Father Macke gave a short inspiring talk and Rt. Rev. Mgr. J. J. Ryan gave an interesting account of Paris in the spring as he had seen it a few years ago.

Freshmen and sophomores arrived for the dance and at 8:00 o'clock all joined in the grand march. Dancing was enjoyed to the music of Steve Rust and his Combo.

During the evening, punch was served from a table centered with a beautiful statue of Saint Francis surrounded by pink carnations. At 11:30 a buffet style lunch was served after which the closing dance brought to an end another junior and senior banquet and dance.

Library Additions Insure Efficiency

A more efficient and better equipped school library for Sacred Heart resulted from the purchase of books during the year.

Having purchased 150 paperback books from the Scholastic Book Company, Sister Mary St. Felix, librarian, says, "The books contain a great deal of good and helpful reading." In this group are books of fiction, classics, history books, etiquette books, biographies, and books of short stories.

Grace Wooster Donates Valuable Book Collection

Miss Grace Wooster has donated approximately $100 worth of new books to Sacred Heart. Included in this group were: The Saints, The Life of Christ, The Last Days of Pompeii, Swiss Family Robinson, Now We Are Enemies, View from the Fortieth Floor, The Man From Nazareth and John Hughes.

Phys. Ed. Class Meets Outdoors

One, two, three, Go! Mrs. Capps, girls' physical education instructor, gives the signal and the runners are off.

With the coming of spring, outdoor sports were taken up during the Friday morning periods. The first morning in the open air was spent limbering up. Racing was the main attraction.

"Winning the race is the important thing," says RoCarol Tornabane. She did, too, although she almost lost her shoes doing it.

Sue Kane had a little problem of her own. She was running so fast she kept 'slipping out' of the race. Sue comments, "I couldn't climb out of bed Saturday, 'My limbs were killing me.'"

Since tennis shoes are of prime importance in a good race, Christy Moyer found herself barefoot when her keds were confiscated by needy runners.

Basketball, keep-away, and other playground games have also been added to the schedule.

Pep Club Girls Stage Final Excursion In Slumber Party at Lark's Ranch

A night of fun and feasting was enjoyed by the Pep Club on May 10th and 11th at Lark's Ranch where the girls camped over night.

The campers arrived at the ranch early in the evening loaded down with blankets and food for the night's stay. The first chore confronting the girls was the task of choosing "a cabin and making their beds. After this was accomplished a hike in the woods and along the river took up the daylight hours, and as it got dark the girls prepared and ate their picnic supper in the lodge. There they enjoyed playing card games and ping pong while they lunched on pop corn and pop. Later they retired to their respective cabins for a slumber party.

Chaperoning for the party was the function of Mrs. Rosella Hopkins and Mrs. John Rinker.

Included as campers were: Jean Buss, Vickie McCoy, Maryann McCoy, Pat Pratt, Kathy Judge, Shirley Keller, Christine Moyer, Mary Jean Rinker, Rita Healy, Nancy Lonergan, and Donna Fitzgerald.

Also attending were: Kathy Collison, Kay Ellsberry, Linda Hopkins, Marcia Duffy, Sue Kane, Pat Keller, Judy Masterson, Judy Loehre, Sue Cooper, Sandra Roberts, Alice Carver, and Sharon Shuster.

BISHOP ASSIGNS DAYTON PARISH TO FATHER MACKE

After five years of faithful service as assistant pastor at Sacred Heart, Father Macke has been named pastor of the Christ The King Church at Dayton.

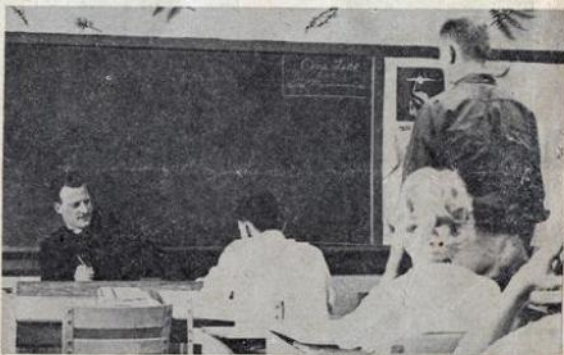

That he was to assume his duties as pastor there on May 16 was announced to Father Macke by the Most Rev. D. D. Mueller, Bishop of the Sioux City diocese.

During his five years at Boone Father Macke has taught religion classes and conducted a series of inquiry classes in addition to fulfilling his duties of assistant pastor.

At the farewell party held on May 14th Father Macke extended an invitation to the members of the Sacred Heart parish to visit him whenever they are near Dayton.

Filling Father Macke's position is now the task of Rev. Paul Bruening who previously was assistant pastor at Sacred Heart parish in Fort Dodge.

Father Bruening takes over religion classes.

SENIOR MUSIC STUDENTS TO PRESENT ORGAN, PIANO, AND VOCAL NUMBERS

For the presentation of the annual spring recital, senior members of the Sacred Heart music department diligently practiced for the important night of May 25.

Organists displayed their talents in a variety of numbers. Mary Bauler played "Father, Almighty, Bless Us With Thy Blessings," by Flemming. "Evening Star" by

Wagner was presented by Ellen Miller, and Paul Douroumis played "Neopolitan Song," by Tschalkowsky. Other numbers were given by Kevin Flanagan who played "Grand Procession" by Brahms. Sue Kane who presented "Gypsy Love Song," Kathy Havens who played "Romance," Alice Carver played and Linda Fleming presented "Love's Old Sweet Song."

Piano selections were also included in the program. "Matinata" was played by Ellen Miller. "Sabre Dance" was presented by Paul Douroumis. Judy Cook played "Whirling Leaves." "Winter Night" was done by Melodye Chance; Theresa Glockl did "At the Junior Prom"; Shirley Wiley played "From the Lighthouse Window"; Kathy Wheelock presented "Gypsy Life"; "Pifie and the Fairie" was done by Mary Margaret Mahoney; and "The Glider" was played by Mary Kane.

High school musicians played a number of other piano selections: Alice Carver, "Romance"; Kathy Havens, "Opening Theme," a piano concerto by Tschalkowsky; Paula Pestotnik, "Barcelle."

Singing six choral selections the girls glee club was also in the recital. Paul Douroumis accompanied the girls to "Bless This House" and "All in a Golden Afternoon."

In accompaniment to the remaining selections, Alice Carver played "Waltz of the Flowers," "Who's That Tapping at My Door," "Catch a Falling Star," and "Younger Than Springtime."
